[LETTERHEAD OF HEWLETT-PACKARD COMPANY]

February 19, 2002

Dear HP employee,

Please take some time to read the enclosed speech I delivered February 4, 2002, to a group of institutional investors at the Goldman Sachs Technology Conference -- it explains the journey HP began two-and-a-half years ago, as well as the broad range of strategic alternatives the board and management reviewed to identify the best way to move the company forward. As an HP employee, it is important that you understand the reasons we have chosen to secure the company's future by leading -- not following.

We sent this speech to you at home because we thought you might want to share it with family and friends who are interested in HP's future.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment and contribution. I know that maintaining focus has been challenging at times, but our performance over the past two quarters is a testament to all of you who, every day, are doing your part to strengthen this great company.

/s/ CARLY FIORINA
