PRESS RELEASE

ARCADIS ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN ITS SUPERVISORY BOARD

Arnhem, the Netherlands, May 28, 2004 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF; Euronext: ARCAD), the international consulting and engineering firm, today announced that after its General Meeting of Shareholders on May 12, Mr. Thomas M. Cohn was appointed a member of the Company's Supervisory Board. This appointment fills the remaining vacancy that occurred through the departures of Prof. Luck M. van Leeuwen and Mr. André A. van der Louw, also per May 12th, 2004. The other vacancy was filled by the appointment of Mr. Gerrit Ybema last year.

The Company also announced that Rijnhard W.F. van Tets was appointed Chairman of the Supervisory Board as successor to Prof. Van Leeuwen. Mr. Van Tets has been a member of the board since May 2002.

Mr. Cohn (1942) is a Belgian national and until the end of 2003 was Chairman of the Executive Board of Siemens Nederland NV. He has served Siemens since 1964 and joined Siemens Nederland NV in 1987, initially as its financial director, later as a member and, from 1994, as Chairman of the Executive Board. He has broad management experience in international business, and has knowledge and experience about the markets in which ARCADIS is active. Mr. Cohn holds several Supervisory Board functions and advisory positions at other firms. He has received high decorations in Belgium, the Netherlands and Germany, among other things for his work in the improvement of German-Dutch relations and his work in the field of Socially Responsible Business. Mr. Cohn qualifies as an independent member of the Supervisory Board as defined by the Committee on Dutch Corporate Governance.

ARCADIS is a leading, global, knowledge-driven service provider, active in the fields of infrastructure, buildings, environment and communications. With client success central to our total business approach, we fulfill project or program needs from concept to completion and beyond. Together, we generate EUR 850 million in annual revenues.
