3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The aggregate purchase price of the stock covered by this statement is $1,267,517.82. As of November 5, 2007 there was no margin loan balance outstanding for any Reporting Person.

4. Purpose of Transaction

The securities covered by this Statement were acquired for the purpose of investment. The Reporting Persons filing this Statement may decide, jointly or individually, to purchase additional shares of the Common Stock or other securities of the Issuer. In addition, the Reporting Persons, jointly or individually, may dispose of any or all securities of the Issuer in any manner permitted by applicable securities laws.

Mr. Seidman is a representative of the Reporting Persons and will attempt to meet with the Board of Directors of the Issuer and the Issuer's management to review ways to maximize shareholder value. The review includes conducting a comprehensive review and analysis of the value that could be achieved as an independent institution versus its value from a sale to a larger institution or a converting mutual institution. After his meeting with the Issuer's representatives Mr. Seidman will evaluate the position taken by the Issuer to determine his next course of action. Mr. Seidman is hopeful that the Board is receptive to an open discussion of all the available options.

Certain of the Reporting Persons were involved in a proxy contest seeking the election of directors to the Board of Directors of IBSF. These Reporting Persons conducted two proxy contests and during litigation with respect to the results of the second proxy contest, the management of IBSF agreed to sell the institution in a stock for stock transaction to Hubco Inc.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons were involved in two proxy contests involving Wayne Bancorp, Inc. The first proxy contest involved the approval of certain stock plans and option plans for the directors and senior management of Wayne. This proxy contest was resolved prior to a shareholder vote because the respective Reporting Persons agreed to vote for the stock plans and option plans and the Board of Directors of Wayne Bancorp, Inc. agreed to place a representative of the Reporting Persons on the Board. The second proxy contest involved election of directors. During this proxy contest the management of Wayne Bancorp, Inc. announced that Wayne, Bancorp, Inc. would be sold and therefore the Reporting Persons' representative withdrew from seeking election to the Board of Wayne Bancorp, Inc.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the common stock of 1st Bergen Bancorp, Inc. which company has been acquired by Kearney Federal Savings Bank.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Eagle BancGroup, Inc. ("EGLB") and informally notified the Company that they intended to solicit proxies for two director nominees in opposition to the two management director nominees at the 1999 annual meeting. On June 30, 1999, EGLB announced the sale of the Company to Busey Corporation.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Yonkers Financial Corp. ("YFCB") seeking representation on the Board of Directors of YFCB. In January 2000 certain of the Reporting Persons were involved in a proxy contest seeking to elect two directors to the YFCB Board in opposition to the three management directors. These Reporting Persons were not successful in connection with the proxy contest and the slate proposed by the YFCB management was re-elected. On November 14, 2001, Atlantic Bank of New York, a unit of National Bank of Greece S.A. agreed to acquire all the issued and outstanding YFCB shares for $29 per share.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of CNY Financial Corporation ("CNYF") requesting (i) Board representation and (ii) that CNYF maximize shareholder value. On February 25, 1999, Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons entered into an Agreement with CNYF, wherein CNYF agreed to increase the size of its Board of Directors by one and add Seidman as a Director. Seidman and the Members of the Committee involved agreed to certain restrictions. The material restrictions in this Agreement established the following undertakings: (i) to not acquire more than 9.9% of the outstanding CNYF stock before its year 2,000 Annual Meeting; (ii) to vote for the CNY stock option and restricted stock plan and amendments thereto; (iii) to not solicit proxies or submit proposals prior to the year 2000 Annual Meeting; (iv) to vote all shares in favor of Seidman and the two (2) Board Nominees at the 1999 Annual Meeting; and (v) not to do anything indirectly that it could not do directly. Seidman voted his shares in support of CNYF stock based compensation plans and he became a director of CNYF. On December 29, 1999, CNYF agreed to be acquired by Niagara Bancorp, Inc. for $18.75 cash for each CNYF share. The transaction closed on July 7, 2000.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of South Jersey Financial Corporation, Inc. ("SJFC") seeking representation on the Board of Directors of SJFC. Certain of the Reporting Persons were involved in a proxy contest seeking to elect two directors to the SJFC Board in opposition to the three management directors. On August 12, 1999, an Agreement was reached between SJFC and certain of the Reporting Persons which permitted Seidman and a second proposed Nominee to become directors of SJFC and for Seidman to become a director of South Jersey Savings and Loan Association, the banking subsidiary of SJFC. In addition the Reporting Persons agreed to support the stock option and restricted option plan to be proposed by SJFC at a Special Meeting. On March 15, 2000, SJFC agreed to be acquired by Richmond County Financial Corp. for $20.00 cash for each SFJC share. The transaction closed on July 31, 2000.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons conducted a proxy contest to (i) revoke an amendment to the By-Laws of First Federal Savings and Loan of East Hartford ("FFES"), and (ii) to amend two present provisions of the By-Laws of FFES. The Reporting Persons were successful with respect to both issues. The changes to the By-Laws were approved by the Office of Thrift Supervision on August 11, 2000. In the latter part of 2000, Mr. Seidman requested that FFES convene a Special Meeting of Shareholders to modify the By-Laws so that the Board of Directors could be enlarged from ten to thirteen members. On November 27, 2000, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons entered into an Agreement with FFES, whereby Mr. Seidman withdrew his request for a Special Shareholders' Meeting and FFES agreed to enlarge its Board by one, and add Mr. Seidman to the Board. In addition, there were other procedural requirements of the Agreement which were complied with by FFES and Mr. Seidman. On February 8, 2001, FFES was sold to Connecticut Bancshares, Inc. for cash at $37.50 per share for each FFES share. The transaction closed on August 31, 2001.

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Jade Financial Corporation ("IGAF"). On May 30, 2000, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons entered into a stock Option Agreement with PSB Bancorp, Inc. ("PSB") whereby PSB was given the right to purchase all of Mr. Seidman's controlled IGAF stock so long as PSB made an offer to buy all of the IGAF outstanding shares at the same price. On November 2, 2000, PSB announced the execution of the Definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger to acquire IGAF at $13.50 per share. On July 2, 2001 the merger by and between PSB and IGAF was completed. Prior thereto PSB consummated the purchase of Mr. Seidman's stock in accordance with the Option Agreement

In addition, certain of the Reporting Persons were involved in a proxy contest seeking election of two directors to the Board of Directors of Citizens First Financial Corp. ("CBK"). These Reporting Persons were not successful in connection with the proxy contest and the slate proposed by the CBK management was re-elected. However, Mr. Seidman was successful in having CBK conduct a "Dutch Auction" for 15% of its outstanding shares. Mr. Seidman had proposed this "Dutch Auction" and, in an Agreement with CBK, agreed to tender all the shares he controlled into the auction and to execute a Standstill Agreement. The "Dutch Auction" was oversubscribed and Mr. Seidman's shares were prorated in the same manner as the other CBK shareholders.

In addition, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons requested in connection with the Common Stock of Kankakee Bancorp, Inc. ("KNK") that the Board be increased by one and one Seidman representative be placed on the Board, and that KNK maximize shareholder value. The request was rejected by KNK. Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons conducted a proxy contest at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on April 26, 2002, seeking to elect two directors in opposition to the two directors proposed by the management of KNK. The Reporting Persons were not successful and the slate proposed by management was elected.

In addition, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons requested in connection with the Common Stock of Vista Bancorp, Inc. ("VBNJ") that the Board be increased by one, a Seidman representative be placed on the Board, and that VBNJ maximize shareholder value. The request was rejected by VBNJ. Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons conducted a proxy contest at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on April 26, 2001, seeking to elect three directors in opposition to the three directors proposed by the management of VBNJ. The reporting persons were not successful and the slate proposed by management was elected. On November 20, 2001, United National Bancorp (UNBJ) announced that it would acquire VBNJ for a fixed exchange ratio of 1.17 shares of UNBJ for each VBNJ share and $7.09 cash for a total consideration of $28.36 based upon the preceding days closing price for UNBJ. The transaction was completed on August 21, 2002.

On December 6, 2002, Michael A. Griffith was appointed to the KNK Board of Directors. His appointment was part of an agreement with an investor group led by Jeffrey L. Gendell, which owned approximately 9.8% of KNK's outstanding shares. On January 17, 2003, KNK announced, among other things the resignation of Larry Huffman, the President and Chief Executive Officer and the election of Mr. Griffith as the new KNK Chairman.

In addition, after Mr. Seidman in early March 2000 made a formal request to the Board of Directors of Ambanc Holding Co., Inc. ("AHCI") to be added to the Board. The size of the Board was increased and Mr. Seidman was added to the Board. Mr. Seidman agreed to and did support the re-election of AHCI's slate of directors at the Annual Meeting held on May 26, 2000. On September 4, 2001, AHCI agreed to be sold to Hudson River Bancorp for $21.50 per share for all of AHCI's outstanding shares.

On January 10, 2003, certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D with respect to Central Bancorp, Inc. ("CEBK"). The Reporting Persons were involved in litigation relating to their ownership of stock in CEBK. CEBK filed a complaint in the Federal District Court of Massachusetts against certain of the Reporting Persons and others alleging, among other things, that the defendants in that action formed a "group" for the purposes of Section 13[d] of the Exchange Act and violated that provision when they failed to file appropriate schedules with the Securities and Exchange Commission. On January 30, 2003, these entities filed a complaint with the Business Litigation Session of the Massachusetts Superior Court seeking to restrain the board of directors of CEBK from taking certain action arising out of the alleged "group" status of the defendants in the Federal Court action. The Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts granted these entities and others preliminary injunctive relief on February 3, 2003. The Massachusetts Federal District Court entered an order setting a trial date in May, 2003 and extending the preliminary injunction granted by the Superior Court until a decision on the merits by the Federal Court. On May 14, 2003, the respective Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D disclosing the sale of all their CEBK stock. Thereafter, Superior Court Judge Allan van Gestal issued an opinion which held that because of the sale by the respective Reporting Persons of all their CEBK stock, the issues in the complaint were now moot. The Federal Complaint was dismissed shortly thereafter.

In addition, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons requested in connection with the Common Stock of GA Financial, Inc. ("GAF") that the Board be increased by one, that someone selected by Seidman be placed on the Board, and that GAF maximize shareholder value. The request was rejected by GAF. Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons conducted a proxy contest seeking election of one director to the Board of Directors of GAF. These Reporting Persons were not successful in connection with the proxy contest and the slate proposed by the GAF management was elected. On June 11, 2003, Mr. Seidman filed a complaint in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware In and For New Castle County against GAF and John M. Kish, GAF's Chief Executive Officer seeking to have the election of Mr. Kish to the GAF Board at the 2003 Annual Meeting deemed invalid and declaring that Mr. Seidman was properly elected to the GAF Board at the 2003 Annual Meeting. (See GAF Schedule 13D Amendment No. 3 filed on June 17, 2003 for full details of the Complaint.) Mr. Seidman was not successful in connection with this litigation. The Court refused to invalidate the election results. On December 12, 2003 the Bank was sold to First Commonwealth Financial Corporation for $35.00 in cash or an equivalent value in stock.

In addition, Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons requested in connection with the Common Stock of United National Bancorp ("UNBJ") that the Board be increased by one, that someone selected by Seidman be placed on the Board, and that UNBJ maximize shareholder value. The request was rejected by UNBJ. Mr. Seidman and certain of the Reporting Persons conducted a proxy contest at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on May 20, 2003, seeking to elect one director in opposition to the six directors proposed by the management of UNBJ. The reporting persons were not successful and the slate proposed by management was elected. On or about May 8, 2003, Mr. Seidman filed suit against UNBJ and all the UNBJ directors seeking to have the UNBJ directors who ran for re-election at the 2003 Annual Meeting and all the other UNBJ Directors deemed to be ineligible to seek re-election because as alleged their re-election to the Board would violate UNBJ's Director Qualification By-Law provision. The Defendants filed a Motion To Dismiss the Complaint for Failure to State a Cause of Action. An Order granting the Motion To Dismiss was entered on July 15, 2003. On August 21, 2003 PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. agreed to buy UNBJ for $33.89 per share in cash or PNC stock.

In addition certain of the Reporting Persons have filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of First Federal Bancshares, Inc. ("FFBI"). On April 16, 2004, FFBI commenced a self-tender offer for the purchase of up to 560,000 shares. On May 28, 2004, FFBI announced that it purchased 559,993 shares at $33.50 per share. Since the number of shares tendered exceeded the number of shares that FFBI had offered to purchase, FFBI only purchased 66.41% of the tendered shares. The Reporting Persons tendered shares which reduced the amount of shares owned by the Reporting Persons to below 5% of FFBI's outstanding shares thereby terminating any future Schedule 13D filing requirements.

On October 24, 2002 certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Alliance Bancorp of New England, Inc. ("ANE"). On July 15, 2003 ANE agreed to merge with New Alliance Bancshares ("NAB") whereby ANE Common Stock would be converted into and become exchangeable for, at the election of the shareholder, $25.00 in NAB shares, or 2.5 shares of NAB Common Stock based on the expected $10.00 conversion offering price per share.

In or about May 2005, certain of the Reporting Persons ran a vote "No" Campaign against the SE Financial Corp. (SEFL) attempt to seek approval for its 2005 Stock Option Plan. On the date of the Annual Meeting, on which the Stock Option Plan was to be voted on by shareholders, SEFL withdrew the plan from shareholder consideration. The Seidman Entities never owned more than 4.9% of SEFL therefore, no Schedule 13D was filed.

On April 13, 2005, certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Interchange Financial Services Corporation (IFCJ). On June 28, 2005 Seidman sent Mr. Abbate, IFCJ's President and Chief Executive Office a letter outlining his thoughts on maximizing shareholder value and detailing certain issues he thought management and the Board should address. On December 9, 2005, Mr. Seidman notified IFCJ that he was nominating two (2) directors to run against the candidates to be proposed by IFCJ at the next annual meeting. While litigation concerning issues related to the annual meeting was pending, IFCJ, on April 13, 2006, agreed to be purchased by T.D. Banknorth Inc. for $23 a share, in cash.

On November 16, 2004 certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Bridge Street Financial, Inc. (OCNB). Mr. Seidman requested a meeting with management to discuss how best to maximize shareholder value. On January 6, 2005, Mr. Seidman met with senior management, a director and OCNB's investment advisor. Mr. Seidman had requested representation on the OCNB Board of Directors. At OCNB's September 21, 2005 Annual Meeting, Mr. Seidman's representative was added to the board. On April 24, 2006, Alliance Financial Corporation (ALNC) agreed to acquire OCNB for 25% cash and 75% in ALNC stock. OCNB shareholders will be able to elect to receive either $23.06 in cash or ALNC stock at a fixed exchange ratio of 0.7547 ALNC shares for each OCNB share, or a combination thereof.

On July 24, 2004, certain of the Reporting Persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Yardville National Bancorp (YANB). After the filing of the Schedule 13D, Mr. Seidman had meetings with several

Board members and senior management of YANB. On February 18, 2005 YANB retained Seidman as an independent paid consultant to help YANB explore planning, acquisition and growth opportunities. In November 2005, Mr. Seidman notified YANB, that in his opinion, YANB had breached the consulting agreement and that the consulting agreement was no longer valid. Mr. Seidman or an entity affiliated with him nominated three directors to run against the YANB candidates at the 2006 annual meeting. A litigation was commenced in the Superior Court of New Jersey which sought various forms of relief pertinent to the size and composition of the Board of Directors, as well as relief with respect to actions taken that are claimed to make Mr. Seidman ineligible for election to the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting on May 3, 2006, the Reporting Persons were not successful, and the slate proposed by management was elected. On February 8, 2007, Honorable Judge McVeigh issued a final decision in the litigation prosecuted by SAL against YANB and its Directors. Such decision found that the Directors had breached their fiduciary duty; and, as a result, certain attorneys' fees were assessed against the individual Directors. In addition, YANB was ordered to reimburse Mr. Seidman for the cost of the 2006 Proxy Contest. On March 20, 2007, Honorable Judge McVeigh issued an Opinion and Order in connection with a second litigation commenced by Mr. Seidman to require YANB to hold its annual meeting within 13 months of YANB's last annual meeting. The Court ordered YANB to conduct its Annual Meeting on July 12, 2007. Judge McVeigh found that Mr. Seidman's complaint established a derivative action, and the Company's scheduling of its Annual Meeting on August 16, 2007 violated New Jersey Statute N.J.S.A 14A:5-2. On June 7, 2007, PNC Financial Services Group Inc. agreed to purchase YANB for $35 a share ($14 per share cash and .2923 shares of PNC stock for each YANB share.) On June 6, 2007 Lawrence B. Seidman entered into a Non-Interference Agreement with The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. and a Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release with Yardville National Bancorp and its directors. On October 26, 2007 the PNC-YANB merger was completed.

On June 27, 2006 certain reporting persons filed a Schedule 13D in connection with the Common Stock of Center Bancorp, Inc. (CNBC). After the filing of the Schedule 13D, Mr. Seidman met with Mr. John J. Davis, CNBC's President and Chief Executive Officer, to discuss, among other things, increasing the size of the board by one and adding Mr. Seidman to the board. Mr. Seidman was also interviewed by CNBC's Nominating Committee. CNBC and Seidman were not able to reach an agreement and Mr. Seidman conducted a proxy contest seeking to elect himself and two additional candidates for the four board seats available. At the CNBC 2007 Annual Meeting, Mr. Seidman was successful and his candidates and he were elected to the CNBC board on May 15, 2007.

In addition, the Reporting Persons' reserve the right to exercise any and all of their respective rights as stockholders of the Issuer in a manner consistent with their equity interests.

(b) A Member's interest in the Company shall be represented by the percentage interest held by such Member. Each Member's respective initial interest in the Company is set forth opposite his/her name on Exhibit B attached hereto.

6.2 No Member shall have the right to withdraw any part of his Capital Contribution or receive any distribution, except in accordance with the provisions of this Operating Agreement. No interest shall be paid on any Capital Contribution.

6.3 No Member shall have any priority over any other Member with respect to the return of Capital Contributions.

6.4 The Company shall maintain a capital account (a "Capital Account") for each Member within the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1 (b) (2) (iv) as such regulation may be amended from time to time. Exhibit C

(c) Upon the transfer of an interest in the Company, the Capital Account of the transfer Member (as adjusted, if at all, as required by this Section 6.4) that is attributable to the transferred interest will be carried over to the transferee Member. The Capital Account will not be adjusted to reflect any adjustment under Section 743 of the Code except as specifically provided in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1 (b) (2) (iv) (m). Upon (i) the "liquidation of the Company" (as hereinafter defined), (ii) the "liquidation of a Member's interest in the Company" (as hereinafter defined), (iii) the distribution of money, property or securities to a Member as consideration for an interest in the Company, or (iv) the contribution of money or (if permitted pursuant to (a) above) property and/or securities to the Company by a new or existing Member as consideration for an interest in the Company, or upon any transfer causing a termination of the Company for tax purposes within the meaning of Section 708(b) (1) (B) of the Code, then adjustments shall be made to the Members' Capital Accounts in the following manner: all property and securities of the Company which are not sold in connection with such event shall be valued at their then fair market value; such fair market value shall be used to determine both the amount of gain or loss which would have been recognized by the Company if the property and securities had been sold for its fair market value (subject to any debt secured by the property and securities) at such time, and the amount of Income, which would have been distributable by the Company pursuant to Article 9 if the property and securities had been sold at such time for said fair market value, less the amount of any debt secured by the property; the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be adjusted to reflect the deemed allocation of such hypothetical gain or loss in accordance with Article 10; and the Capital Accounts of the Members (or of a transferee of a Member) shall thereafter be adjusted to reflect "book items" and not "tax items" in accordance with Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-1 (b) (2) (iv) (g) and 1.704-1 (b) (4) (i).

(d) For purposes of this Article 6, (i) the term "liquidation of the Company" shall mean (A) a termination of the Company effected in accordance with this Operating Agreement, which shall be deemed to occur, for purposes of Article 6, on the date upon which the Company ceases to be a going concern and is continued in existence solely to wind-up its affairs, or (B) a termination of the Company pursuant to Section 708(b)(1) of the Code; and (ii) the term "liquidation of a Member's interest in the Company" shall mean the termination of the Member's entire interest in the Company effected by a distribution, or a series of distributions, by the Company to the Member.

ARTICLE 7

7.1 No Member shall be obligated to make additional capital contributions to the Company. If the Managing Member, with the concurrence of Members holding a majority in interest of the Company, shall determine there shall be a Required Amount for any Company purpose, including, without limitation, those purposes set forth in Article 5, then within fifteen (15) days of notice of such requirement, each Member may, but shall not be obligated to, contribute to the Company his Additional Contribution.

7.2 If a Member fails to make his Additional Contribution, in whole or in part, as required in Section 7.1 above (the "Noncontributing Member"), then, so long as any other Member shall make his Additional Contribution as provided herein (each such Member making his Additional Contribution being hereinafter referred to as "Contributing Member"), any Contributing Member shall have the option (a) with the consent of a majority in interest of the Contributing Members (i) to make a capital contribution equal to the Additional Contribution not made by the Noncontributing Member or (ii) to make a Default Loan equal to the Additional Contribution not made by the Noncontributing Member or (b) with the unanimous written consent of each Contributing Member, to declare the Company terminated as a result of the Noncontributing Member's default. In the event that more than one Contributing Member desires to make an Additional Contribution, or is permitted to make a Default Loan, on account of the Noncontributing Member, each such Contributing Member shall be permitted to participate in proportion to their respective Interests. All loans made pursuant to this Section 7.2 shall bear interest at the Default Rate.

7.3 Upon the making of a capital contribution to the Company pursuant to Section 7.2, the Interest of the Noncontributing Member and the Contributing Members shall be adjusted as follows: (a) the Noncontributing Member's Interest shall be decreased (but not below zero) by subtracting therefrom an amount equal to the percentage equivalent of the quotient of (i) the Additional Contribution not made by the Noncontributing Member giving rise to application of this Section 7.3 multiplied by (A) 200% upon the first failure of the Noncontributing Member to make an Additional Contribution, (B) 300% upon the second such failure and (C) 400% upon the third such failure, divided by (ii) the aggregate amount of all Capital Contributions made by the Members (including the Additional Contributions received by the Company), and (b) the Contributing Members' Interest shall be increased by adding thereto an amount equal to the percentage by which the Noncontributing Member's Interest was decreased pursuant to clause (a) above. Upon the fourth and each subsequent failure of the Noncontributing Member to make an Additional Contribution giving rise to the application of this Section 7.3, a majority-in-interest of the Contributing Members shall have the option, exercisable in their sole discretion, to cause the remaining Interest of the Noncontributing Member to be forfeited and allocated to the Contributing Members or to continue re-allocating the Interests of the Noncontributing Member and Contributing Members as provided in the preceding sentence except that the percentage multiple set forth in clause (i) (C) shall be increased 100% for each failure of the Noncontributing Member to make an Additional Contribution. An example of the operation of this Section 7.3 with respect to a re-allocation of Interests upon the first failure of a Noncontributing Member to make an Additional Contribution, is set forth in Schedule B attached hereto.

7.4 The obligations of the Members contained in this Section 7 are personal and run only to the benefit of the Company and the Members and may not be enforced by any third parties. No creditor of the Company may rely on the foregoing provisions of this Article 7 or any other provision of this Operating Agreement to make any contributions or returns to the Company, notwithstanding any agreement, representation, intention, indication or otherwise to the contrary.

ARTICLE 8 CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

8.1 The Company shall distribute Income to the Members at such times as the Company shall determine (but not less often than quarterly), in the following order of priority:

(a) first, to any Member who made a Default Loan, to the payment of accrued and unpaid interest, and the then outstanding principal balance of, any Default Loan, such distribution to be proportion to the aggregate amount of interest, and the principal, owed. If more than one Member participates in the making of a Default Loan, then distributions to such Members on account of this Section 8.1(a) shall be made in proportion to the amounts so loaned. If there shall be more than one instance in which a Default Loan has been made, then Default Loans shall be repaid in the order in which they shall have been outstanding the longest;

Exhibit C

- (c) next, to the Members in an amount sufficient to give them a ten percent (10%) return compounded annually on the aggregate of their Capital Contributions and Additional Contributions;
- (d) next, to Sonia Seidman and the Managing Member in an amount sufficient to pay to them, in the aggregate, up to twenty percent (20%) of the net annual profits of the Company for each year calendar that the Company is in existence to be paid 5% to the Managing Member and 15% to Sonia Seidman; and
- (e) the balance, if any, shall be distributed to the Members in proportion to their Interests.

8.2 Notwithstanding Section 8.1, Net Proceeds from a Capital Transaction which constitutes a liquidation of the Company, together with other funds remaining to be distributed, shall be distributed to the Members no later than the later of (a) the end of the taxable year of the Company in which such liquidation occurs; or (b) within ninety (90) days after the date of such liquidation event, after payment of all Company liabilities and expenses (or adequate provision therefor), in accordance with Section 9.1, except that in no event shall (x) a distribution be made to any Member if, after giving effect to such distribution, all liabilities of the Company, other than liabilities to Members on account of their Interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors of the Company is limited to specified property of the Company, exceed the fair value of the assets of the Company, except that the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in the assets of the Company only to the extent that the fair value of the property exceeds that liability and (y) the distribution to a Member exceed the positive balance in such Member's Capital Account after giving effect to all allocations to such Member under Article 9 of Net Profits, Net Losses, and Gain and Loss from Capital Transactions so that liquidation proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with each Member's positive Capital Account balance (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b) as in effect on the date hereof). If a members shall receive a distribution that should not have been made based upon the provisions of Section 8.2 (x), the provisions of Section 42:2B-42 (b) of the act shall apply . ARTICLE 9
TAX ALLOCATIONS

10.1 Net Profits, Net Losses and any investment tax credit for each fiscal year or part thereof shall be allocated to the Members in proportion to their Interests.

10.2 Gain from a Capital Transaction shall be allocated in the following order:

- (a) There shall first be allocated to those Members, if any, who have deficit balances in their Capital Accounts immediately prior to such Capital Transaction an amount of such gain equal to the aggregate amount of such deficit balances, which amount shall be allocated in the same proportion as such deficit balances.
- (b) There shall next be allocated to each of the Members gain in proportion to (but not greater than) the amount by which (x) the amount of Net Losses theretofore allocated to each

Exhibit C

Member and not theretofore taken into account under this Section 9.2(b), exceeds (y) the gain allocated to such Member under Section 9.2(a).

(c) There shall next be allocated to each of the Members gain equal to the amount by which (x) the aggregate proceeds derived from a Capital Transaction distributable to each Member in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.1 or 8.2 other than with respect to Default Loans, as the case may be, exceeds (y) the positive balance, if any, in such Member's Capital Account after such Member's Capital Account has been adjusted to reflect the gain allocated to such Member pursuant to Sections 9.2(a) and 9.2(b); provided, however, that if there shall be an insufficient amount of gain determined by this Section 9.2(c), then the gain shall be allocated to the Members in proportion to the respective amounts determined pursuant to this Section 9.2(c).

(d) Any remaining gain shall be allocated among the Members in proportion to their Interests.

(e) If the Company shall realize, upon a Capital Transaction, gain which is treated as ordinary income under Sections 1245 or 1250 of the Code, such ordinary income shall be allocated to the Members who receive the allocation of the depreciation or cost recovery deduction that generated the ordinary income in the same proportions as such deductions.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, distributions of Income made to a Member for interest and in repayment of the principal on any Default Loan shall not be treated as Income for the purpose of allocating gain pursuant to this Section 9.2 or for any other purpose. Any interest on a Default Loan shall be treated as a "guaranteed payment" for purposes of Section 707(c) of the Code.

10.3 Losses from Capital Transactions shall be allocated in the following order:

(a) There shall first be allocated to those Members, if any, whose positive balances in their Capital Accounts exceed their Unrecovered Additional Contributions, an amount of such loss equal to such excess amount, which amount shall be allocated in the same proportion as such excess amounts.

(b) There shall next be allocated to those Members, if any, that have positive balances in their Capital Accounts, an amount of such loss equal to the aggregate amount of such positive balances, which amount shall be allocated in the same proportion as such positive balances.

(c) The balance of such loss shall be allocated to the Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests.

10.4 Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article 10:

(a) Except as provided in sub-section (e) below, no allocation of loss or deduction shall be made to a Member if such allocation would cause at the end of any taxable year a deficit in such Member's Adjusted Capital Account to exceed his allocable share of Minimum Gain; and any such loss or deduction not allocated to a Member by reason of this Section 9.4 shall be allocated pro-rata to each other Member if and to the extent that such allocation shall not create a deficit in such other Member's Adjusted Capital Account in excess of his allocable share of Minimum Gain; provided, however, that if such allocation would create such deficit in all Members'

Exhibit C

Adjusted Capital Accounts in excess of their share of Minimum Gain, then such allocation shall be made in accordance with the principles of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b).

(b) If, during any taxable year, there is a net decrease in Minimum Gain then, before any other allocations are made for such year, each Member shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) in an amount equal to each Member's share of the net decrease in Company Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g)(2)) in a manner so as to satisfy the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(f).

(c) If, during any taxable year, there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain Attributable to Member to Member Nonrecourse Debt, then, before any other allocations are made for such year other than those pursuant to Section 9.4(b) above, each Member with a share of the Company Minimum Gain Attributable to Member Nonrecourse Debt at the beginning of the year shall be allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, for subsequent years) in an amount equal to each Member's share of the net decrease in Minimum Gain Attributable to Member Nonrecourse Debt as determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4) in a manner so as to satisfy the requirements of said Treasury Regulation.

(d) If during any taxable year a Member unexpectedly receives (i) a distribution of cash or property from the Company or (ii) an adjustment or allocation described in either Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4) as in effect on the date hereof (concerning depletion allowances with respect to oil and gas properties) or Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1 (b) (2) (ii) (d) (5) as in effect on the date hereof (concerning allocations of loss and deduction in interests change during the year, if an interest is acquired by gift or if a Member receives certain Company property in redemption of part or all his interest), and if such adjustment, allocation or distribution would cause at the end of the taxable year a deficit balance in such Member's adjusted capital account in excess of his allocable share of Minimum Gain, then a pro-rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for such taxable year (and, if necessary, subsequent taxable years) shall be allocated to such Member in an amount and in a manner sufficient to eliminate such excess balance as quickly as possible before any other allocation is made for such year other than pursuant to Section 9.4(b) above so as to satisfy the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b) (2) (ii) (d) (qualified income offset).

(e) To the extent required by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i) (1), Member Nonrecourse Debt Deductions for any taxable year shall be allocated to the Member (or Members) who bear(s) the economic risk of loss of such Member Nonrecourse Debt.

(f) In the event that any allocation is or has been made to a Member pursuant to Sections 9.4(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above, subsequent items of income, deduction, gain and loss shall be allocated before any other allocations are made (subject to the provisions of said Sections) to the Members in the manner which would result in each Member having a Capital Account balance equal to what it would have been had the allocation pursuant to said Sections.

(g) Upon the occurrence of an event described in Section 6.4(c), all Company property shall be revalued on the Company's books at fair market value, Capital Accounts will be adjusted in accordance with Section 6.4 (c), and subsequent allocations of taxable income, gain, loss and deductions shall, solely for tax purposes, be made necessary so as to take account of the variation between the adjusted tax basis and the fair market value of such property in accordance with Section 704 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(h) For the purposes of this Article, each Member's "Adjusted Capital Account" shall equal the Capital Account of each Member (1) reduced at the end of each taxable year by the sum of (x) the excess of distributions reasonable expected to be made to such Member over the offsetting increases to such Member's Member's Capital Account reasonably expected to be made in the same taxable year as the aforesaid distributions, (y) adjustments expected to be made to such Member's Capital Account described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b) (2) (ii) (d) (4) as in effect on the date hereof (concerning depletion allowances with respect to oil and gas properties), and (z) allocations expected to be made described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1 (b) (2) (ii) (d) (5) as in effect on the date hereof (concerning allocations of loss and deduction if Interests change during the year, if an Interest is acquired by gift or if a Member receives certain Company property in redemption of part or all of his Interest in the Company), and (2) increased by the sum of (i) the amount, if any, which the Member is obligated to restore the Company upon liquidation of his Interest if a deficit balance exists in his Capital Account at such time, (ii) the outstanding principal balance of any promissory note made by such Member and contributed to the company if such note is not readily tradable on an established securities market and if such note must be satisfied within ninety (90) days after the date said Member's Interest is liquidated and (iii) the sum of (a) the amount the Member would be personally liable for either as a Member or in his individual capacity as a guarantor or otherwise, and (b) the economic risk of loss the Member would bear attributable to any Company liability (as determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.752-2).

(i) In accordance with Section 704(b) and (c) of the Code and Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company (including all or part of any deemed capital contribution under Section 708 of the Code) shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company and its agreed value. In the event that Capital Accounts are ever adjusted pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b) (2) to reflect the fair market value of any Company property, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset and its value as adjusted in the same manner as required under Section 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder.

(j) The allocations provided in this Section 10.4 are intended to comply with the provisions of Section 704(b) of the Code and the regulations thereunder. However, if any such allocation causes a distortion in the Members' Interest in contravention of the Members' economic arrangement as reflected in Article 6, the Company has the authority to make curative allocations to bring such allocations in accordance with such Member's Interest, as if such allocations which caused the distortion had not occurred and to bring such allocations in compliance with Section 794(b) of the Code and regulations thereunder.

10.4 The fact that the Members are directly or indirectly interested in or connected with any person, firm or corporation employed by the Company to render or perform a service, or from which or whom the Company may buy merchandise, material or other property shall not prohibit the Company from employing such persons, firms or corporations, or from otherwise dealing with him under such reasonable terms and conditions as the Company may determine.

17.1 (a) No Member shall have the right to assign, convey, sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber his/her/its Interest, whether record or beneficial interest thereof, without the prior written consent of the Company. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, but subject to the restrictions on transferability required by law, or set forth in any instrument or agreement by which the Company may be bound, or which may be contained in this Operating Agreement, an individual Member, if any, may, without any consent, assign, convey, sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of all or any portion of his interest in the Company to any one or more of the members of his/her immediate family or families (defined for the purposes of this Operating Agreement as a mother, father, sister, brother, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter or spouse (in each instance whether by marriage or otherwise)) and/or a trust or other entity for the benefit thereof or themselves, by a written instrument of assignment and assumption, provided that the instrument of transfer provides for the assumption of the assignor's liabilities and obligations hereunder and has been duly executed by the assignor of such interest and by the transferee. The Member shall notify the Company of any assignment, transfer or disposition of a beneficial interest in any interest of the Member which occurs without a transfer of record ownership, although such notification, or the absence of a response thereto, shall not be deemed a consent thereof.

(b) An assignee or transferee of any portion of the interest of the Member shall be entitled to receive allocations and distributions attributable to the interest acquired by reason of such assignment from and after the effective date of the assignment of such interest to such assignee; however, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall be entitled to treat the assignor of such interest of the Member as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability for allocations of net income, net losses, or gain or loss on sale of Company property, or transmittal of reports and notices required to be given to Members hereunder which are made in good faith to such assignor until such time as the written assignment has been received by the Company, approved and recorded on its books and the effective date of the assignment has passed. Provided that the Company has actual notice of any assignment of the interest of the Member, the effective date of such assignment on which the assignee shall be deemed an assignee of record shall be the date set forth on the written instrument of assignment.

(c) Any assignment, sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition in contravention of any of the provisions of this Article 17 and Article 18 hereof shall be void and ineffective and shall not bind or be recognized by the Company.

(d) In the event that there shall be more than one assignee, transferee, representative or other successor in interest as permitted herein (collectively, the "Transferees") and the

Exhibit C

Member as of the date of this Operating Agreement shall remain a Member, then the Member shall be authorized to act, and shall so act, on behalf of the Member and all of the Transferees acting as such by, through or under the Member. The Member, if the first sentence of this paragraph shall be applicable, or the person so noted to the Company, if the second sentence of this paragraph shall be applicable, shall be authorized to act, and shall so act, for all of the Transferees, all of whom shall be bound by any decision or action taken by such person, and the Company, the Company and all of the other Members, shall be entitled to rely on the decisions or actions taken by such person. Until the Company shall be advised as to the identity of such person, (i) the Transferees shall be entitled only to distributions and tax allocations as provided in Article 8 and 9 hereof, but shall have no right, power or authority with respect to any decision making reserved herein to the Members or any of them and (ii) wherever in this Operating Agreement provision shall be made for the Members to make decisions with respect to Company matters, the interests of the Member, as transferred to the Transferees, shall not be included in determining whether the requisite interest of members have consented to or approved of such decision.

17.2 Without the prior written consent of all Members and other than as provided in Section 6.1(b) above, a Member may not resign from the Company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the Company.

18.2 As a condition to the admission of any substituted Member, as provided in Article 17 hereof, the person so to be admitted shall execute and acknowledge such instruments, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, as a majority in interest of the Members may deem necessary or desirable to effectuate such admission and to confirm the agreement of the person to be admitted as a Member to be bound by all of the covenants, terms and conditions of this Operating Agreement, as the same may have been amended.

18.3 Any person to be admitted as a member pursuant to the provisions of this Operating Agreement shall, as a condition to such admission as a Member, pay all reasonable expenses in connection with such admission as a Member, including, but not limited to, the cost of the preparation, filing and publication of any amendment to this Operating Agreement and/or Certificate of Formation.

Such event, however, shall cause a termination or dissolution of the Company within one hundred twenty (120) days of such event unless a majority in interest of the Members shall elect to continue the Company within said one hundred twenty (120) day period.

18.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Operating Agreement, no sale or exchange of an interest in the Company may be made if the interest sought to be sold or exchanged, when added to the total of all other interests sold or exchanged within the period of twelve (12) consecutive months prior thereto, results in the termination of the Company under Section 708 of the Code without the prior written consent of a majority in interest of the Members.

18.6 In the event of a permitted transfer of all or part of the interest of a Member, the Company shall, if requested, file an election in accordance with Section 754 of the Code or a similar provision enacted in lieu thereof, to adjust the basis of the Property of the Company. The Member requesting said election shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Company in connection therewith.

The liquidation trustee (which may be a Member) shall be entitled to establish reserves to provide for any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company.

19.5 With respect to distributions to Members, said distributions shall be made:

(a) first, to the repayment of any accrued and unpaid interest on, and the then outstanding principal balance of, any Default Loan, in proportion to the aggregate amount of interest, and then principal, owed, and if more than one Member shall have made a Default Loan, then in proportion to the amounts so loaned. If there shall be more than one instance in which a Default loan has been made, the Default loans shall be repaid in the order in which they shall have been outstanding the longest;

(b) second, to the payment of an obligation owed pursuant to Section 11.3 (c).

(c) third, to all Members in proportion to and to the extent of any remaining positive balances in such Member's Capital Account after giving effect to all locations to such Member under Article 10 of this Operating Agreement so that liquidation proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with each Member's positive Capital Account balance (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b) (2) (ii) (b) as in effect on the date hereof); and

C 60%

(b) The aggregate capital contributions made by the Members in proportion to their respective interests is $2,000,000.

(c) The Company requires additional funds of $1,000,000.

(d) A and B each contribute their Additional Contributions to the Company ($100,000 and $300,000, respectively) and C fails to contribute his Additional Contribution ($600,000).

(e) B contributes C's Additional Contribution to Company.

The amount that C's Interest is decreased and the amount that B's Interest is increased is computed as follows:

(i) Multiply the amount of the contribution not made by C ($600,000) by 200% resulting in a product of $1,200,000;

(iii) Convert the product arrived at in computation (ii) above (.40) to a percentage (by multiplying the same by 100) resulting in 40%. Subtract such percentage from the Company Interest of C (40%) resulting in a new Interest for C of 20%; and

(iv) Increase the Interest of B (30%) by adding thereto the same Percentage that was subtracted from Member C (40%) resulting in a new Interest for B of 70%.

(iii) If the Incentive Allocation pursuant to clause (ii) above from the beginning of the Fiscal Year exceeds twenty (20%) percent of the Net Profits of the Fiscal Year, such excess amount shall be re-allocated to the Limited Partners in proportion to their respective Capital Accounts..

(b) Net Loss of the Partnership for any Fiscal Year shall be debited against the Capital Account of each Partner in proportion to and in accordance with the balance in the Capital Account of such Partner until the value of any Partner's Capital Account becomes zero. Thereafter, any remaining Net Loss for such Fiscal Year shall be debited to Partners having positive balances in their Capital Accounts in proportion to those balances, until the value of each Partner's Capital Account becomes zero. Thereafter, any remaining Net Loss for such Fiscal Year shall be debited to the Capital Account of the General Partner.

(c) Anything in this Section 9 to the contrary notwithstanding, if any Net Losses are allocated to the Capital Account of any Limited Partner, such Limited Partner shall be entitled to a "Recoupment Allocation" of subsequent Net Profits of the Partnership, in an amount in proportion to such Partner's Partnership Percentage, until such Net Loss shall have been eliminated. The amount of Net Profits allocated as a Recoupment Allocation shall not exceed, but shall reduce, the amount of Net Profits otherwise allocable to the General Partner as the Incentive Allocation pursuant to Section 9(a) (ii) hereof. If a Limited Partner who is entitled to a Recoupment Allocation shall withdraw any portion of such Partner's Capital Account, the amount of Recoupment Allocation to which such Partner is entitled shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of capital withdrawn.

(d) The amount of any withdrawal made by a Partner pursuant to Section 20 or Section 21 of this Agreement shall be debited against the Capital Account of such Partner.

10. New Issues.

In the event the General Partner decides to invest in securities which are the subject of a public distribution and which constitute a “new issue” as such term is defined in Rule 2790(i)(9) of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the “Association”), such investment shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) any such investment made in a particular Fiscal Period shall be made in a special account (the “New Issues Account”);
- (b) only those Partners who are not “restricted persons” as defined in Rule 2790(i)(10) of the Association or who are not otherwise prohibited by Rule 2790 from acquiring a beneficial interest in a new issue (“Unrestricted Partners”) shall have any beneficial interest in the New Issues Account;
- (c) each Unrestricted Partner shall have a beneficial interest in the New Issues Account for any Fiscal Period in the proportion which (i) a such Unrestricted Partner’s Capital Account as of the beginning of the Fiscal Period bore to (ii) the sum of the Capital Accounts of all Unrestricted Partners as of the beginning of such Fiscal Period.
- (d) Funds required to make a particular investment shall be transferred to the New Issues Account from the regular account of the Partnership; securities involved in the public distribution shall be purchased in the New Issues Account, held in the New Issues Account and eventually sold from the New Issues Account or transferred to the regular account at fair market value as of the day of transfer as determined by the General Partner with such transfer being treated as a sale; if such securities are sold from the New Issues Account, the proceeds of the sale shall be transferred from the New Issues Account to the regular account of the Partnership.
- (e) as of the last day of each Fiscal Period in which a particular investment or investments are held in the New Issues Account: (A) interest shall be debited to the Capital Accounts of the Unrestricted Partners in accordance with their beneficial interest in the New Issues Account at the interest rate being paid by the Partnership from time to time for borrowed funds during the period in that Fiscal Period that funds from the regular account have been held in or made available to the particular New Issues Account or, if no such funds are being borrowed during such period, the interest rate that the General Partner determines would have been paid if funds had been borrowed by the Partnership during such period; and such interest shall be credited to the Capital Accounts of all the Partners, both General and Limited, in the proportions which (i) each Partner’s Capital Account as of the beginning of such Fiscal Period bore to (iii) the sum of the Capital Accounts of all Partners as of the beginning of such Fiscal Period and (B) any Net Profits or Net Losses during such Fiscal Period with respect to the New Issues Account shall be allocated to the Capital Accounts of the Unrestricted Partners in accordance with their beneficial interest in the New Issues Account during such Fiscal Period; provided, however, that the amount of such interest shall not exceed the amount of profit earned in the New Issues Account as determined by the General Partner; and
- (f) the determination of the General Partner as to whether a particular Partner qualifies as an Unrestricted Partner shall be final.

11. Valuation.

The Partnership’s assets shall be valued by the General Partner, acting in its sole discretion, in accordance with the following principles:

- (a) Any Security that is listed on a national securities exchange will be valued at its last sale price on the date of determination as recorded by the composite tape system, or if no sales occurred on that day, at the mean between the closing “bid” and “asked” prices on that day as recorded by the system or the exchange, as the case may be;

(b) Any Security that is a National Market Security will be valued at its last sale price on the date of determination as reported by the National Association of Securities dealers automated quotations system (“NASDAQ”) or if no sale occurred on that day, at the mean between the closing “bid” and “asked” prices on that day as reported by NASDAQ:

- (c) Any Security not listed on a national securities exchange and not a National Market Security will be valued at the mean between the closing “bid” and “asked” prices on the date of determination as reported by NASDAQ or, if not so reported, as reported in the over-the-counter market in the United States;
- (d) An option shall be valued at the last sales price or, in the absence of a last sales price, the last offer price; and
- (e) All other Securities shall be assigned the value that the General Partner in good faith determines.

12. Determination by General Partner of Certain Matters.

- (a) All matters concerning the valuation of Securities, the allocation of profits, gains and losses among the Partners, including the taxes on them and accounting procedures, not specifically and expressly provided for by the terms of this Agreement, shall be determined in good faith by the General Partner, whose determination shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all of the Partners.
 - (b) Gains, losses, and expenses of the Partnership for each Fiscal Period shall be allocated among the Partners for income tax purposes in a manner so as to reflect, as nearly as possible, the amounts credited or charged to each Partner’s Capital Account pursuant to Section 9 of this Agreement.
 - (c) The General Partner shall have the power to make all tax elections and determinations for the Partnership, and to take any and all action necessary under the Code or other applicable law to effect those elections and determinations. All such elections and determinations by the General Partner shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all Partners.

13. Liability of Partners.

(a) The General Partner shall not be obligated to contribute cash or other assets to the Partnership to make up deficits in its Capital Account or in the Capital Accounts of the Limited Partners either during the term of the Partnership or upon liquidation. The General Partner shall be liable for all debts and obligations of the Partnership to the extent that the Partnership is unable to pay such debts and obligations up to the extent of Veteri's capital.

(b) The doing of any act or the failure to do any act by the General Partner, the effect of which may cause or result in loss, liability, damage or expense to the Partnership or any Partner shall not subject the General Partner to any liability to the Partnership or to any Partner, except that the General Partner may be so liable if it has acted in bad faith, or has committed gross misconduct or was grossly negligent.

(c) A Limited Partner will not be liable for any debts or bound by any obligations of the Partnership except to the extent set forth in subsections (d), (e) and (f) of this Section 13.

(d) A Limited Partner who has received the return of any part of such Partner's Capital Contribution without violation of this Agreement or the Act shall not be liable to the Partnership or its creditors.

(e) A Limited Partner who has received the return of any part of such Partner's Capital Contribution in violation of this Agreement or the Act shall be liable to the Partnership for a period of six (6) years thereafter for the amount of the Capital Contribution wrongfully returned.

(f) A Limited Partner may be liable to the Partnership or creditors of the Partnership for any amounts distributed if, and to the extent that, at the time of the distribution, he actually knew that, after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of the Partnership, other than liabilities to Partners on account of their interest in the Partnership, exceeded the fair value of the Partnership's assets.

14. Rights and Duties of the General Partner

(a) The General Partner shall have the exclusive right to manage and control the affairs of the Partnership, and shall have the power and authority to do all things necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of the Partnership. The General Partner shall devote an amount of time and attention that the General Partner in its sole discretion deems necessary or appropriate.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the General Partner shall have full power and authority:

(i) to engage independent agents, investment advisors, attorneys, accountants and custodians as the General Partner deems necessary or advisable for the affairs of the Partnership;

(ii) to receive, buy sell, exchange, trade, and otherwise deal in and with Securities and other property of the Partnership;

(iii) to open, conduct and close accounts with brokers on behalf of the Partnership and to pay the customary fees and charges applicable to transactions in those accounts;

(iv) to open, maintain and close accounts, including margin accounts, with brokers and banks, and to draw checks and other orders for the payment of money by the Partnership;

(v) to file, on behalf of the Partnership, all required local, state and Federal tax and other returns relating to the Partnership;

(vi) to cause the Partnership to purchase or bear the cost of any insurance covering the potential liabilities of the General Partner and any associate, employee or agent of the General Partner arising out of the General Partner's actions as General Partner under this Agreement;

(vii) to cause the Partnership to purchase or bear the cost of any insurance covering the potential liabilities of any person serving as a director, officer or employee of an entity in which the Partnership has an investment or of which the Partnership is a creditor;

(viii) to commence or defend litigation or submit to arbitration any claim or cause of action that pertains to the Partnership or any Partnership assets;

(ix) to enter into, make and perform contracts, agreements and other undertakings, and to do any other acts, as the General Partner deems necessary or advisable for, or as may be incidental to, the conduct of the business of the Partnership, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, contracts, agreements, undertakings and transactions with any Partner or with any other person, firm or corporation having any business, financial or other relationship with any Partner or Partners:

(x) to make or revoke elections pursuant to Section 754 of the Code to adjust the basis of the Partnership's property as permitted by Sections 734(b) and 743(b) of the Code; and

(xi) to designate a Tax Matters Partner for all purposes under the Code.

15. Expenses.

The Partnership shall bear all expenses relating to its organization. The Partnership will bear the expenses of its administration, including, without limitations, the fees and expenses of the Partnership's accountant and legal counsel, and the expenses of the Partnership's investments.

16. Administrative Fee.

The Partnership shall pay the General Partner as of the end of each Fiscal Quarter of the Partnership an administrative fee at an annual rate equal to 1% of the value of the Partnership's assets.

17. Limitation on Powers of Limited Partners.

No Limited Partner shall participate in the control of the Partnership's business, transact any business in the Partnership's name or have the power to sign documents for the Partnership or to bind the Partnership in any other way.

18. Other Business Ventures.

Each Partner agrees that each General Partner and its Affiliates and associates may engage in other business activities or possess interests in other business activities of every kind and description, independently or with others. These activities may include, without limitation, establishing a broker-dealer and investing in real estate and real estate related partnerships, and investing in, financing, acquiring and disposing of interests in Securities in which the Partnership may from time to time also invest, or in which the Partnership is able to invest or otherwise may have any interest. The Limited Partners agree that the General Partner and its affiliates may act as general partner of other partnerships, including investment partnerships.

19. Limitation on Assignability of Interest of Limited Partners.

(a) No Limited Partner may assign or otherwise transfer or encumber his or its interest in the Partnership, in whole or in part, without the consent of the General Partner and without a written opinion of counsel to or approved by the General Partner that the proposed transfer (i) is consistent with all applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, as from time to time in effect, as well as any applicable provisions of any state "blue sky" law; and (ii) would not result in the Partnership's having to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any successor to any Limited Partner shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement. Prior to recognizing any assignment of an interest in the Partnership that has been transferred in accordance with this Section 19, the General Partner may require the transferring Limited Partner to execute and acknowledge an instrument of assignment in form and substance satisfactory to the General Partner, and may require the assignee to agree in writing to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, to assume all of the obligations of the assigning Limited Partner and to execute whatever other instruments or documents the General Partner deems necessary or desirable in connection with the assignment.

(c) No Limited Partner shall have the right to have such Partner's assignee admitted as a substitute Limited Partner, except upon the written consent of the General Partner, which consent may be withheld in the sole discretion of the General Partner.

(d) Each Limited Partner hereby approves of the admission to the Partnership as a Limited Partner of any assignee who succeeds to the interest in the Partnership of a Limited Partner in accordance with the provisions of this Section 19.

20. Withdrawals by a Limited Partner.

(a) (i) A Limited Partner who shall have been a Limited Partner for at least eight full Fiscal Quarters plus one month shall have the right, as of the end of any Fiscal Quarter, or at other times at the discretion of the General Partner, to withdraw all or a portion of the amount of such Partner's Capital Account, so long as the General Partner receives written notice of the intended withdrawal not less than ninety (90) days prior to the withdrawal, stating the amount to be withdrawn. In no event, however, shall a Limited Partner be permitted to withdraw any amounts from such Partner's Capital Account in excess of the positive balance of such Partner's Capital Account. If the amount of a Limited Partner's withdrawal represents less than seventy-five (75%) of such Limited Partner's Capital Account, such Limited Partner will receive the proceeds of the withdrawal within thirty (30) days after the date of withdrawal. If the amount of a Limited Partner's withdrawal represents seventy-five (75%) or more of such Limited Partner's Capital Account, the Limited Partner will receive seventy-five percent (75%) of such Partner's Capital Account within thirty (30) days after the date of withdrawal and the remainder of the amount withdrawn within ten (10) days after receipt by the Partnership of financial statements from its independent certified public accountants pursuant to Section 23(c) of this Agreement. If a Limited Partner requests withdrawal of capital which would reduce such Partner's Capital Account below the amount of such Partner's initial Capital Contribution, the General Partner may treat such request as a request for withdrawal of all of such Partner's Capital Account. The distribution of any amount withdrawn by a Limited Partner may take the form of cash and/or marketable securities as determined by the General Partner in his sole discretion.

(ii) In the event of a proposed withdrawal of capital by the General Partner or its Affiliates pursuant to Section 21(a)(ii) of this Agreement, as a result of which the aggregate of the Capital Accounts of the General Partner and its Affiliates will be less than $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars), a Limited Partner shall have the right to withdraw all or a portion of the amount of such Partner's Capital Account, so long as the General Partner receives written notice of the intended withdrawal not more than fifteen (15) days after the date of the notice of withdrawal by the General Partner or its Affiliate pursuant to said Section 21(a)(ii), stating the amount to be withdrawn. In such event the withdrawal by such Limited Partner shall be effective as of the effective date of the withdrawal by the General Partner or its Affiliates pursuant to said Section 21(a)(ii). The amount available for withdrawal shall be calculated after the adjustments to such Partner's Capital Account provided for in Section 9 hereof, made as if the withdrawal date were the end of a Fiscal Year.

(b) Any Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership may be terminated by the Partnership at any time upon 5 days prior written notice, so long as the General Partner determines the termination to be in the best interest of the Partnership. In the event that a Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership is terminated pursuant to this Section 20, the Limited Partner shall receive ninety percent (90%) of the value of such Partner's Capital Account within one hundred eighty (180) days after written notice of termination is given by the Partnership and the remaining ten percent (10%) within ten (10) business days after receipt by the Partnership of financial statements from its independent certified public accountants pursuant to Section 23(c) of this Agreement with respect to the Fiscal Year in which such Partner's interest in the Partnership is terminated.

21. Withdrawals by the General Partner and Affiliates.

(a) (i) The General Partner and each Limited Partner that is an Affiliate of the General Partner shall have the right to withdraw any amount of cash from its Capital Account as of the end of any Fiscal Year, without prior notification to the Limited Partners, provided that, after giving effect to such withdrawal, the aggregate Capital Accounts of the General Partner and its Affiliates are not less than $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars).

(ii) Upon forty-five (45) days' prior notice to the Limited Partners, the General Partner or an Affiliate may withdraw any amount from its Capital Account as a result of which withdrawal the aggregate Capital Accounts of the General Partner and its Affiliates would be reduced below $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars).

(b) The General Partner may voluntarily resign or withdraw from the Partnership as of the end of any Fiscal Year upon sixty (60) days' written notice sent to all Partners.

22. Dissolution and Winding Up of the Partnership.

On dissolution of the Partnership caused by an event described in Section 5(a)(iii)(J) or (K) including the death of Lawrence Seidman, as controlling shareholder of the General Partner, or a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that Mr. Seidman is incompetent to manage his person or property, the General Partner designates Mr. Richard Whitman of 100 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005 to act as liquidator of the Partnership to wind up the Partnership's affairs, including the liquidation, in a commercially reasonable manner, of all securities and other assets held by the Partnership, and, in consultation with Mr. Neal Axelrod of 3 Marigold Court, Edison, NJ 08820, to distribute the Partnership's assets in the following manner and order:

- (a) in satisfaction of the claims of all creditors of the Partnership, other than the General Partner;
- (b) in satisfaction of the claims of the General Partner as a creditor of the Partnership; and
- (c) any balance to the Partners in the relative proportions that their respective Capital Accounts bear to each other, those Capital Accounts to be determined as if the Fiscal Year ended on the date of the dissolution.

The foregoing appointment may be revoked, or a successor or additional liquidator appointed, at any time by an instrument in writing signed by the General Partner. In the event that Mr. Whitman shall be unable or unwilling to serve as liquidator of the Partnership, or in the event of the dissolution of the Partnership caused by any other event, Limited Partners holding a majority in interest of the Capital Accounts of the Limited Partners shall appoint one or more persons to act as liquidators of the Partnership to perform the services described above.

Any liquidator appointed hereunder may receive such compensation as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the General Partner.

23. Accounting and Reports.

- (a) The records and books of account of the Partnership shall be reviewed as of the end of each Fiscal Year by the Partnership's accountants selected by the General Partner in its sole discretion.
 - (b) As soon as practicable after the end of each Fiscal Year, the General Partner shall cause to be delivered to each person who was a Partner at any time during that Fiscal Year all information deemed necessary by the General Partner in its sole discretion for the preparation of such Partner's income tax returns, including a Form 1065/Schedule K-1 statement showing such Partner's share of Net Profit or Net Loss, deductions and credits for such year for Federal income tax purposes, and the amount of any distributions made to or for the account of such Partner pursuant to this Agreement.
 - (c) The Partnership's accountants shall prepare and mail to each Partner, within ninety (90) days after the end of each Fiscal Year, an income statement for such Fiscal Year and a balance sheet as of the end of such Fiscal Year.

(d) The Partnership shall cause to be prepared and mailed to each Partner a report setting out as of the end of each Fiscal Quarter information determined by the General Partner to be appropriate.

(e) The General Partner shall cause tax returns for the Partnership to be prepared and timely filed with the appropriate authorities.

24. Books and Records.

The General Partner shall keep at the Partnership's principal office:

(a) books and records pertaining to the Partnership's business showing all of its assets and liabilities, receipts and disbursements, realized profits and losses, Partners' Capital Accounts and all transactions entered into by the Partnership;

(b) a current list of the full name and last known home, business or mailing address of each Partner set out in alphabetical order;

(c) a copy of the Certificate and all amendments to it, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney pursuant to which the Certificate and any amendments to it have been executed;

(d) copies of the Partnership's Federal, state and local income tax returns and reports, if any, for the three (3) most recent years; and

(e) copies of this Agreement as amended from time to time.

All books and records of the Partnership required to be kept under this Section 24 shall be available for inspection by a Partner of the Partnership at the offices of the Partnership during ordinary business hours for any purpose reasonably related to the Partner's interest as a Partner in the Partnership.

25. Indemnification.

(a) The Partnership shall indemnify the General Partner and any of its Affiliates (each an "Indemnitee") to the fullest extent permitted by law and will hold Indemnitee harmless from and with respect to (i) all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with, or resulting from, any claim, action or demand against any Indemnitee that arises out of or in any way relates to the Partnership, its properties, business or affairs, and (ii) any losses or damages resulting from any such claim, action or demand, including amounts paid in settlement or compromise of the claim, action or demand.

(b) No Indemnitee shall be indemnified by the Partnership with respect to any action or failure to act that constitutes bad faith, or that constitutes gross misconduct or gross negligence.

The Partnership may pay the expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding brought by a party against the Indemnitee that arises out of or is in any way related to the Partnership, its properties, business or affairs, upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnitee to repay the amount advanced by the Partnership if an adjudication or determination is subsequently made by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification as provided in this Agreement.

(c) The right of indemnification provided in this Section 25 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnitee may otherwise be entitled and shall inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors or assigns of each Indemnitee.

(d) The rights to indemnification and reimbursement provided for in this Section 25 may be satisfied only out of the assets of the Partnership. No Partner shall be personally liable for any claim for indemnification or reimbursement under this Section 25.

26. Amendment of Partnership Agreement.

This Agreement may be amended, in whole or in part, by the written consent of (a) the General Partner, and (b) Partners the value of whose Capital Account constitute not less than fifty percent (50%) of the total value of all Capital Accounts of the Partnership, provided that no such amendment shall affect the allocation of Net Profit or Net Loss to any Partner who has not consented to such amendment. In addition, any provision of this Agreement, other than Section 9, may be amended by the General Partner in any manner that does not, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, adversely affect any Limited Partner.

27. Notices.

Notices that may or are required to be given under this Agreement by any party to another shall be in writing and deposited in the United States mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, addressed to the respective parties at their addresses on file at the offices of the Partnership or to any other address designated by any Partner by notice addressed to the Partnership. Notices shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States mail within the continental United States.

28. Agreement Binding Upon Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators or other representatives, successors and assigns of the Partners.

29. Governing Law.

This Agreement, and the rights of the Partners under it, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of New Jersey.

30. Consents.

Any and all consents, agreements or approvals provided for or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and signed copies of them shall be filed and kept with the books of the Partnership.

31. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding and Agreement of the Partners as to the operation of the Partnership.

- (b) This agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original.
- (c) Each provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. A determination that a particular provision of this Agreement is illegal or invalid shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.
- (d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to constitute any Partner the agent of another Partner, except as specifically provided in this Agreement, or in any manner to limit the Partners in the carrying on of their own respective business or activities.
- (e) If there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and any offering memorandum of the Partnership, this Agreement shall be controlling.
- (f) Notwithstanding any other provision or statement in any document relating to the Partnership (including this Agreement, any subscription agreement, and any offering document for the Partnership), the Partnership and the General Partner, and their respective advisers (each a "Partnership Party"), authorize each Limited Partner and each of its employees, representatives or other agents, from and after the commencement of any discussions with any such party, to disclose to any and all persons without limitation of any kind the U.S. federal income tax treatment and U.S. federal income tax structure of the Partnership and any transaction entered into by the Partnership and all materials of any kind (including tax opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such tax treatment or tax structure that are provided to such Limited Partner, insofar as such treatment and/or structure relates to a U.S. federal income tax strategy provided to such Limited Partner by any Partnership Party, except for any information identifying the General Partner, any other Limited Partners or (except to the extent relevant to such tax structure or tax treatment) any nonpublic commercial or financial information.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Partners have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

The Limited Partners agree that the General Partner and its affiliates may act as general partner of other partnerships, including investment partnerships.

19. Limitation on Assignability of Interest of Limited Partners.

(a) No Limited Partner may assign or otherwise transfer or encumber his or its interest in the Partnership, in whole or in part, without the consent of the General Partner and without a written opinion of counsel to or approved by the General Partner that the proposed transfer (i) is consistent with all applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, as from time to time in effect, as well as any applicable provisions of any state "blue sky" law; and (ii) would not result in the Partnership's having to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any successor to any Limited Partner shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement. Prior to recognizing any assignment of an interest in the Partnership that has been transferred in accordance with this Section 19, the General Partner may require the transferring Limited Partner to execute and acknowledge an instrument of assignment in form and substance satisfactory to the General Partner, and may require the assignee to agree in writing to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, to assume all of the obligations of the assigning Limited Partner and to execute whatever other instruments or documents the General Partner deems necessary or desirable in connection with the assignment.

If the amount of a Limited Partner's withdrawal represents seventy-five (75%) or more of such Limited Partner's Capital Account, the Limited Partner will receive seventy-five percent (75%) of such Partner's Capital Account within thirty (30) days after the date of withdrawal and the remainder of the amount withdrawn within ten (10) days after receipt by the Partnership of financial statements from its independent certified public accountants pursuant to Section 23(c) of this Agreement. If a Limited Partner requests withdrawal of capital which would reduce such Partner's Capital Account below the amount of such Partner's initial Capital Contribution, the General Partner may treat such request as a request for withdrawal of all of such Partner's Capital Account. The distribution of any amount withdrawn by a Limited Partner may take the form of cash and/or marketable securities as determined by the General Partner in his sole discretion.

(ii) In the event of a proposed withdrawal of capital by the General Partner or its Affiliates pursuant to Section 21(a)(ii) of this Agreement, as a result of which the aggregate of the Capital Accounts of the General Partner and its Affiliates will be less than $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars), a Limited Partner shall have the right to withdraw all or a portion of the amount of such Partner's Capital Account, so long as the General Partner receives written notice of the intended withdrawal not more than fifteen (15) days after the date of the notice of withdrawal by the General Partner or its Affiliate pursuant to said Section 21(a)(ii), stating the amount to be withdrawn. In such event the withdrawal by such Limited Partner shall be effective as of the effective date of the withdrawal by the General Partner or its Affiliates pursuant to said Section 21(a)(ii). The amount available for withdrawal shall be calculated after the adjustments to such Partner's Capital Account provided for in Section 9 hereof, made as if the withdrawal date were the end of a Fiscal Year.

(b) Any Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership may be terminated by the Partnership at any time upon 5 days prior written notice, so long as the General Partner determines the termination to be in the best interest of the Partnership. In the event that a Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership is terminated pursuant to this Section 20, the Limited Partner shall receive ninety percent (90%) of the value of such Partner's Capital Account within one hundred eighty (180) days after written notice of termination is given by the Partnership and the remaining ten percent (10%) within ten (10) business days after receipt by the Partnership of financial statements from its independent certified public accountants pursuant to Section 23(c) of this Agreement with respect to the Fiscal Year in which such Partner's interest in the Partnership is terminated.

(ii) Upon forty-five (45) days' prior notice to the Limited Partners, the General Partner or an Affiliate may withdraw any amount from its Capital Account as a result of which withdrawal the aggregate Capital Accounts of the General Partner and its Affiliates would be reduced below $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars).

(b) The General Partner may voluntarily resign or withdraw from the Partnership as of the end of any Fiscal Year upon sixty (60) days' written notice sent to all Partners.

22. Dissolution and Winding Up of the Partnership.

On dissolution of the Partnership caused by an event described in Section 5(a)(iii)(J) or (K) including the death of Lawrence Seidman, as controlling shareholder of the General Partner, or a determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that Mr. Seidman is incompetent to manage his person or property, the General Partner designates Mr. Richard Whitman of 100 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005 to act as liquidator of the Partnership to wind up the Partnership's affairs, including the liquidation, in a commercially reasonable manner, of all securities and other assets held by the Partnership, and, in consultation with Mr. Neal Axelrod of 3 Marigold Court, Edison, NJ 08820, to distribute the Partnership's assets in the following manner and order:

(b) in satisfaction of the claims of the General Partner as a creditor of the Partnership; and

(c) any balance to the Partners in the relative proportions that their respective Capital Accounts bear to each other, those Capital Accounts to be determined as if the Fiscal Year ended on the date of the dissolution.

The foregoing appointment may be revoked, or a successor or additional liquidator appointed, at any time by an instrument in writing signed by the General Partner. In the event that Mr. Whitman shall be unable or unwilling to serve as liquidator of the Partnership, or in the event of the dissolution of the Partnership caused by any other event, Limited Partners holding a majority in interest of the Capital Accounts of the Limited Partners shall appoint one or more persons to act as liquidators of the Partnership to perform the services described above.

Any liquidator appointed hereunder may receive such compensation as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the General Partner.

(a) The records and books of account of the Partnership shall be reviewed as of the end of each Fiscal Year by the Partnership's accountants selected by the General Partner in its sole discretion.

(b) As soon as practicable after the end of each Fiscal Year, the General Partner shall cause to be delivered to each person who was a Partner at any time during that Fiscal Year all information deemed necessary by the General Partner in its sole discretion for the preparation of such Partner's income tax returns, including a Form 1065/Schedule K-1 statement showing such Partner's share of Net Profit or Net Loss, deductions and credits for such year for Federal income tax purposes, and the amount of any distributions made to or for the account of such Partner pursuant to this Agreement.

- (c) The Partnership's accountants shall prepare and mail to each Partner, within ninety (90) days after the end of each Fiscal Year, an income statement for such Fiscal Year and a balance sheet as of the end of such Fiscal Year.
- (d) The Partnership shall cause to be prepared and mailed to each Partner a report setting out as of the end of each Fiscal Quarter information determined by the General Partner to be appropriate.
- (e) The General Partner shall cause tax returns for the Partnership to be prepared and timely filed with the appropriate authorities.

24. Books and Records.

25. Indemnification.

- (a) The Partnership shall indemnify the General Partner and any of its Affiliates (each an "Indemnitee") to the fullest extent permitted by law and will hold Indemnitee harmless from and with respect to (i) all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with, or resulting from, any claim, action or demand against any Indemnitee that arises out of or in any way relates to the Partnership, its properties, business or affairs, and (ii) any losses or damages resulting from any such claim, action or demand, including amounts paid in settlement or compromise of the claim, action or demand.
- (b) No Indemnitee shall be indemnified by the Partnership with respect to any action or failure to act that constitutes bad faith, or that constitutes gross misconduct or gross negligence.
- (c) The Partnership may pay the expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding brought by a party against the Indemnitee that arises out of or is in any way related to the Partnership, its properties, business or affairs, upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnitee to repay the amount advanced by the Partnership if an adjudication or determination is subsequently made by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification as provided in this Agreement.

(d) The right of indemnification provided in this Section 25 shall be in addition to any rights to which an Indemnitee may otherwise be entitled and shall inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors or assigns of each Indemnitee.

(e) The rights to indemnification and reimbursement provided for in this Section 25 may be satisfied only out of the assets of the Partnership. No Partner shall be personally liable for any claim for indemnification or reimbursement under this Section 25.

FIRST AMENDMENT TO OPERATING AGREEMENT
OF
BROAD PARK INVESTORS, L.L.C

This First Amendment to Operating Agreement dated as of August 31, 2005 by and among the parties who are Members in Broad Park Investors, L.L.C.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

By execution of that certain Operating Agreement (the “Original Agreement”) for Broad Park Investors L.L.C. (the “LLC”) dated December 17, 1997, the LLC was formed. The Original Agreement is hereinafter referred to as the “Agreement”. The Members have agreed to amend the Agreement on the terms and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. All terms used in this Amendment and not defined herein shall be as defined in the Agreement.

2. The Management Term shall mean a term of two (2) years commencing as of the date hereof.

3. A Member who shall have been a Member for at least eight full Fiscal Quarters shall have the right, as of the end of any Fiscal Year, or at other times at the discretion of the Manager to withdraw all or a portion of the amount of his/her Capital Account, so long as the Manager receives written notice of the intended withdrawal not less than ninety (90) days prior to the withdrawal, stating the amount to be withdrawn. In no event, however, shall a Member be permitted to withdraw any amounts from his Capital Account in excess of the positive balance of his Capital Account. If the amount of a Member’s withdrawal represents less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Member’s Capital Account, the Member will receive the proceeds of the withdrawal within thirty (30) days after the date of withdrawal. If the amount of a Member’s withdrawal represents seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Member’s Capital Account, the Member will receive seventy-five percent (75%) of his Capital Account within thirty (30) days after the date of withdrawal and the remainder of the amount withdrawn within ten (10) days after the Partnership has received the quarterly financial statements from its independent certified public accountants. If a Member requests withdrawal of capital, which would reduce his/her Capital Account below the amount of his/her initial Capital Contribution, the Manager may treat such request as a request for withdrawal of all such Member’s Capital Account. The distribution of any amount withdrawn by a Member may take the form of cash and/or marketable securities as determined by the Investment Manager in his sole discretion. A Member who requests a withdrawal shall be subject to a charge determined by the Manager in his sole discretion, to cover the costs related to such transaction.

FULL POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR STOCK TRADING, DERIVATIVE TRADING AND OTHER CORPORATE POWERS

STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF

KNOW ALL MEN THAT I , Jared Bluestein, the Director of Berggruen Holdings North America Ltd. (“Investor”) whose address is 1114 Avenue of the Americas, 41st Floor, New York, NY 10036, have made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint, Lawrence Seidman my true and lawful Attorney-in-Fact (“Attorney-in-Fact”) to act with the following powers, to wit:

Attorney-in-Fact will buy, sell publicly traded bank and thrift stocks and options thereon in Account #267-77251 held at Bear Stearns. In addition, Attorney-in-Fact will have the sole authority to exercise stock options and rights and the sole right to vote all shares in the account without the necessity of a proxy and the right to appoint proxies therefore, possessing all powers that I possess.

Investor will have the right to terminate the trading authority at any time and shall have the right to receive a return on any capital contributed two years and one month from the date the respective capital contribution is invested. However, even in the event of a termination, Attorney-in-Fact will have the right to withdraw the management fees due.

Investor and Attorney-in-Fact agree that Attorney-in-Fact will invoice Investor for A) Investor’s share of Seidman’s proxy expenses based on the number of shares Investor has in any proxy contest as a percentage of all the shares held by Seidman entities and B) Investor’s pro-rata share of management fees equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1% of the value of invested assets in the account as of the earlier of last day of the calendar quarter or the date the account is closed. In addition, Attorney-in-Fact will invoice Investor for an incentive fee equal to A) 20% of the net profits (defined as realized capital gains dividends and interest) provided the total amount invested in the account (including both equity and margin) at the beginning of the quarter was \$25,000,000 or less, B) 17.5% of the net profits provided the total amount invested in the account at the beginning of the quarter was between \$25,000,001 and \$50,000,000, or C) 15% of the net profits once the total amount invested at the beginning of the quarter is \$50,000,001 or more.

The trigger for the reduction in the incentive compensation rate is cash invested and not gains that stem from market appreciation of the securities purchased. Consequently, the net gains since inception will be deducted from the account value (taking into account all unrealized gains and losses) to determine the net cash investment. For the sake of clarity, Investor may withdraw any cash balances from the account, so long as Investor commits and is legally obligated to re-fund the account for amounts withdrawn, and the lower rate shall continue to apply.

This agreement will supercede all prior agreements.

Partial distribution of up to 50% of the applicable incentive fee shall be permitted at anytime prior to the initial two year and one month period, thereafter there shall be no limit on the amount of the incentive fee that can be withdrawn. Investor authorizes the aforesaid attorney-in-fact to execute, acknowledge and deliver any instrument under seal or otherwise, and to do all things necessary to carry out the intent hereof, hereby granting unto said attorney-in-fact full power and authority to act in and concerning the premises as fully and effectually as Investor might do if personally present.

All business transacted hereunder for Investor or for Investor's account shall be transacted in Investor's name, and all endorsements and instruments executed by said attorney-in-fact for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers shall contain Investor's name, followed by that of said attorney-in-fact and the designation "attorney-in-fact".

Investor further declares that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by said attorney-in-fact shall be binding on Investor and Investor's heirs, legal and personal representatives and assigns, whether the same shall have been done either before or after Investor's dissolution or death, or other revocation of this instrument, unless and until reliable intelligence or notice thereof shall have been received by said attorney-in-fact.

Third parties may rely upon the representations of the agents as to all matters relating to any power granted to them hereunder, and no person who may act in reliance upon the representations of the agent or the authority granted to it shall incur any liability to the Investor as result of permitting the agent to exercise any power.

If any part of this agreement is found to be invalid, it will not affect the validity of the other portions of this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13 day of March,
