If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this Form 12b-25 could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K and Form 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q and Form 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

During the fourth quarter of December 2005, the Company decided to sell its plastics segment. This determination required a reclassification of the plastics segment as a discontinued operation within the Company's consolidated financial statements and other financial data required in the Form 10-K. The sale of the plastics segment, including its employees, closed March 2, 2006. The lead-up to such sale required both corporate office employees and plastics segment employees to spend significant time and resources in completing the sale. Additionally, the buyer of this business was a newly formed entity which required significant time commitments from our former employees to get this new entity operational. As a result, there was a delay in the ability of the plastics segment to fully comply with all requested data from our auditors. Such delay has interfered with our auditor's ability to timely complete their audit procedures in conjunction with the plastics segment. As a result, the Company is unable to file, when due, its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. This delay could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. Pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company requests the fifteen-day extension relief provided for therein to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.
