The 1997 Incentive Plan terminates on August 27, 2007.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On October 9, 2003, LB I Group Inc, an affiliate of Lehman Brothers Inc. ("Lehman"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., purchased from certain affiliates of First Reserve 32,095 shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock (the "Transaction"). In connection with the Transaction, the Company and LB I Group Inc. entered into a letter agreement, pursuant to which, the Company agreed, upon consummation of the Transaction and the fulfillment of certain other conditions, including the resignation of Mr. Guill, an affiliate of First Reserve, from the Company's Board of Directors, to take all necessary actions in order to cause one designee of LB I Group Inc., to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors. LB I Group Inc. is entitled to have one designee recommended by the Company to stand for election at each meeting of the Company's stockholders at which the election of directors is on the agenda, until such time as LB I Group Inc. no longer beneficially owns at least 5% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock on an as-converted basis. In connection with the consummation of the Transaction on October 9, 2003, Mr. Guill resigned from the Company's Board of Directors and the Board of Directors, by unanimous written consent, elected David J. Butters, the LB I Group Inc. designee, to the Board of Directors effective October 9, 2003. Mr. Butters was nominated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to stand for re-election at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders scheduled for May 6, 2004, and was elected to serve on the Board. Mr. Butters resigned as a Director effective July 1, 2004. LB I Group Inc. also became party to a registration rights agreement whereby it has the right to require the Company to register its shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

Effective December 31, 2002, Mr. Harold R. Logan, Jr. resigned as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Effective January 1, 2003, Mr. Logan entered into a Consulting Agreement ("Agreement") with the Company pursuant to which Mr. Logan agreed to perform certain financial and banking consulting services for the Company for a period of two years ("Initial Term"), after which the Agreement is automatically renewed for additional terms of one (1) year each ("Renewal Term"), unless earlier terminated by either party upon written notice to the other party at least ninety (90) days prior to the end of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term. The Consulting Agreement provides annual compensation to Mr. Logan of $100,000 for the first year of services and $75,000 for the second year of services. Thereafter, compensation shall be as mutually agreed between Mr. Logan and the Company. Mr. Logan has agreed to continue as a member of the Company's Board of Directors and to serve as Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board. Under the 1997 Incentive Plan, Mr. Logan continues to vest in his options awarded while an employee provided he continues as a consultant to the Company or is a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Logan is also a Director of Lion Oil Company, in which the Company owns an 18.04% ownership interest. The Company purchased $16,597,951 of refined petroleum products from and sold $8,354,111 of refined petroleum products to Lion Oil Company in the year ended June 30, 2004, all of which product purchases and sales were made at prices negotiated between the Company and Lion Oil Company or through independent brokers. The Company believes the prices paid by and to Lion Oil Company were comparable to prices that would have been paid by and to independent third parties.

During the 2004 fiscal year, the Company paid $210,585 to Arapahoe Development, Inc. ("Arapahoe"), owned by Cortlandt S. Dietler, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Company, for flights aboard an aircraft owned by Arapahoe. The Company believes that the prices paid for those flights were competitive with rates charged by other aircraft leasing companies for similar services.

Pursuant to certain agreements, partnerships managed by First Reserve, Yorktown Energy Partners III, L.P. and other venture capital funds managed by, and shares owned by, officers of Dillon, Read & Co. Inc., and Waterwagon & Co., nominee for Merrill Lynch Growth Fund for Investment and Retirement, have the right to require the Company to register their shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

The Company has agreed to take all action necessary to cause one Director designated by affiliates of First Reserve from time to time to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors so long as their ownership of the Company's Common Stock outstanding is at least 10%. The affiliates of First Reserve have designated John A. Hill as their nominee for Director. Previous to the Transaction between First Reserve and LB I Group Inc. described above, the affiliates of First Reserve had the right to designate two Directors.

During the 2004 fiscal year, the Company purchased $110,325,697 of refined petroleum products from and sold $55,894,127 of refined petroleum products to Louis Dreyfus Energy Services, an affiliate of Dreyfus, all of which purchases and sales were made at prices negotiated between the Company and the Dreyfus affiliate, or through independent brokers. The Company believes the prices paid by and to the Dreyfus affiliate were comparable to prices that would have been paid by and to independent third parties.

In October 1998, the Company purchased, among other things, certain terminaling properties from Louis Dreyfus Corporation pursuant to a stock purchase agreement. Dreyfus has paid to the Company approximately $1,500,000 since the closing of the transaction to October 1, 2004 as indemnification under the stock purchase agreement for certain environmental expenses, including approximately $396,000 since June 30, 2003. Also, pursuant to such stock purchase agreement, the Company agreed to take all action necessary to cause one Director designated by Dreyfus from time to time to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors as long as its ownership in the Company's Common Stock outstanding is at least 10%. Peter B. Griffin, who had been Dreyfus' designee to serve as a member of the Board of Directors, resigned from the Board of Directors, effective January 28, 2004. Subsequently, Dreyfus notified the Company that it has elected at this time not to exercise its contractual right to designate another person to serve on the Board of Directors and to stand for election at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Dreyfus has further agreed to provide the Company with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of its intent to exercise such right in the future and identify the proposed designee in such notice. Pursuant to a registration rights agreement entered into between the Company and Dreyfus contemporaneously with the stock purchase agreement, Dreyfus and each entity at least eighty percent owned, directly or indirectly by S.A. Louis Dreyfus et Cie., has the right to require the Company to register their shares under the Securities Act of 1933.

In addition, pursuant to an antidilution agreement, if the Company issues Common Stock or certain securities convertible into Common Stock, Waterwagon & Co., nominee for Merrill Lynch Growth Fund for Investment and Retirement, has the right to purchase additional shares of Common Stock in order to maintain its percentage ownership of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. The purchase price of such shares will be based on the market price of the Common Stock at the time of the offering giving rise to the right of Waterwagon & Co. to purchase additional Common Stock. Under the antidilution agreement, the Company may be required to register such shares pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933.

All related party transactions are subject to review and oversight by the Company's Audit Committee.
