ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On November 14, 2006, Computerized Thermal Imaging, Inc. (the "Company") was required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") a Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2006 (the "Form 10-QSB"). Due to a lack of financial and operational resources, the Board of Directors of the Company concluded that the Company is unable to complete and file the Form 10-QSB as required.

To the extent that the Company obtains the financial and operational resources necessary to complete the Form 10-QSB and engage its independent public accountants to review the unaudited quarterly financial statements set forth in the Form 10-QSB, it currently intends to do so. Until such time that the Company is able to restore its compliance with reporting obligations under the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Company cautions that the financial and operational information available to the financial community, Company shareholders and the general public is incomplete and does not reflect the current operational and financial condition of the Company. The Company can provide no assurance that it will ever restore its compliance with the reporting obligations required under the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, trends and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Among those risks, trends and uncertainties are uncertainties regarding the Company's ability to raise additional capital to fund its operations and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Additional risks, trends and uncertainties, which could cause the Company's actual results to differ from those currently anticipated, and which should be given careful consideration, are identified in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the Year Ended June 30, 2006, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 29, 2006. The Company undertakes no duty to update or revise these forward-looking statements.
