Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 9, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Vulcan Materials Company (the "Company") approved the annual base salaries effective March 1, 2006, the short term incentive payments (cash performance bonus) for 2005, and payments for previously granted performance share units for the three-year period ending December 31, 2005, for executive officers of the Company. The compensation for the CEO was ratified by the Board of Directors.

Salary and Cash Bonus

The Compensation Committee authorized the payment of annual bonus awards to each of the Company's executive officers for the year ended December 31, 2005 under the Vulcan Materials Company Executive Incentive Plan ("EIP") or the Management Incentive Plan ("MIP"). No executive may participate in both plans concurrently. The annual incentive awards, shown on the table below, were made within the maximum payable established under the Plans and were based on achieving previously established financial objectives. The EIP is intended to ensure the tax deductibility of the bonus for the Company. Total incentive payments to executive officers participating in the EIP in any year cannot exceed 4% of consolidated net earnings in excess of 6% of net capital for the prior year. Total payments under the MIP in any year cannot exceed 10% of consolidated net earnings in excess of 6% of net capital for the prior year.

The following table sets forth the annual base salary and cash bonus for the executive officers who will be included as the Named Executive Officers in the Company's 2006 proxy statement. Please note that any changes to base salaries do not become effective until March 1 of each year. Consequently, the 2005 base salary shown in the table below is a higher amount than the actual salary earned from January 1 through December 31, 2005. The actual salary earned for 2005 is the amount that will be reflected in the Summary Compensation table in Vulcan's Proxy Statement for its 2006 Annual meeting.
