On January 23, 2002, HEI issued the following news release:

HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES, INC. ANNOUNCES 2001 YEAREND EARNINGS

HONOLULU -- Hawaiian Electric Industries, Inc. (HEI) (NYSE - HE) announced 2001 net income from continuing operations of $107.7 million, or $3.19 per share compared with $109.3 million, or $3.36 per share for 2000. The Company's net income from continuing operations reflect strong results from the electric utilities and bank, offset by investment losses at the holding company.

"The downturn in Hawaii tourism post-September 11 continues to present challenges to maintaining earnings. We managed to meet these challenges in 2001 through cost containment efforts at the utility and active asset and liability management at the bank," said Robert F. Clarke, HEI chairman, president and chief executive officer.

Utility net income was up 1.2% to $88.3 million for 2001 from $87.3 million for 2000. "An increase in kilowatthour sales pre-September 11, a concerted effort to contain costs and continued productivity improvements helped the utility increase earnings in 2001," said Clarke.

Kilowatthour sales were up 1.1% in 2001 compared with 2000 largely due to warmer weather and a growing state economy pre-September 11. "Looking forward, we anticipate kilowatthour sales will increase by 1.1% in 2002, slightly greater than the growth in the state economy, which local economists expect will be about 0.6%. Supporting our outlook is the recent rebound in visitor counts, which have increased to approximately 90% of prior year levels as of December 31, 2001," said Clarke.

Purchased power costs were up in 2001 due to greater availability of purchased power in the supply mix as a result of shorter overhaul schedules and maintenance downtime by independent power producers. However, maintenance expenses were lower in 2001 due to ongoing cost management and completion of reliability improvements in 2000.

American Savings Bank posted solid results this year with net income growing 19.4% to $48.5 million versus $40.6 million in 2000. "American Savings Bank was able to execute several key investment sales in 2001 that generated $5.2 million in net income for the bank," said Clarke. "With the unprecedented 11 Federal Funds Rate cuts, there was some downward pressure on our interest rate spread. However, the sales and increased fee income helped propel the bank to record earnings."

Interest rate spread--the difference between yield on interest-earning assets and the rate paid on interest-bearing liabilities--was slightly lower for 2001 at 3.17%, compared with 3.20% for 2000. Average interest-earning assets increased slightly in 2001 to $5.6 billion.

Net income for 2001 was $83.7 million, or $2.48 per share, compared with $45.7 million, or $1.41 per share for 2000. Losses from discontinued operations for 2001 were $24.0 million or $0.71 per share, compared with $63.6 million or $1.95 per share for 2000 and primarily reflect charges related to the discontinuance of HEI's international power subsidiary in the third quarter of 2001.

HEI is the largest Hawaii-based company, providing electric utility services to 95% of Hawaii's residents and a full array of banking services to consumers and businesses through the state's third largest bank.
