Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Attornment Agreement

On December 13, 2005, we entered into an amendment to the attornment agreement dated as of August 1, 2005 between LBA Realty Fund-Holding Co. I, LLC and us, which attornment agreement governs the terms of the current sublease of our executive offices and research and development facilities in San Diego, California. The amendment is effective as of November 15, 2005. In August 2005, we were notified that our sublease was being terminated, and that we had the option to continue our occupancy as a direct tenant of LBA Realty Fund-Holding Co. through November 30, 2005, and continuing after such date on a month-to-month basis. Pursuant to an attornment agreement dated as of August 1, 2005, we elected to continue our occupancy pursuant to the sublease, as amended by the attornment agreement. The attornment agreement recognized the increase in the square footage to approximately 23,548 and corresponding cost under our sublease to approximately $28,257 and provided that the term of the sublease would expire on December 31, 2005, after which time it would convert to a month-to-month tenancy. The amendment to the attornment agreement extends the term of our sublease to January 31, 2006, at which time the sublease will terminate without provision for conversion to month-to-month tenancy. If we are not able to vacate our current space by January 31, 2006, the attornment agreement provides that rent payments will increase to $56,515, and we will also be liable for other costs of the landlord due to such holdover tenancy. All other terms of the sublease and the attornment agreement remain the same.

Sublease Agreement

On December 20, 2005, we entered into a sublease agreement with Anacomp, Inc., as sublandlord, to sublease approximately 23,698 rentable square feet of space located at 15378 Avenue of Science, San Diego, California 92118 for our principal executive offices. We will also be using such space for warehousing, product assembly, and research and development purposes.

The sublease is for a term commencing January 1, 2006 and expiring May 31, 2011. We have agreed to pay $29,622.50 per month (i.e., $1.25 per rentable square foot) during the term. In addition to the monthly base rental expense, we will be responsible for certain costs and charges specified in the sublease, including our proportionate share of the building operating expenses and real estate taxes.

In addition, the sublease provides that we have a right of first refusal on additional space in the building, which contains a total of 68,910 square feet including our premises. Anacomp will also provide a $10,000 tenant improvement allowance towards the completion of lobby improvements and a $50,000 letter of credit in our favor which we may draw upon to the extent necessary to offset any increase in our rent or relocation costs that we incur due to Anacomp's failure to maintain the lease with the master landlord for the building.

We have the right to terminate the sublease on or before December 27, 2005 in the event the master landlord fails to consent to the sublease by December 21, 2005.
