This Amendment No.2 to Schedule 13D (this “Amendment”) amends the below-indicated items from the Schedule 13D with respect to the shares of common stock (the “Common Stock”) of Rosetta Stone Inc., (“RST” or the “Company”) previously filed by or on behalf of the Reporting Persons (as defined below), as previously amended (collectively, the “Schedule 13D”), by supplementing such Items with the information below.

The names of the persons filing this Amendment (collectively, the “Reporting Persons”) are: The D3 Family Fund, L.P. (the “Family Fund”), The D3 Family Bulldog Fund, L.P. (the “Bulldog Fund”), The DIII Offshore Fund, L.P. (the “Offshore Fund”), Nierenberg Investment Management Company, Inc. (“NIMCO”), Nierenberg Investment Management Offshore, Inc. (“NIMO”) and David Nierenberg (“Mr. Nierenberg”).

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

After the close of trading on August 21, Osmium Partners changed their filing status for their 9.95% ownership stake in Rosetta Stone (RST) from a passive 13G to an activist 13D.

We welcome Osmium’s conversion to active engagement in RST for these reasons:

1. While the D3 Funds are activists and generalists, investing in a number of different industries, Osmium focuses on internet commerce, social media, and digital marketing, where Osmium has deep expertise.
2. Recently Osmium has begun to engage more actively with a number of their portfolio companies. This summer their activism produced substantial change and stakeholder benefit at three of their portfolio companies: Kroger offered to buy Vitacost, where Osmium had placed a colleague on the board of directors; Realty offered to acquire ZipRealty, where Osmium had filed a 13D and worked to maximize stakeholder value; and Osmium’s slate of four directors won 88% of the votes cast for election to the board of Spark Networks and the board changed the focus and executive leadership of the company.
3. We expect that Osmium might bring similar passion, urgency, energy, and impact to matters of corporate governance, focus, and execution at RST. Our prior 13D’s demonstrate our belief that such changes are needed.

After our last filing, RST’s board chair and an independent member of the board reached out to us to discuss the suggestions made in our most recent 13D. We would characterize our relations and discussions with both directors as collaborative and constructive. Most of our conversation focused on possible changes in RST’s board of directors. We discussed the general attributes and experiences desirable in prospective additions to RST’s board, as well as the qualifications of several specific individuals whom we and Osmium had separately introduced to the company. We believe that forward progress has been, and is being, made.

We believe that a very significant number of RST shares are owned by shareholders who share our sense of urgency about the need for RST to sharpen its strategic focus and improve the quality of its execution as set forth in our 13D’s, to make changes in the composition of the board of directors, and to improve the quality of the company’s communications with the investment community. We believe that time is not the friend of any challenged company. Investor sentiment is crystallizing about the urgency for change at RST.
