MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

October 9, 2018

Dear Shareholder:

We cordially invite you to attend a special meeting of shareholders of KMG Chemicals, Inc., a Texas corporation, to be held on November 13, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time), at The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel, 200 Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102. As previously announced, on August 14, 2018, KMG entered into a merger agreement providing for the acquisition of KMG by Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, a Delaware corporation. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

If the merger contemplated by the merger agreement is completed, you will be entitled to receive for each share of KMG common stock, without interest (i) $55.65 in cash and (ii) 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 14, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $79.93. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on October 4, 2018, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $76.06. The implied value of the per share merger consideration will fluctuate as the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock fluctuates because a portion of the per share merger consideration is payable in a fixed number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. As a result, the value of the per share merger consideration that KMG shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger could be greater than, less than or the same as the value of the merger consideration on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or at the time of the KMG special meeting. Accordingly, you should obtain current stock price quotations for Cabot Microelectronics common stock and KMG common stock before deciding how to vote with respect to approval of the merger proposal. Cabot Microelectronics common stock trades on The Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "CCMP," and KMG common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "KMG."

The merger cannot be completed unless KMG shareholders holding at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on October 4, 2018, the record date for the special meeting, vote in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting. Christopher T. Fraser, the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of KMG, and Fred C. Leonard III, a member of KMG's board of directors, have entered into separate voting agreements with Cabot Microelectronics, pursuant to which Mr. Fraser and Mr. Leonard have agreed to, among other matters, vote the shares of KMG common stock held by each of them, representing approximately 4.9% of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting, in favor of the merger.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. The merger cannot be completed unless the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date. A failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, KMG requests that you complete, sign, date and return, as promptly as possible, the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope or submit your proxy by telephone or over the Internet prior to the special meeting to ensure that your shares of KMG common stock will be represented at the special meeting if you are unable to attend. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should follow the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares.

YOUR PROXY IS BEING SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF KMG. AFTER CAREFUL CONSIDERATION, OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY, INCLUDING THE MERGER, ARE IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF KMG AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDED THAT KMG SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY, INCLUDING THE MERGER. OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND "FOR" THE OTHER PROPOSALS DESCRIBED IN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MADE ITS DETERMINATION AFTER CONSULTATION WITH ITS LEGAL AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS AND AFTER CONSIDERING A NUMBER OF FACTORS. IN CONSIDERING THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF KMG, YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THAT CERTAIN DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF KMG MAY HAVE INTERESTS IN THE MERGER THAT MAY BE DIFFERENT FROM, OR IN ADDITION TO, THE INTERESTS OF KMG SHAREHOLDERS GENERALLY. SEE THE SECTION ENTITLED "THE MERGER INTERESTS OF KMG'S DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN THE MERGER" BEGINNING ON PAGE 68 OF THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS.

In particular, we urge you to read carefully the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22 of the attached proxy statement/prospectus. If you have any questions regarding the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, you may contact Okapi Partners LLC, KMG's proxy solicitor, by calling toll-free at (855) 305-0856. Banks, brokerage firms and other nominees may call collect at (212) 297-0720.

We urge you to read the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, including the Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference, carefully and in their entirety.

On behalf of the board of directors of KMG, thank you for your consideration and continued support.

Sincerely,

Christopher T. Fraser

A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus;

All shareholders of record as of that date are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares of KMG common stock that you own. If you fail to submit a proxy or to attend the special meeting in person or do not provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with instructions as to how to vote your shares, as applicable, your shares of KMG common stock will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address some commonly asked questions regarding the merger, the merger agreement and the special meeting. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a KMG shareholder. Please refer to the section titled "Summary" beginning on page 1 and the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the annexes to this proxy statement/prospectus and the documents referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus, which you should read carefully and in their entirety. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus without charge by following the instructions under the section titled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: KMG Chemicals, Inc. ("KMG") is sending these materials to KMG shareholders to help them decide how to vote their shares of KMG common stock with respect to the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated August 14, 2018 (as it may be amended from time to time, the "merger agreement"), by and among Cabot Microelectronics Corporation ("Cabot Microelectronics"), KMG and Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics ("Merger Sub"), which agreement provides for the acquisition of KMG by Cabot Microelectronics.

This document constitutes both a proxy statement of KMG and a prospectus of Cabot Microelectronics. It is a proxy statement because KMG is soliciting proxies from its shareholders. It is a prospectus because Cabot Microelectronics will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of KMG common stock in the merger if the merger is completed.

Q: When and where is the special meeting of the KMG shareholders?

A: A special meeting of KMG shareholders (the "special meeting") will be held to approve the merger on November 13, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time), at The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel, 200 Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.

Q: What is the merger?

A: KMG has agreed to be acquired by Cabot Microelectronics under the terms of the merger agreement, which is further described in this proxy statement/prospectus. If the merger agreement is approved and adopted by KMG shareholders and the other conditions to closing under the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, Merger Sub will merge with and into KMG (the "merger"), with KMG surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. KMG is sometimes referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the surviving company.

The merger cannot be completed unless the merger proposal is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date. Your failing to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or your abstaining from voting or your failing to provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares, as applicable, will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal. The KMG board of directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the merger proposal. This proxy statement/prospectus includes important information about the merger and the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. KMG shareholders should read this information carefully and in its entirety.

Table of Contents

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for the approval of the merger proposal?

A:

Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22. You also should read and carefully consider the risk factors of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG contained in the documents that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will KMG shareholders receive for their shares if the merger is completed?

A:

If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive, for each share of KMG common stock that you hold, merger consideration equal to $55.65 in cash, plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (the "merger consideration"), in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. You will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 14, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $79.93. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on October 4, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $76.06. The implied value of the per share merger consideration will fluctuate as the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock fluctuates because a portion of the per share merger consideration is payable in a fixed number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. As a result, the value of the per share merger consideration that KMG shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger could be greater than, less than or the same as the value of the merger consideration on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or at the time of the KMG special meeting. Accordingly, you should obtain current stock price quotations for Cabot Microelectronics common stock and KMG common stock before deciding how to vote with respect to approval of the merger proposal. Cabot Microelectronics common stock trades on The Nasdaq Global Select Market (the "Nasdaq") under the symbol "CCMP," and KMG common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") under the symbol "KMG."

For additional information regarding the consideration to be received in the merger, see the section titled "The Merger Per Share Merger Consideration" beginning on page 45.

Q: What happens if I am eligible to receive a fraction of a share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock as part of the per share merger consideration?

A:

If the aggregate number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that you are entitled to receive as part of the per share merger consideration otherwise would include a fraction of a share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, you will receive cash in lieu of that fractional share. See the section titled "The Merger Exchange of Shares" beginning on page 77.

Q: What will holders of KMG equity awards receive in the merger?

A:

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (the "effective time"), each restricted stock unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted prior to August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest (with any applicable performance metrics deemed satisfied based on the level of achievement specified in the applicable award agreement) and be cancelled and converted in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying the applicable restricted stock unit award.

Table of Contents

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted on or following August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics and converted into a restricted stock unit award (an "assumed restricted stock unit award") relating to a number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to (i) the number of shares of KMG common stock subject to such KMG restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (ii) the "equity award exchange ratio" (defined below). The assumed restricted stock unit awards will be subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding KMG equity award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms). The "equity award exchange ratio" means the sum of (a) 0.2000 and (b) the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) obtained by dividing (x) $55.65 by (y) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective time and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time.

See "The Merger Agreement Treatment of KMG Equity Awards" beginning on page 79.

Q: How will I receive the merger consideration to which I am entitled?

A:

After receiving the proper documentation from you, following completion of the merger, the exchange agent for the merger will forward to you the Cabot Microelectronics common stock and cash to which you are entitled. More information on the documentation you are required to deliver to the exchange agent may be found in the section titled "The Merger Agreement Exchange and Payment Procedures" beginning on page 82.

Q: What will happen to KMG as a result of the merger?

A:

If the merger is completed, Merger Sub will be merged with and into KMG, with KMG continuing as the surviving company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. As a result of the merger, KMG will no longer be a publicly held company. Following the merger, KMG common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Q: Will the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received at the time of completion of the merger be traded on an exchange?

A:

It is a condition to the consummation of the merger that the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued to KMG shareholders in the merger be approved for listing on The Nasdaq Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A:

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG currently expect the merger to be completed near the end of calendar year 2018, subject to receipt of required approval from KMG shareholders and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions contained in the merger agreement. However, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG cannot predict the actual date on which the merger will be completed because completion is subject to conditions beyond their control and it is possible that such conditions could result in the merger being completed earlier, later or not at all. See the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 96.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A:

KMG shareholders are being asked to vote upon the following proposals:

1.

Proposal 1 The Merger Proposal: the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, which is further described in the sections titled "The Merger" beginning on page 45 and "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 80 and a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A;

2.

Proposal 2 The Adjournment Proposal: the proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the merger proposal; and 3.

Proposal 3 The Compensation Proposal: the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q: How does the KMG board of directors recommend that I vote at the special meeting?

A:

The KMG board of directors unanimously recommends that KMG shareholders vote "FOR" the merger proposal, "FOR" the adjournment proposal and "FOR" the compensation proposal.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A:

After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please submit your proxy as soon as possible so that your shares of KMG common stock will be represented and voted at the special meeting. Please follow the instructions set forth on the proxy card or on the voting instruction form provided by the record holder if your shares are held in "street name" by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee.

Q: Should I send in my KMG stock certificates now?

A:

No. Please DO NOT send your KMG stock certificates with your proxy card. If the merger is completed, you will receive shortly after the time the merger is completed written instructions for exchanging your stock certificates for merger consideration.

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting?

A:

Only KMG shareholders who held shares of record as of the close of business on October 4, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. KMG's official stock ownership records will conclusively determine whether a shareholder is a "holder of record" as of the record date.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A:

Each KMG shareholder is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the special meeting for each share of KMG common stock held of record as of the close of business on the record date. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 15,553,484 shares of KMG common stock outstanding and owned by shareholders (i.e., excluding shares of KMG common stock held in treasury by KMG), held by 359 holders of record.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A:

Edgar Filing: CABOT MICROELECTRONICS CORP - Form 424B3

A majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting

vii

constitutes a quorum for the purposes of the special meeting. Shares of KMG common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares of KMG common stock for which a shareholder directs an "abstention" from voting, will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. A quorum is necessary to transact business at the special meeting. Once a share of KMG common stock is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum at the special meeting and any adjournment of the special meeting. However, if a new record date is set for the adjourned special meeting, then a new quorum will have to be determined.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal to be considered at the KMG special meeting?

A:

The votes required for each proposal are as follows:

1.

Proposal 1 The Merger Proposal: The approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date.

Proposal 2 The Adjournment Proposal: The adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote thereon and present in person or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present.

Proposal 3 The Compensation Proposal: The proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting and present in person or represented by proxy.

As of the record date, KMG directors and executive officers, as a group, owned and were entitled to vote 1,088,049 shares of KMG common stock, or approximately 7.0% of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock. Christopher T. Fraser, the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of KMG, and Fred C. Leonard III, a member of KMG's board of directors, have entered into separate voting agreements with Cabot Microelectronics, pursuant to which Mr. Fraser and Mr. Leonard have agreed to, among other matters, vote the shares of KMG common stock held by each of them, representing approximately 4.9% of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting, in favor of the merger.

Q: How are proxies counted and what results from a failure to vote, abstention or broker non-vote?

A:

Proposal 1 The Merger Proposal: Votes to abstain will not be counted as votes cast in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or if you vote to abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Proposal 2 The Adjournment Proposal: If your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting, but are not voted on, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on, the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the proposal, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock that are not voted will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Proposal 3 The Compensation Proposal: If your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting, but are not voted on this proposal, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on this proposal, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the approval of the proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the proposal, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock held by you or your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q: How do I vote or have my shares voted?

A:

KMG shareholders of record may vote their shares of KMG common stock or submit a proxy to have their shares of KMG common stock voted at the special meeting in one of the following ways:

by telephone or over the Internet, by accessing the telephone number or Internet website specified on the enclosed proxy card. The control number provided on your proxy card is designed to verify your identity when voting by telephone or by Internet. Please be aware that if you vote by telephone or over the Internet, you may incur costs such as telephone and Internet access charges for which you will be responsible;

by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope; or in person, by attending the special meeting and casting your vote there.

If you are a beneficial owner, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee that you must follow in order to have your shares of KMG common stock voted. Those instructions will identify which of the above choices are available to you in order to have your shares voted. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must provide a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee at the special meeting.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

A:

If you vote by proxy, regardless of the method you choose to vote, the individuals named on the enclosed proxy card, and each of them, with full power of substitution, will vote your shares of KMG common stock in the way that you indicate. When completing the Internet or telephone processes or the proxy card, you may specify whether your shares of KMG common stock should be voted for or against or to abstain from voting on all, some or none of the specific items of business to come before the special meeting.

If you properly sign your proxy card but do not mark the boxes showing how your shares of KMG common stock should be voted on a matter, the shares of KMG common stock represented by your properly signed proxy will be voted "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, "FOR" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q: What must I bring to attend the special meeting?

A:

Only KMG shareholders of record as of the close of business on the record date, their duly authorized proxy holders, beneficial owners with proof of ownership and guests of KMG may attend the special meeting. If your shares of KMG common stock are held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, please bring proof of your beneficial ownership of such shares to the special meeting. Acceptable proof could include an account statement showing that you owned shares of KMG common stock on the record date. If you are the representative of a corporate or institutional shareholder, you must present valid photo identification along with proof that you are the representative of such shareholder. Please note that cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the special meeting.

Q: What is the difference between holding shares as a shareholder of record and in "street name"?

A:

If your shares of KMG common stock are registered directly in your name with the transfer agent of KMG, Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions, you are considered, with respect to those shares of KMG common stock, the shareholder of record. If you are a shareholder of record, this proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed proxy card have been sent directly to you by KMG.

If your shares of KMG common stock are held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares of KMG common stock held in "street name." In that case, this proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares of KMG common stock, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee how to vote your shares by following their instructions for voting.

Q: If my shares are held in "street name" by my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A:

Under the rules of the NYSE, banks, brokerage firms or other nominees who hold shares in "street name" for customers have the authority to vote on "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokerage firms and other nominees are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to approving non-routine matters such as the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, and the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger. As a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares of KMG common stock, banks, brokerage firms and other nominees are not empowered to vote those shares of KMG common stock on non-routine matters. These broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, but will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, or the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers of KMG in connection with the merger.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials for the special meeting?

A:

You may receive more than one set of voting materials for the special meeting, including multiple copies of this proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your KMG common stock in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please submit each separate proxy or voting instruction card that you receive by following the instructions set forth in each separate proxy or voting instruction card.

Q: What do I do if I am a KMG shareholder and I want to revoke my proxy?

A:

You have the right to revoke a proxy, whether delivered over the Internet, by telephone or by mail, at any time before it is exercised, by voting again at a later date through any of the methods available to you, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, or by giving written notice of revocation to KMG prior to the time the special meeting begins. Written notice of revocation should be mailed to: KMG Chemicals, Inc., Attention: Corporate Secretary, 300 Throckmorton Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of KMG common stock before the special meeting?

A:

The record date is earlier than both the date of the special meeting and the closing of the merger. If you transfer your shares of KMG common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will, unless the transferee requests a proxy from you, retain your right to vote at the special meeting but will transfer the right to receive the per share merger consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your shares upon completion of the merger.

Q: Do KMG shareholders have dissenters' rights?

A:

Yes. KMG shareholders are entitled to dissenters' rights under Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the Texas Business Organizations Code (the "TBOC"), provided they (i) do not vote in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, (ii) object in writing to the merger prior to the special meeting and (iii) follow the procedures and satisfy the conditions set forth in Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC. For more information regarding dissenters' rights, see the section titled "Dissenters' Rights of KMG Shareholders" beginning on page 136. In addition, a copy of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus. Failure to strictly comply with Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC may result in your waiver of, or inability to, exercise dissenters' rights.

Q: Who will solicit and pay the cost of soliciting proxies?

A:

KMG has engaged Okapi Partners LLC to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting. KMG estimates that it will pay Okapi Partners LLC a fee of $30,000 plus an additional fee of $5.00 per incoming and outgoing telephone contact and telephonic votes received. KMG has agreed to reimburse Okapi Partners LLC for certain out-of-pocket fees and expenses and also will indemnify Okapi Partners LLC against certain claims, costs, damages, liabilities, judgments and expenses. KMG also may reimburse banks, brokerage firms, other nominees or their respective agents for their expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of KMG common stock. KMG's directors, officers and employees also may solicit proxies by telephone, by facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies.

SUMMARY

The following summary highlights selected information described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and may not contain all the information that may be important to you. To understand the merger and the matters being voted on by KMG shareholders at the special meeting more fully, and to obtain a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger agreement, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, and the documents to which Cabot Microelectronics and KMG refer you. Each item in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more complete description of that topic. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

The Parties (see pages 32 and 33)

CMP is a polishing process used by IC device manufacturers to planarize or flatten many of the multiple layers of material that are deposited upon silicon wafers in the production of advanced ICs. Cabot Microelectronics' products play a critical role in the production of advanced semiconductor devices, helping to enable its customers to produce smaller, faster and more complex IC devices with fewer defects. Cabot Microelectronics' mission is to create value by delivering high-performing and innovative solutions that solve its customers' challenges. Cabot Microelectronics common stock trades on the Nasdaq under the symbol "CCMP." The principal executive offices of Cabot Microelectronics are located at 870 North Commons Drive, Aurora, Illinois 60504, and its telephone number is (630) 375-6631.

Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation

Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a Texas corporation and referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as Merger Sub, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. Merger Sub was formed by Cabot Microelectronics solely in contemplation of the merger, has not conducted any business and has no assets, liabilities or obligations of any nature other than as set forth in the merger agreement. The principal executive offices of Merger Sub are located at c/o Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, 870 North Commons Drive, Aurora, Illinois 60504, and its telephone number is (630) 375-6631.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (see pages 45 and 80)

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. KMG and Cabot Microelectronics encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into KMG, with KMG surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics.

The Voting Agreements (see page 101)

In connection with the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics entered into voting agreements with Christopher T. Fraser and Fred C. Leonard III, copies of which are attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. Pursuant to the voting agreements, each of Messrs. Fraser and Leonard has agreed to vote their shares of KMG common stock in favor of the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions. As of the record date, Messrs. Fraser and Leonard collectively owned and were entitled to vote 754,554 shares of KMG common stock, or approximately 4.9% of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock.

Per Share Merger Consideration (see page 45)

Upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of KMG common stock (other than shares (i) held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub (which will be cancelled), (ii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) (which will be converted into shares of the surviving company), (iii) owned by shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, or (iv) underlying KMG restricted stock awards granted after August 14, 2018) will be converted into the right to receive $55.65 in cash, plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. Each KMG shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fractional share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger will instead receive a cash payment in lieu of such fractional share.

Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 14, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $79.93. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on October 4, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $76.06. The implied value of the per share merger consideration will fluctuate as the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock fluctuates because a portion of the per share merger consideration is payable in a fixed number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. As a result, the value of the per share merger consideration that KMG shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger could be greater than, less than or the same as the value of the merger consideration on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or at the time of the KMG special meeting. Accordingly, you should obtain current stock price quotations for Cabot Microelectronics common stock and KMG common stock before deciding how to vote with respect to approval of the merger proposal. Cabot Microelectronics common stock trades on the Nasdaq under the symbol "CCMP," and KMG common stock trades on the NYSE under the symbol "KMG."

Time, Place and Purpose of the Special Meeting

The special meeting to consider and vote upon the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement will be held on November 13, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time), at The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel, 200 Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.

At the special meeting, KMG shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon (i) a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, (ii) the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and (iii) a proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Record Date and Quorum

You are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting if you owned shares of KMG common stock as of the close of business on October 4, 2018, the record date. On the record date, there were 15,553,484 shares of KMG common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. You will have one vote on all matters properly coming before the special meeting for each share of KMG common stock that you owned on the record date.

A majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting constitutes a quorum for the purposes of the special meeting. Shares of KMG common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares of KMG common stock for which a shareholder directs an "abstention" from voting, will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. A quorum is necessary to transact business at the special meeting. Once a share of KMG common stock is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum at the special meeting and any adjournment of the special meeting. However, if a new record date is set for the adjourned special meeting, then a new quorum will have to be determined.

Required Vote

The approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date. Votes to abstain will not be counted as votes cast in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or if you vote to abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote thereon and present in person or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present. For purposes of the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, if your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting but are not voted on, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on, the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the issue, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock that are not voted will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

The approval of the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting and present in person or represented by proxy. For purposes of the proposal, if your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting but are not voted on this proposal, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on this proposal, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the approval of the proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the issue, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock held by you or your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of KMG were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 1,088,049 shares of KMG common stock, representing 7.0% of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock as of the close of business on the record date. The directors and executive officers of KMG have informed KMG that they currently intend to vote all such shares of KMG common stock "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, "FOR" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Proxies and Revocations

Any shareholder of record entitled to vote at the special meeting may submit a proxy by telephone, over the Internet, by returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope or may vote in person by appearing at the special meeting. If your shares of KMG common stock are held in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee on how to vote your shares of KMG common stock using the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or do not provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with instructions as to how to vote your shares, as applicable, your shares of KMG common stock will not be voted on the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, which will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, and your shares of KMG common stock will not have an effect on the vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement or on the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must provide a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee at the special meeting.

You have the right to revoke a proxy, whether delivered by telephone, over the Internet or by mail, at any time before it is exercised, by voting again at a later date through any of the methods available to you, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, or by giving written notice of revocation to KMG prior to the time the special meeting begins. Written notice of revocation should be mailed to: KMG Chemicals, Inc., Attention: Corporate Secretary, 300 Throckmorton Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.

After careful evaluation of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, the KMG board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of KMG and its shareholders and approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

The KMG board of directors unanimously recommends that KMG shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, "FOR" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

In the course of reaching its recommendation, the KMG board of directors consulted with KMG's senior management and financial advisor, KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. ("KBCM") and outside legal counsel and considered a number of factors. See "The Merger KMG's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the KMG Board of Directors" beginning on page 51.

Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. (KBCM) (see page 59)

KBCM was retained by the KMG board of directors to act as financial advisor in connection with the merger. On August 14, 2018, KBCM rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated August 14, 2018, to the KMG board of directors to the effect that, as of such date, and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by KBCM as set forth in its written opinion, the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders of KMG common stock.

The full text of KBMC's written opinion to the KMG board of directors, dated August 14, 2018, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C and is incorporated by reference herein. The written opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications of the review undertaken by KBMC in rendering its opinion. You should read the written opinion carefully in its entirety. The opinion was provided to the KMG board of directors and addresses only, as of the date of the written opinion, the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of the KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, and it does not address any other aspect of the proposed transaction. It does not constitute a recommendation as to how any shareholder should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter, and does not in any manner address the price at which the KMG common stock or Cabot Microelectronics common stock will trade at any future time. The summary of the written opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the written opinion. See the section entitled "The Merger Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. (KBCM)" beginning on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The directors and executive officers of KMG may have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to those of KMG shareholders generally. These interests include the continued employment of certain executive officers of KMG, the treatment in the merger of performance-based and time-based awards granted under any agreement, which we refer to as KMG equity awards, annual bonus and retention bonus awards, employment agreements, the executive severance plan and other rights held by KMG's directors and executive officers, and the indemnification of former KMG directors and officers by Cabot Microelectronics. The KMG board was aware of and considered these interests when it declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and the voting agreements, determined that the terms of the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, were in the best interests of KMG and its shareholders, and recommended that KMG shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. See the sections entitled "The Merger Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus and "Proposal 3: The Compensation Proposal" beginning on page 41 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (see page 72)

The receipt of cash and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder (as defined below in the section titled "The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 72) will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the sum of the cash and the fair market value (as of the effective time) of the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received in the merger and (ii) the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the KMG common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. Non-U.S. holders (as defined below in the section titled "The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 72) that receive the per share merger consideration pursuant to the merger may be subject to U.S. withholding tax with respect to any cash received.

Each holder of KMG common stock should read the discussion under "The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 72 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to a particular holder of KMG common stock will depend on such holder's particular facts and circumstances. Holders of KMG common stock should consult their own tax advisors to determine the specific consequences to them of exchanging their shares of KMG common stock for cash and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock pursuant to the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (see page 72)

Cabot Microelectronics prepares its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as GAAP). The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting. Cabot Microelectronics will be treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes.

Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger (see pages 76 and 97)

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (as amended, the "HSR Act"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC"), the merger cannot be consummated until notifications have been submitted and certain information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the "Antitrust Division") and the FTC, and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Cabot Microelectronics and KMG each filed a pre-merger notification and report form pursuant to the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on August 23, 2018. On September 4, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG each received notice that the FTC granted early termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act. Accordingly, the regulatory condition relating to the expiration or termination of the waiting period (and any extension thereof) under the HSR Act in respect of the merger has been satisfied.

Table of Contents

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as reasonably practicable any consents and approvals of, or the expiration of waiting periods applicable to, any third party, including any governmental entity, necessary, proper or advisable in connection with the merger, subject to limitations as set forth in the merger agreement. See "The Merger Agreement Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page 97 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Litigation Relating to the Merger (see page 77)

On September 24, 2018, a putative shareholder class action was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas styled Richard Walter, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. KMG Chemicals, Inc., et. al., No. 4:18-cv-00785 (the "Walter Lawsuit"). The Walter Lawsuit asserts claims for alleged violation of Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act based on allegations that this proxy statement/prospectus is materially incomplete and misleading. On October 5, 2018, a putative shareholder class and derivative action was filed in the District Court of the State of Texas for Tarrant County styled Jordan Rosenblatt, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. Christopher T. Fraser et al., No. 342-303508-18 (the "Rosenblatt Lawsuit"). The Rosenblatt Lawsuit purports to assert direct and derivative claims for breaches of fiduciary duties against the KMG board of directors and for aiding and abetting those breaches of fiduciary duties against Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub. KMG and Cabot Microelectronics believe the allegations in the lawsuits are without merit.

Expected Timing of Merger

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG currently expect the merger to be completed near the end of calendar year 2018, subject to receipt of required approval from KMG shareholders and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions contained in the merger agreement. However, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG cannot predict the actual date on which the merger will be completed because completion is subject to conditions beyond their control and it is possible that such conditions could result in the merger being completed earlier, later or not at all, as described in more detail in the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 96.

Treatment of KMG Equity Awards (see pages 79 and 84)

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted stock unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted prior to August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest (with any applicable performance metrics deemed satisfied based on the level of achievement specified in the applicable award agreement) and be cancelled and converted in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying the applicable restricted stock unit award.

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted on or following August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics and converted into a restricted stock unit award relating to a number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to (i) the number of shares of KMG common stock subject to such KMG restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (ii) the "equity award exchange ratio" (defined below). The assumed restricted stock unit awards will be subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding KMG equity award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms). The "equity award exchange ratio" means the sum of (a) 0.2000 and (b) the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) obtained by dividing (x) $55.65 by (y) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective time and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time.

Financing of the Merger (see pages 76 and 93)

Consummation of the merger is not conditioned upon Cabot Microelectronics' ability to obtain financing. Cabot Microelectronics expects to use cash on hand and debt financing to fund the cash component of the merger consideration.

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics entered into a commitment letter, dated as of August 14, 2018 (the "commitment letter"), with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A., Goldman Sachs Bank USA and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (together, the "commitment parties"), pursuant to which the commitment parties have committed to arrange and provide, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the commitment letter, a senior secured revolving credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $200,000,000 (the "revolver") and a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,065,000,000 (the "term loan").

Prior to or simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics expects to execute definitive documentation with respect to the revolver and term loan on the terms set forth in the commitment letter. The proceeds of the term loan and, subject to certain limitations, the revolver may be used to finance the merger, repay certain existing indebtedness of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, to pay fees and expenses related to the merger and for general corporate purposes.

Listing of Cabot Microelectronics Common Stock; Delisting of KMG Common Stock (see page 79)

It is a condition to the consummation of the merger that the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued to KMG shareholders in the merger be approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance. As a result of the merger, shares of KMG common stock will cease to be listed on the NYSE.

Dissenters' Rights of KMG Shareholders (see page 136)

The holders of KMG common stock have the right under Texas law to dissent from the merger and have the appraised fair value of their shares of KMG common stock as of the date immediately preceding the effective date of the merger paid to them in cash. The appraised fair value of any particular number of shares of KMG common stock as of such date may be more or less than the value of the merger consideration that a holder of that particular number of shares of KMG common stock would be issued in the merger in exchange for that particular number of shares of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

In order to dissent, the holder of KMG common stock must carefully follow the requirements under Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC governing dissenters' rights, including providing KMG, prior to the KMG special meeting, with a written objection to the merger that states that he or she will exercise his or her right to dissent with respect to his or her shares of KMG common stock if the holders of the KMG common stock approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger is completed. The provisions of the TBOC pertaining to dissenters' rights are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D and the summaries of those provisions in this proxy statement/prospectus should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, those provisions of the TBOC. Persons having beneficial interests in KMG common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to take the actions required under Texas law to exercise their dissenter's rights.

If you intend to exercise dissenters' rights as to shares of KMG common stock that you hold, you should read the provisions of the TBOC governing dissenters' rights carefully and consult with your own legal counsel. Each holder of KMG common stock should also remember that if he or she returns a signed proxy card, but fails to provide instructions on that proxy card as to how his or her shares of KMG common stock are to be voted against the approval of the merger agreement and the merger, such KMG shareholder's shares of KMG common stock will be considered to have voted in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. In that event, such KMG shareholder will not be able to assert dissenters' rights as to his or her shares of KMG common stock.

If the KMG shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement, a holder of KMG common stock who (i) delivers to the president and the secretary of KMG a written objection to the merger prior to the KMG special meeting that states that such holder will exercise his or her right to dissent if the merger agreement and the merger are approved and the merger is completed and includes an address for notice of the effectiveness of the merger, (ii) votes his or her shares of KMG common stock against approval of the merger agreement and the merger are at the KMG special meeting, (iii) not later than the 20th day after Cabot Microelectronics sends such holder notice that the merger was completed, delivers to the president and secretary of Cabot Microelectronics a written demand for payment of the fair value of his or her shares of KMG common stock, which demand states he or she holds shares of KMG common stock and states the number of shares of KMG common stock such holder owns, his or her estimate of the fair value of such shares and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent, and (iv) not later than the 20th day after he or she makes that demand for payment, submits to Cabot Microelectronics the certificates representing his or her shares of KMG common stock will be entitled under the TBOC to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of KMG common stock as of the date immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, and subject to the exceptions summarized below, KMG has agreed that it will not (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiry regarding, or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a KMG takeover proposal (as defined on page 90), (ii) engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations, or furnish to any other person any information in connection with a KMG takeover proposal or (iii) approve, adopt, recommend or enter into (or propose to do any of the foregoing) any letter of intent, agreement or commitment with respect to a KMG takeover proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, if at any time prior to obtaining the approval of the KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, KMG receives a written, bona fide, unsolicited takeover proposal that did not result from a material breach of KMG's non-solicitation obligations, KMG may (i) furnish information with respect to KMG to the party making the KMG takeover proposal (subject to certain conditions and obligations described below) and (ii) engage in discussions or negotiations with the party making such KMG takeover proposal, if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the KMG takeover proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a KMG superior proposal (as defined on page 91) and that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

KMG agreed to promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Cabot Microelectronics if the KMG board of directors makes a determination that a KMG takeover proposal constitutes or is reasonably expected to lead to a KMG superior proposal or if KMG furnishes nonpublic information and/or enters into discussions or negotiations with a person making a KMG takeover proposal.

KMG also agreed to promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after, to the knowledge of KMG, its receipt) notify Cabot Microelectronics of the receipt of a KMG takeover proposal or any request for information relating to KMG or other inquiry or communication that is reasonably likely to lead to a KMG takeover proposal. Such notice must include the identity of the person or persons making the KMG takeover proposal (or the related proposal or inquiry) and the material terms thereof. Further, after giving such a notice, KMG must keep Cabot Microelectronics reasonably informed, on a current basis, as to the status of any KMG takeover proposal (including any material developments, discussions or negotiations related thereto) by promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after receipt) providing Cabot Microelectronics copies of any correspondence, proposals, indications of interest, and/or draft agreements relating to such KMG takeover proposal.

No Change in Recommendation or Termination for a Company Superior Proposal (see page 92)

The merger agreement provides that, subject to certain exceptions, the KMG board of directors will not (i) fail to include the KMG board of directors recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus; (ii) change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify the KMG board of directors recommendation (or authorize or publicly propose to do so); (iii) fail to recommend against any KMG takeover proposal that is a tender or exchange offer within ten business days of such tender or exchange offer; or (iv) adopt, approve or recommend to KMG shareholders a KMG takeover proposal (or resolve or publicly propose or announce its intention to do so).

However, at any time before approval by KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is obtained, the KMG board of directors may, with respect to a bona fide, unsolicited KMG takeover proposal that did not result from a material breach by KMG of its non-solicitation obligations under the merger agreement, make a KMG adverse recommendation change (following compliance with the obligation to provide an opportunity to Cabot Microelectronics to make a revised proposal as described below), if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that (i) such KMG takeover proposal constitutes a KMG superior proposal or (ii) the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

In addition, at any time before approval by KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is obtained, the KMG board of directors may, in response to a KMG intervening event (as defined on page 92), make a KMG adverse recommendation change (following compliance with the obligation to provide an opportunity to Cabot Microelectronics to make a revised proposal), if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Prior to making any KMG adverse recommendation change, (i) the KMG board of directors must provide Cabot Microelectronics four business days' prior written notice of any intention to take such action (specifying, among other things, the identity of the person making a KMG takeover proposal and copies of the related agreements, if any, or the KMG intervening event, as applicable); (ii) during the four business days following the delivery of such written notice, KMG must consider in good faith any revisions or changes to the merger agreement or the merger proposed by Cabot Microelectronics; and (iii) after the four business days, the KMG board of directors must conclude, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that even if the revisions committed to in writing by Cabot Microelectronics were to be accepted by KMG, the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the KMG board of directors and, in the case of a KMG takeover proposal, that the proposal continues to constitute a KMG superior proposal.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see page 96)

The obligations of each of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the shares of the KMG common stock outstanding on the record date must have been obtained;

the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this prospectus/proxy statement forms a part must have been declared effective by the SEC under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Form S-4 may be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose may be initiated by the SEC;

no court or other governmental entity may have entered or issued an order, writ, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling, directive or award, or adopted or enacted a law, that prohibits, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the merger;

the waiting period (or extensions thereof) applicable to the merger under the HSR Act must have expired or been terminated;

shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that will be issued in connection with the merger must have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance;

the other party must have performed or complied in all material respects with its covenants;

subject to certain exceptions and materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, the representations and warranties of the other party must be true and correct at and as of the closing date as though made at and as of the closing date (except if made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date);

since the date of the merger agreement, there must not have been any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence, condition or development that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on the other party; and the other party must have delivered to the party a certificate, dated as of the closing date and signed by its chief executive officer or another senior officer, certifying to the effect that the preceding three conditions have been met.

Neither Cabot Microelectronics nor KMG can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 98)

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, whether before or after the receipt of KMG shareholder approval of the merger proposal.

Either Cabot Microelectronics or KMG may terminate the merger agreement, whether before or after the receipt of KMG shareholder approval of the merger proposal:

if the merger has not been consummated by February 14, 2019 (which deadline may be extended, under certain circumstances, to May 14, 2019) (such date, as it may be extended, the "end date");

if a governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has entered or issued a final and nonappealable order or adopted or enacted a law that permanently restrains, enjoins or makes illegal consummation of the merger;

if the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement by KMG shareholders has not been obtained upon a vote on the approval of the merger proposal at the special meeting (including any postponement or adjournment thereof); or if the other party has materially breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement and such breach (i) would result in the failure of the terminating party's conditions to closing and (ii) is not curable or is not cured by the earlier of the end date and the date that is 30 business days following written notice describing such breach in reasonable detail.

Cabot Microelectronics may also terminate the merger agreement, prior to receipt of approval of the merger proposal by KMG shareholders, if (i) a KMG adverse recommendation change occurs or (ii) KMG is in material and willful breach of its non-solicitation obligations or its obligations to hold the special meeting under the merger agreement and such breach is not curable or is not cured by the earlier of the end date and the date that is 30 business days following written notice describing such breach in reasonable detail.

Expenses and Termination Fees Relating to the Merger (see page 99)

KMG must pay Cabot Microelectronics a termination fee of $38,765,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances involving an adverse recommendation change, a breach of KMG's non-solicitation obligations or obligations relating to the KMG special meeting under the merger agreement. In addition, in the event that the merger agreement is terminated because (i) the merger is not consummated prior to the End Date, (ii) the KMG shareholder approval has not been obtained at the special meeting of KMG shareholders, or (iii) KMG materially and willfully breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements, and in any such case (a) a competing takeover proposal has been publicly announced or disclosed prior to such termination and (b) within 12 months after such termination, KMG enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, the announced or disclosed KMG takeover proposal (in each case with references to 25% in the definition of a KMG takeover proposal being replaced by 50% for this purpose) the termination fee is also payable.

All other expenses relating to the merger will generally be paid by the party incurring or required to incur the expense; except that KMG and Cabot Microelectronics will each pay one-half of all filing fees required under the HSR Act and filing fees and printing and mailing costs for this proxy statement/prospectus.

Comparison of Rights of Common Stockholders of Cabot Microelectronics and Common Shareholders of KMG (see page 127)

KMG shareholders receiving shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger will have different rights once they become stockholders of Cabot Microelectronics due to differences between the governing corporate documents and corporate state laws applicable to KMG and Cabot Microelectronics.

SUMMARY UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following tables present unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information about Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated balance sheet and statements of income after giving effect to the merger with KMG, financing activities related to the merger and KMG's 2017 acquisition of Flowchem. The information under "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet" in the table below gives effect to the merger as if it had taken place on June 30, 2018. The information under "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statement of Income" in the table below gives effect to the merger as if it had taken place on October 1, 2016, and gives effect to KMG's 2017 acquisition of Flowchem as if it had taken place on August 1, 2016. This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information was prepared using the acquisition method of accounting where Cabot Microelectronics is considered the acquirer of KMG for accounting purposes. See the section titled "The Merger Accounting Treatment of the Merger" beginning on page 72.

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have different fiscal years. Cabot Microelectronics' fiscal year ends on September 30, whereas KMG's fiscal year ends on July 31. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and statements of income have been prepared utilizing period ends that differ by less than 93 days, as permitted by Rule 11-02 Regulation S-X.

This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and is based on assumptions and estimates considered appropriate by Cabot Microelectronics' management; however, it is not necessarily indicative of what Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated financial condition or results of operations actually would have been assuming the transactions had been consummated as of the dates indicated, nor does it purport to represent Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated financial position or results of operations for future periods. The adjustments included in this unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information are preliminary and may be revised. This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not consider any impacts of potential revenue enhancements, anticipated cost savings and expense efficiencies or other synergies that may be achieved in the acquisitions or any strategies that management may consider in order to continue to efficiently manage Cabot Microelectronics' operations. Future results may vary significantly from the results reflected due to various factors, including those discussed in the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22. The information presented below should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, including the related notes filed by each of them with the SEC, the historical consolidated financial statements and pre-acquisition financial information of Flowchem as filed by KMG with the SEC and the pro forma condensed combined financial information of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG and Flowchem, including the related notes appearing elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See the sections titled "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on pages 146 and 103, respectively.

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE INFORMATION

The following tables set forth historical per share information of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG and unaudited pro forma condensed combined per share information after giving effect to the merger, financing activities related to the merger and KMG's 2017 acquisition of Flowchem. You should not rely on this information as being indicative of the historical results that would have been achieved had the companies always been combined or the future results that Cabot Microelectronics will experience after the merger. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed combined per share data has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 103 and the related notes included in this proxy statement/prospectus beginning on page 109. The historical per share data has been derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG and unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information about Cabot Microelectronics' combined balance sheet and statements of income after giving effect to the merger with KMG and KMG's 2017 acquisition of Flowchem, in each case and as of and for the periods indicated, included and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. The equivalent basis pro forma combined amounts are calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined data by an exchange ratio of 0.2, which is the share exchange consideration to KMG shareholders in Cabot stock as contemplated in the merger agreement. The equivalent basis pro forma calculations exclude the $55.65 per share cash portion of the merger consideration.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that are not limited to historical facts but reflect Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's current beliefs, expectations or intentions regarding future events. Words such as "anticipate," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "forecast," "guidance," "intend," "may," "plan," "possible," "potential," "predict," "project," "pursue," "will," "should," "target," and other similar words, phrases or expressions or the negative thereof are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's expectations with respect to the potential revenue enhancements, anticipated cost savings and expense efficiencies or other synergies, costs and other anticipated financial impacts of the merger; future financial and operating results of the combined company; the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations and services; required adoption of the merger agreement by KMG shareholders; required approvals of the merger by governmental regulatory authorities; the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the merger; and the timing of the completion of the merger.

All forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, many of which are generally outside the control of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG and difficult to predict. These risks and uncertainties include, among others, those set forth under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22, as well as risks and uncertainties relating to:

the uncertainty of the value of the merger consideration that KMG shareholders will receive in the merger due to a fixed exchange ratio and a potential fluctuation in the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock;

the possibility that the consummation of the merger is delayed or does not occur, including due to the failure of KMG shareholders to approve the merger proposal;

the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement or the failure to satisfy the closing conditions;

the taking of governmental action (including the passage of legislation) to block the merger or otherwise adversely affecting Cabot Microelectronics and KMG;

KMG's directors and executive officers having interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of KMG shareholders generally;

the effect of restrictions placed on Cabot Microelectronics', KMG's or their respective subsidiaries' business activities and the limitations put on KMG's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger pursuant to the merger agreement;

the disruption from the merger making it more difficult for Cabot Microelectronics and KMG to maintain relationships with their respective customers, employees or suppliers;

the possibility of actual results of operations, cash flows and financial position after the merger materially differing from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus;

the possibility of changes in circumstances between the date of the signing of the merger agreement and the closing of the merger that are not reflected in the fairness opinion obtained by the KMG board of directors;

unexpected costs or unexpected liabilities that may arise from the merger, whether or not consummated;

the outcome of any legal proceedings that have been or may be instituted against Cabot Microelectronics, KMG or others following announcement of the merger;

the inability of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG to retain key personnel;

the ability of Cabot Microelectronics to successfully integrate the business of KMG;

the possibility that the expected cost savings and synergies from the merger will not be realized or will take longer to realize than expected;

the risk that the financing required to complete the merger is not obtained or is obtained on terms other than those currently anticipated, including financing less favorable to Cabot Microelectronics than its current commitments;

the effect of the additional indebtedness that Cabot Microelectronics will incur in connection with the merger; and the impact of global economic conditions, fluctuations in exchange rates, labor relations, competitive actions taken by other semiconductor businesses or other competitors, terrorist attacks or natural disasters.

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. Additional information concerning these and other risk factors is contained in Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's most recently filed Annual Reports on Form 10-K and subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other SEC filings, as such filings may be amended from time to time. All of the forward-looking statements made by Cabot Microelectronics or KMG contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and all subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning Cabot Microelectronics, KMG, the merger or other matters attributable to Cabot Microelectronics or KMG or any person acting on either of their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statement above.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date such statements were made. Neither Cabot Microelectronics nor KMG undertakes any obligation to update or revise any of these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date hereof, even if experience or future changes make it clear that projected results expressed or implied in such statements will not be realized, except as may be required by applicable law. Neither Cabot Microelectronics nor KMG intends to make any update or other revision to these forward-looking statements publicly available, except as may be required by applicable law.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section titled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 20, you should carefully consider the following risk factors before deciding whether to vote for the merger proposal and the other proposals described in this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, you should read and consider the risk factors associated with each of the businesses of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG because these risk factors will relate to the combined company following the completion of the merger. These risk factors may be found in Cabot Microelectronics' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2017 and KMG's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2017 and, in each case, any amendments thereto, as such risk factors may be updated or supplemented in each company's subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or Current Reports on Form 8-K, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section titled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the exchange ratio is fixed for the stock portion of the merger consideration and the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock has fluctuated and will continue to fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration you will receive.

Upon completion of the merger, shares of KMG common stock will be converted into the right to receive $55.65 in cash, plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 14, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $79.93. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on October 4, 2018, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $76.06. The implied value of the per share merger consideration will fluctuate as the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock fluctuates because a portion of the per share merger consideration is payable in a fixed number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. The value of the stock portion of the merger consideration has fluctuated since the date of the announcement of the merger agreement and will continue to fluctuate from the date of this proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the special meeting and the date the merger is completed and thereafter. Accordingly, at the time of the special meeting, KMG shareholders will not know or be able to determine the market value of the merger consideration they would receive upon completion of the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including, among others, general market and economic conditions, changes in Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's respective businesses, operations and prospects, market assessments of the likelihood that the merger will be completed, the timing of the merger, regulatory considerations and other risk factors set forth or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. Many of these factors are beyond Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's control. You are urged to obtain current market quotations for Cabot Microelectronics common stock before deciding whether to vote for the merger proposal.

Completion of the merger is subject to the conditions contained in the merger agreement and if these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the merger will not be completed.

The obligations of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including, among others, the approval of the merger proposal by KMG shareholders. For a more complete summary of the required regulatory approvals and the conditions to the closing of the merger, see the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger."

Many of the conditions to the closing of the merger are not within Cabot Microelectronics' or KMG's control, and neither company can predict when or if these conditions will be satisfied. If any of these conditions are not satisfied or waived prior to February 14, 2019, which deadline may be extended, under certain circumstances, to May 14, 2019, it is possible that the merger agreement will be terminated. The failure to satisfy all of the required conditions could delay the completion of the merger for a significant period of time or prevent it from occurring. Any delay in completing the merger could cause Cabot Microelectronics not to realize some or all of the benefits that Cabot Microelectronics expects to achieve if the merger is successfully completed within its expected timeframe. There can be no assurance that the conditions to the closing of the merger will be satisfied or waived or that the merger will be completed.

KMG's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a shareholder of KMG generally.

When considering the recommendation of the KMG board of directors that KMG shareholders approve the merger proposal, KMG shareholders should be aware that directors and executive officers of KMG have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of KMG shareholders generally. These interests generally include, among others, rights to accelerated vesting of equity awards and certain payments (including retention bonus awards) and benefits in connection with the merger and/or a qualifying termination of employment following the merger. See the section titled "The Merger Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 68 for a more detailed description of these interests. As a result of these interests, directors and executive officers of KMG might be more likely to support and vote in favor of the merger proposal than if they did not have these interests. KMG's board of directors were aware of these interests and considered them, among other things, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that the KMG shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement.

The merger agreement limits KMG's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger and may discourage other companies from trying to acquire KMG.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it more difficult for KMG to sell its business to a party other than Cabot Microelectronics. These provisions include a general prohibition on KMG soliciting any company takeover proposal or offer for a competing transaction. Further, there are only limited exceptions to KMG's agreement that the KMG board of directors will not withdraw or modify the recommendation of the KMG board of directors that KMG shareholders vote in favor of the merger proposal, and KMG is not permitted to terminate the merger agreement or enter into an agreement with respect to a competing company takeover proposal if the KMG board of directors withdraws or modifies such recommendation. In addition, upon termination of the merger agreement, KMG is required to pay Cabot Microelectronics a termination fee of $38,765,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances involving an adverse recommendation change or a willful and material breach of KMG's non-solicitation obligations or certain obligations relating to the KMG special meeting under the merger agreement.

These provisions could discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of KMG from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if that party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share value than the value proposed to be received or realized in the merger. These provisions might also result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower price than it might otherwise have proposed to pay because of the added expense of the termination fee that may become payable in certain circumstances.

The merger agreement subjects KMG to restrictions on its business activities.

The merger agreement subjects KMG to restrictions on its business activities and obligates KMG to generally operate its businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course. These restrictions could have an adverse effect on KMG's results of operations, cash flows and financial position. See the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conduct of Businesses of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics Prior to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 87 for a description of the restrictions applicable to KMG.

The business relationships of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG and their respective subsidiaries may be subject to disruption due to uncertainty associated with the merger, which could have an adverse effect on the results of operations, cash flows and financial position of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG and, following the completion of the merger, the combined company.

Parties with which Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, or their respective subsidiaries, do business may be uncertain as to the effects on them of the merger and related transactions, including with respect to current or future business relationships with Cabot Microelectronics, KMG, their respective subsidiaries or the combined company. These relationships may be subject to disruption as customers, suppliers and other persons with whom Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or might decide to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationships with Cabot Microelectronics or KMG, as applicable, or consider entering into business relationships with parties other than Cabot Microelectronics, KMG, their respective subsidiaries or the combined company. These disruptions could have an adverse effect on the results of operations, cash flows and financial position of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or the combined company following the completion of the merger, including an adverse effect on Cabot Microelectronics' ability to realize the expected synergies and other benefits of the merger. The risk, and adverse effect, of any disruption could be exacerbated by a delay in completion of the merger or termination of the merger agreement.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively affect the stock price and the future business and financial results of KMG.

If the merger is not completed for any reason, including as a result of KMG shareholders failing to approve the merger proposal, the ongoing business of KMG may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the benefits of having completed the merger, KMG could be subject to a number of negative consequences, including, among others, the following:

KMG may experience negative reactions from the financial markets, including negative impacts on its stock price;

KMG may experience negative reactions from its customers and suppliers;

KMG may experience negative reactions from its employees and may not be able to retain key management personnel and other key employees;

KMG will have incurred, and will continue to incur, significant non-recurring costs in connection with the merger that it may be unable to recover;

the merger agreement places certain restrictions on the conduct of KMG's business prior to completion of the merger, the waiver of which is subject to the consent of Cabot Microelectronics, which may prevent KMG from making certain acquisitions, taking certain other specified actions or otherwise pursuing business opportunities during the pendency of the merger that may be beneficial to KMG (see the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conduct of Businesses of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics Prior to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 87 for a description of the restrictions applicable to KMG); and matters relating to the merger (including integration planning) will require substantial commitments of time and resources by KMG management, which could otherwise be devoted to day-to-day operations and other opportunities that may be beneficial to KMG as an independent company.

In addition, upon termination of the merger agreement, KMG is required to pay Cabot Microelectronics a termination fee of $38,765,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances involving an adverse recommendation change, a breach of KMG's non-solicitation obligations or certain obligations relating to the special meeting under the merger agreement. Finally, KMG could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the merger or related to any enforcement proceeding commenced against KMG to perform its obligations under the merger agreement. If the merger is not completed, any of these risks may materialize and may adversely affect KMG's businesses, financial condition, financial results and stock price.

Completion of the merger will trigger change in control or other provisions in certain agreements to which KMG is a party, which may have an adverse impact on the combined company's business and results of operations.

The completion of the merger will trigger change in control and other provisions in certain agreements to which KMG is a party. If KMG and Cabot Microelectronics are unable to negotiate waivers of those provisions, the counterparties may exercise their rights and remedies under the agreements, potentially terminating the agreements or seeking monetary damages. Even if KMG and Cabot Microelectronics are able to negotiate waivers, the counterparties may require a fee for such waivers or seek to renegotiate the agreements on terms less favorable to KMG or the combined company. Any of the foregoing or similar developments may have an adverse impact on the combined company's business and results of operations. See section titled "The Merger Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

The shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be received by KMG shareholders as a result of the merger will have rights different from the shares of KMG common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, KMG shareholders will no longer be shareholders of KMG but will instead receive cash and Cabot Microelectronics common stock and become Cabot Microelectronics stockholders, and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the terms of the Cabot Microelectronics charter and bylaws and by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). See the section titled "Comparison of Rights of Common Stockholders of Cabot Microelectronics and Common Shareholders of KMG" beginning on page 127 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary and the actual financial condition and results of operations after the merger may differ materially from them.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what Cabot Microelectronics' actual financial condition or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information reflects adjustments, which are based upon assumptions, preliminary estimates and accounting reclassifications, to record the KMG identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value and the resulting goodwill recognized. The purchase price allocation reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of KMG as of the date of the completion of the merger. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus. For more information, see "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 103.

The prospective financial information for Cabot Microelectronics and KMG is based on various assumptions that may not prove to be correct.

The unaudited prospective financial information of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG set forth in the section entitled "The Merger Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information" was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants with respect to prospective financial information. In the view of KMG's management, the prospective information was prepared on a reasonable basis, reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, as applicable, and presented, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the expected course of action and the expected future financial performance of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG. However, the prospective information is not fact. Further, prospective financial information does not reflect any impact of the proposed transaction and has not been updated since the date of preparation.

The prospective financial information was prepared and provided by KMG's management, Cabot Microelectronics' management and/or KBCM as described in such section. The independent registered public accounting firms of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have not audited, reviewed, examined, compiled nor applied agreed upon procedures with respect to the accompanying prospective financial information and accordingly, the independent registered public accounting firms of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The unaudited prospective financial information was prepared solely for internal use to assist in the evaluation of the business combination. Such information is inherently subjective in nature, though considered reasonable by the management of KMG as of the date such information was prepared, and is susceptible to interpretation and, accordingly, contemplated results may not be achieved. While presented with numerical specificity, the unaudited prospective financial information reflects numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to future industry performance under various industry scenarios as well as assumptions for competition, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and matters specific to the businesses of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's control. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing any particular information will prove accurate. There will be differences between actual and prospective results, and the differences may be material. The risk that these uncertainties and contingencies could cause the assumptions to fail to be reflective of actual results is further increased due to the length of time over which these assumptions apply. In light of the foregoing factors and the uncertainties inherent in the unaudited prospective financial information, KMG shareholders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the unaudited prospective financial information, and the inclusion of the unaudited prospective financial information in this proxy statement should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results contained therein will be achieved.

The fairness opinion obtained by the KMG board of directors from KBCM does not reflect changes, circumstances, developments or events that may have occurred or may occur after the date of the fairness opinion. The KMG board of directors has not obtained an updated fairness opinion as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus from KBCM, and the KMG board of directors does not expect to receive an updated fairness opinion prior to the closing of the merger.

At the meeting of the KMG board of directors on August 14, 2018, KBCM rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the various assumptions, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in its written opinion, the consideration of $55.65 in cash and 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, per share of KMG common stock to be received pursuant to, and in accordance with, the terms of the merger agreement by the holders of KMG common stock, other than (i) Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub and (ii) shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. KBCM's fairness opinion does not reflect changes, circumstances, developments or events that may have occurred or may occur after the date of its opinion, including changes in the operations and prospects of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics or their respective operating companies, regulatory or legal changes, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics, and on which KBCM's opinion was based, and that may alter the value of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics or the prices of shares of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics common stock by the time the merger is completed. The value of the stock portion of the merger consideration has fluctuated since, and could be materially different from its value as of, the date of KBCM's opinion, and KBCM's opinion does not address the prices at which shares of KMG common stock or Cabot Microelectronics common stock may have traded or trade since the date of its opinion. KBCM's opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of its opinion. KMG does not anticipate asking KBCM to update its opinion, and KBCM does not have any obligation or responsibility to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events that may have occurred or may occur after the date of its opinion. The fairness opinion that KMG received from its financial advisor is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion, see "The Merger Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc (KBCM)." For a description of the other factors considered by KMG's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, see "The Merger KMG's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the KMG Board of Directors."

The merger may not be accretive, and may be dilutive, to Cabot Microelectronics earnings per share, which may negatively affect the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

Because shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock will be issued in the merger, it is possible that the merger will be dilutive to Cabot Microelectronics earnings per share, which could negatively affect the market price of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. Based on the number of outstanding shares of KMG common stock as of October 4, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics would issue approximately 3,110,696 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger. The issuance of these new shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock could have the effect of depressing the market price of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, through dilution of earnings per share or otherwise.

In addition, future events and conditions could decrease accretion or increase dilution relative to current expectations including adverse changes in market conditions, additional transaction and integration related costs and other factors such as the failure to realize some or all of the benefits anticipated in the merger. Any dilution of, or delay of any accretion to, Cabot Microelectronics' earnings per share could cause the price of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to decline or grow at a reduced rate.

The merger will involve substantial costs.

KMG and Cabot Microelectronics have incurred, and expect to continue to incur, a number of non-recurring costs associated with the merger and combining the operations of the two companies. The substantial majority of non-recurring expenses will be comprised of transaction and regulatory costs related to the merger.

Table of Contents

Cabot Microelectronics and the combined company also will incur transaction fees and costs related to formulating and implementing integration plans, including facilities and systems consolidation costs and employment-related costs. Cabot Microelectronics continues to assess the magnitude of these costs, and additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in the merger and the integration of the two companies' businesses. Although Cabot Microelectronics expects that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses, should allow Cabot Microelectronics to offset integration-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

Lawsuits may in the future be filed against KMG, its directors, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub challenging the merger, and an adverse ruling in any such lawsuit may prevent the merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

Transactions like the merger are frequently the subject of litigation or other legal proceedings, including actions alleging that the board of directors of either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics breached their respective fiduciary duties to their stockholders by entering into the merger agreement, by failing to obtain a greater value in the transaction for their stockholders or otherwise. Both KMG and Cabot Microelectronics believe that any such litigation or proceedings would be without merit, but there can be no assurance that they will not be brought. If litigation or other legal proceedings are in fact brought against either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics or against the board of directors of either company, they will defend against it, but they might not be successful in doing so. An adverse outcome in such matters, as well as the costs and efforts of a defense even if successful, could have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operation or financial position of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or the combined company, including through the possible diversion of either company's resources or distraction of key personnel.

Further, one of the conditions to the completion of the merger is that no injunction by any court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction will be in effect that temporarily or permanently prohibits, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the merger. As such, if any of the plaintiffs are successful in obtaining an injunction prohibiting the consummation of the merger, that injunction may prevent the merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

Uncertainties associated with the merger may cause a loss of management personnel and other key employees of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, which could adversely affect the future business and operations of the combined company following the merger.

KMG and Cabot Microelectronics are dependent on the experience and industry knowledge of their officers and other key employees to execute their business plans. The combined company's success after the merger will depend in part upon its ability to retain key management personnel and other key employees of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics. Current and prospective employees of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company following the merger, which may materially adversely affect the ability of each of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics to attract and retain key personnel during the pendency of the merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the combined company will be able to retain key management personnel and other key employees of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics.

Risks Relating to the Business of the Combined Company Upon Completion of the Merger

The market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock after the merger will continue to fluctuate and may be affected by factors different from those affecting shares of KMG common stock currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of KMG common stock will receive cash and Cabot Microelectronics common stock and become holders of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. The market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock may fluctuate significantly following completion of the merger and holders of KMG common stock could lose the value of their investment in Cabot Microelectronics common stock. In addition, any significant price and volume fluctuations of the stock markets could have a material adverse effect on the market for, or liquidity of, the Cabot Microelectronics common stock, regardless of Cabot Microelectronics' actual operating performance. In addition, Cabot Microelectronics' business differs in important respects from that of KMG, and accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG. For a discussion of the businesses of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

Sales of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock after the completion of the merger may cause the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to fall.

Based on the number of outstanding shares of KMG common stock as of October 4, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics would issue approximately 3,110,696 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger. Certain KMG shareholders may decide not to hold the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock they will receive in the merger. Other KMG shareholders, such as funds with limitations on their permitted holdings of stock in individual issuers, may be required to sell the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that they receive in the merger. Such sales of Cabot Microelectronics common stock could have the effect of depressing the market price for Cabot Microelectronics common stock and may take place promptly following the merger.

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger may not be realized.

KMG and Cabot Microelectronics have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger, including anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on Cabot Microelectronics' ability to successfully combine and integrate the businesses of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG. It is possible that the pendency of the merger and/or the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, higher than expected costs, diversion of management attention of both KMG and Cabot Microelectronics, the disruption of either company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with customers, vendors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger. As part of the integration process, Cabot Microelectronics may also attempt to divest certain assets of the combined company, which may not be possible on favorable terms, or at all, or if successful, may change the profile of the combined company. If Cabot Microelectronics experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. Cabot Microelectronics' management continues to refine its integration plan. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the merger. In addition, the actual cost savings of the merger could be less than anticipated.

After the merger, KMG shareholders will have a significantly lower ownership and voting interest in Cabot Microelectronics than they currently have in KMG and will exercise less influence over management.

Based on the number of shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of October 4, and the number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock outstanding as of October 4, it is expected that, immediately after completion of the merger, former KMG shareholders will own approximately 10.9% of the outstanding shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. Consequently, former KMG shareholders will have less influence over the management and policies of Cabot Microelectronics than they currently have over the management and policies of KMG.

In connection with the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will incur additional indebtedness and may also assume certain of KMG's outstanding indebtedness, which could adversely affect Cabot Microelectronics, including by decreasing Cabot Microelectronics' business flexibility, and will increase its interest expense.

As of June 30, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics had no consolidated indebtedness. Cabot Microelectronics' pro forma indebtedness as of June 30, 2018, after giving effect to the merger and the anticipated incurrence and extinguishment of indebtedness in connection therewith, is expected to be approximately $1.03 billion. Cabot Microelectronics will have increased indebtedness following completion of the merger in comparison to that of Cabot Microelectronics on a recent historical basis, which could have the effect, among other things, of reducing Cabot Microelectronics' flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions and increasing Cabot Microelectronics' interest expense. Cabot Microelectronics will also incur various costs and expenses associated with the financing of the merger. The amount of cash required to pay interest on Cabot Microelectronics' increased indebtedness levels following completion of the merger and thus the demands on Cabot Microelectronics' cash resources will be greater than the amount of cash flows required to service the indebtedness of Cabot Microelectronics prior to the merger. The increased levels of indebtedness following completion of the merger could also reduce funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate purposes and may create competitive disadvantages for Cabot Microelectronics relative to other companies with lower debt levels. If Cabot Microelectronics does not achieve the expected benefits and cost savings from the merger, or if the financial performance of the combined company does not meet current expectations, then Cabot Microelectronics' ability to service its indebtedness may be adversely impacted.

Certain of the indebtedness to be incurred in connection with the merger may bear interest at variable interest rates. If interest rates increase, variable rate debt will create higher debt service requirements, which could adversely affect Cabot Microelectronics' cash flows.

In addition, Cabot Microelectronics' credit ratings impact the cost and availability of future borrowings and, accordingly, Cabot Microelectronics' cost of capital. Cabot Microelectronics' ratings reflect each rating organization's opinion of Cabot Microelectronics' financial strength, operating performance and ability to meet Cabot Microelectronics' debt obligations. In connection with the debt financing, it is anticipated that Cabot Microelectronics will seek ratings of its indebtedness from Standard & Poor's and Moody's. There can be no assurance that Cabot Microelectronics will achieve a particular rating or maintain a particular rating in the future.

Moreover, Cabot Microelectronics may be required to raise substantial additional financing to fund working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions or other general corporate requirements. Cabot Microelectronics' ability to arrange additional financing will depend on, among other factors, Cabot Microelectronics' financial position and performance, as well as prevailing market conditions and other factors beyond Cabot Microelectronics' control. Cabot Microelectronics cannot assure you that it will be able to obtain additional financing on terms acceptable to Cabot Microelectronics or at all.

The agreements that will govern the indebtedness to be incurred in connection with the merger will contain various covenants that impose restrictions on Cabot Microelectronics and certain of its subsidiaries that may affect their ability to operate their businesses.

The agreements that will govern the debt financing to be incurred in connection with the merger will contain various affirmative and negative covenants that may, subject to certain significant exceptions, restrict the ability of Cabot Microelectronics and certain of its subsidiaries to, among other things, incur liens, incur debt, engage in mergers, consolidations and acquisitions, transfer assets outside the ordinary course of business, make loans or other investments, pay dividends, repurchase equity interests, make other payments with respect to equity interests, repay or repurchase subordinated debt and engage in affiliate transactions. In addition, the agreements that will govern the debt financing will contain a financial covenant that will require Cabot Microelectronics to maintain certain financial ratios. The ability of Cabot Microelectronics and its subsidiaries to comply with these provisions may be affected by events beyond their control. Failure to comply with these covenants could result in an event of default, which, if not cured or waived, could accelerate Cabot Microelectronics' repayment obligations.

Other Risk Factors of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG

Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's businesses are and will be subject to the risks described above. In addition, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG are, and will continue to be subject to the risks described in Cabot Microelectronics' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2017 and KMG's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2017, as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The risks described above and in those filings represent all known material risks with respect to Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's businesses. KMG shareholders must approve and adopt the merger agreement in order for the merger to occur. If KMG shareholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the merger will not occur. Record Date and Quorum KMG has set the close of business on October 4, 2018 as the record date for the special meeting, and only holders of record of KMG common stock on the record date are entitled to vote at the special meeting. You are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting if you owned shares of KMG common stock as of the close of business on the record date. On the record date, there were 15,553,484 shares of KMG common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. You will have one vote on all matters properly coming before the special meeting for each share of KMG common stock that you owned on the record date.

A majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting constitutes a quorum for the purposes of the special meeting. Shares of KMG common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares of KMG common stock for which a shareholder directs an "abstention" from voting, will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. A quorum is necessary to transact business at the special meeting. Once a share of KMG common stock is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum at the special meeting and any adjournment of the special meeting. However, if a new record date is set for the adjourned special meeting, then a new quorum will have to be determined.

Vote Required

The approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date. For the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, you may vote "FOR," "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN." Votes to abstain will not be counted as votes cast in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or if you vote to abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

If your shares of KMG common stock are registered directly in your name with the transfer agent of KMG, Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions, you are considered, with respect to those shares of KMG common stock, the shareholder of record. If you are a shareholder of record, this proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed proxy card have been sent directly to you by KMG.

If your shares of KMG common stock are held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares of KMG common stock held in "street name." In that case, this proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares of KMG common stock, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee how to vote your shares by following their instructions for voting.

Under the rules of the NYSE, banks, brokerage firms or other nominees who hold shares in "street name" for customers have the authority to vote on "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokerage firms and other nominees are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to approving non-routine matters such as the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, and the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger. As a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares of KMG common stock, banks, brokerage firms and other nominees are not empowered to vote those shares of KMG common stock on non-routine matters. These broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, but will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement or the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers of KMG in connection with the merger.

The adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote thereon and present in person or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present. For purposes of the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, if your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting but are not voted on, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on, the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the issue, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock held by you or your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

The proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting and present in person or represented by proxy. For purposes of the proposal, if your shares of KMG common stock are present in person at the special meeting but are not voted on this proposal, or if you have given a proxy and abstained on this proposal, this will have the same effect as if you voted "AGAINST" the proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the issue, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock held by you or your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will not be counted in respect of, and will not have an effect on, the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

If you vote by proxy, regardless of the method you choose to vote, the individuals named on the enclosed proxy card, and each of them, with full power of substitution, will vote your shares of KMG common stock in the way that you indicate. When completing the Internet or telephone processes or the proxy card, you may specify whether your shares of KMG common stock should be voted for or against or to abstain from voting on all, some or none of the specific items of business to come before the special meeting.

If you properly sign your proxy card but do not mark the boxes showing how your shares of KMG common stock should be voted on a matter, the shares of KMG common stock represented by your properly signed proxy will be voted "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, "FOR" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

You have the right to revoke a proxy, whether delivered over the Internet, by telephone or by mail, at any time before it is exercised, by voting again at a later date through any of the methods available to you, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, or by giving written notice of revocation to KMG prior to the time the special meeting begins. SHAREHOLDERS WHO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING MAY REVOKE THEIR PROXIES BY VOTING IN PERSON.

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of KMG were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 1,088,049 shares of KMG common stock, representing 7.0% of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock. The directors and executive officers of KMG have informed KMG that they currently intend to vote all such shares of KMG common stock "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, "FOR" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement or if a quorum is not present at the special meeting. An adjournment generally may be made with the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote thereon and present in person or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present. Any adjournment of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow KMG shareholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the special meeting as adjourned.

PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER PROPOSAL

As discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus, KMG is asking its shareholders to approve the merger proposal. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics will acquire KMG in the merger. Merger Sub will merge with and into KMG, with KMG as the surviving company in the merger. If the merger is completed, KMG will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics and the KMG common stock will be delisted from the NYSE, deregistered under the Exchange Act and cease to be publicly traded.

As described in further detail in the sections titled "Questions and Answers" beginning on page iv, "Summary" beginning on page 1, "The Merger" beginning on page 45 and "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 80, the KMG board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. For a discussion of certain factors considered by the KMG board of directors in determining to approve and adopt the merger agreement and recommend that KMG shareholders vote for the merger proposal, see "The Merger KMG's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the KMG Board of Directors" beginning on page 51. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. You are urged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

The merger is subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, including approval of the merger proposal by the shareholders of KMG at the special meeting. Accordingly, the approval of the merger proposal by KMG shareholders is a condition to the obligations of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG to complete the merger.

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of KMG common stock outstanding on the record date is required to approve the merger proposal.

THE KMG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT KMG SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL 2: THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

KMG shareholders are being asked to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement or in the absence of a quorum. If this adjournment proposal is approved, the special meeting could be adjourned to such time and place as determined by the majority of KMG shareholders present at the meeting. Pursuant to the merger agreement, KMG is not permitted to postpone or adjourn the special meeting, unless KMG (i) determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that any supplement or amendment to this proxy statement is required by applicable law to be provided to KMG shareholders or (ii) has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of KMG common stock to constitute a quorum to conduct the business of the special meeting or to obtain the requisite company vote to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. However, without Cabot Microelectronics' prior written consent, the special meeting may not be postponed to a date later than 20 business days after the date for which the special meeting was originally scheduled. All other postponements or adjournments shall require Cabot Microelectronics' prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

If the special meeting is adjourned for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, KMG shareholders who have already submitted their proxies will be able to revoke them at any time prior to their use. If you sign and return a proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote on any proposal, or if you sign and return a proxy and you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement but do not indicate a choice on the adjournment proposal, your shares of common stock will be voted in favor of the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or there are broker non-votes on the issue, as applicable, the shares of KMG common stock that are not voted will not be counted in respect of, and will have no effect on, the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting.

KMG does not anticipate calling a vote on the adjournment proposal if Proposal 1 is approved by the requisite number of shares of KMG common stock at the special meeting.

The vote on the adjournment proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and vote not to approve the adjournment proposal and vice versa.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote thereon and present in person or represented by proxy, whether or not a quorum is present.

THE KMG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT KMG SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL, IF A VOTE ON THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL IS CALLED.

Table of ContentsPROPOSAL 3: THE COMPENSATION PROPOSAL*"Golden Parachute" Compensation Payable to KMG's Named Executive Officers

The information below is intended to comply with SEC regulations requiring disclosure of information about compensation for each "named executive officer" of KMG that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This compensation is referred to as "golden parachute" compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules.

The consummation of the merger will constitute a "change of control" under the terms of certain KMG employment agreements and the KMG Executive Severance Plan (the "ESP"). For a description of the merger-related compensation payable to and the treatment of outstanding equity awards held by KMG's executive officers, see the section entitled "Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following table sets forth the amount of payments and benefits that may be paid or become payable to each of KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger, assuming:

the merger consideration value is assumed to be $77.45 per share of KMG common stock, which is calculated based on a share price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $108.99, which, as required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, is based on the average closing market price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock as quoted on Nasdaq over the first five business days following the public announcement of the merger;

the merger was consummated on October 4, 2018, which is the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus; and each named executive officer of KMG was terminated without cause, or resigned for good reason, in each case, immediately following the consummation of the merger.

For further discussion of retention bonuses, see the section entitled "Retention Bonus Program" beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.
- (3) The equity amounts set forth in this column reflect payments of time-based and performance-based stock awards payable in connection with the consummation of the merger or upon a termination of the named executive officer's employment without cause or the named executive officer's resignation with good reason, in each case, within 18 months following completion of the merger. Unvested shares as of October 4, 2018, which is the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, are reflected in the table below under the heading "Single-Trigger." - (i) Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted stock unit award held by the KMG named executive officers that was granted prior to August 14, 2018 will fully vest and be cancelled in exchange for merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying the award.
- (ii) KMG performance stock unit awards held by KMG's named executive officers will be earned at maximum performance levels, pursuant to the terms of the applicable award agreements.
- (iii) Restricted stock unit awards granted after August 14, 2018 will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics, converted into a restricted stock unit award relating to shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock and payable only upon a qualifying termination of employment within 18 months following consummation of the merger. The number of shares of KMG common stock reflected in the table above represents 150% of the target number of shares subject to the award, which is the number of shares that would vest upon a termination without cause or resignation with good reason during the 18 months following the closing.
- (iv) The "Single-Trigger" columns of the table include certain awards that are expected to vest in the ordinary course during October and early November 2018 (i.e., prior to the anticipated consummation of the merger). Vote Required and Board of Directors Recommendation

The Dodd-Frank Act and the Exchange Act require that KMG seek an advisory (non-binding) vote from its shareholders to approve certain "golden parachute" compensation that its "named executive officers" will receive from KMG in connection with the merger. The proposal gives KMG's shareholders the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation of KMG's named executive officers. Approval requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of KMG common stock entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting and present in person or represented by proxy. Accordingly, KMG is asking its shareholders to approve the following resolution on a non-binding, advisory basis:

"RESOLVED, that the shareholders approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the agreements or understandings with and items of compensation payable to the named executive officers of

KMG Chemicals, Inc. that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger with Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, as disclosed in the section of the proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Proposal 3: The Compensation Proposal."

THE KMG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT KMG SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE THE "GOLDEN PARACHUTE" COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS DESCRIBED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS BY VOTING "FOR" THE COMPENSATION PROPOSAL.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger, and the vote with respect to this proposal is advisory only and will not be binding on KMG or Cabot Microelectronics. If the merger is completed, the "golden parachute" compensation may be paid to KMG's named executive officers even if KMG shareholders fail to approve the "golden parachute" compensation.

THE MERGER

This section of this proxy statement/prospectus describes the material aspects of the proposed merger. This section may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the full text of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the proposed merger. In addition, important business and financial information about each of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG is included in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

Per Share Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into KMG, with KMG surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. Upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of KMG common stock (other than shares (i) held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub (which will be cancelled), (ii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) (which will be converted into shares of the surviving company), (iii) owned by shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, or (iv) underlying KMG restricted stock awards granted after August 14, 2018) will be converted into the right to receive $55.65 in cash, plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. Each KMG shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fractional share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger will instead receive a cash payment in lieu of such fractional share. See the section titled "The Merger Exchange of Shares" beginning on page 77 for a discussion of the treatment of fractional shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

Based on the number of shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of October 4, Cabot Microelectronics would issue approximately 3,110,696 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to KMG shareholders pursuant to the merger. The actual number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger will be determined at completion of the merger based on the exchange ratio and the number of shares of KMG common stock outstanding at such time. Based on the number of shares of KMG common stock outstanding as of October 4, and the number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock outstanding as of October 4, immediately after completion of the merger, former KMG shareholders would own approximately 10.9% of the outstanding shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 14, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $79.93. Based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on October 4, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of KMG common stock implied by the per share merger consideration is $76.06. The implied value of the per share merger consideration will fluctuate, however, as the market price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock fluctuates because a portion of the per share merger consideration is payable in a fixed number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. As a result, the value of the per share merger consideration that KMG shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger could be greater than, less than or the same as the value of the merger consideration on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or at the time of the KMG special meeting. Accordingly, KMG and Cabot Microelectronics encourage you to obtain current stock price quotations for Cabot Microelectronics common stock and KMG common stock before deciding how to vote with respect to approval of the merger proposal.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, the KMG board, with input from senior management of KMG, has reviewed KMG's long-term strategy and objectives, and considered ways in which KMG might enhance shareholder value. Generally, these reviews have centered on improving KMG's existing operations, pursuing opportunities in new markets or lines of business, or in considering acquisitions or dispositions of businesses. In addition, the KMG board has considered periodically whether enhanced shareholder value is best pursued as a standalone company or through a potential strategic business combination involving KMG.

On March 21, 2018, at a meeting of the KMG board, KBCM attended the meeting to present and discuss recommendations for strategic alternatives. The KMG board asked KBCM to conduct this assessment due to its familiarity with KMG and its experience in the chemicals sector. At that meeting, representatives of KBCM discussed with the KMG board various strategic alternatives for value creation and realization, and the KMG board asked questions of KBCM regarding those alternatives. Among the various strategic alternatives KBCM presented were (i) keeping the status quo, (ii) enhancing shareholder return of capital, (iii) divesting the electronic chemicals segment, and (iv) a strategic business combination with a strategic buyer or financial buyer. In discussing the alternative of exploring a strategic business combination, KBCM suggested engaging in a targeted outreach to assess the interest in a potential strategic business combination with KMG of a limited universe of potential parties that it described to the KMG board. During this meeting, the KMG board also invited Haynes and Boone, LLP, legal counsel to KMG (referred to herein as Haynes and Boone), to present and discuss fiduciary duties of the KMG board.

After KBCM's representatives left the meeting, the KMG board discussed KBCM's presentation and considered advantages and disadvantages of exploring the potential for a strategic business combination involving KMG in a confidential manner at that time. The KMG board considered the benefits of commencing a strategic initiative at this time in light of the current favorable outlook in KMG's businesses and the risk of multiple contraction over time. The KMG board also discussed whether the primary focus of the initiative should be on strategic buyers or possible financial buyers and discussed a preliminary list of potential buyers. After a discussion, the KMG board decided to move forward with KBCM to explore the potential for a strategic business combination involving KMG, while continuing to consider other strategic alternatives. Following the meeting, KBCM was informed that KMG intended to engage it as financial advisor, and an engagement letter with KBCM was subsequently executed on April 26, 2018.

In late March 2018, KMG's senior management and KBCM refined a list of potential parties for KBCM to contact on behalf of KMG. In March and April 2018, KBCM, contacted twenty-seven potential parties, comprised of ten potential strategic buyers and seventeen potential financial buyers. Fifteen potential buyers were interested in proceeding and signed non-disclosure agreements. Four of these were potential strategic buyers and eleven were potential financial buyers. KBCM contacted Cabot Microelectronics in its initial outreach, but Cabot Microelectronics declined to participate at that time.

During March and April 2018, KBCM also worked with the senior management of KMG to refine its understanding of KMG's business and prospects, and to prepare a confidential information presentation. In April 2018, potential buyers who had executed non-disclosure agreements were provided with the confidential information presentation. Certain of those potential buyers also met with KMG management to further discuss their evaluation of a potential strategic business combination with KMG. KBCM asked interested buyers to deliver indications of interest by April 23, 2018.

In late April 2018, five parties submitted preliminary written, non-binding proposals for the potential strategic business combination involving KMG at the following valuations:

Company A (strategic buyer): $75.00 per share in cash and stock consideration, split not specified;

Company B (financial buyer): $72.00 - $73.00 per share in cash consideration;

Company C (financial buyer): $72.73 per share in cash consideration;

Company D (financial buyer): $70.00 - $72.00 per share in cash consideration; and Company E (financial buyer): $70.00 per share in cash consideration.

On April 25, 2018, at a special meeting of the KMG board, KBCM gave an update on the strategic alternatives initiative, and discussed the proposals that were received from potential buyers, including the various interest levels of the potential buyers, the value drivers and considerations expressed by potential buyers, and suggested a plan for continuing with potential buyers. KBCM also provided information regarding the potential buyers it had contacted and assessed each of the parties who submitted proposals. Following KBCM's presentation, the KMG board and KMG senior management discussed constraints related to management presentations and potential risks to the business in the event of a breach of confidentiality. The KMG board reviewed the rationale for continuing with the exploration of a potential strategic business combination, including shareholder liquidity and potential pricing and market risks. The KMG board agreed to proceed with exploring a potential strategic business combination involving KMG with the four parties believed to have the greatest interest in pursuing a transaction. For reference, KMG's closing stock price on April 25, 2018 was $63.59 per share.

Following the April 25, 2018 meeting and direction from the KMG board, KBCM invited Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D to participate in the next phase of the initiative. KMG also established a confidential dataroom. Additionally, Haynes and Boone prepared a draft merger agreement to be used to gauge interest from potential bidders in a potential strategic business combination with KMG.

On May 2, 2018, Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D were provided access to the dataroom with more detailed diligence information regarding KMG. On May 5, 2018, a draft merger agreement was made available to the potential buyers.

Between May 2, 2018 and June 1, 2018, Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D undertook additional due diligence to evaluate the potential strategic business combination with KMG.

Between May 7, 2018 and May 10, 2018, KMG held in-person management presentations in Dallas, Texas with representatives of each of Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D. At each of these meetings, KMG's senior management provided a detailed presentation regarding KMG's business and financial outlook. Subsequently, on May 14, 2018, the KMG board met by telephone to discuss the status of the discussions and in-person management presentations with each of Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D.

On May 18, 2018, representatives of KBCM received revised drafts of the merger agreement from Company C and Company D as well as a merger agreement issues list from Company A, which revised drafts were subsequently provided to representatives of KMG and Haynes and Boone. No potential buyers other than Company C and Company D submitted a revised draft of the merger agreement to KMG or its advisors. On May 24, 2018, Haynes and Boone had conference calls with counsel for each of Company C and Company D to discuss certain terms in the drafts of the merger agreement submitted by Company C and Company D. On May 30, 2018, representatives of Haynes and Boone sent revised drafts of the draft merger agreement to legal counsel for each of Company C and Company D.

KBCM requested refreshed bids from the four potential buyers by June 1, 2018. Company A and Company B each decided not to participate in the next phase and did not submit refreshed bids, while Company D submitted a letter indicating they could not offer a sufficient premium value relative to KMG's current trading levels to pursue a transaction at that time. For reference, KMG's closing price on June 1, 2018, the date of receipt of Company D's letter, was $67.06 per share.

On June 4, 2018, Company C submitted a written refreshed bid of $72.00 per share in cash consideration for the potential strategic business combination with KMG.

The KMG board met later on June 4, 2018, with representatives of Haynes and Boone and KBCM. KBCM provided an update on the status of the strategic alternatives since the prior meeting, including the further due diligence efforts by the potential buyers, the decision of Company A, Company B and Company D not to continue with a transaction, and reported on the correspondence received from Company C and Company D. Representatives of KBCM discussed the evaluation by Company C and Company C's due diligence plans going forward. The KMG board also discussed with KBCM the likely impact of continued increases in the price of KMG common stock, including the premium that a potential buyer might be willing or able to pay, and that this had been cited by Company D in declining to proceed. KBCM suggested to the KMG board that KMG ask Company C to continue with its due diligence, focus on its valuation and provide another revised draft of the merger agreement in order to have a comprehensive view of Company C's position on key legal points. KBCM also suggested that KMG further evaluate the path forward after gauging the market reaction to KMG's forthcoming earnings release.

On June 11, 2018, KMG reported its third quarter financial results after the markets closed. Subsequently, KMG's stock price increased from a closing price of $70.51 per share on June 11, 2018 to $79.26 per share on June 12, 2018.

KBCM had a discussion with Company C following KMG's third quarter earnings announcement. Company C indicated it could not meaningfully increase its previously submitted bid proposal of $72.00 per share at that time. KBCM relayed the information to KMG's management and KMG suspended further diligence and discussions with Company C.

Between the KMG board meeting on June 4, 2018 and the entry into the merger agreement with Cabot Microelectronics, the KMG board held a number of meetings and discussions, described below, as part of the strategic alternatives review. Members of KMG's senior management, including Christopher T. Fraser, KMG's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, Marvin T. Green III, KMG's Chief Financial Officer and Roger C. Jackson, KMG's Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, along with KMG's financial and legal advisors, participated in many of these meetings.

On June 13, 2018, William Noglows, Cabot Microelectronics' Chairman of the Board, reached out to Gerald G. Ermentrout, KMG's lead independent director, and on June 14, 2018 David Li, the Chief Executive Officer of Cabot Microelectronics reached out to Mr. Fraser, to express Cabot Microelectronics' interest in exploring a potential transaction with KMG. Representatives of Cabot Microelectronics also contacted representatives of KBCM regarding Cabot Microelectronics' interest in discussing a potential transaction. On June 15, 2018, the KMG board met by telephone with its management and representatives of Haynes and Boone and KBCM, discussed the recent contacts from Cabot Microelectronics, and decided to continue discussions with Cabot Microelectronics about a possible transaction. Subsequently, on June 26, 2018, KMG and Cabot Microelectronics executed an amended non-disclosure agreement to exchange further information between the parties relating to a potential transaction.

On July 3, 2018, select members of senior management of KMG met in Fort Worth, Texas with select members of senior management of Cabot Microelectronics. At this meeting, each of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics delivered presentations on their respective companies and provided a detailed review of their respective businesses and corporate structures.

On July 10, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics provided KMG with a written, non-binding indication of interest to acquire KMG for $78.00 per share of KMG common stock, comprised of 60% cash and 40% shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock.

On July 16, 2018, the KMG board held a special meeting, with representatives of KBCM and Haynes and Boone also present, to discuss Cabot Microelectronics' indication of interest from July 10, 2018. On July 17, 2018, the KMG board reconvened to further discuss Cabot Microelectronics' indication of interest. The KMG board directed KBCM to contact Cabot Microelectronics to request an increase in its valuation of KMG. Subsequently, KBCM reverted to Cabot Microelectronics, and conveyed the request from the KMG board to increase its valuation of KMG.

On July 17, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics submitted a revised non-binding indication of interest of $80.00 per share, comprised of 60% cash and 40% shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, which was subject to satisfactory completion of due diligence. KMG informed Cabot Microelectronics that it would be permitted to conduct a diligence review and would be asked to re-confirm its proposal in approximately two weeks.

Between July 18, 2018 and August 3, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics and its representatives undertook an extensive due diligence investigation of KMG, which included meetings and numerous conference calls with KMG senior management and a review of materials made available by KMG in an electronic dataroom. In addition, Cabot Microelectronics requested visits to several of KMG's operating facilities. Cabot Microelectronics senior management conducted these initial site visits between July 23, 2018 and August 5, 2018.

On July 27, 2018, Shearman & Sterling LLP (referred to herein as Shearman & Sterling) was retained by KMG as additional legal advisors and co-counsel to Haynes and Boone, to assist in the evaluation, consideration and negotiation of the Cabot Microelectronics proposal.

On July 28, 2018, representatives of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, special counsel for Cabot Microelectronics (referred to herein as Wachtell) provided a draft of a merger agreement to KMG and its representatives.

On August 3, 2018, following substantial completion of its due diligence review, Cabot Microelectronics verbally indicated in a telephone conversation between Mr. Li and Mr. Fraser a revised valuation of $78.00 per share of KMG common stock, and indicated that it would be willing to increase the cash component of the merger consideration from 60% up to 70%. That same day, Mr. Fraser, Mr. Jackson and a working group of independent KMG directors, comprised of Mr. Ermentrout, John C. Hunter III, and Robert Harrer, met by telephone to consider the Cabot Microelectronics proposal. The working group of independent KMG directors was established to provide guidance and oversight to KMG senior management in connection with exploring a potential business combination involving KMG. After discussing the proposal, it was decided that Mr. Fraser, with the guidance and oversight of the working group of independent KMG directors, would contact Cabot Microelectronics to further improve price and terms.

Following that meeting, over the next two days, Mr. Li and Mr. Fraser negotiated further and Cabot Microelectronics agreed to increase its offer price to $79.50 per share comprised of 70% cash and 30% shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. In addition, based on the merger consideration to be offered and the mix of the merger consideration, the parties negotiated and agreed on the transaction structure for the strategic business combination and a termination fee payable by KMG to Cabot Microelectronics in certain circumstances equal to 3% of the equity value of KMG per the transaction.

On August 5, 2018, the KMG board held a special meeting. KMG management discussed with the KMG board the offer from Cabot Microelectronics to acquire all of the outstanding equity interests of KMG for $79.50 per share, comprised of 70% cash and 30% shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, which the KMG board determined would increase the value certainty of the consideration paid to KMG shareholders while still offering KMG shareholders the ability to participate in any upside of the combined company through the stock portion of the merger consideration. The KMG board also discussed certain material open issues relating to the draft merger agreement, including the total purchase price and the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the price. The KMG board instructed KMG senior management to continue with Cabot Microelectronics and attempt to finalize outstanding terms of the merger agreement with Cabot Microelectronics. As requested, Mr. Fraser and Mr. Li spoke by telephone and agreed to an exchange ratio whereby the 30% stock component would be based on a fixed exchange ratio with the exchange ratio determined based on the twenty trading day volume weighted average price for Cabot Microelectronics common stock ending the last full trading day prior to the signing of the merger agreement.

On August 6, 2018, representatives of Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling provided comments to Wachtell on the draft merger agreement proposed by Cabot Microelectronics.

In addition, on August 10, 2018, Wachtell provided a draft form of voting agreement for certain significant shareholders of KMG.

Between August 6, 2018 and August 14, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics completed its due diligence review of KMG. During this period, KMG also conducted due diligence on Cabot Microelectronics.

Between August 7, 2018 and August 14, 2018, representatives of Wachtell, on behalf of Cabot Microelectronics, and Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling, on behalf of KMG, continued to negotiate the terms of the draft merger agreement. Among the key terms negotiated were provisions relating to the ability of the KMG board to respond to alternative proposals and termination fee triggers, covenants and representations relating to Cabot Microelectronics' financing for the proposed merger, the scope of the representations and warranties of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics, the restrictions on KMG and Cabot Microelectronics' respective businesses after the execution of the merger agreement, matters relating to retention of KMG's officers and employees, the definition of material adverse effect and the scope of Cabot Microelectronics' obligations with respect to obtaining antitrust clearance. During this period, Wachtell and Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling also exchanged drafts of the form of the voting agreement and agreed that the two KMG directors with the largest ownership of KMG common stock, Mr. Fraser and Fred Leonard III, would each enter into a voting agreement.

On August 14, 2018, the KMG board held a special meeting to review the proposed strategic business combination between KMG and Cabot Microelectronics on the terms set forth in the proposed merger agreement. Representatives of KBCM, Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling were also present. Representatives of Haynes and Boone provided a detailed overview of the KMG board's fiduciary duties under laws of the State of Texas. Representatives of Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling reviewed the material terms of the proposed merger, the proposed merger agreement and the proposed form of the voting agreement. KMG's management also reviewed with the KMG board the results of the due diligence done on Cabot Microelectronics by management and Haynes and Boone. KMG's management also reported that the merger agreement provided for a final cash and exchange ratio with an implied value of $79.50, based on the trailing 20 trading days volume weighted average price and an implied value of $79.86, valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 13, 2018. In addition, representatives of Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling summarized the resolution of certain key issues under the proposed merger agreement. Representatives of KBCM presented their financial analysis of the proposed merger. Thereafter, KBCM delivered an oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the KMG board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the proposed per share merger consideration to be received by KMG shareholders, which opinion was based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by KBCM as more fully described under the section entitled "The Merger Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. (KBCM)" beginning on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

At the request of the KMG board, Mr. Fraser, Mr. Green, Mr. Jackson and KBCM left the meeting. The independent members of the KMG board and representatives of Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling remained in the meeting. The independent members of the KMG board then engaged in a detailed discussion of the proposed merger, the proposed merger agreement and the proposed form of the voting agreement. In view of the knowledge of the independent members of the KMG board of the industry, prior discussions of the other strategic alternatives available to KMG, as well as potential parties that would be interested in a strategic business combination with KMG and taking into account the prior discussions with potential buyers contacted by KBCM, the independent members of the KMG board confirmed that Cabot Microelectronics was the party best positioned to offer a strategic business combination on the most favorable terms reasonably available to KMG. The KMG board also discussed the same types of risks and uncertainties facing KMG as a standalone entity as were addressed at prior board meetings. After taking into consideration the discussions with KMG's financial advisors, outside counsel, and members of KMG senior management, the independent members of the KMG board determined that it was in the best interests of KMG and its shareholders to proceed with the proposed merger on the terms negotiated with Cabot Microelectronics. Mr. Fraser and Mr. Jackson rejoined the meeting. Mr. Ermentrout, the lead independent director, advised Mr. Fraser of the conclusions of the independent members of the KMG board. Mr. Fraser noted his agreement with those conclusions. The KMG board then unanimously adopted the proposed board resolutions. The full KMG board unanimously authorized, approved and declared advisable the proposed merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the proposed merger agreement and voting agreements. The full KMG board also directed that the proposed merger agreement be submitted to KMG shareholders for consideration and recommended that KMG shareholders approve the proposed merger agreement, including the proposed merger. For a full description of the factors considered by the KMG board in connection with its recommendation of the merger, please see the section entitled, "Recommendation of the KMG Board of Directors."

Following the KMG board meeting, the proposed merger agreement and voting agreements were finalized and executed, and on the morning of August 15, 2018, KMG and Cabot Microelectronics issued a joint press release announcing the transaction.

KMG's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the KMG Board of Directors

At a meeting held on August 14, 2018, the KMG board unanimously (i) approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, (ii) determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of KMG and its shareholders, (iii) directed that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby be submitted to KMG shareholders for approval and adoption and (iv) recommended that KMG shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger .

ACCORDINGLY, THE KMG BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT KMG SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE MERGER.

In addition, the KMG board unanimously recommends that KMG shareholders vote "for" the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting (or any adjournment or postponement) to approve the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, including the merger, and "for" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for KMG's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

As described in the section entitled "The Merger Background of the Merger" beginning on page 46 of this proxy statement/prospectus, the KMG board, in evaluating the merger and the merger agreement, consulted with KMG senior management and its legal and financial advisors and, in reaching its decision at its meeting on August 14, 2018 to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, considered a variety of factors weighing positively and negatively in respect of the merger. In light of the number and wide variety of factors considered in connection with KMG's evaluation of the transaction, the KMG board did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. The KMG board viewed its position as being based on all of the information available and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weight to different factors.

The reasons in favor of the merger considered by the KMG board include, among others and not necessarily in order of relative importance, the following:

The merger consideration consisting of cash consideration and stock consideration for each share of KMG's common stock, and the premium represented by the implied value of the merger consideration upon execution of the merger agreement as compared to the historical price of KMG common stock;

The stock consideration component of the per share merger consideration would provide KMG shareholders an additional premium if the value of Cabot Microelectronics' common stock increased, and would provide KMG shareholders with the opportunity to participate in the equity value of the combined company and potential upside following the merger;

The cash consideration component of the merger consideration provides a degree of certainty to the value of the consideration to be received in the merger;

The increased liquidity of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock compared with shares of KMG common stock;

The due diligence conducted by KMG regarding Cabot Microelectronics' business, assets, financial condition, results of operations business plan and prospects, including:

The size and scale of the combined company following the merger, especially the potential increased scale and scope of operations of the combined company following the merger;

The complementary nature and geographic diversity of the assets of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics;

The potential for significant operational and financial synergies of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics; and

The balance sheet strength and liquidity of the combined company following the merger;

The financial analyses reviewed by KBCM with the KMG board and the oral fairness opinion delivered by KBCM to the KMG board (which was promptly followed by a written opinion confirming the oral opinion) as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration to be received by KMG shareholders, which opinion was based on and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by KBCM as more fully described in the section entitled "The Merger Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc. (KBCM)" beginning on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus. KMG SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE OPINION OF KBCM IN ITS ENTIRETY;

Multiples of various EBITDA measures represented by the enterprise value of KMG implied by the $79.86 per share implied value of the merger consideration (valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on August 13, 2018, the last day prior to the KMG board's approval of the merger agreement), including multiples of approximately:

13.9x based on KMG's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the last twelve months as of the third fiscal quarter of 2018; and

13.3x based on KMG's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the 2018 fiscal year;

The KMG board's belief, taking into account the perspectives provided by KBCM and KMG's senior management, and after considering reasonable alternatives including remaining independent and the results of the strategic alternatives review conducted by KBCM, that the merger with Cabot Microelectronics and the merger consideration was the best value reasonably available to KMG and its shareholders;

The KMG board's understanding of and KMG senior management's review of overall market conditions, including the current, historical and potential future trading prices for KMG common stock and Cabot Microelectronics common stock, and the KMG board's determination that, in light of these factors, the timing of the potential transaction was favorable to KMG and KMG's shareholders; and

The review by the KMG board with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to their respective obligations and the termination provisions, as well as the likelihood of consummation of the merger and the KMG board's evaluation of the likely time period necessary to close the merger. The KMG board also considered the following specific aspects of the merger agreement:

The KMG board's view that the merger agreement contained customary terms and conditions and provided reasonable assurances that the merger would ultimately be consummated on a timely basis;

The nature of the closing conditions included in the merger agreement, including the exceptions to the events that would constitute a material adverse effect with respect to KMG or Cabot Microelectronics for purposes of the merger agreement, as well as the likelihood of satisfaction of all conditions to the consummation of the merger;

KMG's right to engage in negotiations with, and provide information to, a third party that makes an unsolicited KMG takeover proposal if the KMG board determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's legal and financial advisors, that such proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a KMG superior proposal, subject to certain conditions (as described in further detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of KMG Takeover Proposals" beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

The KMG board's right to change its recommendation that KMG shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement with respect to a KMG superior proposal or a KMG intervening event, subject to certain conditions and the right of Cabot Microelectronics to terminate the merger agreement and receive a termination fee from KMG (as described in further detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement Company Superior Proposals; Intervening Events" beginning on page 92 of this proxy statement/prospectus); and Certain other provisions in the merger agreement, including the termination provisions.

The KMG board considered the following factors relating to the procedural safeguards that the KMG board believes were present to ensure the fairness of the merger to KMG and KMG's shareholders:

The per share merger consideration and the other terms and conditions of the merger agreement resulted from extensive, arm's-length negotiations between Cabot Microelectronics and its advisors, on the one hand, and KMG and its advisors, on the other hand;

The fact that the discussions related to the merger and the consideration and negotiation of the per share merger consideration and other terms of the proposed merger were conducted with the oversight of the independent members of the KMG board;

The fact that the KMG board was actively involved in KMG's strategic alternatives review for many months and that the KMG board (i) was advised by Haynes and Boone and Shearman & Sterling, KMG's legal co-counsel, and KBCM, KMG's financial advisor, (ii) conducted extensive deliberations and discussions with KMG senior management and such advisors and (iii) oversaw the extensive negotiations with Cabot Microelectronics regarding the terms of the proposed merger;

The ability of the KMG shareholders who comply with all of the required procedures within applicable time periods under the applicable laws of the State of Texas to dissenters' rights and to seek the "fair value" of KMG's common stock rather than the per share merger consideration;

KMG's right to engage in negotiations with, and provide information to, a third party that makes an unsolicited KMG takeover proposal if the KMG board determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's legal and financial advisors, that such proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a KMG superior proposal, subject to certain conditions (as described in further detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of KMG Takeover Proposals" beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

The KMG board's ability in certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions to change, qualify, withdraw or modify its recommendation that KMG shareholders vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement;

That although, pursuant to the voting agreements, the shareholders party to the voting agreements have committed to vote in favor of approving the merger agreement and the merger, such commitments are automatically suspended upon a change in the recommendation of the KMG board in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement; and

The independent members of the KMG board, without members of KMG senior management, met in executive session to consider the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and the voting agreements, and unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and the voting agreements.

The KMG board considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in its deliberations and making its recommendations:

The risk that the proposed merger might not be completed in a timely manner or at all;

Edgar Filing: CABOT MICROELECTRONICS CORP - Form 424B3

Table of Contents

The risks and costs to KMG if the merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential disruptive effect on KMG's various business relationships;

The restrictions on KMG's operations prior to completion of the merger, including the requirement that KMG conduct business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, subject to specific limitations, which may delay or prevent KMG from undertaking business opportunities that may arise before the completion of the merger or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of KMG pending the completion of the merger;

That because the merger consideration includes a fixed exchange ratio of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to KMG common stock, KMG's shareholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock as the merger agreement does not provide for any adjustment of the exchange ratio if the trading price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock decreases and does not provide a price-based termination right to KMG;

The fact that the receipt of the merger consideration by U.S. KMG shareholders in exchange for shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and could have material U.S. federal income tax consequences for such shareholders;

That the merger agreement requires the KMG board to submit the proposed transaction to the vote of the KMG shareholders at a special meeting even if the KMG board has made an adverse recommendation change and that the KMG board may not submit an alternative KMG takeover proposal to the vote of the KMG shareholders other than this merger unless the merger agreement is terminated;

The possibility that the termination fee of $38,765,000, payable by KMG upon the termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances, may discourage other potential acquirers from making a competing proposal for a transaction with KMG (as described in further detail in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement Termination Fee" beginning on page 99 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

The fact that, if the transaction is not completed as a result of regulatory impediments or other reasons, Cabot Microelectronics will not be obligated to pay any "reverse termination fee";

The potential for negative reaction by the market or from customers and employees to the merger based on the business rationale for the merger, the timing of the merger or the terms of the merger;

The fact that if the proposed merger is not completed, KMG will be required to pay its own expenses associated with the negotiation of the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby, as well as, under certain circumstances, to pay Cabot Microelectronics the termination fee of $38,765,000, in connection with the termination of the merger agreement; and

The business execution and integration risk after the merger is completed.

The KMG board believed and continues to believe that these potential risks and drawbacks are outweighed by the potential benefits that the KMG board expects to achieve as a result of the merger. The KMG board realized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results considered or expected as disclosed in the foregoing reasons.

The foregoing description of KMG's consideration of the factors supporting the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is forward-looking in nature. This information should be read in light of the factors discussed in the section entitled

"Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 20 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

During its consideration of the merger described above, the KMG board was also aware that certain of its directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to, those of KMG shareholders generally, as described in the section entitled "The Merger Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Neither Cabot Microelectronics nor KMG generally publishes its business plans and strategies or makes external disclosures of its anticipated financial position or results of operations due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates, other than, in each case, providing, from time to time, estimated ranges of certain expected financial results and operational metrics for the current year and certain future years in their respective regular earnings press releases and other investor materials.

Prospective Financial Information Relating to KMG

In connection with the merger, KMG provided the following unaudited prospective financial information, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the KMG prospective financial information to KBCM and Cabot Microelectronics on July 26, 2018 for their use and reliance in connection with its financial analyses and fairness opinion delivered to the KMG board in connection with the merger. The KMG board also reviewed and considered the KMG prospective financial information.

The KMG prospective financial information reflects numerous assumptions and estimates that KMG management made in good faith, with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to KMG's business, including future initiatives, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond KMG's control. The KMG prospective financial information also reflects subjective judgment in many respects and thus is susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. The prospective information also reflects assumptions as to certain business decisions that are subject to change.

Extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics Prospective Financial Information

In addition, KBCM also prepared, used and relied on in connection with its financial analyses and fairness opinion the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information for fiscal years 2022P and 2023P set forth in the table below based on the following assumptions: (i) a 6% revenue growth rate for 2022P and a 3% revenue growth rate for 2023P, (ii) consistent EBITDA margins as compared to 2021P and (iii) the same level of capital expenditures as 2021P. The KMG prospective financial information, the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information (collectively, the "prospective financial information") included above is provided to give KMG shareholders access to certain non-public information that was made available to KMG, the KMG board and KBCM in connection with the KMG's evaluation of the merger, and is not included in this proxy statement/prospectus in order to influence any KMG shareholder to make any investment decision with respect to the merger, including whether or not to seek dissenters' rights for appraisal with respect to shares of KMG common stock. Except as described above, the prospective financial information was, in general, prepared solely for internal use and is subjective in many respects and thus subject to interpretation. While presented with numerical specificity, the prospective financial information reflects numerous assumptions and estimates that the parties preparing such projections made in good faith at the time such projections were prepared with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to the applicable party. These assumptions are inherently uncertain, were made as of the date the parties' projections were prepared, and may not be reflective of actual results, either since the date such projections were prepared, now or in the future, in light of changed circumstances, economic conditions or other developments. The prospective financial information was based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of Cabot Microelectronics or KMG, as applicable.

Important facts that may affect actual results and cause the prospective financial information for Cabot Microelectronics and KMG not to be achieved include risks and uncertainties relating to Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's businesses (including their abilities to achieve their respective strategic goals, objectives and targets over applicable periods; industry conditions; the regulatory environment; general business and economic conditions and other factors described under "Risk Factors" and "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on pages 22 and 20, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus, as well as the risk factors with respect to Cabot Microelectronics' and KMG's respective businesses contained in their most recent SEC filings, which readers are urged to review, which may be found as described under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146 of this proxy statement/prospectus). In addition, the prospective financial information covers multiple future years, and such information by its nature is less reliable in predicting each successive year. The prospective financial information does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date on which it was prepared, and does not give effect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and may not reflect Cabot Microelectronics' or KMG's current estimates, forecasts or projections. Further, the prospective financial information does not take into account the effect of any failure of the merger to occur. Actual results may differ materially from those contained in the prospective financial information. Accordingly, the prospective financial information may not be realized or actual results may be significantly lower than projected.

certain publicly available information concerning KMG and Cabot Microelectronics;

the current and historical market prices of KMG common stock and Cabot Microelectronics common stock;

the KMG prospective financial information (described above under the caption " Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information Prospective Financial Information Relating to KMG");

(i) the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information, and (ii) the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information (each described above under the caption " Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information Prospective Financial Information Relating to Cabot Microelectronics Cabot Microelectronics Prospective Financial Information");

KBCM also performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other data and information as KBCM deemed appropriate. For purposes of its analysis, KBCM defined free cash flow ("FCF") for any applicable period as operating earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") for such period minus capital expenditures ("CapEx") for such period.

In its review and analysis and in arriving at its opinion, KBCM assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with KBCM or publicly available, and KBCM assumed that the representations and warranties of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub contained in the merger agreement are and will be true and correct in all respects material to its analysis. KBCM was not engaged to, and did not independently attempt to, verify any of such information or its accuracy or completeness. KBCM also relied upon the management of KMG as to the reasonableness and achievability of the KMG prospective financial information, the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and, with the consent of KMG, KBCM assumed that the KMG prospective financial information, the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information were reasonably prepared on bases that reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, as applicable, of the future financial performance of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics, as applicable, and other matters covered thereby. KBCM was not engaged to assess the reasonableness or achievability of the KMG prospective financial information, the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information or the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information or the assumptions on which they were based, and KBCM expresses no view as to the prospective financial information or assumptions. In addition, KBCM did not conduct a physical inspection, valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, and KBCM was not furnished with any such inspection, valuation or appraisal. KBCM also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or the merger that would be meaningful to its analysis.

KBCM was neither asked to, nor did KBCM, offer any opinion as to the material terms of the merger agreement or the form of the merger. In addition, in preparing its opinion, KBCM did not take into account any tax consequences of the merger to any holder of KMG common stock. In rendering its opinion, KBCM assumed, with KMG's consent, that the final executed form of the merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft that KBCM examined, and that the conditions to the merger as set forth in the merger agreement would be satisfied and that the merger would be consummated on a timely basis on the terms set forth in the merger agreement without waiver or modification of any term or condition that would be meaningful to KBCM's analysis.

KBCM's opinion was based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available to KBCM as of, August 14, 2018 and does not address any matters subsequent to such date or time period after the delivery of the opinion. In addition, KBCM's opinion was limited to the fairness, as of August 14, 2018, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to the holders of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement and does not address KMG's underlying business decision to engage in the merger or any other terms of the merger or the fairness of the merger, or any consideration paid in connection therewith, to creditors or other constituencies of KMG. In addition, KBCM did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the merger or the amount or the nature of the compensation paid or to be paid to any of the directors, officers or employees of KMG, or class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be paid to public shareholders of KMG. KBCM did not express any opinion as to the impact of the merger on the solvency or viability of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or their respective affiliates or the ability of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or their respective affiliates to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Although subsequent developments may affect KBCM's opinion, KBCM does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. KBCM's opinion was approved by a fairness committee of KBCM.

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by KBCM in connection with its opinion dated August 14, 2018. The analyses and factors described below must be considered as a whole; considering any portion of such analyses or factors, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying KBCM's opinion. For purposes of its analyses, KBCM used the KMG prospective financial information, the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and in order to more fully understand the financial analyses used by KBCM, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of KBCM's financial analyses.

Analysis of KMG

52-Week Trading Range Analysis. KBCM reviewed the 52-week trading range of KMG common stock prior to August 14, 2018, which was $45.81 per share to $79.35 per share, as compared to the implied value of the merger consideration of $79.86 per share (valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the exchange ratio of 0.2000 and the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $121.09 on August 13, 2018). As of August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors, the closing price per share of KMG common stock was $66.65.

Research Analyst Price Targets Analysis. KBCM reviewed equity research analysts' share price targets as of August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors, on an undiscounted basis for the KMG common stock. KBCM noted that the price targets issued by those research analysts with price targets ranged from $79.00 per share to $85.00 per share, as compared to the implied value of the merger consideration of $79.86 per share (valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the exchange ratio of 0.2000 and the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $121.09 on August 13, 2018). When discounted at KMG's 12.0% cost of equity, such price targets implied a range of $71.00 to $76.00, rounded to the nearest dollar, per share.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis. KBCM reviewed and compared certain financial information relating to KMG to corresponding financial data, ratios and trading multiples for a selected group of publicly traded companies in the electronic chemicals and performance chemicals industries. KBCM selected these companies based on business similarities between these companies and KMG, the product focus of these companies, the end markets served by these companies and the EBITDA margin profiles of these companies. The following four publicly traded electronic chemical companies (referred to as the "Electronic Chemical Companies") and the following four publicly traded performance chemical companies (referred to as the "Performance Chemical Companies") were selected for the comparison with KMG:

Electronic Chemical Companies:

Cabot Microelectronics

Entegris, Inc.

Rogers Corporation

Versum Materials, Inc.

Performance Chemical Companies:

Clariant AG

Ingevity Corporation

Innospec Inc.

NewMarket Corporation

Among the information KBCM considered for KMG and each of the Electronic Chemical Companies and Performance Chemical Companies were (i) enterprise value ("EV"), (ii) EBITDA for the last twelve month ("LTM") period and (iii) CapEx for the LTM period. Estimated financial data of the selected publicly traded companies were based on public filings, equity research median estimates, and market data as of August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors.

KBCM divided the EV for each company by (i) the LTM EBITDA of such company and (ii) the free cash flow ("FCF") for the LTM period for each company, in each case, to derive LTM multiples for each company. KBCM derived the FCF for each company by subtracting each company's CapEx for the LTM period from such company's EBITDA for the LTM period.

Information regarding the multiples from KBCM's analysis of selected publicly traded companies is set forth in the following table.

	Selected Public Companies Median Multiples
EV / LTM EBITDA	13.2x
EV/ LTM FCF	17.1x

KBCM then applied (x) a range of selected multiples of 12.7x to 13.7x (based on the median multiple of 13.2x derived from KBCM's analysis of the selected comparable publicly traded companies for the LTM period) to KMG's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2018, and (y) a range of selected multiples of 16.6x to 17.6x (based on the median multiple of 17.1x derived from KBCM's analysis of the selected comparable publicly traded companies for the LTM period) to KMG's estimated FCF for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2018, as set forth in the KMG prospective financial information, in each case, to derive reference ranges of the implied price per share of KMG common stock. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied price per share reference ranges for KMG common stock:

	Implied Price Per Share of KMG common stock (rounded to nearest dollar)
FY2018E Adjusted EBITDA	$76.00 - $83.00
FY2018E FCF	$81.00 - $86.00

Although KBCM compared the trading multiples of the selected publicly traded companies to those implied for KMG, none of the selected publicly traded companies are identical to KMG. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected publicly traded companies necessarily would involve complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would necessarily affect the analysis of trading multiples of the selected publicly traded companies.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. KBCM compared twelve selected transactions announced between December 2013 and April 2017 involving companies that KBCM selected based on business similarities between the companies and KMG, size of the transactions, the product characteristics of the target companies, the end markets served by the target companies and the EBITDA margin profiles of the target companies. These transactions are listed below:

Announcement Date	Target (Cabot Microelectronics)	Acquiring Company
April 2017	Houghton International Inc.	Quaker Chemical Corporation
April 2017	Flowchem LLC (Arsenal Capital Partners)	KMG Chemicals Inc.
October 2016	Atotech B.V. (Total S.A.)	The Carlyle Group
September 2016	Chemtura Corporation	LANXESS A.G.
June 2016	Chemetall	BASF SE
May 2016	Performance Materials Division (Air Products and Chemicals, Inc.)	Evonik Industries AG
July 2015	Cytec Industries Inc.	Solvay SA
July 2015	Alent plc	Platform Specialty Products Corporation
May 2015	Electronic Chem. and Photomasks (OM Group, Inc.)	Platform Specialty Products Corporation
July 2014	Rockwood Holdings, Inc.	Albemarle Corporation
February 2014	ATMI, Inc.	Entegris, Inc.
December 2013	AZ Electronic Materials SA	Merck KGaA

For each of the transactions listed above, KBCM reviewed, among other things, the EV of the target company as a multiple of its EBITDA. Based on the analysis of such metrics for the transactions noted above, KBCM determined that the median multiple was 12.5x and the range of multiples was 9.8x to 15.8x for the selected transactions. Based on the results of this analysis and other factors that KBCM considered appropriate, KBCM selected a multiple reference range of 12.0x to 13.0x for EV to EBITDA for KMG. KBCM applied the multiple to KMG's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2018 to determine an implied EV of KMG. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis indicated a range of implied price per share of KMG common stock of $70.00 to $78.00, rounded to the nearest dollar.

The range of implied price per share of KMG common stock was compared to the implied value of the merger consideration of $79.86 per share (valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the exchange ratio of 0.2000 and the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $121.09 on August 13, 2018).

Although KBCM analyzed the multiples implied by the selected transactions and compared them to the implied transaction multiples of KMG, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical to the merger, KMG or Cabot Microelectronics. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected transactions necessarily would involve complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics, parties involved and terms of their transactions and other factors that would necessarily affect the implied value of KMG in the merger versus the values of the companies in the selected transactions.

Premia Paid Analysis. KBCM reviewed publicly available data for acquisitions of publicly traded companies in the specialty chemicals industry closed since 2016. KBCM reviewed the prices offered by the purchasers and calculated the implied premia of the offered prices over the historical trading prices of the stock of the targets at multiple points in time prior to the announcement of the transactions. Based on its professional judgment and experience, KBCM applied (1) the range of 52-week high premia of the completed transactions to the 52-week high price of KMG common stock and (2) the range of 1-day prior premia of the completed transactions to the closing price of KMG common stock on August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors. These analyses indicated the following implied price per share reference ranges of KMG common stock:

52-Week High Price of KMG Common Stock (as of June 12, 2018)	Range of 52-Week High Premia for Public Company Acquisitions	Implied Price Per Share of KMG Common Stock (rounded to nearest dollar)
$79.35	(3%) - 9%	$77.00 - $86.00

Closing Price of KMG Common Stock (as of August 13, 2018)	Range of 1-Day Prior Premia for Public Company Acquisitions	Implied Price Per Share of KMG Common Stock (rounded to nearest dollar)
$66.65	11% - 35%	$74.00 - $90.00

No company or transaction used in the premia paid analysis is identical to KMG or the merger. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition or other values of the companies or transactions to which KMG and the merger were compared.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBCM performed a discounted cash flow analysis on KMG to calculate the estimated present value of the standalone, unlevered, after-tax FCF that KMG could generate during KMG's fiscal years 2019 through 2023 based on the KMG prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. KBCM calculated terminal values for KMG by applying terminal multiples of 9.6x to 10.6x (midpoint based on KMG's 3-year average quarterly EV/ LTM EBITDA valuation) to KMG's fiscal year 2023 projected EBITDA as reflected in the KMG prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value as of July 31, 2018 using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 11.5%. KBCM made its discount rate assumptions based on weighted cost of capital (commonly referred to as "WACC") analysis of the Electronic Chemical Companies and the Performance Chemical Companies. This analysis indicated an implied price per share reference range for KMG common stock of $69.00 per share to $84.00 per share, as compared to the implied value of the merger consideration of $79.86 per share (valuing the stock portion of the merger consideration based on the exchange ratio of 0.2000 and the closing price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $121.09 on August 13, 2018).

Analysis of Cabot Microelectronics

52-Week Trading Range Analysis. KBCM reviewed the 52-week trading range of Cabot Microelectronics common stock prior to August 14, 2018, which was $68.00 per share to $123.76 per share, as compared to the 20-trading day volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of Cabot Microelectronics common stock ending August 13, 2018 of $119.27 per share. Cabot Microelectronics and KMG used the 20-trading day VWAP of Cabot Microelectronics common stock ending the last trading day to prior to the execution of the merger agreement to calculate the fixed exchange ratio (0.2000) for the Cabot Microelectronics common stock component of the merger consideration.

Research Analyst Price Targets Analysis. KBCM reviewed equity research analysts' share price targets as of August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors, on an undiscounted basis for the Cabot Microelectronics common stock. KBCM noted that the price targets issued by those research analysts with price targets ranged from $123.00 per share to $134.00 per share, as compared to the 20-trading day VWAP of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $119.27 per share. When discounted at Cabot Microelectronics' 10.5% cost of equity, such price targets implied a range of $111.00 to $121.00, rounded to the nearest dollar, per share.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis. KBCM reviewed and compared certain financial information relating to Cabot Microelectronics to corresponding financial data, ratios and trading multiples for a selected group of publicly traded companies in the electronic chemicals industry. KBCM selected the companies based on business similarities between these companies and Cabot Microelectronics, the product focus of these companies, the end markets served by these companies and the EBITDA margin profiles of these companies. The following three publicly traded electronic chemical companies were selected for the comparison with Cabot Microelectronics:

Entegris, Inc.

Rogers Corporation

Versum Materials, Inc.

Among the information KBCM considered for KMG and each of the three publicly traded electronic chemical companies (the "Cabot Microelectronics Comparable Companies") were (i) EV, (ii) EBITDA for the LTM period, and (iii) CapEx for the LTM period. Estimated financial data of the selected publicly traded companies were based on public filings, equity research median estimates, and market data as of August 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to KBCM's delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors.

KBCM divided the EV for each company by (i) the LTM EBITDA of such company and (ii) the LTM FCF of such company, in each case, to derive LTM multiples for each company. KBCM derived the FCF for each company by subtracting each company's CapEx for the LTM period from such company's EBITDA for the LTM period.

Information regarding the multiples from KBCM's analysis of selected publicly traded companies is set forth in the following table.

	Selected Public Companies Median Multiples
EV/ LTM FCF	17.2x

KBCM then applied (x) a range of selected multiples of 12.6x to 13.6x (based on the median multiple of 13.1x derived from KBCM's analysis of the selected comparable publicly traded companies for the LTM period) to Cabot Microelectronics' estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018, and (y) a range of selected multiples of 16.7x to 17.7x (based on the median multiple of 17.2x derived from KBCM's analysis of the selected comparable publicly traded companies for the LTM period) to estimated FCF for Cabot Microelectronics for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018, in each case, to derive reference ranges of the implied price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. KBCM derived the FCF for Cabot Microelectronics by subtracting Cabot Microelectronics' estimated CapEx from its projected EBITDA for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 as reflected in the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. This analysis indicated the following approximate implied price per share reference ranges for Cabot Microelectronics common stock:

	Implied Price Per Share of Cabot Microelectronics Common Stock (rounded to nearest dollar)
FY2018E Adjusted EBITDA	$105.00 - $112.00
FY2018E FCF	$122.00 - $129.00

Although KBCM compared the trading multiples of the selected publicly traded companies to those implied for Cabot Microelectronics, none of the selected publicly traded companies is identical to Cabot Microelectronics. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected publicly traded companies necessarily would involve complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would necessarily affect the analysis of trading multiples of the selected publicly traded companies.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. KBCM compared five selected transactions announced between December 2013 and October 2016 involving companies that KBCM selected based on business similarities between the target companies and Cabot Microelectronics, size of the transactions, the product characteristics of the target companies, the end markets served by the target companies and the EBITDA margin profiles of the target companies. These transactions are listed below:

Announcement Date	Target (Cabot Microelectronics)	Acquiring Company
October 2016	Atotech B.V. (Total S.A.)	The Carlyle Group
July 2015	Alent plc	Platform Specialty Products Corporation
May 2015	Electronic Chem. and Photomasks (OM Group, Inc.)	Platform Specialty Products Corporation
February 2014	ATMI, Inc.	Entegris, Inc.
December 2013	AZ Electronic Materials SA	Merck KGaA

For each of the transactions listed above, KBCM reviewed, among other things, the EV of the target company as a multiple of its EBITDA. Based on the analysis of such metrics for the transactions noted above, KBCM determined that the median multiple was 11.9x and the range of multiples was

9.9x to 13.1x for the selected transactions. Based on the results of this analysis and other factors that KBCM considered appropriate, KBCM selected a multiple reference range of 11.4x to 12.4x for EV to EBITDA for Cabot Microelectronics. KBCM applied the multiple to Cabot Microelectronics' estimated adjusted EBITDA for fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 to determine an implied enterprise value of Cabot Microelectronics. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis indicated a range of implied price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $96.00 to $103.00, rounded to the nearest dollar.

The range of implied price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock was compared to the 20-trading day VWAP of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $119.27 per share.

Although KBCM analyzed the multiples implied by the selected transactions and compared them to the implied transaction multiples of Cabot Microelectronics, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical to the merger, KMG or Cabot Microelectronics. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected transactions necessarily would involve complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics, parties involved and terms of their transactions and other factors that would necessarily affect the implied value of Cabot Microelectronics in the merger versus the values of the companies in the selected transactions.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBCM performed a discounted cash flow analysis on Cabot Microelectronics to calculate the estimated present value of the standalone, unlevered, after-tax FCF that Cabot Microelectronics could generate during Cabot Microelectronics' fiscal years 2019 through 2023 based on the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. KBCM calculated terminal values for Cabot Microelectronics by applying terminal multiples of 12.2x to 13.2x (midpoint based on Cabot Microelectronics' 3-year average quarterly EV/LTM EBITDA valuation) to Cabot Microelectronics' fiscal year 2023 projected EBITDA as reflected in the Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information and the extrapolated Cabot Microelectronics prospective financial information. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value as of September 30, 2018 using discount rates ranging from 11.8% to 13.8%. KBCM made its discount rate assumptions based on WACC analysis of the Cabot Microelectronics Comparable Companies. This analysis indicated an implied price per share reference range for Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $117.00 to $132.00, as compared to the 20-trading day VWAP of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $119.27 per share.

Miscellaneous

In connection with the review of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the KMG board of directors, KBCM performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily amenable to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBCM considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. KBCM believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, KBCM may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be KBCM's view of the actual value of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics. In performing its analyses, KBCM made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond KMG's control. Any estimates contained in KBCM's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

KBCM conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, and in connection with the delivery of its opinion to the KMG board of directors.

KBCM's opinion and its presentation to the KMG board of directors was one of many factors considered by the KMG board of directors in deciding to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the KMG board of directors with respect to the merger consideration to be received by holders of shares of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger agreement or of whether the KMG board of directors would have been willing to agree to different consideration. The merger consideration was determined through extensive, arm's-length negotiations between KMG and Cabot Microelectronics and was approved by the KMG board of directors. KBCM provided advice to KMG during these negotiations. KBCM did not, however, recommend any specific consideration to KMG or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

KBCM acted as financial advisor to KMG in connection with, and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the merger and will receive from KMG a fee for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger (the "Transaction Fee"). In addition, KMG agreed to reimburse KBCM for certain expenses and to indemnify KBCM under certain circumstances for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement. KBCM also received a fee in connection with the delivery of its opinion, which fee will be credited against any Transaction Fee earned. In connection with KBCM's services as the financial advisor to KMG's board of directors, KMG has agreed to pay KBCM an estimated aggregate fee of approximately $16.9 million (estimated as of August 13, 2018) for its services, of which $1.5 million was payable upon the rendering of KBCM's opinion and approximately $15.4 million of which is payable contingent upon consummation of the merger. In addition, KMG has agreed to reimburse certain of KBCM's expenses arising, and to indemnify KBCM against certain liabilities that may arise, out of KBCM's engagement.

In connection with KMG's acquisition of Flowchem LLC, KBCM served as Joint Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner and its affiliate, KeyBank National Association, served as Agent, in connection with KMG's June 15, 2017 Credit Agreement and subsequent December 19, 2017 repricing transaction. KBCM also served as Joint Bookrunner in connection with KMG's October 18, 2017 equity follow-on offering. KBCM received approximately $9.255 million in compensation from KMG for such services.

Except as described above, during the two years preceding the date of KBCM's opinion, neither KBCM nor its affiliates had any other material financial advisory or other material commercial or investment banking relationships with KMG or Cabot Microelectronics. In the ordinary course of its businesses, KBCM and its affiliates, employees of KBCM and its affiliates, and funds or other entities that such persons manage or invest in or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics, any of their respective affiliates and third parties or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the merger, in each case for KBCM's own account or for the accounts of customers. KBCM may in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to KMG and its affiliates and to Cabot Microelectronics and its affiliates for which KBCM may receive compensation.

Interests of KMG's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the KMG board with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, KMG shareholders should be aware that KMG's executive officers and directors have certain interests in the merger that may be different from or in addition to the interests of KMG shareholders generally. These interests include, but are not limited to, the treatment in the merger agreement of equity awards held by these executive officers and the interests that certain of KMG's executive officers have by reason of his or her participation in the ESP or his or her respective employment agreement with KMG, among other interests described below. For purposes of the plans and arrangements described below, the merger will constitute a "change of control", "change in control" or term of similar meaning.

KMG Executive Severance Plan

Five of KMG's executive officers, Mr. Fraser, Mr. Green, Mr. Handelman, Mr. Kremling and Mr. Gonser, are participants in the ESP. Mr. Fraser is explicitly entitled to participate in the ESP under the terms of his employment agreement with KMG. Under the ESP, a participant is paid severance upon a "qualifying termination of employment" (described below) equal to (i) a pro-rated portion of the participant's target annual incentive compensation for the year of termination plus (ii) a cash payment in the amount of a certain multiple times the sum of the participant's base salary and target annual incentive compensation for the year of termination. For Mr. Fraser, the applicable multiple would be 2.5 and for Messrs. Green, Handelman, Kremling and Gonser, the applicable multiple would be 2.0 if there is a termination of employment in connection with a change of control. The estimated total aggregate severance payments that could be made to executive officers following a termination in connection with the merger equal $9,234,663. The payments are conditioned upon the executive officer's execution and non-revocation of a release of claims and non-compete agreement, to the extent the executive officer is not already subject to a non-compete, and payment will be made within 10 days following the executive officer's execution and non-revocation of such release and non-compete agreement. A "qualifying termination of employment" means a termination of the executive officer's employment without cause or a voluntary resignation by the executive officer for good reason (each, as defined in the ESP), in each case, that occurs during the 30 days prior to or two years following a change in control.

Employment Agreement with Roger C. Jackson

Mr. Jackson is a party to an employment agreement with KMG which specifies the severance payments and benefits to be provided upon various circumstances of termination of employment. Under the terms of Mr. Jackson's employment agreement, if KMG terminates Mr. Jackson's employment (other than for cause or due to death or disability) or elects not to extend his term of employment for the renewal term (which otherwise automatically renews at the end of each year), or if he voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason, then KMG must pay Mr. Jackson a termination payment equal to 3.0 times his base salary. The termination payment is paid as a single lump sum within 45 days after termination if termination is within one year after a change of control. Mr. Jackson's severance benefits are subject to his execution and non-revocation of a mutual release of claims.

Treatment of Stock Awards

Except with respect to KMG's time-based restricted stock unit awards that were awarded during fiscal year 2019, upon consummation of the merger, KMG's performance-based and time-based restricted stock unit awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the merger will fully vest (to the extent unvested immediately prior to the merger and with any applicable performance metrics deemed satisfied in accordance with the terms of the award agreement). In addition, as described more fully in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement Treatment of KMG Equity Awards in the Merger" on page 84 of this proxy statement/prospectus, upon consummation of the merger, the KMG stock awards that become vested upon a change of control will be treated as follows: each performance-based and time-based stock award will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the per share merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying each such performance-based and time-based stock award.

Under the merger agreement, prior to the effective time of the merger, KMG may grant restricted stock unit awards to executive officers and employees, covering a maximum of 58,835 shares of KMG common stock. Restricted stock unit awards granted following August 14, 2018 and prior to the effective time of the merger will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics in connection with the merger and converted into restricted stock unit awards relating to Cabot Microelectronics common stock, as described more fully in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement Treatment of KMG Equity Awards in the Merger" on page 84 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Restricted stock unit awards granted following August 14, 2018 and prior to the effective time of the merger will vest with respect to a target number of shares, and upon the termination of the participant's employment without cause or the participant's voluntary resignation with good reason, in each case, during the 18 months following the effective time, the participant will vest in 150% of the target number of shares subject to such restricted stock unit award.

None of KMG's non-employee directors have invested stock awards. Any shares of KMG common stock held by non-employee directors will be treated in the same manner as KMG common stock held by KMG shareholders generally. For purposes of the calculations in this section and the calculations in the section entitled "Proposal 3: The Compensation Proposal" on page 41 of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger is assumed to have been consummated as of October 4, 2018 and the merger consideration value is assumed to be $77.45 per share of KMG common stock, which is calculated based on a share price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock of $108.99, which, as required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, is based on the average closing market price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock as quoted on Nasdaq over the first five business days following the public announcement of the merger. The actual amounts to be received by KMG's executive officers in respect of their KMG stock awards in connection with the merger will depend on certain factors, including the date on which the merger is actually consummated, the date on which the executive officer's employment terminates (if applicable) and the average closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock as quoted on Nasdaq over the five trading days beginning on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the date the merger is consummated and ending on the third complete trading day immediately preceding the date the merger is consummated and may differ from the amounts set forth below.

Upon consummation of the merger, all of KMG's executive officers' unvested stock awards that were granted prior to August 14, 2018 will become fully vested (i.e., "single trigger" vesting). Unvested stock awards that were granted on or after August 14, 2018 will become vested in an amount equal to 150% of the target number of shares upon the executive officer's termination without cause or resignation with good reason (each, as defined in the award agreement) during the 18 months following the consummation of the merger (i.e., "double trigger" vesting). Assuming the merger was consummated as of October 4, 2018, that the executive officer experiences a qualifying termination as of consummation of the merger, and using the assumed merger consideration value of $77.45 per share of KMG common stock, the estimated total aggregate value of unvested stock awards held by executive officers prior to August 14, 2018 that will become fully vested upon consummation of the merger or following a qualifying termination of employment within 18 months following consummation of the merger equals $42,888,015.

Retention Bonus Program

Under the merger agreement, KMG may grant cash retention awards to executive officers and employees. The aggregate amount of the cash retention awards that may be granted to all executive officers and employees is capped at $16.5 million. Approximately 82% of the retention bonus pool will be granted to KMG executive officers and approximately 18% will be granted to non-executive officer employees.

Upon consummation of the merger, 50% of the retention bonus award will be paid to the executive officer. The remaining 50% of the retention bonus award will be paid to the executive officer on the date that is six months following consummation of the merger, provided that the executive officer is still in employment on such date. If an executive officer's employment is terminated involuntarily not for cause, voluntarily by the executive officer for good reason, or due to death or disability, in each case, prior to the date that is six months following consummation of the merger, the unpaid portion of the retention bonus award will be paid upon termination of employment. The estimated total aggregate retention bonus payments that could be made to executive officers in connection with the merger equal $13,350,000.

Messrs. Fraser, Handelman and Kremling are currently parties to agreements with KMG which restrict them from competing with KMG's business interests for a period of one year following termination of employment. The retention bonus awards for Messrs. Fraser and Handelman will be issued contingent on each executive officer entering into an agreement with KMG to extend the non-competition period for one additional year following the end of the existing one-year non-competition period. In addition, the ESP requires that each executive officer be subject to a non-compete which restricts them for competing with KMG's business interests for at least a period of one year following termination of employment.

Golden Parachute Excise Tax

Each executive officer is party to an employment agreement or covered by the ESP, which, in each case, provide that if the payments and benefits provided in connection with the merger would constitute "excess parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code the payments and benefits will either be delivered in full or delivered to such lesser extent as would result in no amount being subject to the excise tax, whichever results in the greatest amount on an after-tax basis. The parties have agreed to cooperate to take actions to mitigate the impact of Sections 4999 and 280G of the Code, which, subject to mutual agreement among the parties, may include the acceleration of compensation.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

Under the merger agreement, from and after the effective time, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG (as the surviving entity) will indemnify and hold harmless each of the present and former officers and directors of KMG and its subsidiaries against any costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, arising out of or related to such officer's or director's service as a director or officer of KMG or its subsidiaries at or prior to the effective time (including in connection with the negotiation and execution of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby) to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, KMG's restated and amended articles of incorporation and amended and restated by-laws, as amended, and Cabot Microelectronics' amended and restated certificate of incorporation and third amended and restated by-laws. In addition, Cabot Microelectronics is required to obtain a six-year "tail" insurance policy with respect to the currently existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policy and fiduciary liability insurance policy of KMG, on terms no less favorable than those of the policy in effect on the date of the merger agreement with respect to any matter claimed against KMG's present and former officers serving in such capacity that existed or occurred at or prior to the effective time. This obligation is subject to a cap of 300% of the annual premium amount KMG is currently paying for such insurance.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

Cabot Microelectronics prepares its financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting. The accounting guidance for business combinations indicated in Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 805, "Business Combinations," provides that in identifying the acquiring entity in a combination effected through an exchange of equity interests, all pertinent facts and circumstances must be considered, including: which entity will issue equity interests to effect the combination, the relative voting rights of the stockholders of the constituent companies in the combined company, the existence of a large minority voting interest in the combined entity if no other owner or organized group of owners has a significant voting interest, the composition of the board of directors and senior management of the combined company, the relative size of each company and the terms of the exchange of equity securities in the business combination, including payment of any premium.

Based on the foregoing factors, Cabot Microelectronics has been determined to be the acquirer for accounting purposes. Cabot Microelectronics will record assets acquired, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities assumed from KMG at their respective fair values at the date of completion of the merger. Any excess of the purchase price (as described under "NOTE 2: Preliminary Consideration to be Transferred and Preliminary Fair Value of Net Assets Acquired" under "Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 109) over the net fair value of such assets and liabilities will be recorded as goodwill.

The financial condition and results of operations of Cabot Microelectronics after completion of the merger will reflect KMG after completion of the merger, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial condition or results of operations of KMG. The earnings of Cabot Microelectronics following completion of the merger will reflect acquisition accounting adjustments, including the effect of changes in the carrying value for assets and liabilities on depreciation expense, amortization expense and interest expense. Indefinite-lived intangible assets, including certain trademarks, and goodwill will not be amortized but will be tested for impairment at least annually, and all tangible and intangible assets including goodwill will be tested for impairment when certain indicators are present. If, in the future, Cabot Microelectronics determines that tangible or intangible assets (including goodwill) are impaired, Cabot Microelectronics would record an impairment charge at that time.

The allocation of purchase price reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data of Cabot Microelectronics is based on preliminary estimates using assumptions Cabot Microelectronics's management believes to be reasonable based on currently available information. The final purchase price and fair value assessment of assets and liabilities will be based in part on a detailed valuation that has not yet been completed.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a general discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders and non-U.S. holders (each as defined below) of KMG common stock who exchange shares of KMG common stock for cash and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock pursuant to the merger. This discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial opinions and published position of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"), all as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and all of which are subject to change or varying interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change or interpretation could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein.

This discussion is limited to U.S. holders and non-U.S. holders of KMG common stock who hold their shares of KMG common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion is for general information only and does not purport to address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular holder of KMG common stock in light of such holder's particular facts and circumstances, nor does it apply to holders of KMG common stock subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as, for example, banks and financial institutions, broker-dealers, mutual funds, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, traders in securities who elect mark-to-market method of accounting, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, holders liable for the alternative minimum tax, certain former citizens or former long-term residents of the United States, holders who acquired their KMG common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan, holders who hold their KMG common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion or other integrated transaction, U.S. holders (as defined below) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders who exercise appraisal rights, holders who own or have owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) 5% or more of KMG's stock (by vote or value), retirement plans, individual retirement accounts or other tax-deferred accounts, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, subchapter S corporations, and entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or other pass through entities (or investors therein). This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under any U.S. federal tax laws other than those pertaining to the income tax (e.g., estate tax or gift tax), the unearned income Medicare contribution tax, or any withholding required pursuant to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act of 2010 (including the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder and intergovernmental agreements entered into pursuant thereto). This discussion also does not address any considerations under or any aspect of any foreign, state, or local tax laws that may be applicable to a holder.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds KMG common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and activities of the partnership. Holders that for U.S. federal income tax purposes are treated as partners of a partnership holding KMG common stock should consult their own tax advisor.

This discussion is intended to provide only a general description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders and non-U.S. holders of KMG common stock, subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth herein. This discussion is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. The U.S. federal income tax laws are complex and subject to varying interpretation. Accordingly, the IRS may not agree with the tax consequences described in this proxy statement/prospectus. All holders should consult their own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the receipt of cash and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in exchange for shares of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of KMG common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

a trust if (i) its administration is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) it has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner (other than a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) of KMG common stock that is not a U.S. holder.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in exchange for shares of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (i) the sum of the cash and the fair market value (as of the effective time) of the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received pursuant to the merger and (ii) such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the KMG common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for such shares exceeds one year as of the date of the merger. Long-term capital gains for certain noncorporate U.S. holders, including individuals, are generally eligible for a preferential rate of federal income taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of KMG common stock at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder must determine its tax basis, holding period, and gain or loss separately with respect to each block of KMG common stock.

A U.S. holder's tax basis in the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received in the merger will equal its fair market value as of the effective time. A U.S. holder's holding period for the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received in the merger will begin on the day following the effective time.

Notwithstanding the above, if one or more persons control KMG and Cabot Microelectronics prior to the merger, then Section 304 of the Code may apply to the transaction. For this purpose, control generally means actual or constructive ownership of more than 50% of the outstanding stock by vote or value, ownership by all holders that own both KMG common stock and Cabot Microelectronics common stock that is aggregated whether or not related, and the Cabot Microelectronics common stock received in the merger is taken into account. To the knowledge of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics, one or more persons do not control KMG and Cabot Microelectronics within the meaning of Section 304, but KMG and Cabot Microelectronics do not have the information to determine definitively that Section 304 will not apply to the merger. If Section 304 applies to the merger, if a holder of KMG common stock also actually or constructively owns Cabot Microelectronics common stock (other than Cabot Microelectronics common stock received pursuant to the merger), instead of recognizing gain or loss as described in respect of any cash consideration received in the merger, such holder may recognize dividend income up to the amount of such cash consideration depending on the application of the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of constructive ownership rules, holders of KMG that also actually or constructively own Cabot Microelectronics common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances and any actions that may be taken to mitigate the potential application of such rules.

Non-U.S. Holders

A non-U.S. holder that receives cash and Cabot Microelectronics common stock in exchange for such holder's shares of KMG common stock pursuant to the merger generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized pursuant to the merger unless:

the gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business, and, if an applicable income tax treaty so provides, the gain is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States; in these cases, the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such holder were a U.S. person and, if the non-U.S. holder is a corporation, may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on its "effectively connected earnings and profits" for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments; or the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other requirements are met, in which case the non-U.S. holder will be subject to a 30% tax (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such gain, which may be offset by U.S.-source capital losses of the non-U.S. holder, if any.

As discussed above under " U.S. Holders," in certain circumstances, cash consideration received pursuant to the merger by certain holders of KMG common stock may be treated as a dividend, depending on the application of the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code. Any amount so treated generally would be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) unless such dividend is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder in the United States). Accordingly, an applicable withholding agent may withhold at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on the entire amount of cash consideration payable to a non-U.S. holder pursuant to the merger. If a withholding agent withholds excess amounts from the cash consideration so payable to a non-U.S. holder, such non-U.S. holder may obtain a refund of any such excess amounts by timely filing an appropriate claim with the IRS. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of the foregoing rules in their particular circumstances, the procedures for claiming treaty benefits or otherwise establishing an exemption from U.S. withholding tax, and any actions that may be taken to mitigate the potential application of such rules.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

A U.S. holder generally will be subject to information reporting and may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding (currently at a rate of 24%) with respect to the per share merger consideration received in the merger, unless such holder properly establishes an exemption or provides, on a properly completed IRS Form W-9, its correct tax identification number and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

Information reporting and backup withholding generally will apply to the proceeds of a disposition of shares of common stock of KMG in the merger by a non-U.S. holder effected by or through the U.S. office of any broker, U.S. or foreign, unless the holder certifies, on a properly completed applicable IRS Form W-8, its status as a non-U.S. holder and satisfies certain other requirements, or otherwise establishes an exemption. Generally, information reporting and backup withholding will not apply to a payment of disposition proceeds to a non-U.S. holder where the transaction is effected outside the United States through a non-U.S. office of a broker. However, for information reporting purposes, dispositions effected through a non-U.S. office of a broker with certain connections with the United States will be treated in a manner similar to dispositions effected through a U.S. office of a broker. Non-U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the information reporting and backup withholding rules to them.

Copies of information returns may be made available to the tax authorities of the country in which the non-U.S. holder resides or is incorporated under the provisions of a specific treaty or agreement.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a U.S. holder or non-U.S. holder can be refunded or credited against the non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that an appropriate claim is timely filed with the IRS.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to a particular holder. All holders of KMG common stock should consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences of the merger to them, including tax-reporting requirements, and the applicability and effect of any federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax laws.

Financing of the Merger

Consummation of the merger is not conditioned upon Cabot Microelectronics' ability to obtain financing. Cabot Microelectronics expects to use cash on hand and debt financing to fund the cash component of the merger consideration.

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics entered into a commitment letter, dated as of August 14, 2018, with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A. and Goldman Sachs Bank USA and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, pursuant to which the commitment parties have committed to arrange and provide, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the commitment letter, a senior secured revolving credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $200,000,000 and a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $1,065,000,000.

Prior to or simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics expects to execute definitive documentation with respect to the revolver and term loan on the terms set forth in the commitment letter. The proceeds of the term loan and, subject to certain limitations, the revolver may be used to finance the merger, repay certain existing indebtedness of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, to pay fees and expenses related to the merger and for general corporate purposes.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the HSR Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the FTC, the merger cannot be consummated until notifications have been submitted and certain information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division and the FTC, and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Cabot Microelectronics and KMG each filed a pre-merger notification and report form pursuant to the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on August 23, 2018. On September 4, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG each received notice that the FTC granted early termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act. Accordingly, the regulatory condition relating to the expiration or termination of the waiting period (and any extension thereof) under the HSR Act in respect of the merger has been satisfied.

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as reasonably practicable any consents and approvals of, or the expiration of waiting periods applicable to, any third party, including any governmental entity, necessary, proper or advisable in connection with the merger, subject to limitations as set forth in the merger agreement.

Even after the waiting period under the HSR Act expires or is terminated, the Antitrust Division and the FTC retain the authority to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds before or after the merger is completed. There can likewise be no assurance that U.S. federal, state or non-U.S. regulatory authorities, or private parties, will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds or for other reasons, or, if a challenge is made, as to the results of the challenge. See "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 96 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

On September 24, 2018, a putative shareholder class action was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas styled Richard Walter, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. KMG Chemicals, Inc., et. al., No. 4:18-cv-00785 (the "Walter Lawsuit"). The Walter Lawsuit names as defendants KMG and the members of the KMG board. The Walter Lawsuit asserts claims for alleged violation of Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act based on allegations that this proxy statement/prospectus is materially incomplete and misleading. The Walter Lawsuit further alleges that KMG's directors violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act as alleged control persons. The Walter Lawsuit seeks, among other things, injunctive relief barring the defendants from holding a shareholder vote on the merger or from consummating the merger until they have issued adequate disclosures and monetary relief that is not quantified.

On October 5, 2018, a putative shareholder class and derivative action was filed in the District Court of the State of Texas for Tarrant County styled Jordan Rosenblatt, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. Christopher T. Fraser et al., No. 342-303508-18 (the "Rosenblatt Lawsuit"). The Rosenblatt Lawsuit names as defendants the KMG board of directors, Cabot Microelectronics, and Merger Sub, and KMG as a nominal defendant. The Rosenblatt Lawsuit purports to assert direct and derivative claims for breaches of fiduciary duties against the KMG board of directors and for aiding and abetting those breaches of fiduciary duties against Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub. The plaintiff alleges, among other things, that the KMG board of directors agreed to inadequate consideration and improper deal protection terms, and that this proxy statement/prospectus is materially incomplete. The Rosenblatt Lawsuit seeks, among other things, an injunction barring the defendants from consummating the merger, rescission of the merger to the extent it is consummated, and monetary relief that is not quantified.

KMG and Cabot Microelectronics believe the allegations in the lawsuits are without merit. Shareholders may file additional lawsuits challenging the merger, which may name KMG, Cabot Microelectronics, Merger Sub, members of the KMG board or the Cabot Microelectronics board, or others as defendants.

Exchange of Shares

Upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of KMG common stock (other than shares (i) held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub (which will be cancelled), (ii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) (which will be converted into shares of the surviving company), (iii) owned by shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, or (iv) underlying KMG restricted stock awards granted after August 14, 2018) will be converted into the right to receive $55.65 in cash, plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will appoint an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to KMG to handle the exchange of shares of KMG common stock for the merger consideration. Immediately prior to the closing of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will deposit with the exchange agent (i) cash sufficient to pay the aggregate cash portion of the merger consideration and, to the extent determinable, cash in lieu of fractional shares and (ii) evidence of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in book-entry or certificated form representing the number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock sufficient to deliver the aggregate stock portion of the merger consideration.

KMG shareholders will not receive any fractional shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger. Instead, a shareholder of KMG who otherwise would have received a fractional share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock will be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu of such fractional share in an amount determined by multiplying (i) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the opening of trading on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective date and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of KMG common stock held by such holder at the effective time of the merger and rounded to the nearest one thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, less any applicable withholding taxes.

If a dividend or other distribution is declared with respect to shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger, such declaration will include a dividend or other distribution in respect of all shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement.

After the effective time of the merger, shares of KMG common stock will no longer be outstanding, will be cancelled and will cease to exist and each certificate or book-entry share that previously represented shares of KMG common stock (other than shares (i) held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub (which will be cancelled), (ii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) (which will be converted into shares of the surviving company), (iii) owned by shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, or (iv) underlying KMG restricted stock awards granted after August 14, 2018) will represent only the right to receive the per share merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement, cash in lieu of fractional shares and unpaid dividends and distributions, if any, as described above. With respect to such shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock deliverable upon the surrender of KMG stock certificates or book-entry shares, until holders of such KMG stock certificates or book-entry shares have properly surrendered such stock certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent for exchange, along with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as may customarily be required by the exchange agent, those holders will not receive the per share merger consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends or distributions that become due to the holders of converted KMG common stock.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal to each record holder of a share of KMG common stock specifying, among other things, that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to any certificates or book-entry shares representing KMG common stock will pass, only upon delivery of such certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent. The letter will also include instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering KMG stock certificates and book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration.

Cabot Microelectronics, KMG and the exchange agent are entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from any merger consideration that would otherwise be payable pursuant to the merger agreement.

After the effective time of the merger, KMG will not register any transfer of the shares of KMG common stock.

Cabot Microelectronics stockholders need not take any action with respect to their stock certificates.

Treatment of KMG Equity Awards

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted stock unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted prior to August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest (with any applicable performance metrics deemed satisfied based on the level of achievement specified in the applicable award agreement) and be cancelled and converted in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying the applicable restricted stock unit award.

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted on or following August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics and converted into a restricted stock unit award relating to a number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to (i) the number of shares of KMG common stock subject to such KMG restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (ii) the "equity award exchange ratio" (defined below). The assumed restricted stock unit awards will be subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding KMG equity award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms). The "equity award exchange ratio" means the sum of (a) 0.2000 and (b) the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) obtained by dividing (x) $55.65 by (y) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective time and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time.

Dividend Policy

Cabot Microelectronics currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends on its common stock. Cabot Microelectronics paid a quarterly cash dividend on July 30, 2018 of $0.40 per share and has declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.40 per share payable on or about October 30, 2018 to shareholders of record on October 9, 2018. Cabot Microelectronics currently expects to continue to pay quarterly cash dividends, although they remain subject to determination and declaration by Cabot Microelectronics' board of directors. The payment of future dividends, if any, will be based on several factors, including Cabot Microelectronics' financial performance, outlook and liquidity.

KMG currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends on its common stock. KMG paid a quarterly cash dividend on June 22, 2018 of $0.03 per share and has declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.03 per share payable October 9, 2018 to shareholders of record on October 1, 2018. The payment of future dividends will be based on KMG's financial performance.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, during the period before the closing of the merger, KMG is not permitted to pay any dividends or make any distributions on its capital stock other than quarterly dividends in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, in an amount not to exceed $0.03 per fiscal quarter. KMG and Cabot Microelectronics have also agreed to coordinate the record dates and payment dates for KMG's quarterly dividends, so that Cabot Microelectronics stockholders and KMG shareholders will not receive two dividends, or fail to receive for one dividend, for any single fiscal quarter.

Listing of Cabot Microelectronics Common Stock; Delisting of KMG Common Stock

It is a condition to the consummation of the merger that the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued to KMG shareholders in the merger be approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance. As a result of the merger, shares of KMG common stock will cease to be listed on the NYSE.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes the material provisions of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. The summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement below and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. Cabot Microelectronics and KMG encourage you to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety before making any decisions regarding the merger as it is the legal document governing the merger.

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement is included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by KMG, on the one hand, and by Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub, on the other hand, which were made solely for the benefit of the other parties for purposes of the merger agreement. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to consummate the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts about KMG or Cabot Microelectronics at the time they were made or otherwise. The representations and warranties also may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to shareholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC and were qualified by the matters contained in the confidential disclosure schedules that KMG and Cabot Microelectronics each delivered in connection with the merger agreement and certain documents filed with the SEC. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, may have changed since the date of the merger agreement. Information about KMG and Cabot Microelectronics is set forth elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in other public filings made with the SEC, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 146.

Closing; Effective Time

The merger agreement provides that, on the terms and subject to the conditions in the merger agreement and in accordance with the TBOC, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into KMG, with KMG surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. At the effective time of the merger, by virtue of the merger, all of the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of KMG and Merger Sub will vest in KMG as the surviving company, and all of the liabilities, debts and duties of KMG and Merger Sub will become liabilities, debts and duties of KMG as the surviving company.

The merger agreement provides that, unless another date is agreed to in writing by Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, the closing of the merger will take place on the later of (i) the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the last of the conditions to closing to be satisfied or waived (other than such conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied by action taken at or immediately prior to the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or permitted waiver of such conditions at the closing) and (ii) the earlier of (a) a date specified by Cabot Microelectronics during the marketing period (as defined below) on no fewer than three business days' notice to KMG and (b) the third business day after the final day of the marketing period, in each case, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to closing as of such date. The date on which the closing occurs is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the closing date.

On the closing date the parties will file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Texas. The merger will be effective at the time the parties file the certificate of merger, or such later date and time as the parties may agree and as is specified in the certificate of merger.

Effect of the Merger on KMG's Capital Stock

At the effective time of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of KMG common stock (other than shares (i) held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub (which will be cancelled), (ii) owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) (which will be converted into shares of the surviving company), (iii) owned by shareholders that have complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, or (iv) underlying KMG restricted stock awards) will be converted into the right to receive $55.65 in cash (the "cash consideration"), plus 0.2000 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (the "stock consideration"), in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Also at the effective time, each share of KMG common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time that is owned or held in treasury by KMG or owned by Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub will no longer be outstanding and will be cancelled and cease to exist. No consideration will be delivered in exchange for any such shares. Each share of KMG common stock that is held by a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of KMG or Cabot Microelectronics (other than Merger Sub) will be converted into the stock consideration plus an amount of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the cash consideration by (ii) the volume weighted average price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days ending at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger.

Each share of KMG common stock issued and outstanding and held by a person who has not voted in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and has complied with all provisions of the TBOC concerning the rights of KMG shareholders to require payment by the surviving company of the "fair value" of such shares, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as dissenting shares, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration. Instead, if the merger is consummated, dissenting shares will represent the right to receive whatever consideration may be determined to be due to such dissenting shareholder under Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC. If any dissenting shareholder fails to perfect, waives, withdraws or otherwise loses appraisal rights (or a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such holder is not entitled to exercise appraisal rights), dissenting shares held by such dissenting shareholder will be treated as though such dissenting shares had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration as of the effective time. For more information regarding appraisal rights, see the section titled "Dissenters' Rights of KMG Shareholders." In addition, a copy of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Each KMG shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fractional share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in the merger will instead receive a cash payment in lieu of such fractional share in an amount determined by multiplying (i) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the opening of trading on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective date and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of KMG common stock held by such holder at the effective time of the merger and rounded to the nearest one thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, less any applicable withholding taxes.

Organizational Documents of the Surviving Company; Directors and Officers

The certificate of formation and bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, will become the certificate of formation and bylaws of the surviving company, except that the name of the surviving company will be KMG Chemicals, Inc., until thereafter changed or amended as provided in the certificate of formation or bylaws or by applicable law.

The directors and officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time will become the initial directors and officers of the surviving company, except as otherwise determined by Cabot Microelectronics.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

Prior to the effective time, Cabot Microelectronics will enter into an exchange agreement with a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to KMG to handle the exchange of shares of KMG common stock for the merger consideration. Immediately prior to the closing of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will deposit with the exchange agent (i) cash sufficient to pay the aggregate cash portion of the merger consideration and, to the extent determinable, cash in lieu of fractional shares and (ii) evidence of Cabot Microelectronics common stock in book-entry or certificated form representing the number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock sufficient to deliver the aggregate stock portion of the merger consideration.

Exchange of KMG Share Certificates and Book-Entry KMG Shares

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will cause the exchange agent to mail to each record holder of a share of KMG common stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering KMG share certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration. Upon surrender of a KMG share certificate or book-entry share and a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal to the exchange agent in compliance with the instructions for surrender, along with any other documents as may customarily be required by the exchange agent, Cabot Microelectronics will, in exchange for such certificates or book-entry shares, cause the exchange agent to pay and deliver as promptly as practicable the merger consideration.

The exchange agent will be instructed to pay the merger consideration upon surrender of the KMG share certificates or book-entry shares together with the letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed, and any other documents as may customarily be required by the exchange agent. The timing of the receipt of the merger consideration by any individual shareholder will vary depending on the underlying arrangements through which such shareholder holds their shares of KMG common stock.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of KMG common stock that is not registered in KMG's transfer or stock records, payment may be made and shares may be issued to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered KMG share certificate or book-entry share is registered if such certificate or book-entry share is presented to the exchange agent accompanied by all documents reasonably required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the exchange agent and Cabot Microelectronics that any applicable transfer taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

In the event that a KMG share certificate was lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder of the KMG share certificate claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed may still obtain the merger consideration and the amount of any owed dividends or distributions to which she or he would be entitled had she or he surrendered the lost, stolen or destroyed KMG share certificate by (i) making an affidavit regarding the loss, theft or destruction of the KMG share certificate and (ii) if required by Cabot Microelectronics or the exchange agent, posting a bond (in a reasonable amount as determined by Cabot Microelectronics or the exchange agent) as indemnity against any future claims against Cabot Microelectronics, the exchange agent or the surviving company with respect to the lost, stolen or destroyed KMG share certificate.

KMG share certificates or book-entry shares should not be surrendered by KMG shareholders prior to the effective time and should be sent only pursuant to instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal that will be mailed to shareholders as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time. In all cases with respect to KMG shares certificates and book-entry shares, the merger consideration will be provided only in accordance with the procedures set forth in such letter of transmittal.

No interest will be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon surrender of any KMG share certificates or book-entry shares.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time with respect to Cabot Microelectronics common stock will be paid to the holder of any shares of KMG common stock until such holder properly surrenders its shares of KMG common stock in accordance with the exchange agent procedures. After proper surrender, Cabot Microelectronics shall cause such shareholder to be paid, without interest, (i) the amount of any dividends or distributions with a record date after the effective time and paid with respect to such shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to which such shareholder is entitled and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of any dividends or distributions with a record date after the effective time but prior to surrender and with a payment date subsequent to surrender with respect to such shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock. After the effective time, Cabot Microelectronics will cause KMG to pay the amount of any dividends or distributions on shares of KMG common stock that have a record date prior to the effective time and a payment date after the effective time.

Rights of KMG Shareholders Following the Effective Time and Transfers Following the Effective Time

The per share merger consideration paid in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement upon the surrender of certificates or book-entry shares will be deemed to have been delivered and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of KMG common stock. After the effective time, all holders of shares of KMG common stock will cease to have any rights as shareholders of KMG other than (i) the right to receive the per share merger consideration upon the surrender of such shares (together with the fractional share cash amount and any dividends or distributions such shares become entitled to in accordance with the merger agreement) and (ii) the right to receive the payment of such amounts as are payable in accordance with Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC. There will be no further registration of transfers on the transfer books of the surviving company and any certificates formerly representing shares of KMG common stock that are presented to the surviving company or the exchange agent for any reason will be cancelled and exchanged for the per share merger consideration.

None of the parties to the merger agreement, the surviving company nor the exchange agent will be liable to any person with respect to any portion of the exchange fund or the merger consideration delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws. Further, any merger consideration remaining undistributed to former holders of shares of KMG common stock immediately prior to when such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any governmental entity will, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of the surviving company free and clear of any claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

Withholding Rights

KMG, Cabot Microelectronics, Merger Sub, the surviving company and the exchange agent will each be entitled to deduct and withhold any amounts due under applicable tax laws from the amounts that would otherwise become payable under the terms of the merger agreement. Any such deducted or withheld amounts that are paid to the appropriate taxing authorities will be treated as having been paid to the person in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made.

Treatment of KMG Equity Awards

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted stock unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted prior to August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will fully vest (with any applicable performance metrics deemed satisfied based on the level of achievement specified in the applicable award agreement) and be cancelled and converted in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of KMG common stock underlying the applicable restricted stock unit award.

Immediately prior to the effective time, each restricted stock unit award relating to shares of KMG common stock that was granted on or following August 14, 2018 and that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics and converted into a restricted stock unit award relating to a number of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to (i) the number of shares of KMG common stock subject to such KMG restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the effective time, multiplied by (ii) the "equity award exchange ratio" (defined below). The assumed restricted stock unit awards will be subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the corresponding KMG equity award immediately prior to the effective time (including vesting terms). The "equity award exchange ratio" means the sum of (a) 0.2000 and (b) the quotient (rounded to four decimal places) obtained by dividing (x) $55.65 by (y) the volume weighted average price per share (calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent) of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on the Nasdaq for the consecutive period of five trading days beginning on the seventh trading day immediately preceding the effective time and concluding at the close of trading on the third trading day immediately preceding the effective time.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary and, in certain cases, reciprocal, representations and warranties by KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub that are (i) subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications contained in confidential disclosure schedules and (ii) qualified by certain information filed by the parties with the SEC, excluding, in each case, any disclosures set forth in any risk factor section or "forward-looking statements" sections.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by KMG relating to, among other things, the following:

organization, good standing and qualification to do business and subsidiaries' organization, good standing and qualification to do business;

The representations and warranties will not survive the merger. Many of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement are qualified by a "materiality" standard or by a "material adverse effect" standard.

Under the merger agreement, a "material adverse effect," with respect to KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, as applicable, means any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence, condition or development which is materially adverse to the business, results of operations or financial condition of such party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, but without taking into account any of the following:

any breach of the merger agreement by the other party;

any actions taken or omitted to be taken by such party at the written request of the other party; and lawsuits relating to the merger agreement (including any shareholder litigation);

except that with respect to the first three bullets above, to the extent the effects of such change are disproportionately adverse to the business, results of operations or financial condition of the party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies in the same industries, in which case only the incremental disproportionate impact or impacts may be taken into account in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect. A "material adverse effect" with respect to KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, as applicable, also means any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence, condition or development which prevents the ability of the applicable party to consummate the merger prior to the end date.

Conduct of Businesses of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics Prior to Completion of the Merger

KMG agreed that prior to the effective time, except as required by a governmental entity or applicable law, as permitted by the merger agreement (including KMG's confidential disclosure schedules thereto), or as Cabot Microelectronics approves in writing, it will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice in all material respects and will use reasonable best efforts to maintain and preserve intact its assets and business organization and its relationships with employees, officers, customers, suppliers, distributors, governmental entities and other business partners.

KMG also has agreed that, except as required by a governmental entity or applicable law, as permitted by the merger agreement (including KMG's confidential disclosure schedules thereto), as Cabot Microelectronics approves in writing, or certain other exceptions, it will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to:

amend the organizational documents of KMG or any of its subsidiaries in any material respect;

split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock;

take any action that would reasonably be expected to result in the failure of (a) KMG's conditions to closing to be satisfied prior to the end date or (b) Cabot Microelectronics to obtain financing in an amount sufficient, together with any other sources available to Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub, to fund the payment required pursuant to the merger agreement on or prior to the end date; and agree to take, or make any commitment to take, any of the foregoing actions.

Under the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics also agreed to not, and to cause its controlled affiliates not to, enter into a transaction to acquire any asset, property, right or business (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange, investment, joint venture, strategic alliance, other business combination, asset, stock or equity purchase or otherwise) that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay satisfaction of the certain conditions to closing relating to regulatory approvals.

No Solicitation of KMG Takeover Proposals

Under the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions described below, KMG agreed that it will not, and that it will cause its controlled affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors and employees not to, and use reasonable best efforts to cause its financial advisors, attorneys, accountants and other representatives acting on KMG's behalf not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiry regarding, or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a KMG takeover proposal (as defined below);

engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations, or furnish to any other person any information, in connection with a KMG takeover proposal; or approve, adopt, recommend or enter into (or propose to do any of the foregoing) any letter of intent, agreement or commitment with respect to a KMG takeover proposal.

KMG further agreed that it will not, and will cause its affiliates not to, release any third party from, or waive, amend or modify any provision of, or grant permission under, or fail to enforce, any standstill provision in any agreement to which KMG or any of its affiliates is a party, except that the KMG board of directors may waive any such standstill provision solely to the extent necessary to permit a third party to make a confidential company takeover proposal to the KMG board of directors only if the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Under the merger agreement, a "KMG takeover proposal" means any proposal or offer from any person (other than Cabot Microelectronics and its subsidiaries) relating to (i) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, binding share exchange, liquidation, dissolution, or similar transaction involving KMG or any of its subsidiaries, (ii) any acquisition of 25% or more of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock or securities representing 25% or more of the voting power of KMG, (iii) any acquisition (including the acquisition of stock of a subsidiary) of assets or businesses of KMG or its subsidiaries, including pursuant to a joint venture, representing 25% or more of the consolidated assets, revenues or net income of KMG, (iv) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any person beneficially owning 25% or more of the outstanding KMG common stock or securities representing 25% or more of the voting power of KMG or (v) any combination of the foregoing if the sum of the percentage of consolidated assets, revenues or earnings and KMG common stock (or voting power of securities of KMG other than KMG common stock) involved is 25% or more.

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, if at any time prior to obtaining the approval of the KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, KMG receives a written, bona fide, unsolicited takeover proposal that did not result from a material breach of KMG's non-solicitation obligations, KMG may (i) furnish information with respect to KMG to the party making the KMG takeover proposal (subject to certain conditions and obligations described below) and (ii) engage in discussions or negotiations with the party making such KMG takeover proposal, if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the KMG takeover proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a KMG superior proposal (as defined below) and that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Substantially concurrently with furnishing such information or engaging in such discussions or negotiations, KMG must make available to Cabot Microelectronics any nonpublic information concerning KMG or its subsidiaries that is provided to such person making the KMG takeover proposal or its representatives (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously provided to Cabot Microelectronics).

As used in the merger agreement, a "KMG superior proposal" means a bona fide, written KMG takeover proposal (provided that references in the definition of KMG takeover proposal to 25% are deemed to be references to 50%) that the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's financial advisors and outside legal counsel, after giving effect to any changes to the merger agreement committed to in writing by Cabot Microelectronics in response to such KMG takeover proposal and all other financial, legal, regulatory, tax and other aspects of such proposal, including all conditions contained therein and the person making such KMG takeover proposal, as the KMG board of directors deems relevant, is reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed and is more favorable to KMG's shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger.

Existing Discussions or Negotiations; Required Notification of KMG

Under the terms of the merger agreement, KMG agreed that it will, and that it will cause its controlled affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors and employees to, and use reasonable best efforts to cause its financial advisors, attorneys, accountants and other representatives acting on KMG's behalf to, immediately cease and terminate any solicitation, knowing encouragement, discussion or negotiations with any person (other than Cabot Microelectronics and its affiliates and its and their respective representatives) that was ongoing at the execution of the merger agreement. Further, KMG agreed to cause the termination of access of any third party to any data room (virtual or actual) containing any information of or regarding KMG or its subsidiaries.

KMG agreed to promptly (and in any event within 24 hours), notify Cabot Microelectronics if the KMG board of directors makes a determination that a KMG takeover proposal constitutes or is reasonably expected to lead to a KMG superior proposal or if KMG furnishes nonpublic information and/or enters into discussions or negotiations with a person making a KMG takeover proposal.

KMG also agreed to promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after, to the knowledge of KMG, its receipt) notify Cabot Microelectronics of the receipt of a KMG takeover proposal or any request for information relating to KMG or other inquiry or communication that is reasonably likely to lead to a KMG takeover proposal. Such notice must include the identity of the person or persons making the KMG takeover proposal (or the related proposal or inquiry) and the material terms thereof. Further, after giving such a notice, KMG must keep Cabot Microelectronics reasonably informed, on a current basis, as to the status of any KMG takeover proposal (including any material developments, discussions or negotiations related thereto) by promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after receipt) providing

Cabot Microelectronics copies of any correspondence, proposals, indications of interest, and/or draft agreements relating to such KMG takeover proposal.

No Change in Recommendation or Termination for a Company Superior Proposal

Under the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions described below, the KMG board of directors may not take any of the following actions, each of which are referred to as a "KMG adverse recommendation change" in this proxy statement/prospectus, under the merger agreement:

fail to include the KMG board of directors recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus; change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify the KMG board of directors recommendation (or authorize or publicly propose to do so);

fail to recommend against any KMG takeover proposal that is a tender or exchange offer within ten business days of such tender or exchange offer; or adopt, approve or recommend to KMG shareholders a KMG takeover proposal (or resolve to or publicly propose or announce its intention to do so).

Company Superior Proposals; Intervening Events

However, at any time before approval by KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is obtained, the KMG board of directors may, with respect to a bona fide, unsolicited KMG takeover proposal that did not result from a material breach by KMG of its non-solicitation obligations under the merger agreement, make a KMG adverse recommendation change (following compliance with the obligation to provide an opportunity to Cabot Microelectronics to make a revised proposal as described below), if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that (i) such KMG takeover proposal constitutes a KMG superior proposal and (ii) the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

In addition, at any time before approval by KMG shareholders of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is obtained, the KMG board of directors may, in response to a KMG intervening event (as defined below), make a KMG adverse recommendation change (following compliance with the obligation to provide an opportunity to Cabot Microelectronics to make a revised proposal as described below), if, and only if, the KMG board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with KMG's independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the KMG board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law. Under the merger agreement, a "KMG intervening event" is defined as any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence or development or combination thereof that (i) was not known or reasonably foreseeable to the KMG board of directors as of the date of the merger agreement and (ii) does not relate to any KMG takeover proposal. However, any change in the price or trading volume of KMG common stock or Cabot Microelectronics common stock will not be taken into account for purposes of determining whether a KMG intervening event has occurred (except that any underlying cause thereof may be taken into account), and no fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence or development or combination thereof that has had or would reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on Cabot Microelectronics will constitute a KMG intervening event unless such fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence or development or combination thereof has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Cabot Microelectronics.

Prior to making any KMG adverse recommendation change, (i) the KMG board of directors must provide Cabot Microelectronics four business days' prior written notice of any intention to take such action (specifying, among other things, the identity of the person making a KMG takeover proposal and copies of the related agreements, if any, or the KMG intervening event, as applicable); (ii) during the four business days following the delivery of such written notice, KMG must consider in good faith any revisions or changes to the merger agreement or the merger proposed by Cabot Microelectronics; and (iii) after the four business days, the KMG board of directors must conclude, after consultation with independent financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that even if the revisions committed to in writing by Cabot Microelectronics were to be accepted by KMG, the failure to make a KMG adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the KMG board of directors and, in the case of a KMG takeover proposal, that the proposal continues to constitute a KMG superior proposal.

In the event of any change in the financial terms of or any changes in the material terms of any KMG superior proposal, KMG must again satisfy the notice and other requirements set out in the preceding paragraph (except that the four business day period will instead be the longer of (i) two business days or (ii) the amount of time remaining in the initial four business day notice period).

KMG is not prohibited from (i) taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position contemplated by Exchange Act Rule 14e-2(a), Exchange Act Rule 14d-9 or making any "stop, look and listen" communication to its shareholders under Exchange Act Rule 14d-9(f), (ii) directing any person that makes a KMG takeover proposal to the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement or (iii) making a factually accurate public statement limited to a description of the receipt of a KMG takeover proposal and the operation of the merger agreement with respect thereto.

KMG Shareholder Meeting

KMG has agreed to set the record date and convene a meeting of KMG shareholders to consider the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the special meeting, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of the merger agreement. KMG has also agreed to use reasonable best efforts to mail this proxy statement/prospectus to KMG shareholders as promptly as reasonably practicable after this registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part is declared effective by the SEC. Except as described above with respect to a KMG adverse recommendation change, the KMG board of directors will recommend approval of the merger proposal and KMG will use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from KMG's shareholders proxies in favor of the merger proposal.

KMG may postpone or adjourn the special meeting if KMG (i) determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that any supplement or amendment to this proxy statement/prospectus is required by law to be provided to KMG's shareholders or (ii) has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of KMG common stock to constitute a quorum or approve of the merger proposal. However, KMG is not permitted to postpone or adjourn the special meeting later than the date that is twenty business days after the date for which the special meeting is originally scheduled without Cabot Microelectronics' prior written consent.

The parties have agreed that nothing in the merger agreement, including a KMG adverse recommendation change, will relieve KMG of its obligation to submit the merger agreement to its shareholders for a vote on the adoption and approval thereof.

Financing

Consummation of the merger is not conditioned upon Cabot Microelectronics' ability to obtain financing. Cabot Microelectronics is required to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain financing contemplated by the commitment letter to fund the cash consideration for the merger and related costs, fees and expenses and to repay any indebtedness of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG on or prior to the consummation of the merger, and to keep KMG reasonably informed of the status of its efforts to obtain such financing. KMG is required to use its reasonable best efforts to provide all cooperation necessary, customary or advisable to assist Cabot Microelectronics in obtaining such financing subject to customary limitations. Cabot Microelectronics is obligated to reimburse KMG for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by KMG in connection with such financing and the cooperating by KMG.

Access to Information

Subject to certain limitations, prior to the effective time, KMG is required to afford Cabot Microelectronics and its representatives reasonable access during normal business hours to all of KMG's and its subsidiaries' personnel, properties, contracts, commitments, books and records and make available to Cabot Microelectronics and its representatives all other available information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Cabot Microelectronics may reasonably request.

Employee Matters

Cabot Microelectronics will provide each KMG employee, for so long as he or she remains employed by Cabot Microelectronics (each, a "continuing employee"), with (i) for one year following the effective time, a base salary or wage rate no less than that provided to such continuing employee immediately prior to the effective time, (ii) for the remainder of the fiscal year in effect as of the effective time, a target annual cash incentive opportunity no less favorable than that provided to such continuing employee immediately prior to the effective time, and (iii) for one year following the effective time, employee benefits (including equity-based compensation eligibility and severance benefits, but excluding any defined benefit and retiree welfare benefits) that are, in Cabot Microelectronics' election, substantially comparable in the aggregate to either (a) those provided to similarly situated employees of Cabot Microelectronics or (b) those generally provided to continuing employees immediately prior to the effective time.

Cabot Microelectronics will credit continuing employees with their service with KMG for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accrual under its compensation and benefit plans following the closing to the same extent such service was recognized immediately prior to the effective time under a comparable KMG plan, except that such service will not be recognized (i) for purposes of any defined benefit or retiree welfare benefit plan, (ii) to the extent it would result in a duplication of benefits, (iii) for purposes of any plan that is grandfathered or frozen, or (iv) for purposes of any plan adopted after the effective time that does not credit similarly situated Cabot Microelectronics employees with service.

Cabot Microelectronics will use commercially reasonable and good faith efforts to cause all limitations as to preexisting conditions and waiting periods under Cabot Microelectronics' medical, dental and vision plans to be waived by Cabot Microelectronics and its subsidiaries, other than limitations, exclusions, actively at work requirements, waiting periods or other restrictions that are already in effect with respect to such continuing employees and that have not been satisfied as of the closing date under any KMG employee benefit plan. Additionally, Cabot Microelectronics will use commercially reasonable and good faith efforts to credit each continuing employee and his or her dependents for any co-payments and deductibles satisfied prior to the closing date for the plan year within which the effective time occurs in order to satisfy any applicable deductible, annual out-of-pocket requirements, annual or lifetime limits, visit limits or similar limitations under any medical, dental or vision plans that such company employees are eligible to participate in after the closing date.

Prior to the closing, KMG may grant employees (including its executive officers) up to $16,500,000 in cash retention awards to promote retention and incentivize efforts to consummate the merger. Payments under the retention program will be contingent upon the closing, and shall be paid 50% at closing, with the remainder paid on such dates as mutually agreed between Cabot Microelectronics and KMG, subject to the participant's continued employment through the date of payment. Alternatively, the service requirement will be waived and retention awards will vest and be paid if the recipient's employment is terminated without cause, if the recipient resigns with good reason or if the recipient terminates employment due to death or disability.

Prior to the closing, KMG may grant employees (including its executive officers), restricted stock units covering a target number of 39,223 shares of KMG common stock. The restricted stock units will vest in three equal installments on the first three anniversaries of the grant date and will be assumed by Cabot Microelectronics at the effective time of the merger as described above under "The Merger Treatment of KMG Equity Awards". If the recipient is terminated without cause or resigns with good reason during the 18 months following the effective time, the recipient will vest in a number of shares equal to 150% of the target number of shares subject to the restricted stock unit award. Due to this termination feature, the maximum number of shares of KMG common stock issuable in respect of such restricted stock units is 58,835.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that all rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time in favor of any present or former director, officer or employee of KMG or its subsidiaries, and any person who served as a director, officer, member, trustee or fiduciary of any other entity at the request or for the benefit of KMG or any of its subsidiaries, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the KMG indemnified parties, will survive the merger and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, as set forth in the KMG organizational documents or certain indemnification agreements in existence upon execution of the merger agreement, for six years following the effective time.

Following the effective time, the surviving company will, and Cabot Microelectronics will cause the surviving company to, indemnify and hold harmless each KMG indemnified party against any cost or expense arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of KMG or any of its subsidiaries or other fiduciary in any entity at the request or for the benefit of KMG and pertaining to matters existing or occurring prior to the effective time (including with respect to the merger and merger agreement), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

The merger agreement requires Cabot Microelectronics to cause the surviving company to maintain, for a period of six years after the effective time, KMG's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance policy, or substantially comparable insurance of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured. However, the surviving company is not required to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 300% of the annual premium paid for the year ended December 31, 2017 by KMG for such insurance. In lieu of the foregoing, Cabot Microelectronics or KMG (following prior consultation with Cabot Microelectronics) may obtain, prior to the effective time, a six-year prepaid "tail" policy that provides equivalent coverage for the indemnitees for an aggregate price not to exceed 300% of the annual premiums paid for the year ended December 31, 2017 by KMG for such insurance.

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, regulatory filings and approvals (which are described in the section titled "The Merger Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page 76), the delisting of shares of KMG common stock from the NYSE, the listing of shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that will be issued in connection with the merger on the Nasdaq, resignations of KMG's directors as of the closing of the merger, notification of certain events and regulatory matters, coordination of record dates and payment dates with respect to quarterly dividends of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics prior to the closing of the merger, coordination with respect to litigation relating to the merger and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The respective obligations of each of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub to effect the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver (to the extent permitted under applicable law), at or prior to the closing, of the following conditions:

the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this prospectus/proxy statement forms a part must have been declared effective by the SEC under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Form S-4 may be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose may be initiated by the SEC;

no court or other governmental entity may have entered or issued an order, writ, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling, directive or award, or adopted or enacted a law, that prohibits, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the merger;

the waiting period (or extensions thereof) applicable to the merger under the HSR Act must have expired or been terminated; and shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that will be issued in connection with the merger must have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligations of Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub to complete the merger are also subject to the fulfillment, or waiver by Cabot Microelectronics (to the extent permitted under applicable law), at or prior to the closing of the following additional conditions:

KMG must have performed or complied in all material respects all covenants required by the merger agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to the closing;

subject to certain exceptions and materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, the representations and warranties of KMG must be true and correct at and as of the closing date as though made at and as of the closing date (except if made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date);

since the date of the merger agreement, there must not have been any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence, condition or development that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on KMG; and

KMG must have delivered to Cabot Microelectronics a certificate, dated as of the closing date and signed by its chief executive officer or another senior officer, certifying to the effect that the preceding three conditions have been met.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the merger agreement, KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, and to do, or cause to be done, all reasonable actions and things necessary, proper or advisable under any applicable laws to consummate the merger and obtain (and to cooperate with each other in obtaining) the required regulatory approvals.

To the extent necessary to consummate the merger, Cabot Microelectronics is required to (i) agree to propose, negotiate, offer to commit and effect (and if such offer is accepted, commit to and effect) by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, the sale, divestiture, license, holding separate, or other disposition of or restriction on any assets, licenses, rights, product lines, operations or businesses of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG or any of their respective subsidiaries, and (ii) accept any operational restrictions or otherwise take or commit to take actions that would, after the effective time, limit Cabot Microelectronics' or its affiliates' freedom of action with respect to, or its ability to retain, any of the assets, licenses, rights, product lines, operations or businesses of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG or any of their respective subsidiaries. However, Cabot Microelectronics is not be required to take (and KMG is not permitted to take without the prior written consent of Cabot Microelectronics) any such actions if they, individually or in the aggregate, would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect (measured on a scale relative to the KMG and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole) the business of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG and their subsidiaries, including the surviving company, after the closing and giving effect to the merger.

KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub agreed that Cabot Microelectronics will have the primary right to devise the strategy for all filings, notifications, submissions and communications in connection with any filing, notice, petition, statement, registration, submission, application or similar regulatory approval. However, each party will consult with the other parties to the merger agreement and provide assistance as the other parties may reasonably request in connection with such regulatory approvals. Additionally, each party is required to (i) promptly inform the other parties to the merger agreement, and if in writing, furnish the other parties with copies of, any material communication from or to any governmental entity regarding the merger, (ii) permit the other parties to the merger agreement to review and discuss in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the other parties in

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time, whether before or after the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement by KMG shareholders (except as otherwise specified):

by mutual written consent of KMG and Cabot Microelectronics;

by either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, if the merger has not been consummated on or prior to February 14, 2019, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the end date. If, however, all of the conditions to closing, other than certain conditions relating to antitrust laws, have been satisfied or waived (other than any such conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at or immediately prior to the Closing, which conditions must be capable of being satisfied at such time), either party may extend the end date to May 14, 2019 by written notice to the other party. The right to terminate the merger agreement according to this provision is not available to a party whose breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement was the principal cause of the merger not being consummated on or prior to the end date. This termination right is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the end date termination right; by either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, if a governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has entered or issued a final and nonappealable order or adopted or enacted a law that permanently restrains, enjoins or makes illegal consummation of the merger. However, the right to terminate the merger agreement according to this provision is not available to a party if such order was due to the material breach by such party of any covenant or other agreement of such party contained in the merger agreement; by either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, if the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement by KMG shareholders has not been obtained upon a vote on the approval of the merger proposal at the special meeting (including any postponement or adjournment thereof);

by either KMG or Cabot Microelectronics, if the other party has materially breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement and such breach (i) would result in the failure of the terminating party's conditions to closing and (ii) is not curable or is not cured by the earlier of the end date and the date that is 30 business days following written notice describing such breach in reasonable detail. However, the terminating party may not exercise this termination right if it is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement;

by Cabot Microelectronics, prior to receipt of approval of the merger proposal by KMG shareholders, if (i) a KMG adverse recommendation change occurs or (ii) KMG is in material and willful breach of its non-solicitation obligations or its obligations to hold the special meeting under the merger agreement and such breach is not curable or is not cured by the earlier of the end date and the date that is 30 business days following written notice from Cabot Microelectronics to KMG describing such breach in reasonable detail.

Generally, if the merger agreement is terminated, the merger agreement becomes null and void with no liability on the part of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub, except for the payment by KMG of any required termination fee under the merger agreement or any liability arising out of or resulting from fraud or willful breach of the merger agreement prior to termination.

Termination Fee

KMG must pay Cabot Microelectronics a termination fee of $38,765,000 in cash, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the termination fee, if the merger agreement is terminated by Cabot Microelectronics because of (a) a KMG adverse recommendation change or (b) KMG being in material and willful breach of its non-solicitation obligations or its obligations to hold the special meeting under the merger agreement and such breach is not curable or is not cured by the earlier of the end date and the date that is 30 business days following written notice from Cabot Microelectronics to KMG describing such breach in reasonable detail.

Additionally, KMG must also pay Cabot Microelectronics the termination fee if all of the following circumstances occur:

the merger agreement is terminated by KMG or Cabot Microelectronics pursuant to the end date termination right or because the approval of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement by KMG shareholders has not been obtained; or Cabot Microelectronics terminates the merger agreement because KMG has materially and willfully breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement;

a KMG takeover proposal has been publicly announced or disclosed prior to such termination and shall not have been publicly withdrawn; and within 12 months after such termination, KMG enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, the KMG takeover proposal announced or disclosed after the date of the merger agreement (in each case with references to 25% in the definition of KMG takeover proposal being replaced by 50% for this purpose).

Amendment and Assignment

Any provision of the merger agreement may be amended or waived prior to the effective time of the merger only if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom enforcement is sought, and in the case of an amendment, by KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub. No amendments to the merger agreement may be made that by law require further approval by KMG shareholders without obtaining such further approval. At any time and from time to time prior to the effective time, either KMG, on the one hand, or Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub, on the other hand, may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement, and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of any such party contained in the merger agreement.

Neither the merger agreement nor any rights, interests or obligations under the merger agreement may be assigned or delegated without the prior written consent of the nonassigning parties to the merger agreement, provided that, without KMG's consent, Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub may assign any of their rights under the merger agreement to another wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics, provided that such assignment will not relieve Cabot Microelectronics or Merger Sub of any of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Governing Law

The merger agreement and claims or actions based upon or relating to the merger agreement are governed the laws of the State of Delaware, except that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the KMG board of directors are subject to the laws of the State of Texas.

Specific Enforcement; Jurisdiction

Each of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub agreed that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of the merger agreement were not performed or were threatened to be not performed, or were otherwise breached, and that money damages would not be an adequate remedy, even if available. Accordingly, and in addition to any other remedy that each may be entitled to, including monetary damages, KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub agreed that each will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of the merger agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the merger agreement. Each of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub also irrevocably waived any objection to the availability of injunctive remedies to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of the merger agreement and any requirement to prove damages or provide any bond in connection with injunctive remedies.

Further, with respect to legal actions or proceedings relating to the merger agreement and the rights and obligations under the merger agreement, each of KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub (i) agreed such actions or proceedings will be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery (or if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines jurisdiction, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware), (ii) submitted to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery (or to the extent the Delaware Court of Chancery declines jurisdiction, any state or federal court located in the State of Delaware) and (iii) waived (a) any claim that it is not personally subject to such jurisdiction, (b) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from such courts or from legal process commenced in such courts and (c) any claim of inconvenient forum or improper venue.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following describes the material provisions of the voting agreements, which are attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus and are incorporated by reference herein. The summary of the material provisions of the voting agreements below and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus are qualified in their entirety by reference to the voting agreements. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the voting agreements that is important to you. Cabot Microelectronics and KMG encourage you to read carefully the voting agreements in their entirety before making any decisions regarding the merger.

In connection with entering into the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics entered into voting and support agreements dated August 14, 2018, with each of Christopher T. Fraser, KMG's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Fred C. Leonard III, a member of the KMG board of directors, which we refer to as the voting agreements.

Pursuant to the voting agreements, for so long as the KMG board of directors has not effected a KMG adverse recommendation change in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, each of Messrs. Fraser and Leonard agreed to, among other things, vote his or its beneficially owned shares of KMG common stock:

in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement;

in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting in compliance with the merger agreement in the event there are not sufficient votes to approve and adopt the merger agreement; and against any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that relates to a KMG takeover proposal, that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of KMG contained in the merger agreement, or that would prevent, impede or delay KMG's or Cabot Microelectronics' ability to consummate the merger.

As of the record date, the voting agreements covered 754,554 shares of KMG common stock, or approximately 4.9% of the outstanding shares of KMG common stock.

Each of Messrs. Fraser and Leonard also agreed to comply with certain restrictions on the disposition of his beneficially owned shares of KMG common stock.

The voting agreements apply to Messrs. Fraser and Leonard only in their capacity as shareholders of KMG and do not limit their ability to exercise their fiduciary duties as directors of KMG or take any action or any inaction in their capacity as directors of KMG.

The voting agreements will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the consummation of the merger, (b) the termination of the merger agreement pursuant to and in compliance with its terms and (c) the entry without the prior written consent of each KMG shareholder party thereto into any amendment or modification of the merger agreement, or any written waiver of KMG's rights under the merger agreement, in each case, which results in a decrease in, or change in the composition of, the merger consideration or imposes any material restrictions or additional constraints on the payment of the merger consideration.

OTHER MATTERS

It is not presently expected that any matters other than those discussed herein will be brought before the KMG special meeting. If, however, other matters properly come before the special meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote the shares they represent as the KMG board of directors may recommend.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On August 14, 2018, KMG, Cabot Microelectronics and Merger Sub entered into a merger agreement that provides for the acquisition of KMG by Cabot Microelectronics. Subject to approval of KMG shareholders and the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by law) waiver of certain other closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Cabot Microelectronics will acquire KMG through the merger of Merger Sub with and into KMG, with KMG surviving the merger and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared to illustrate the estimated effects of the merger and the related financing transactions. It sets forth:

The historical consolidated financial information of Cabot Microelectronics as of and for the nine months ended June 30, 2018, derived from Cabot Microelectronics' unaudited consolidated financial statements, and the historical consolidated statement of income information of Cabot Microelectronics for the year ended September 30, 2017, derived from Cabot Microelectronics' audited consolidated financial statements;

The historical consolidated financial information of KMG as of July 31, 2018, derived from KMG's audited consolidated financial statements, the historical consolidated statement of income information of KMG for the nine months ended July 31, 2018, derived by removing KMG's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the three months ended October 31, 2017 from its audited consolidated statement of income for the year ended July 31, 2018, and the historical consolidated statement of income information of KMG for the year ended July 31, 2017, derived from KMG's audited consolidated financial statements. Therefore, the three months ended October 31, 2017 is excluded from both the nine months ended July 31, 2018 and the year ended July 31, 2017. The revenue and net income for the three months ended October 31, 2017 were $110,664 and $5,850, respectively. KMG recorded an accelerated amortization of deferred financing costs and original issue discount of $4,175 as a loss on extinguishment of debt, in conjunction with the payments on its term loan, in its consolidated statements of income for the three months ended October 31, 2017.

Pro forma adjustments to give effect to Cabot Microelectronics' acquisition of KMG on Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2018, as if the merger closed on June 30, 2018;

Pro forma adjustments to give effect to Cabot Microelectronics' acquisition of KMG on Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and for the year ended September 30, 2017, as if the merger closed on October 1, 2016; and Pro forma adjustments to give effect to KMG's acquisition of Flowchem on June 15, 2017 on KMG's consolidated statements of income for the year ended July 31, 2017, as if the acquisition closed on August 1, 2016. The amounts presented as the historical results of KMG for the nine months ended July 31, 2018 included the results of Flowchem.

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have different fiscal years. Cabot Microelectronics' fiscal year ends on September 30, whereas KMG's fiscal year ends on July 31. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and statements of income have been prepared utilizing period ends that differ by less than 93 days, as permitted by Rule 11-02 Regulation S-X.

The historical condensed consolidated financial information in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been adjusted to give effect to pro forma events that are (1) directly attributable to the merger, (2) factually supportable and (3) with respect to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results of Cabot Microelectronics and KMG.

This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and is based on assumptions and estimates considered appropriate by Cabot Microelectronics' management; however, it is not necessarily indicative of what Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated financial condition or results of operations actually would have been assuming the transactions had been consummated as of the dates indicated, nor does it purport to represent Cabot Microelectronics' consolidated financial position or results of operations for future periods. The adjustments included in this unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information are preliminary and may be revised. This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not consider any impacts of potential revenue enhancements, anticipated cost savings and expense efficiencies or other synergies that may be achieved in the acquisitions or any strategies that management may consider in order to continue to efficiently manage Cabot Microelectronics' operations. Future results may vary significantly from the results reflected due to various factors, including those discussed in the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to reflect factually supportable items that are directly attributable to the merger and, with respect to the income statements only, expected to have a continuing impact on consolidated results of operations.

This pro forma condensed combined financial information should be read in conjunction with:

Cabot Microelectronics' unaudited consolidated financial statements and the related notes thereto as of and for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 included in the Cabot Microelectronics' Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter then ended June 30, 2018;

Cabot Microelectronics' audited consolidated financial statements and the related notes thereto as of and for the year ended September 30, 2017 included in Cabot Microelectronics' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2017;

KMG's audited consolidated financial statements and the related notes thereto as of July 31, 2018 and for each of the years ended July 31, 2017 and 2018 included in KMG's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2018;

Flowchem's pre-acquisition financial information of Flowchem included in KMG's Current Report on Form 8-K/A, filed on October 17, 2017; and

The accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is prepared using the purchase method of accounting, as defined by Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 805, Business Combinations, with Cabot Microelectronics treated as the acquirer and Article 11 of Regulation S-X, as defined by the SEC. The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information primarily gives effect to:

Application of the acquisition method of accounting in connection with the merger;

Adjustments to reflect financing arrangements entered into in connection with the merger; and Transaction costs incurred in connection with the merger.

The allocation of the purchase price used in the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is based on preliminary estimates. The estimates and assumptions are subject to change at the effective time of the merger. The final determination of the allocation of the purchase price will be based on the actual tangible assets and liabilities, and intangible assets of KMG as of the effective time of the merger. Accordingly, the final purchase accounting adjustments may be materially different from the preliminary unaudited adjustments presented herein. Transaction costs related to the merger may also differ at the time of merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information has been compiled in a manner consistent with the accounting policies adopted by Cabot Microelectronics. Cabot Microelectronics believes these accounting policies are similar in most material respects to those of KMG. Certain reclassifications have been made to conform the presentation of KMG's financial information to that of Cabot Microelectronics. Upon completion of the merger, or as more information becomes available, Cabot Microelectronics will perform a more detailed review of the KMG accounting policies. As a result of that review, differences could be identified between the accounting policies of the two companies that, when conformed, could have a material impact on the combined financial information.

NOTE 1: Description of the Transaction and Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

On August 14, 2018, Cabot Microelectronics announced that it had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with KMG and Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a Texas corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics, providing for the acquisition of KMG by Cabot Microelectronics. The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the satisfaction or valid waiver of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into KMG, with KMG continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cabot Microelectronics. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of KMG common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and certain unvested KMG equity awards, will automatically be converted into the right to receive, without interest, $55.65 in cash and 0.2000 shares of common stock of Cabot Microelectronics, par value $0.001 per share.

The parties currently expect that the merger will be completed near the end of calendar year 2018, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including approval by KMG shareholders. The parties received early termination of the HSR waiting period on September 4, 2018.

Cabot Microelectronics anticipates that approximately $1,213,286 will be required to pay the aggregate cash portion of the merger consideration, and the remainder of the purchase price will be funded with equity issuances. Cabot Microelectronics has assumed, for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, that it will obtain a $1,065,000 term loan to partially fund the cash portion of the merger consideration and utilize cash on hand for the remainder of the cash portion of the merger consideration. Additionally, Cabot Microelectronics expects to secure a $200,000 revolving credit facility that will provide additional borrowing capacity, if needed. Although Cabot Microelectronics has obtained a commitment letter for the assumed term loan and revolving credit facility, there can be no assurance that Cabot Microelectronics will finance the merger in the anticipated manner.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and related notes were derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of Cabot Microelectronics, KMG and Flowchem. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information was prepared as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting, as defined by Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 805, Business Combinations, with Cabot Microelectronics treated as the accounting acquirer. As a result, Cabot Microelectronics will record the business combination in its financial statements and will apply the acquisition method to account for the assets acquired and liabilities assumed of KMG upon completion of the merger. The acquisition method requires the recording of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their fair values on the acquisition date, and the recording of goodwill for the excess of the purchase price over the aggregate fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Additionally, the accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information was prepared in accordance with Article 11 of SEC Regulation S-X.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what Cabot Microelectronics' financial position or results of operations would have been had the KMG acquisition been consummated on the dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of what Cabot Microelectronics' financial position or results of operations will be in future periods. The historical financial information has been adjusted to give effect to estimated pro forma events that are directly attributable to the acquisition, factually supportable and, with respect to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results of operations. Additionally, the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income do not reflect the cost of any integration activities or benefits that may result from synergies that may be derived from any integration activities.

To prepare the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, Cabot Microelectronics adjusted KMG's assets and liabilities to their estimated fair values based on preliminary valuation procedures performed. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Cabot Microelectronics has not completed the detailed valuation procedures necessary to finalize the required estimated fair values and estimated lives of the KMG assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed and the related allocation of the purchase price. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the transaction is completed and after completion of an analysis to determine the estimated fair value of KMG's assets and liabilities, and associated tax adjustments. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments. Also, as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Cabot Microelectronics has not identified all adjustments necessary to conform KMG's accounting policies to Cabot Microelectronics' accounting policies. Cabot Microelectronics will conduct a final review of KMG's accounting policies as of the date of the completion of the merger in an effort to determine if differences in accounting policies require adjustment or further reclassification of KMG's results of operations, assets or liabilities to conform to Cabot Microelectronics' accounting policies and classifications. As a result of this review, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, and accompanying notes thereto, should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2017 for Cabot Microelectronics, the fiscal year ended July 31, 2018 for KMG, and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2018 for Cabot Microelectronics, as well as KMG's Current Report on Form 8-K/A filed on October 17, 2017, containing historical results of Flowchem, each of which has been incorporated by reference in this filing.

Accounting periods presented

Cabot Microelectronics and KMG have different fiscal years. Cabot Microelectronics' fiscal year ends on September 30, whereas KMG's fiscal year ends on July 31. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and statements of income have been prepared utilizing period ends that differ by less than 93 days, as permitted by Rule 11-02 of Regulation S-X.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of June 30, 2018 has been prepared as if the merger, the estimated borrowings used to finance the merger and the issuance of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to KMG shareholders occurred on June 30, 2018 and combines Cabot Microelectronics' balance sheet as of June 30, 2018 with KMG's balance sheet as of July 31, 2018. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income for the twelve months ended September 30, 2017 and the nine months ended June 30, 2018 have been prepared as if the merger and the estimated borrowings used to finance the merger and the issuance of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to KMG shareholders occurred on October 1, 2016 and combines the historical results of Cabot Microelectronics for the year ended September 30, 2017, the historical results of KMG for the year ended July 31, 2017 and the historical results of Flowchem for the period of August 1, 2016 through June 14, 2017 for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for twelve months ended September 30, 2017, and combines the historical results of Cabot Microelectronics for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and the historical results of KMG for the nine months ended July 31, 2018, derived by removing KMG's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the three months ended October 31, 2017 from its audited consolidated statement of income for the year ended July 31, 2018, for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for nine months ended June 30, 2018.

KMG acquisition of Flowchem

On June 15, 2017, KMG completed the acquisition of Flowchem, a manufacturing and distribution company of chemicals used in the crude and refined oil pipeline industry. The amounts presented as the historical KMG in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for the year ended July 31, 2017 did not include the results of operations of Flowchem for the period of August 1, 2016 through June 14, 2017, prior to the acquisition of Flowchem by KMG. Accordingly, amounts presented as historical Flowchem results for the period of August 1, 2016 through June 14, 2017 were derived from Flowchem's unaudited historical results. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for the year ended September 30, 2017 gave effect to KMG's acquisition of Flowchem as if that acquisition had occurred on August 1, 2016. The amounts presented as the historical KMG's consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended July 31, 2018 included the results of operations of Flowchem. The amounts presented as historical KMG's consolidated balance sheet as of July 31, 2018 included the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed as a result of KMG's acquisition of Flowchem.

NOTE 2: Preliminary Consideration to be Transferred and Preliminary Fair Value of Net Assets Acquired

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet has been adjusted to reflect the initial estimate of the fair values of the KMG identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The excess of the purchase price over these fair values is recorded to goodwill. The preliminary unaudited pro forma purchase price allocation was based on data that was available through the public domain, Cabot Microelectronics' due diligence review of KMG's business in connection with the merger, and discussions with KMG's management. Until the merger is completed, Cabot Microelectronics and KMG are limited in their ability to share information with each other. Upon completion of the merger, additional valuation procedures will be performed and any increases or decreases in the fair value of assets acquired or liabilities assumed will result in adjustments to the balance sheet and/or statements of income until the purchase price allocation is finalized. Such adjustments may be material.

The preliminary allocation of total estimated consideration transferred, as if the merger occurred on June 30, 2018, was as follows:

Assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value:	Amount
Cash	$ 30,013
Net working capital (excluding Inventory)	17,390
Inventory	66,031
Fixed assets	141,961
Other assets/liabilities	(135,588)
Intangible assets	681,000
Goodwill	741,768
 Total estimated consideration to be transferred	 $ 1,542,575

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the preliminary estimate of the purchase price to be transferred as a result of the merger:

	Note	Amount
Cash consideration to be paid for KMG outstanding common stock	2.a	$ 865,551
Cash consideration to be paid for KMG outstanding equity awards	2.b	35,735
Total cash consideration to be paid for KMG outstanding common stock and equity awards		901,286
Cash provided to payoff KMG debt	2.c	312,000
Total cash consideration to be paid		1,213,286
Fair value of Cabot common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding common stock	2.d	316,233
Fair value of Cabot common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding equity awards	2.d, 2.e	13,056
Total estimated consideration to be transferred		$ 1,542,575

- a. Cash consideration to be paid for each outstanding share of KMG common stock in the merger was computed as follows:

Outstanding shares of KMG common stock (as of September 27, 2018)	15,553
Cash consideration to be paid per KMG common share	$ 55.65
Cash consideration to be paid to KMG shareholders	$ 865,551

- b. Cash consideration to be paid for KMG outstanding equity awards to the extent they will be paid in cash under the merger agreement was computed as follows:

Share equivalent of KMG equity awards to be settled in cash, per the merger agreement	642
Cash consideration to be paid per KMG common share	$ 55.65
Cash consideration to be paid to holders of KMG equity awards	$ 35,735

- c. As part of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will provide funds to KMG at closing, which KMG will use to pay off its outstanding debt balance. As of the balance sheet date presented, KMG's outstanding debt balance was $312,000. KMG will continue to service its outstanding debt obligations and expects to make payments of principal and interest up to the closing date. Accordingly, the cash paid by Cabot Microelectronics at closing to satisfy KMG's outstanding debt obligations may be lower than the $312,000 presented within the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

d.

The fair value of Cabot Microelectronics' common stock to be issued for KMG's outstanding common stock (and equity awards entitled to merger consideration) in the merger was computed as follows:

Outstanding shares of KMG common stock (as of September 27, 2018)	15,553
Exchange ratio(1)	0.2
Shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding common stock	3,111
Price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock(2)	$ 101.66
Fair value of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding common stock	$ 316,233
Share equivalent of KMG equity awards entitled to merger consideration	642
Exchange ratio(1)	0.2
Shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding equity awards	128
Price per share of Cabot Microelectronics common stock(2)	$ 101.66
Fair value of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding equity awards	$ 13,056
Fair value of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding common stock and equity awards	$ 329,289

(2)

Stock price used in the calculation of fair value of equity securities issued as part of the purchase consideration was based on the closing price of Cabot Microelectronics common stock on September 27, 2018, being the most recent practicable date prior to this filing for purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information. The estimated consideration expected to be paid reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to represent what the actual consideration paid will be when the merger closes. In accordance with ASC 805, the fair value of equity securities issued as part of the consideration paid will be measured on the closing date of the merger at the then-current market price. This requirement will likely result in a per-share equity component different from the $101.66 assumed in the calculation of purchase consideration and the difference may be material. Cabot Microelectronics believes that an increase or decrease of 20 percent in the market price of our common shares on the closing date of the merger as compared to the market price of our common shares assumed for the purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is possible based upon the recent history of the market price of our common shares. This amount was derived based on historical volatility of Cabot Microelectronics' common shares and is not indicative of Cabot Microelectronics' expectation for future share price performance. A change of this magnitude would increase or decrease the purchase price by approximately $65,858, which would result in a corresponding increase or decrease to goodwill in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Under the Equity Award Agreement, vesting of equity awards granted by KMG on or before the date of the merger agreement will accelerate upon the closing of the merger, and those equity award holders will be entitled to receive the same acquisition consideration as KMG common stockholders.

NOTE 3: Presentation reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been recorded in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and income statements to conform KMG's financial statement presentation to Cabot Microelectronics' presentation. Cabot Microelectronics has not identified all adjustments necessary for the conformation of the accounting policies. Following the completion of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics will conduct a detailed review of KMG's accounting policies. As a result of that review, Cabot Microelectronics may identify additional differences between the accounting policies of the two companies that, when conformed, could have a material impact on the unaudited pro forma financial statements. The final acquisition accounting adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments.

KMG has historically presented certain financial statement line items with different captions than Cabot Microelectronics, however, they represent similar transactions. These include: Net sales, Cost of sales, Interest expense, net, and Other, net on the statements of income and Trade, net of allowances, Inventories, net, Other assets, net, Accrued expenses, income taxes payable and other current liabilities, Deferred tax liabilities and Additional paid-in capital on the balance sheet. Cabot Microelectronics has not provided a reclassification adjustment for these items as they represent the same financial statement line item as presented historically by Cabot Microelectronics.

The following items are presented as reclassifications in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information for purposes of conforming KMG's classification of certain assets, liabilities, income and expenses to Cabot Microelectronics' classification for the combined presentation:

Statements of income

- a. $26,997 and $38,318 of historical KMG Distribution expenses have been reclassified to Cost of goods sold for the nine months ended June 30, 2018, and the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively. Under U.S. GAAP, the presentation of these costs is a policy election.
- b. $7,416 of $44,561 of historical KMG Selling, general and administrative expenses has been reclassified to Selling and marketing and the remaining $37,145 has been reclassified to General and administrative expense for the nine months ended June 30, 2018. $9,967 of $67,975 of historical KMG and Flowchem Selling, general and administrative expense has been reclassified to Selling and marketing and the remaining $58,008 has been reclassified to General and administrative expense for the year ended September 30, 2017.

Balance sheet

- c. $9,943 of historical KMG Other receivables has been reclassified to Prepaid expenses and other current assets.
- d. $714 of historical KMG Other long-term assets has been reclassified to Deferred income taxes as an asset.
- e. $7,726 of historical KMG Employee incentive accruals have been reclassified to Accrued expenses, income taxes payable and other current liabilities.

Table of ContentsNOTE 4: Pro Forma Adjustments for Acquisition*Adjustments to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet

The following pro forma adjustments have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet:

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash consideration to be paid for KMG outstanding common stock and equity awards (Note 2)	$ 901,286
Repayment of KMG debt	312,000
Proceeds from termination of KMG's interest rate swap	(5,308)
50% of retention payments expected to be made to KMG personnel	8,215
Combined transaction costs expected to be incurred by Cabot Microelectronics and KMG in connection with the merger	32,303
 Pro forma adjustment, Cash and cash equivalents	 $ 1,248,496

Inventories

The $11,813 pro forma adjustment to Inventories represents the preliminary adjustment to mark-up the carrying value of KMG's inventory to its preliminary estimated fair value. This adjustment has not been included in the statement of income as an adjustment to cost of goods sold due to the fact that the mark-up is considered as a one-time adjustment and has no ongoing impact on the statement of income of the combined company.

Property, plant and equipment, net

The $24,860 pro forma adjustment to Property, plant and equipment, net represents the preliminary adjustment to adjust the carrying value of KMG's fixed assets to its preliminary estimated fair value. The estimated fair value is expected to be depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the assets, generally on a straight-line basis. The additional depreciation expense resulting from the adjustment of KMG's fixed assets is preliminarily estimated to be spread over 10 years. The estimated fair values and estimated useful lives are preliminary and subject to change once Cabot Microelectronics has sufficient information as to the specific types, nature, age, condition, and location of KMG's fixed assets. An increase or decrease of 10 percent in fair values would increase or decrease the depreciation expense by approximately $1,395 per annum.

Goodwill

The adjustment reflects a net increase in goodwill of $508,564 consisting of the addition of $741,768 of new goodwill resulting from the merger, offset by the elimination of $233,204 of historical KMG goodwill. The $741,768 of estimated merger-related goodwill is based on the preliminary estimates and information summarized in Note 2.

Other intangible assets, net

The net pro forma adjustment of $380,543 reflects the elimination of $300,457 of historical KMG intangible assets, offset by a preliminary fair value estimated of $681,000 in identifiable intangible assets acquired. The estimated fair value of intangible assets is preliminary and is determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset, based on the most advantageous market for the asset (i.e., its highest and best use). The final fair value determinations for identifiable intangible assets may differ from the preliminary determination, and such differences could be material.

Intangible assets	Estimated Fair Value	Estimated Useful Life
Trade name Electronic Chemicals	$ 47,000	Indefinite
Trade name Performance Materials	50,000	Indefinite
Technology and know-how Electronic Chemicals	30,000	7 - 11 years
Technology and know-how Performance Materials	54,000	9 - 13 years
Customer relationships Electronic Chemicals	220,000	18 - 22 years
Customer relationships Performance Materials	280,000	17 - 21 years
Total identifiable intangible assets	681,000
Historical KMG intangible assets	(300,457)
Pro forma adjustment	$ 380,543

Pro forma amortization of acquired intangible assets was $25,485 and $33,979 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively. The amortization of the acquired intangible assets has been prepared to reflect the merger as if it occurred on October 1, 2016. For the purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, the amortization of acquired intangible assets has been assumed to be on a straight-line basis. Cabot Microelectronics has not completed the detailed valuation work necessary to finalize the required estimated fair values, estimated lives, or pattern of expected economic benefit associated with the acquired intangible assets. Finalization of the acquisition accounting may result in material changes in the fair value of these intangible assets and/or the associated amortization expense. An increase or decrease of 10 percent in fair values would increase or decrease the amortization expense by approximately $3,398 per annum.

Other long-term assets

The $6,663 adjustment to Other long-term assets includes the planned termination of KMG's interest rate swaps, valued at $5,576 as of July 31, 2018, and the write-off of remaining prepaid debt issuance costs of $1,087, both driven by the planned termination of KMG's credit facility in connection with the merger.

Accrued expenses, income taxes payable and other current liabilities

50% of retention payments expected to be made to KMG personnel, net of tax	$	3,697
Tax benefit resulting from the combined transaction costs expected to be incurred by Cabot Microelectronics and KMG in connection with the merger ⁽¹⁾		(4,160)
Adjustment reflecting the tax effect of the estimated fees associated with terminating KMG's interest rate swap		(74)

Deferred income taxes

The pro forma adjustment of $104,304 in deferred tax liabilities is due to recording the estimated tax impact of pro forma adjustments, which reflects the temporary difference between the estimated fair value in the purchase price allocation and the carryover tax bases for certain identifiable assets acquired in the merger. The pro forma adjustments were tax effected at the applicable blended statutory tax rate of 25% as of June 30, 2018, which reflects the estimated tax rates expected to be in effect when the deferred taxes are reversed in the future. Adjustments to established deferred tax assets and liabilities due to refined determination of statutory rates as well as the changes in the estimates of the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed occur in conjunction with the finalization of the acquisition accounting and these changes in estimates could be material.

Adjustments to Stockholders' equity include the following:

Prior to fiscal year 2018, KMG recorded its amortization of intangible assets in cost of goods sold and in selling, general and administrative expense based on the expense classification. Starting in fiscal year 2018, KMG began presenting intangible amortization on a separate line as "Amortization of intangible" in KMG's statement of income.

l. Selling and marketing

Pro forma adjustment reflects the amortization of acquired intangible assets of $19,303 and $25,737 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively.

m. General and administrative

Elimination of transaction costs incurred as a result of Cabot's acquisition of KMG	(992)
Pro forma adjustment, General and administrative	$ (728)	$ (11,878)

n. Amortization of intangible assets

Pro forma adjustment reflects the elimination of KMG's historical intangible asset amortization of $11,612 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018.

o. Income tax expense

The pro forma adjustments of $4,030 and $7,612 represent the income tax effect for unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income adjustments related to the merger using the applicable U.S. statutory tax rates of 27.5% and 38.0% for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively. Because the adjustments contained in this unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information are based on estimates, the effective tax rate of the combined company could be significantly different (either higher or lower) depending on post-acquisition activities and impact due to U.S. tax reform.

Additionally, certain adjustments reflect transactions that will occur within legal entities located in jurisdictions which are subject to valuation allowances and a tax benefit is not expected to be realized on a more likely than not basis. A detailed statutory tax analysis will be performed subsequent to the completion of the merger.

p. Basic and diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding

Pro forma adjustments to basic and diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding reflects a total of 3,239 shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock to be issued for KMG outstanding common stock and equity awards entitled to merger consideration. These 3,239 shares were added to Cabot Microelectronics' historical basic shares as if they had been issued on October 1, 2016. An additional 29 shares were added to the 3,239 and Cabot Microelectronics' historical dilutive shares, related to equity awards expected to be issued after the merger agreement, but prior to closing, and may be converted into Cabot Microelectronics equity awards. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, there have been no grants of such equity awards by KMG. See Note 2 for additional discussion.

Adjustments to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet

Cabot Microelectronics expects to finance the cash portion of the merger using cash on hand and through debt issuances. For the purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, Cabot Microelectronics has assumed that it will secure a long-term loan in the amount of $1,065,000 with a maturity of seven years, and will pay approximately $20,000 in debt issuance costs. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information assumes these new borrowings will bear interest at the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 200 basis points.

- a. Cash and cash equivalents

Net pro forma adjustment of $1,169,455 reflects the proceeds from issuance of debt in the amount of $1,065,000, less payment of debt issuance costs of $20,000, plus proceeds of $124,455 resulting from the liquidation of available-for-sale securities.

- b. Available-for-sale securities

Pro forma adjustment of $124,455 reflects Cabot Microelectronics' liquidation of its available-for-sale securities to fund the payment of various costs related to the merger.

The following adjustments to interest expense reflect the merger debt issuance as well as the expected payoff of KMG debt and termination of the related interest rate swap at the time of closing. As a result of financing activities, on the terms below, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements result in (i) an increase in interest expense of $33,641 and $46,008 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and for the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively, reflecting estimated interest expense related to the anticipated new financing referenced below, (ii) an increase to interest expense reflecting amortization of deferred financing cost and commitment fees of $2,515 and $3,353 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and for the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively, associated with anticipated debt issuance and replacement facility, and (iii) the elimination of $13,435 of estimated interest and amortization related to KMG's debt for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and $12,429 of estimated interest and amortization related to KMG and Flowchem's debt for the year ended September 30, 2017. KMG's debt is estimated to be paid off at closing of the Agreement. The following tables show the assumed interest expense, interest rates and terms of the anticipated debt issuance and replacement credit facility obtained by Cabot Microelectronics based on the terms of the merger financing at the prevailing rates at the date of filing:

The interest expense is calculated assuming these new borrowings will bear interest at 30-day LIBOR plus 200 basis points. For the purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, we have assumed an estimated interest rate of 4.3% to calculate the interest expense disclosed in the table above. If LIBOR were to increase or decrease by 0.125%, interest expense would increase or decrease by $986 and $1,348 for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and for the twelve months ended September 30, 2017, respectively.

- f.
Loss on the extinguishment of debt

The pro forma adjustment of $2,535 and $353 reflects the elimination of KMG's loss on the extinguishment of debt for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and for the twelve months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, resulting from the repayment of the debt.

- g.
Derivative fair value gain

The pro forma adjustment of $4,727 reflects the elimination of KMG's derivative fair value gain for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 resulting from the termination of the interest rate swap upon the repayment of KMG's debt.

- h.
Income tax expense

The pro forma adjustment of $6,810 and $13,816 represents the income tax effect for unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income adjustments related to the merger using the applicable U.S. statutory tax rates of 27.5% and 38.0% for the nine months ended June 30, 2018 and the year ended September 30, 2017, respectively. Because the adjustments contained in this unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information are based on estimates, the effective tax rate of the combined company could be significantly different (either higher or lower) depending on post-acquisition activities and impact due to U.S. tax reform. The calculation of the income tax effect did not take into consideration the potential limitation of interest expense for the purpose of tax deductibility, which when considered, could materially change the amount of income tax effect. A detailed statutory tax analysis will be performed subsequent to the completion of the merger.

The Cabot Microelectronics board of directors is authorized to cause shares of preferred stock to be issued in one or more series, to:

determine the number of shares of each series;

fix the rights, powers, preferences and privileges of each series;

fix any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereon; and

Certain Effects of Authorized but Unissued Stock

Cabot Microelectronics has shares of common stock and preferred stock available for future issuance without stockholder approval. Cabot Microelectronics may utilize these additional shares for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital or facilitate corporate acquisitions or for payment as a dividend on the capital stock. The existence of unissued and unreserved common stock and preferred stock may enable the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors to issue shares to persons friendly to current management or to issue preferred stock with terms that could render more difficult or discourage a third-party attempt to obtain control of Cabot Microelectronics by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, thereby protecting the continuity of Cabot Microelectronics' management.

Provisions of Cabot Microelectronics Charter, Cabot Microelectronics Bylaws and DGCL That May Have Anti-Takeover Effects

The Cabot Microelectronics charter, the Cabot Microelectronics bylaws and Section 203 of the DGCL contain provisions summarized below that may delay, discourage or prevent the acquisition or control of Cabot Microelectronics by means of a tender offer, open market purchase, proxy fight or otherwise, including acquisitions that might result in a premium being paid over the market price of the common stock.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent; Special Meetings. Any action required or permitted to be taken by Cabot Microelectronics stockholders may be effected only at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders and may not be effected by a written consent in lieu of a meeting of stockholders. Except as otherwise required by law and subject to the rights of the holders of any preferred stock, special meetings of stockholders for any purpose may be called only by the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors, its chairman or, at the written request of a majority of the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors, the president.

Advance Notice Procedures. The Cabot Microelectronics bylaws require advance notice of the nomination, other than by or at the direction of the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors, of candidates for election as directors, as well as for other stockholder proposals, to be considered at special meetings of stockholders. Subject to certain exceptions, notice of intent to nominate a director or raise matters at these meetings will have to be received in writing not less than 90 nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders, and must contain specific information concerning the person to be nominated or the matters to be brought before the meeting and concerning the stockholder submitting the proposal. If the chairman of a meeting determines that an individual was not nominated, or other business was not brought before the meeting, in accordance with the advance notice procedures, that individual will not be eligible for election as a director, or that business will not be conducted at such meeting, as the case may be.

The Cabot Microelectronics charter and bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be determined from time to time by a resolution adopted by the majority of the Cabot Microelectronics directors. The Cabot Microelectronics charter and bylaws also provide that the board of directors be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible. Each director holds office until that person's successor is duly elected and qualified. Vacancies on the board of directors are filled by a majority of the remaining directors, or by a sole remaining director, or by Cabot Microelectronics stockholders if the vacancy was caused by the action of Cabot Microelectronics stockholders.

Any director may be removed from office with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the Cabot Microelectronics outstanding common stock, voting as a single class. A director may not be removed by the stockholders at a meeting unless the notice of the meeting states that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Charter or Bylaws. The Cabot Microelectronics charter provides that the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of Cabot Microelectronics outstanding common stock is required to amend, repeal or adopt any provision of the Cabot Microelectronics charter inconsistent with the provisions of that certificate regarding amendments to the Cabot Microelectronics bylaws, stockholder action by written consent, special meetings of stockholders, the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors and the election and removal of directors. The Cabot Microelectronics charter further provides that the Cabot Microelectronics bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed only by the Cabot Microelectronics board of directors or upon the affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the Cabot Microelectronics outstanding common stock, voting together as a single class.

Takeover Statutes. Section 203 of the DGCL generally prohibits "business combinations," including mergers, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities and similar transactions by a corporation or a subsidiary with an interested stockholder who beneficially owns 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock, within three years after the person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, unless: (i) the board of directors of the target corporation has approved, before the acquisition time, either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder, (ii) upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder, the person owns at least 85% of the corporation's voting stock (excluding shares owned by directors who are officers and shares owned by employee stock plans in which participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer) or (iii) after the person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at a meeting of stockholders by the affirmative vote of at least 66²/₃% of the outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder. Cabot Microelectronics has not opted out of the protections of Section 203 of the DGCL.

Cabot Microelectronics Corporation

Under the Cabot Microelectronics bylaws, the holders of a majority in number of the total outstanding shares of stock of Cabot Microelectronics entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, constitute a quorum of the stockholders for all purposes, unless the representation of a larger number of shares is required by law, by the Cabot Microelectronics charter or bylaws, in which case the representation of the number of shares so required will constitute a quorum; provided that at any meeting of the stockholders at which the holders of any class of stock of Cabot Microelectronics will be entitled to vote separately as a class, the holders of a majority in number of the total outstanding shares of such class, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of such class vote unless the representation of a larger number of shares of such class shall be required by law, by the Cabot Microelectronics charter or bylaws. Regardless of whether a quorum is present or not, stockholders entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present or represented; provided, however, that if the holders of any class of stock of Cabot Microelectronics are entitled to vote separately as a class upon any matter at such meeting, any adjournment of the meeting in respect of action by such class upon such matter shall be determined by the holders of a majority of the shares of such class present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at such meeting. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present or represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS OF KMG SHAREHOLDERS

If you hold one or more shares of KMG common stock, you are entitled to dissenters' rights under Texas law and have the right to dissent from the merger and have the appraised fair value of your shares of KMG common stock as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger paid to you in cash. The appraised fair value of any particular number of shares of KMG common stock may be more or less than the value of the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that a holder of that particular number of shares of KMG common stock would be issued in the merger in exchange for that particular number of shares of KMG common stock. If you are contemplating exercising your right to dissent, we urge you to read carefully the provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC, which are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D and which qualify in all respects the following discussion of those provisions, and consult with your legal counsel before electing or attempting to exercise these rights. The following discussion describes the steps you must take if you want to exercise your right to dissent. You should read this summary and the full text of the law carefully.

How to Exercise and Perfect Your Right to Dissent

you must, prior to the KMG special meeting, provide KMG with a written objection to the merger that states that your right to dissent will be exercised if the merger agreement is approved and adopted and the merger is completed and that provides an address to which a notice of effectiveness of the merger should be delivered or mailed to you if the merger is completed;

you must vote your shares of KMG common stock against approval of the merger agreement at the KMG special meeting in person or by proxy;

you must, not later than the 20th day after Cabot Microelectronics (which will be the ultimate the successor to KMG) sends you notice that the merger was completed, deliver to Cabot Microelectronics a written demand for payment of the fair value of the shares of KMG common stock, which demand states that you own shares of KMG common stock and the number of shares of KMG common stock that you own, your estimate of the fair value of such shares of KMG common stock and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent; and you must, not later than the 20th day after you make your demand for payment to Cabot Microelectronics as described above, submit your certificates representing your shares of KMG common stock to Cabot Microelectronics.

If you intend to exercise your right to dissent from the merger, prior to the special meeting you must send the notice of objection to KMG, addressed to:

KMG Chemicals, Inc.
300 Throckmorton Street
Fort Worth, Texas 76102
(817) 761-6100
Attention: President and Secretary

If you fail (i) to send the written objection to the merger in the proper form prior to the KMG special meeting, (ii) to vote your shares of KMG common stock at the KMG special meeting against the approval of the merger and the merger agreement or (iii) to submit your demand for payment in the proper form on a timely basis, you will lose your right to dissent from the merger. If you fail to submit to Cabot Microelectronics on a timely basis the certificates representing the shares of KMG common stock that you hold after you have submitted the demand for payment as described above, Cabot Microelectronics will have the option to terminate your right of dissent as to your shares of KMG common stock. In any instance of a termination or loss of your right of dissent, you will instead receive the merger consideration. If you comply with items (i) and (ii) above and the merger is completed, Cabot Microelectronics will send you a written notice advising you that the merger has been completed. Cabot Microelectronics must deliver this notice to you within ten days after the merger is completed.

Your Demand for Payment

If the merger is completed, you have provided your written objection to the merger to KMG in a timely manner and in proper form and you have voted against the merger agreement at the special meeting as described above and you desire to receive the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock in cash, you must, within 20 days of the date on which Cabot Microelectronics sends to you the notice of the effectiveness of the merger, give Cabot Microelectronics a written demand for payment of the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock. The fair value of your shares of KMG common stock will be the value of the shares on the day immediately preceding the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger. After the merger is completed, your written demand and any notice sent to Cabot Microelectronics must be addressed to:

Cabot Microelectronics Corporation
870 North Commons Drive
Aurora, Illinois 60504
(630) 499-2600
Attention: President and Secretary

Your written demand must include a demand for payment for your shares of KMG common stock for which rights of dissent and appraisal are sought and must state the number of shares and class of KMG common stock that you own and your estimate of the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock and an address to which a notice relating to the dissent and appraisal procedures may be sent. This written demand must be delivered to Cabot Microelectronics within 20 days of the date on which Cabot Microelectronics sends to you the notice of the effectiveness of the merger. If your written demand for payment in proper form is not received by Cabot Microelectronics within that 20 day period, you will be bound by the merger and you will not be entitled to receive a cash payment representing the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock. Instead, you will receive shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock and cash as the merger consideration set forth in the merger agreement.

Delivery of Stock Certificates

If you have satisfied the requirements for the exercise of your right to dissent described above, including the delivery of the written demand for payment to Cabot Microelectronics as described above, you must, not later than the 20th day after you make your written demand for payment to Cabot Microelectronics, submit to Cabot Microelectronics your certificate or certificates representing the shares of KMG common stock that you own. You may submit those certificates with your demand for payment if you prefer. In accordance with the provisions of the TBOC, Cabot Microelectronics will note on each such certificate that you have demanded payment of the fair value of the shares of KMG common stock that were represented by such certificate under the provisions of the TBOC relating to the rights of dissenting owners. After making those notations on those certificates, Cabot Microelectronics will return each such certificate to you at your request. If you fail to submit all of the certificates representing the shares of KMG common stock for which you have exercised the right of dissent in a timely fashion, Cabot Microelectronics will have the right to terminate your rights of dissent and appraisal with respect to all of your shares of KMG common stock unless a court, for good cause shown, directs Cabot Microelectronics not to terminate those rights.

Cabot Microelectronics' Actions Upon Receipt of Your Demand for Payment

Within 20 days after Cabot Microelectronics receives your written demand for payment and your estimate of the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock submitted as described above, Cabot Microelectronics must send you written notice stating whether or not it accepts your estimate of the fair value of your shares.

If Cabot Microelectronics accepts your estimate, Cabot Microelectronics will notify you that it will pay the amount of your estimated fair value within 90 days after the effective date of the merger. Cabot Microelectronics will make this payment to you only if you have surrendered the share certificates representing your shares of KMG common stock duly endorsed for transfer, to Cabot Microelectronics.

If Cabot Microelectronics does not accept your estimate, Cabot Microelectronics will notify you of this fact and will make an offer of an alternative estimate of the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock that it is willing to pay you within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, which you may accept within 90 days after the effective date of the merger or decline.

Payment of the Fair Value of Your Shares of KMG Common Stock upon Agreement of an Estimate

If you and Cabot Microelectronics have reached an agreement on the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, Cabot Microelectronics must pay you the agreed amount within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, provided that you have surrendered the share certificates representing your shares of KMG common stock duly endorsed for transfer, to Cabot Microelectronics.

Commencement of Legal Proceedings if a Demand for Payment Remains Unsettled

If you and Cabot Microelectronics have not reached an agreement as to the fair market value of your shares of KMG common stock within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, you or Cabot Microelectronics may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 90 day period, commence proceedings in Texas, asking the court to determine the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock. The court will determine if you have complied with the provisions of the TBOC regarding their right of dissent and if you have become entitled to receive payment for your shares of KMG common stock. The court will appoint one or more qualified persons to act as appraisers to determine the fair value of your shares in the manner prescribed by the TBOC. The appraisers will determine the fair value of your shares and will report this value to the court. Once the appraisers' report is filed with the court, you will receive a notice from the court indicating that the report has been filed. You will be responsible for obtaining a copy of the report from the court. If you or Cabot Microelectronics objects to the report or any part of it, the court will hold a hearing to determine the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock. Both you and Cabot Microelectronics may address the court about the report. The court will determine the fair value of your shares and direct Cabot Microelectronics to pay that amount, plus interest, which will begin to accrue 91 days after the merger is completed. The court may require you to share in the court costs relating to the matter to the extent the court deems it fair and equitable that you do so.

Rights as a Stockholder

If you have made a written demand on Cabot Microelectronics for payment of the fair value of your shares of KMG common stock, you will not thereafter be entitled to vote or exercise any other rights as a stockholder of Cabot Microelectronics, but will only have the right to receive payment for your shares as described herein and the right to maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that the merger would be or was fraudulent. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, your right under the dissent provisions described herein is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of your shares of KMG common stock or money damages with respect to the merger.

Withdrawal of Demand

If you have made a written demand on Cabot Microelectronics for payment of the fair value of your KMG common stock, you may withdraw such demand at any time before payment for your shares has been made or before a petition has been filed with a court for determination of the fair value of your shares. If you withdraw your demand or are otherwise unsuccessful in asserting your dissenters' rights, you will be bound by the merger and you will have the same rights to receive of the merger consideration with respect to your shares of KMG common stock as you would have had if you had not made a demand for payment as to those shares, as well as to participate to the appropriate extent in any dividends or distributions on the shares of Cabot Microelectronics common stock that may have been paid to Cabot Microelectronics stockholders after the effective date of the merger. Such rights will, however, be subject to any change in or adjustment to those shares made because of an action taken after the date of your demand for payment.

Beneficial Owners

Persons who beneficially own shares of KMG common stock that are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, and who wish to have the right of dissent exercised as to those shares must act promptly to cause the record holder of those shares to take the actions required under Texas law to exercise the dissenter's rights with respect to those shares. Only the persons in whose names shares of KMG common stock are registered on the share transfer records of KMG may exercise the right of dissent and appraisal discussed above.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

See "The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 72 for a discussion on how the federal income tax consequences of your action will change if you elect to dissent from the merger.

You should remember that if you return a signed proxy card, but fail to provide instructions as to how your shares of KMG common stock are to be voted, you will be considered to have voted in favor of the merger agreement and you will not be able to assert dissenters' rights. You should also remember that if you otherwise vote at the special meeting in favor of the merger agreement, you will not be able to assert dissenters' rights.

ARTICLE II

CONVERSION OF SHARES; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

Section 2.1 Effect on Capital Stock.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any of the Parties or the holder of any shares of Company Common Stock or common stock of Merger Sub:

(i) Conversion of Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, subject to Section 2.1(c) and Section 2.1(d), each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Cancelled Shares, any Converted Shares, any Dissenting Shares and any shares of Company Common Stock underlying a Company Equity Award) shall be automatically converted into the right to receive the following consideration on a per share basis, without interest: (i) $55.65 in cash (the "Cash Consideration") and (ii) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (the "Stock Consideration" and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration"). From and after the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Common Stock (including all uncertificated shares of Company Common Stock represented by book-entry form ("Book-Entry Shares") and each certificate that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, represented any such shares of Company Common Stock (each, a "Certificate") shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each applicable holder of such shares of Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration (including the right to receive, pursuant to Section 2.1(d), the Fractional Share Cash Amount and dividends pursuant to Section 2.2(e), if any) upon the surrender of such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.2.

(ii) Cancellation of Company Common Stock; Certain Subsidiary Owned Shares. Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that is owned or held in treasury by the Company and each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that is owned by Parent or Merger Sub (collectively, the "Cancelled Shares") shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor. Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that is owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company or Parent (other than Merger Sub) (collectively, the "Converted Shares") shall be converted into such number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the sum of (A) such number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the quotient of the Cash Consideration divided by the Parent Trading Price and (B) the Stock Consideration.

(iii) Treatment of Merger Sub Common Stock. At the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub shall be automatically converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation and shall constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Shares of Dissenting Shareholders. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a holder of record who has complied with the applicable provisions of Chapter 10, Subchapter H of the TBOC prior to the Effective Time ("Dissenting Shareholder Statute" and any such shares meeting the requirement of this sentence, "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but instead at the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive payment of such amounts as are payable in accordance with the Dissenting Shareholder Statute (it being understood and acknowledged that at the Effective Time, such Dissenting Shares shall no longer be outstanding, shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and such holder shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto other than the right to receive the payment of such amounts as are payable in accordance with the Dissenting Shareholder Statute); provided, however, that if any such holder shall fail to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to payment of the fair market value of such Dissenting Shares under the Dissenting Shareholder Statute, then the right of such holder to any such payments shall cease and such Dissenting Shares shall be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for the right to receive, without interest or duplication, the Merger Consideration. The Company shall give prompt written notice to Parent of any written demands, notices or instruments received by the Company pursuant to the Dissenting Shareholder Statute and or relating to the Dissenting Shareholder Statute or any alleged dissenter's or similar rights, and any withdrawals of such demands, and Parent shall have the opportunity, at Parent's expense, to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands, provided, that Parent shall consult with the Company with respect to such negotiations and proceedings. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or compromise or offer to settle or compromise, any such demand, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(c) Certain Adjustments. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or Parent Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, reorganization, reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, combination or exchange of shares, or any similar event shall have occurred, or any record date for any such purposes shall be established, then the Merger Consideration shall be equitably adjusted, without duplication, to proportionally reflect such change; provided that nothing in this Section 2.1(c) shall be construed to permit the Company to take any action with respect to its securities that is prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(d) No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be delivered upon the conversion of Company Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(i), and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a holder of shares of Parent Common Stock. In lieu of fractional shares, each holder of shares of Company Common Stock who would otherwise have been entitled to receive as a result of the Merger a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after aggregating all shares represented by the Certificates and Book-Entry Shares delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount, rounded down to the nearest cent, determined by multiplying (i) the Parent Trading Price, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of Company Common Stock held by such holder at the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest one thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Parent Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled (the "Fractional Share Cash Amount"). No such holder shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock that would otherwise have been issuable as part of the Merger Consideration.

Section 2.2 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Appointment of Exchange Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a bank or trust company, which shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company, to act as exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent") for the payment of the Merger Consideration in the Merger and shall enter into an agreement reasonably acceptable to the Company relating to the Exchange Agent's responsibilities under this Agreement.

(b) Deposit of Merger Consideration. Immediately prior to the Closing, Parent shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Exchange Agent cash sufficient to pay the aggregate Cash Consideration (together with, to the extent then determinable, the Fractional Share Cash Amount) payable in the Merger at such time as is necessary for the payment to holders of Company Common Stock and shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent evidence of Parent Common Stock in book-entry form (and/or certificates representing such Parent Common Stock, at Parent's election) representing the number of shares of Parent Common Stock sufficient to deliver the aggregate Stock Consideration payable in the Merger (such cash and certificates, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, the "Exchange Fund"); provided that the Exchange Fund shall not include any amounts or shares payable on account of any Converted Shares, any Dissenting Shares. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent, provided, however, that (i) any investment of such cash shall in all events be limited to direct short-term obligations of, or short-term obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the U.S. government, in commercial paper rated P-1 or A-1 or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation, respectively, or in certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements or banker's acceptances of commercial banks with capital exceeding $1.0 billion (based on the most recent financial statements of such bank that are then publicly available), (ii) no such investment shall have maturities that would prevent or delay payments to be made pursuant to this Agreement and (iii) no such investment or loss thereon shall affect the amounts payable to holders of Certificates or any Book-Entry Shares pursuant to this Article II. Any loss of any of the funds included in the Exchange Fund shall be for the account of Parent and shall not alter Parent's obligation to cause to be paid the Merger Consideration. Any interest or other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent, upon demand. In the event that the Exchange Fund shall be insufficient to pay the aggregate amount of all Cash Consideration and Fractional Share Cash Amounts (including as a result of any investment of the Exchange Fund), Parent shall promptly deposit additional funds with the Exchange Agent in an amount that is equal to the deficiency in the amount required to make such payment. Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to make, and the Exchange Agent shall make, delivery of the Cash Consideration and Fractional Share Cash Amounts in accordance with this Agreement. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose that is not expressly provided for in this Agreement. Except as otherwise agreed by the Company, any amount payable in respect of Company Equity Awards shall not be deposited with the Exchange Agent but shall instead be paid through the payroll of the Company and its Affiliates in accordance with Section 2.3.

(c) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock whose shares of Company Common Stock were converted pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(i) into the right to receive the Merger Consideration (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent shall reasonably designate) (the "Letter of Transmittal") and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration and the Fractional Share Cash Amount and any dividends or other distributions to which such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares become entitled in accordance with Section 2.2(e).

(d) Surrender of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. Upon surrender of Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof (and posting of a bond, if required) in accordance with Section 2.2(i)) or Book-Entry Shares to the Exchange Agent together with the Letter of Transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may customarily be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration into which the shares represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares have been converted pursuant to this Agreement, together with the Fractional Share Cash Amount and any dividends or other distributions to which such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares become entitled in accordance with Section 2.2(e), and the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares so surrendered shall be cancelled. Any dividends or distributions to which such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares become entitled in accordance with Section 2.2(e) shall become payable in accordance with Section 2.2(e). In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of Company Common Stock that is not registered in the transfer or stock records of the Company, any cash to be paid upon, or shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued upon, due surrender of the Certificate or Book-Entry Share formerly representing such shares of Company Common Stock shall be paid or issued, as the case may be, to such a transferee if such Certificate or Book-Entry Share is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents reasonably required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent and Parent that any applicable stock transfer or other similar Taxes have been paid or are not applicable. No interest shall be paid or shall accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of any Certificate or Book-Entry Share. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2, each Certificate and Book-Entry Share (other than Dissenting Shares) shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the Merger Consideration into which the shares represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares have been converted pursuant to this Agreement, together with the Fractional Share Cash Amount and any dividends or other distributions to which such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares become entitled in accordance with Section 2.2(e).

(e) Treatment of Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions, if any, with a record date after the Effective Time with respect to Parent Common Stock, shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered share of Company Common Stock to be converted into shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(i) until such holder shall surrender such share in accordance with this Section 2.2. After the surrender in accordance with this Section 2.2 of a share of Company Common Stock to be converted into Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(i), Parent shall cause the holder thereof to be paid, without interest, (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time and a payment date prior to such surrender with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock. After the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Company to pay on the applicable payment date the amount of dividends or other distributions on shares of Company Common Stock that were declared in compliance with this Agreement (including Section 5.1 and Section 5.19) and have a record date prior to the Effective Time and a payment date after the Effective Time to be made to the holders of Company Common Stock on such record date.

(f) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. The shares of Parent Common Stock delivered and cash paid in accordance with the terms of this Article II in respect of any shares of Company Common Stock shall be deemed to have been delivered and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of Company Common Stock (subject to the Dissenting Shareholder Statute). From and after the Effective Time, (i) all holders of Certificates and Book-Entry Shares (other than Dissenting Shares) shall cease to have any rights as shareholders of the Company other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration into which the shares represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares have been converted pursuant to this Agreement upon the surrender of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share in accordance with Section 2.2(d) (together with the Fractional Share Cash Amount and any dividends or other distributions to which such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares become entitled in accordance with Section 2.2(e)), without interest, and (ii) the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed with respect to all shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. From and after the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of shares of Company Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificates or Book-Entry Shares formerly representing shares of Company Common Stock are presented to the Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Exchange Agent for any reason, such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Shares.

(g) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including any interest or other amounts received with respect thereto) that remains unclaimed by, or otherwise undistributed to, the holders of Certificates and Book-Entry Shares for one year after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon Parent's demand, and any holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares who has not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Parent or the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws), as general creditors thereof, for satisfaction of its claim for Merger Consideration and any dividends and distributions which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article II without any interest thereon.

(h) No Liability. None of Parent, the Company, Merger Sub or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any portion of the Exchange Fund or the Merger Consideration delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Any other provision of this Agreement notwithstanding, any portion of the Merger Consideration or the cash to be paid in accordance with this Article II that remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates and Book-Entry Shares immediately prior to the date on which the Merger Consideration or such cash would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity, shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

(i) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent or the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent (or, if subsequent to the termination of the Exchange Fund and subject to Section 2.2(g), Parent) shall deliver, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, the Merger Consideration and any dividends and distributions deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 2.3 Company Equity Awards.

(a) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Company RSU Award and Company Performance Stock Award that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall vest (with any performance metrics applicable to Company Performance Stock Awards to be deemed satisfied based on the level of achievement specified in the applicable award agreement) and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time (but no later than ten (10) Business Days thereafter), the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Company Common Stock underlying each such Company RSU Award and Company Performance Stock Award, as applicable. Any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 2.5 as a result of any applicable Tax withholding due in respect of the payment described in the immediately preceding sentence shall be applied to first reduce the portion of the Merger Consideration that is payable in cash and then, only if and to the extent that such withholding amount exceeds such cash portion, to reduce the portion of the Merger Consideration that is payable in shares of Parent Common Stock (with the Stock Consideration valued for this purpose based on the closing price of Parent Common Stock on the Nasdaq on the last trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date). Each holder of a Company Equity Award converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration that would have otherwise been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after aggregating all shares to be delivered in respect of all Company Equity Awards held by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, a cash payment (rounded to the nearest cent and without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional share of Parent Common Stock (rounded to the nearest thousandth in decimal form) multiplied by the Parent Trading Price.

(b) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Company RSU Award that was granted on or following the date hereof (solely to the extent permitted pursuant to Section 5.1(l)(C)) and is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be assumed and converted into a restricted stock unit award covering shares of Parent Common Stock (an "Adjusted RSU Award") with the same terms and conditions as were applicable to such Company RSU Award immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting terms) and relating to the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company RSU Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (y) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio, with any fractional shares rounded to the nearest whole Parent Common Share.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company Board of Directors and/or the appropriate committee thereof shall adopt resolutions and shall take all such other actions as are necessary to effectuate the treatment of the Company RSU Awards and Company Performance Stock Awards (collectively, the "Company Equity Awards") as contemplated by this Section 2.3.

Section 2.4 Further Assurances. If at any time before or after the Effective Time, Parent or the Company reasonably believes or is advised that any further instruments, deeds, assignments or assurances are reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate the Merger or to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement at or after the Effective Time, then Parent, Merger Sub, the Company and the Surviving Corporation and their respective officers and directors or managers shall execute and deliver all such proper instruments, deeds, assignments or assurances and do all other things reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate the Merger and to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

Section 2.5 Withholding Rights. Each of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement, such amounts as may be required to be deducted or withheld with respect to the making of such payment under any applicable Tax Law. Each such payor shall timely remit to the appropriate Governmental Entity the amount of Taxes withheld. Any amounts so deducted or withheld, and, if required, paid over to the applicable Governmental Entity, shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the person in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made.

Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is currently subleasing, licensing or otherwise granting any person any right to use or occupy a Company Owned Real Property or a Company Leased Real Property. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has since July 31, 2015 received notice of the existence of any outstanding Order or of any pending proceeding, and, to the knowledge of the Company, there is no such Order or proceeding threatened, relating to the ownership, lease, use, occupancy or operation by the Company or its Subsidiaries of the Company Owned Real Property or the Company Leased Real Property.

Section 3.17 Insurance. The Company and its Subsidiaries maintain insurance with reputable insurers in such amounts and against such risks as is customary for the industries in which it and its Subsidiaries operate and as the management of the Company has in good faith determined to be prudent and appropriate in all material respects. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate,

The Company hereby (I) expressly acknowledges and agrees to Parent's and Merger Sub's disclaimer of certain representations and warranties and liability and indemnification obligations, in each case as set forth in Section 4.21; and (II) expressly waives and relinquishes any right to any claim (whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in

The Company and its Representatives have received and may continue to receive from Parent, Merger Sub and their respective Representatives information that may relate to Parent or Merger Sub, including any information, documents, projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information. The Company acknowledges that such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information and the assumptions on which they are based were prepared for specific purposes and may vary significantly from each other. Further, the Company acknowledges that there are uncertainties inherent in attempting to make such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information, that the Company is taking full responsibility for making its own evaluations of the adequacy and accuracy of all projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information so furnished to it, and the Company is not relying on, and except as specifically set forth in this Agreement hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any right to any claim (whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in equity) based on, arising out of or relating to, any projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information furnished by Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Representatives (or any assumptions on which any such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information are based), and the Company shall not, and shall cause its Representatives not to, hold any such Person liable with respect thereto.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT AND MERGER SUB

Except as disclosed in (i) the Parent SEC Documents filed since September 30, 2017 and prior to the date of this Agreement (excluding any disclosures set forth in any "risk factor" or "forward-looking statements" sections or that are similarly predictive or forward-looking in nature) where the relevance of the information to a particular representation is reasonably apparent on its face, or (ii) the disclosure schedule delivered by Parent to the Company immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement (the "Parent Disclosure Schedule") (provided that disclosure in any section of such Parent Disclosure Schedule shall apply only to the corresponding section of this Agreement except to the extent that the relevance of such disclosure to another section or representation is reasonably apparent on its face), Parent and Merger Sub jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

The Parent Organizational Documents and the Parent Subsidiary Organizational Documents are in full force and effect and neither Parent nor any Subsidiary of Parent is in violation of any of their provisions, except, in the case of a Subsidiary of Parent (other than Merger Sub), as would not, individually or in the aggregate be expected to constitute or result in a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub and the consummation by each of them of the Merger have been duly and validly authorized by the Parent Board of Directors and the board of directors of Merger Sub and, other than the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Texas Secretary, no other corporate proceedings on the part of either of Parent or Merger Sub or vote of Parent's stockholders is necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by Parent and Merger Sub of this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger. The Parent Board of Directors has unanimously (i) approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger, (ii) determined that the terms of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, are in the best interests of Parent and its stockholders and (iii) duly and validly approved the execution and delivery by Parent of this Agreement, the performance by Parent of its covenants and agreements contained herein and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein.

(d) The execution and delivery by Parent and Merger Sub of this Agreement does not, and (assuming the Parent Approvals are obtained) the consummation of the Merger and compliance with the provisions of this Agreement will not (i) result in any loss, or suspension, limitation or impairment of any right of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to own or use any assets required for the conduct of their business or result in any violation of, or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation, first offer, first refusal, modification or acceleration of any obligation or to the loss of a benefit under any loan, guarantee, Parent Permit or Contract that is binding upon Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or by which or to which any of their respective properties, rights or assets are bound or subject, or result in the creation of any Liens other than Permitted Liens, in each case, upon any of the properties or assets of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (ii) conflict with or result in any violation of any provision of the Parent Organizational Documents or (iii) conflict with or violate any applicable Laws, except, in the case of clauses (i) and (iii), for such losses, suspensions, limitations, impairments, conflicts, violations, defaults, terminations, cancellations, first offers, first refusals, modifications, accelerations, losses of benefits or Liens as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Parent and each of its Subsidiaries has filed or furnished all forms, documents and reports required to be filed or furnished by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries with the SEC (including under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act) since September 30, 2015 (all such documents and reports filed or furnished by Parent, the "Parent SEC Documents"). As of their respective dates or, if amended, as of the date of the last such amendment (and, in the case of registration statements and proxy statements, on the dates of effectiveness and the dates of the relevant meetings, respectively), the Parent SEC Documents complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and none of the Parent SEC Documents contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. (b) Each of Parent and Merger Sub hereby acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary (i) other than the specific representations and warranties set forth in Article III, none of the Company or its Representatives makes or has made any representation or warranty, express or implied, at law or in equity, (A) in respect of the Company or any of its Affiliates or their respective businesses, assets, employees, liabilities or operations, or (B) with respect to (x) any projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information furnished by the Company or its Representatives (including the reasonableness of the assumptions underlying such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information); (y) the operation of the Company by Parent after the Closing; or (z) the probable commercial success, profitability or commercial prospects of the Company after the Closing; and (ii) except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, none of the Company or its Representatives will have or be subject to any liability or indemnification obligation to Parent, Merger Sub, their respective Representatives or to any other Person resulting from the distribution to Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Representatives of, or Parent's, Merger Sub's or their respective Representatives' use of, any information relating to the Company, including any information, documents, offering materials or other material made available to Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Representatives or potential financing sources, whether orally or in writing, in certain "data rooms," management presentations, functional "break-out" discussions, "expert sessions," site tours or visits, diligence calls or meetings, responses to questions submitted on behalf of Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Representatives or in any other form in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of Parent and Merger Sub hereby (I) expressly acknowledges and agrees to the Company's disclaimer of certain representations and warranties and liability and indemnification obligations, in each case as set forth in Section 3.23; and (II) expressly waives and relinquishes any right to any claim (whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in equity) based on, arising out of or relating to any representations and warranties other than those specifically set forth in Article III. Parent, Merger Sub and their respective Representatives have received and may continue to receive from the Company and its Representatives information that may relate to the Company, including any information, documents, projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information. Parent and Merger Sub each acknowledges that such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information and the assumptions on which they are based were prepared for specific purposes and may vary significantly from each other. Further, Parent and Merger Sub each acknowledges that there are uncertainties inherent in attempting to make such projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information, that Parent and Merger Sub are taking full responsibility for making their own evaluations of the adequacy and accuracy of all projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information so furnished to them, and neither Parent nor Merger Sub is not relying on, and except as specifically set forth in this Agreement hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any right to any claim (whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in equity) based on, arising out of or relating to, any projections, estimates, prospects, forecasts, plans, and budget information furnished by the Company or its

(a) For purposes of furthering the transactions contemplated hereby and other legitimate business purposes, the Company shall (x) afford Parent and its employees, accountants, consultants, internal and external legal counsel, financial advisors, tax advisors, financing sources and agents and other representatives (collectively, the "Parent 5.3 Representatives") reasonable access during normal business hours upon reasonable advance notice to the Company, throughout the period from the date hereof until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms and the Effective Time, to its and its Subsidiaries' personnel, properties, Contracts, commitments, books and records and any report, schedule or other document filed or received by it pursuant to the requirements of applicable Laws and, during such period and (y) make available to Parent and Parent 5.3 Representatives all other available information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Parent may reasonably request. Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any disruption to the businesses of the Company that may result from such requests for access, data and information. Each of the Company and Parent shall, and shall cause its respective Subsidiaries to, without limitation to the preceding obligations, make available to the other Party and its Representatives (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal securities laws (other than reports or documents that such disclosing Party is not permitted to disclose under applicable Law) and (ii) a copy of all correspondence between the disclosing Party or any of its Subsidiaries and any party to a Contract with regard to any material action, consent, approval or waiver that is required to be taken or obtained with respect to such Contract in connection with the consummation of the Merger. or make available to any person any document or information if doing so would, in the reasonable judgment of the Company or Parent, as applicable, after consultation with its respective outside counsel, (A) violate any Law, (B) result in a violation of a confidentiality agreement with a third party entered into prior to the date of this Agreement or entered into after the date of this Agreement in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (C) jeopardize the attorney-client, attorney work product or other legal privilege of a Party or any of its Subsidiaries, or (D) result in the disclosure of any trade secrets of the Company or Parent, as applicable or any third parties; provided that the applicable Party will inform the other Party of the general nature of the document or information being withheld and reasonably cooperate with the other Party to devise and implement alternative arrangements to provide such document or information to the other Party in a manner that would not result in violation of Law, violation of a confidentiality agreement, the loss or waiver of such privilege or the disclosure of a trade secret.

(b) No investigation by the Company or Parent or their respective representatives shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive the representations and warranties of the other Party set forth in this Agreement.

(c) The Parties hereto hereby agree that all information provided to them or their respective officers, directors, employees or representatives in connection with this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger shall be governed in accordance with the confidentiality agreement, dated as of October 6, 2016, as amended by Amendment no. 1 dated June 26, 2018, between the Company and Parent (the "Confidentiality Agreement").

Section 5.4 No Solicitation by the Company.

(a) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 5.4, the Company shall and shall cause each of its controlled Affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause its financial advisors, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives acting on the Company's behalf: (i) to immediately cease and cause to be terminated any solicitation, knowing encouragement, discussions or negotiations with any persons (other than Parent and Parent's Affiliates and its and their respective Representatives) that may be ongoing with respect to a Company Takeover Proposal and (ii) not to, directly or indirectly, (A) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries regarding, or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Company Takeover Proposal, (B) engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any other person any information in connection with or for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating a Company Takeover Proposal (other than, in response to an unsolicited inquiry, to refer the inquiring person to this Section 5.4 and limiting its communication exclusively to such referral), or (C) approve, adopt, recommend or enter into, or propose to approve, adopt, recommend or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement, commitment, or agreement in principle (whether written or oral, binding or nonbinding) with respect to a Company Takeover Proposal. The Company shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, release any third party from, or waive, amend or modify any provision of, or grant permission under, or fail to enforce, any standstill provision in any agreement to which the Company or any of its Affiliates is a party; provided that, if the Company Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Laws, the Company may waive any such standstill provision applicable to any such persons to the extent necessary to permit a third party to make a confidential Company Takeover Proposal to the Company Board of Directors; provided that the Company promptly informs Parent that it is taking such action and the identity of the party or parties with respect to which it is taking such action.

(b) The Company shall promptly following the date of this Agreement cause the termination of access of any third party to any data room (virtual or actual) containing any information of or regarding the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(c) Anything to the contrary contained in Section 5.4(a) notwithstanding, if at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the time that the Company Shareholder Approval is obtained, but not after, the Company or any of its Representatives receives a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal from any person that did not result from a material breach of this Section 5.4 by the Company and if the Company Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Superior Proposal and that the failure to take the action described in the following clauses (i) and (ii) would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law, then the Company and its Representatives may, (i) furnish, pursuant to an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement, information (including non-public information) with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries to the person who has made such Company Takeover Proposal (and such person's Representatives); provided that the Company shall substantially concurrently with the delivery to such person (or such person's Representatives) provide or make available to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is provided or made available to such person or its Representatives unless such non-public information has been previously provided to Parent, and (ii) engage in or otherwise participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such Company Takeover Proposal and its Representatives regarding such Company Takeover Proposal. The Company shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify Parent in writing if the Company Board of Directors makes a determination that a Company Takeover Proposal constitutes or is reasonably expected to lead to a Company Superior Proposal or if the Company furnishes non-public information and/or enters into discussions or negotiations as provided in this Section 5.4(c).

(d) Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall promptly (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after, to the knowledge of the Company, its receipt) notify Parent in writing in the event that the Company directly or indirectly receives a Company Takeover Proposal or a request for information relating to the Company or its Subsidiaries or other inquiry or communication that is reasonably likely to lead to or that contemplates a Company Takeover Proposal, including the identity of the person making the Company Takeover Proposal and the material terms and conditions thereof (including an unredacted copy of such Company Takeover Proposal or, where such Company Takeover Proposal is not in writing, a description of the terms thereof). The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed, on a current basis, as to the status of (including any material developments, discussions or negotiations related thereto) such Company Takeover Proposal (including by promptly (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after receipt) providing to Parent copies of any correspondence, proposals, indications of interest, and/or draft agreements relating to such Company Takeover Proposal). The Company agrees that it and its Affiliates will not enter into any agreement with any person subsequent to the date of this Agreement which prohibits the Company from providing any information to Parent in accordance with, or otherwise complying with, this Section 5.4.

(e) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 5.4(e), the Company Board of Directors shall not (i) (A) fail to include the Company Recommendation in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus when disseminated to the Company's shareholders, (B) change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify, or authorize or publicly propose to change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify the Company Recommendation, (C) fail to recommend against any Company Takeover Proposal that is a tender or exchange offer subject to Regulation 14D under the Exchange Act in a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 within ten (10) Business Days after the commencement (within the meaning of Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act) of such tender or exchange offer or after such tender or exchange offer is subsequently amended in any material respect or (D) adopt, approve or recommend to shareholders of the Company, or resolve to or publicly propose or announce its intention to adopt, approve or recommend to shareholders of the Company, a Company Takeover Proposal (any action described in this clause (i) being referred to as a "Company Adverse Recommendation Change"), or (ii) authorize, cause or permit the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement (including an acquisition agreement, merger agreement, joint venture agreement or other similar agreement), commitment or agreement in principle with respect to any Company Takeover Proposal (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement entered into in accordance with Section 5.4(c)) (a "Company Acquisition Agreement"). Anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement notwithstanding, prior to the time that the Company Shareholder Approval is obtained, but not after, the Company Board of Directors may, with respect to a bona fide, unsolicited Company Takeover Proposal that did not result from a material breach by the Company of this Section 5.4, make a Company Adverse Recommendation Change if, and only if, prior to taking such action, (x) the Company Board of Directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with the Company's independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes a Company Superior Proposal and that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law and (y) (A) the Company has given Parent at least four (4) Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action, and specifying the reasons therefor, and has provided to Parent the identity of the person making, any such Company Takeover Proposal and a copy of any proposed Company Acquisition Agreements constituting such Company Takeover Proposal (or, if not provided in writing to the Company, a written summary of the material terms thereof) and a written summary of the material terms of any financing commitments relating thereto, (B) if requested by Parent, the Company and its Representatives shall have engaged in good faith in discussions and negotiations with Parent and its Representatives during such notice period regarding changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed in writing by Parent so that the failure to take such action would no longer be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law, (C) following the end of such notice period, the Company Board of Directors shall have considered in good faith any revisions to the terms of this Agreement committed to in writing by Parent, and shall have determined, after consultation with the Company's independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the Company Superior Proposal would nevertheless continue to constitute a Company Superior Proposal and that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law if the revisions committed to in writing by Parent were to be given effect, and (D) in the event of any change to any of the material financial terms or any other material terms of such Company Superior Proposal, the Company shall, in each case, have delivered to Parent an additional notice consistent with that described in clause (A) above of this proviso and a new notice period under clause (A) of this proviso shall commence (except that the four (4) Business Day notice period referred to in clause (A) above of this proviso shall instead end at the later of (1) 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the second (2nd) Business Day immediately following Parent's receipt of such notice and (2) the end of the original notice period, during which time the Company shall be required to comply with the requirements of clauses (B), (C) and (D) above of this proviso. The actions of the Company Board of Directors in making a determination that a Company Takeover Proposal constitutes a Company Superior Proposal and the Company's authorizing and providing the notices to Parent required by this Section 5.4(e), if done in accordance with this Section 5.4(e) and so long as the Company Board of Directors determines finally, at the end of any notice periods required pursuant to this Section 5.4(e) with respect to such Company Takeover Proposal, that such Company Takeover Proposal does not constitute a Company Superior Proposal and reaffirms the Company Recommendation, shall not in and of itself, constitute a Company Adverse Recommendation Change, a violation of this Section 5.4 or trigger any rights allowing for a termination of this Agreement. Anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary shall enter into any Company Acquisition Agreement unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms.

(f) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, other than in connection with a Company Takeover Proposal, the Company may, at any time prior to the date the Company Shareholder Approval has been obtained, but not after, make a Company Adverse Recommendation Change in response to a Company Intervening Event (a "Company Intervening Event Recommendation Change") if, and only if, prior to taking such action, the Company Board of Directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with the Company's independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, however, that prior to making such Company Intervening Event Recommendation Change, (i) the Company has given Parent at least four (4) Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action, and specifying the reasons therefor, including specifying in reasonable detail the applicable Company Intervening Event and (ii) following the end of such notice period, the Company Board of Directors shall have considered in good faith any revisions to the terms of this Agreement committed to in writing by Parent, and shall have determined, after consultation with the Company's independent financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the failure to make a Company Intervening Event Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with the Company Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that the actions of the Company Board of Directors in making such determination and the Company's authorizing and providing of such notice pursuant to this Section 5.4(f) shall not, if done in accordance with Section 5.4(f) and so long as the Company Board of Directors determines finally, at the end of any notice periods required pursuant to this Section 5.4(f), not to make a Company Intervening Event Recommendation Change and reaffirms the Company Recommendation, in and of itself, constitute a Company Adverse Recommendation Change, a violation of this Section 5.4 or a termination of this Agreement.

(g) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company or the Company Board of Directors from (i) taking and disclosing to the shareholders of the Company a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act or making any "stop, look and listen" communication to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act pending disclosure of its position thereunder, (ii) directing any person (or the representative of that person) that makes a Company Takeover Proposal to the provisions of this Section 5.4 or (iii) making a factually accurate public statement limited to a description of the Company's receipt of a Company Takeover Proposal and the operation of this Agreement with respect thereto; provided that in the case of either clause (i), (ii) or (iii) no such action, position or disclosure that would amount to a Company Adverse Recommendation Change shall be permitted, made or taken other than in compliance with Section 5.4(e).

Section 5.5 Employee Matters.

(a) Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide, to each employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries who continues to be employed by Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective Subsidiaries following the Effective Time (collectively, the "Company Employees") for so long as such Company Employee remains employed by Parent or the Surviving Corporation during the relevant period, (i) for one year following the Effective Time, a base salary or base wage rate no less than that provided to such Company Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) for the remainder of the fiscal year in effect as of the Effective Time, a target annual cash incentive opportunity no less favorable than that provided to such Company Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time and (iii) for one year following the Effective Time, employee benefits (including equity-based compensation eligibility and severance benefits, and excluding any defined benefit retirement benefits and retiree welfare benefits) that are, in Parent's election, substantially comparable in the aggregate to (A) those generally provided to similarly situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries (other than the Company and its Subsidiaries) or (B) those generally provided to employees of the Company as of immediately prior to the Effective Time

(it being understood that the Company Employees may commence participation in Parent's compensation and benefit plans on different dates following the Effective Time with respect to different compensation and benefit plans).

(b) Following the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, cause any employee benefit plans sponsored or maintained by Parent or the Surviving Corporation or their Subsidiaries in which the Company Employees are eligible to participate following the Closing Date (collectively, the "Post-Closing Plans") to recognize the service of each Company Employee with the Company and its ERISA Affiliates prior to the Closing Date for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accrual under such Post-Closing Plans, in each case, to the same extent such service was recognized immediately prior to the Effective Time under a comparable Company Benefit Plan in which such Company Employee was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided that such recognition of service shall not (i) apply for purposes of any defined benefit retirement plan or plan that provides retiree welfare benefits, (ii) operate to duplicate any benefits of a Company Employee with respect to the same period of service, (iii) apply for purposes of any Post-Closing Plans (x) adopted after the Closing Date and under which similarly situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries do not receive credit for prior service or (y) that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to level of benefits or participation. With respect to any Post-Closing Plan that provides medical, dental or vision insurance benefits, for the plan year in which such Company Employee is first eligible to participate, Parent shall use commercially reasonable and good faith efforts to (A) cause any preexisting condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such plan to be waived with respect to such Company Employee to the extent such limitation or waiting period would have been waived or satisfied under the Company Benefit Plan in which such Company Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (B) credit each Company Employee for an amount equal to any medical, dental or vision expenses incurred by such Company Employee in the plan year in which such Company Employee is first eligible to participate in such Post-Closing Plan, for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such Post-Closing Plan to the extent such expenses would have been credited under the Company Benefit Plan in which such Company Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time. Such credited expenses shall also count toward any annual or lifetime limits, treatment or visit limits or similar limitations that apply under the terms of the applicable plan.

(c) If requested by Parent in writing delivered to the Company not less than ten (10) Business Days before the anticipated Effective Time, the Company Board of Directors (or the appropriate committee thereof) shall adopt resolutions and take such corporate action as is necessary to terminate the Company's 401(k) plans (collectively, the "Company 401(k) Plan"), effective as of the date prior to the Closing Date. Following the Effective Time, the assets thereof shall be distributed to the participants, and Parent shall, to the extent permitted by Parent's applicable 401(k) plan (the "Parent 401(k) Plan"), permit the Company Employees who are then actively employed to make rollover contributions of "eligible rollover distributions" (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code, inclusive of loans to participants), in the form of cash (or in the case of loans, notes), in an amount equal to the full account balance distributed to such Company Employee from the Company 401(k) Plan to the Parent 401(k) Plan.

(d) The Company shall submit any communications with any employees or service providers of the Company and its Subsidiaries relating to (i) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) employee benefits (other than those communications made in the ordinary course of business that do not relate to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) and (iii) post-Closing terms of employment, to Parent for its review, comment and approval (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) prior to distribution of such communications.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon any Company Employee or other service provider any right to continue in the employ or service of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any Affiliate of Parent, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their Affiliates, which rights are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge or terminate the services of any Company Employee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Company Benefit Plan or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by Parent, the Surviving Corporation, the Company or any of their Subsidiaries or Affiliates; or (ii) alter or limit the ability of Parent, the Surviving Corporation, the Company or any of their Subsidiaries or Affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any Company Benefit Plan or any other compensation or benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Closing Date. Without limiting the generality of Section 8.13 and any provision in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, nothing in this Agreement shall create any third party beneficiary rights in any person other than the Parties hereto, including any Company Employee or current or former service provider of the Company or its Affiliates (or any beneficiaries or dependents thereof).

Section 5.6 Regulatory Approvals; Efforts.

(a) Prior to the Closing, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all reasonable actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all reasonable things necessary, proper or advisable under any applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the Merger, including (i) the preparation and filing of all forms, registrations and notices required to be filed to consummate the Merger, (ii) the satisfaction of the conditions to consummating the Merger, (iii) as promptly as reasonably practicable, taking all reasonable actions necessary to obtain (and cooperating with each other in obtaining) any consent, authorization, Order, waiting period expiration or approval of, or any exemption by, any third party, including any Governmental Entity (which actions shall include furnishing all information and documentary material required under the HSR Act) required to be obtained or made by Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iv) the execution and delivery of any reasonable additional instruments necessary to consummate Merger and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. Parent shall not, and shall cause its controlled Affiliates not to, enter into a transaction to acquire any asset, property, right, business or Person (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange, investment, joint venture, strategic alliance, other business combination, asset, stock or equity purchase or otherwise), that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 6.1(c) and 6.1(d).

(b) Parent and the Company shall each keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the Merger and work cooperatively in connection with obtaining all required consents, authorizations, Orders, expiration or termination of waiting periods, or approvals of, or any exemptions by, any Governmental Entity undertaken pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.6. In that regard, prior to the Closing, each Party shall promptly consult with the other Parties to this Agreement with respect to and provide any necessary information and assistance as the other Parties may reasonably request with respect to (and, in the case of correspondence, provide the other Parties (or their counsel) copies of) all notices, submissions, or filings made by such Party with any Governmental Entity or any other information supplied by such Party to, or material correspondence with, a Governmental Entity in connection with this Agreement and the Merger. Each Party to this Agreement shall (A) promptly inform the other Parties to this Agreement, and if in writing, furnish the other Parties with copies of (or, in the case of oral communications, advise the other Parties orally of) any material communication from or to any Governmental Entity regarding the Merger, (B) permit the other Parties to review and discuss in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the other Parties in connection with, any proposed communication with any such Governmental Entity and (C) to the extent permitted by any applicable Governmental Entity, give the other Party a reasonable opportunity to attend and participate in any in-person meetings with such Governmental Entity regarding the Merger. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Parties agree that it is Parent's primary right to devise the strategy for all filings, notifications, submissions and communications in connection with any filing, notice, petition, statement, registration, submission of information, application or similar filing subject to this Section 5.6 after consulting with, and taking into account in good faith any comments of, the Company or its Representatives relating to such strategy. If any Party to this Agreement or any Representative of such Parties receives a request for additional information or documentary material from any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger, then such Party will use reasonable best efforts to make, or cause to be made, promptly and after consultation with the other Parties to this Agreement in good faith, an appropriate response in substantial compliance with such request. Each Party shall furnish the other Parties with copies of all correspondence, filings and communications (and memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between it and any such Governmental Entity with respect to this Agreement and the Merger, and furnish the other Parties with such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other Parties may reasonably request in connection with its preparation of necessary filings or submissions of information to any such Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Parent and the Company may, as each deems advisable and necessary, reasonably designate any competitively sensitive material provided to the other under this Section 5.6 as "Antitrust Counsel Only Material." Such materials and the information contained therein shall be given only to the outside antitrust counsel of the recipient and will not be disclosed by such outside counsel to employees, officers or directors of the recipient unless express permission is obtained in advance from the source of the materials (Parent or the Company, as the case may be) or its legal counsel. Anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.6 notwithstanding, materials provided pursuant to this Section 5.6 may be redacted (i) to remove references concerning the valuation of the Company and the Merger or other confidential information, (ii) as necessary to comply with contractual arrangements, and (iii) as necessary to address reasonable privilege concerns.

(c) The Company and Parent shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to file, as promptly as practicable, but in any event no later than ten (10) Business Days after the date of this Agreement, all notifications required under the HSR Act and appropriate filings, if any are required, pursuant to foreign Antitrust Laws as promptly as practicable. In the event that the Parties receive a request for information or documentary material pursuant to the HSR Act (a "Second Request"), the Parties will use their respective reasonable best efforts to respond to such Second Request as promptly as practicable, and counsel for both Parties will closely cooperate during the entirety of any such Second Request review process. The Parties agree to use reasonable best efforts to supply as promptly as practicable and advisable any additional information and documentary material that may be required under any other Antitrust Law and to take all other actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under any other Antitrust Law prior to the End Date.

(d) Parent shall solely to the extent necessary to consummate and make effective the Merger (i) agree to propose, negotiate, offer to commit and effect (and if such offer is accepted, commit to and effect) by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, the sale, divestiture, license, holding separate, or other disposition of or restriction on any assets, licenses, rights, product lines, operations or businesses of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries, and (ii) accept any operational restrictions or otherwise take or commit to take actions that would, after the Effective Time, limit Parent's or any of its Affiliates' freedom of action with respect to, or its ability to retain, any of the assets, licenses, rights, product lines, operations or businesses of any of Parent or the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries; provided that Parent shall not be required to take (and the Company shall not without the prior written consent of Parent agree to take) any of the actions set forth in clauses (i) or (ii), in each case, if any such action, individually or in the aggregate, would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect (measured on a scale relative to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole) the business of Parent, the Company, and their Subsidiaries, including the Surviving Corporation, after the Closing Date and giving effect to the Merger.

(e) In the event that any litigation, claim, suit, action or proceeding is commenced challenging the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement under any Antitrust Law, each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub shall cooperate with each other and use its respective reasonable best efforts to contest and resist any such litigation, claim, suit, action or proceeding and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any Order resulting therefrom, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents or restricts consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5.7 Preparation of the Form S-4 and the Proxy Statement/ Prospectus; Company Shareholders Meeting.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, (i) the Company and Parent shall jointly prepare and cause to be filed with the SEC the Proxy Statement/Prospectus in preliminary form, and (ii) Parent shall prepare and cause to be filed with the SEC, the Form S-4 with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable in the Merger, which will include the Proxy Statement/Prospectus with respect to the Company Special Meeting. Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to (A) have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing, (B) ensure that the Form S-4 complies in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Exchange Act or Securities Act, and (C) keep the Form S-4 effective for so long as necessary to complete the Merger. Each of the Company and Parent shall furnish all information concerning itself, its Affiliates and the holders of its shares to the other and provide such other assistance as may be reasonably requested in connection with the preparation, filing and distribution of the Form S-4 and Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Each of the Company and Parent shall promptly notify the other upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or any request from the SEC for amendments or supplements to the Form S-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other with copies of all correspondence between it and its Representatives, on one hand, and the SEC, on the other hand, and all written comments with respect to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4 received from the SEC and advise the other party on any oral comments with respect to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4 received from the SEC. Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments from the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4. The foregoing notwithstanding, prior to filing the Form S-4 (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, each of the Company and Parent shall cooperate and provide the other a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response in advance (including the proposed final version of such document or response), except to the extent such disclosures relate to a Company Adverse Recommendation Change. Parent shall advise the Company, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time of effectiveness of the Form S-4, the issuance of any stop order relating thereto or the suspension of the qualification of the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have any such stop order or suspension lifted, reversed or otherwise terminated. Parent shall also take any other action required to be taken under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, any applicable foreign or state securities or "blue sky" Laws and the rules and regulations thereunder in connection with the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger, and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of the Company Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such actions.

(b) If, at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, any information relating to the Company or Parent, or any of their respective Affiliates, should be discovered by the Company or Parent which, in the reasonable judgment of the Company or Parent, should be set forth in an amendment of, or a supplement to, any of the Form S-4 or the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the Party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other Parties, and the Company and Parent shall cooperate in the prompt filing with the SEC of any necessary amendment of, or supplement to, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4 and, to the extent required by Law, in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to shareholders of the Company. Nothing in this Section 5.7(b) shall limit the obligations of any Party under Section 5.7(a).

(c) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Company shall, in consultation with Parent and in accordance with applicable Law and the Company Organizational Documents, establish a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of the Company's shareholders to consider the proposal to adopt this Agreement (the "Company Special Meeting"). The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to the shareholders of the Company entitled to vote at the Company Special Meeting and to hold the Company Special Meeting as soon as reasonably practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective under the Securities Act. The Company shall, through the Company Board of Directors, make the Company Recommendation, include such Company Recommendation in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall solicit and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Company Shareholder Approval, except, in each case, during such time as a valid Company Adverse Recommendation Change in accordance with Section 5.4 is in effect. The Company shall not submit any other proposal to such holders in connection with the Company Special Meeting without the prior written consent of Parent. The Company shall ensure that all proxies solicited in connection with the Company Special Meeting are solicited in compliance with applicable Law. The foregoing provisions of this Section 5.7(c) notwithstanding, if, on a date for which the Company Special Meeting is scheduled, the Company (i) determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that any supplement or amendment to the disclosure documents is required by Law to be provided to the Company's shareholders or (ii) has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of Company Common Stock to constitute a quorum or obtain the Company Shareholder Approval, the Company shall have the right to make one or more successive postponements or adjournments of the Company Special Meeting; provided that, without the prior written consent of Parent, in no event may the Company Special Meeting be postponed to later than the date that is twenty (20) Business Days after the date for which the Company Special Meeting was originally scheduled. All other postponements or adjournments shall require the prior written consent of Parent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to excuse the Company or the Company Board of Directors from complying with its unqualified obligation to submit this Agreement to its shareholders at the Company Special Meeting, and neither the Company nor the Company Board of Directors shall submit to the vote of its shareholders any Company Takeover Proposal other than the Merger, in each case without regard to whether a Company Takeover Proposal has been made or whether the Company Board of Directors has effected a Company Adverse Recommendation Change. Without limiting the foregoing, if the Company Board of Directors has effected a Company Adverse Recommendation Change as expressly permitted by Section 5.4, then the Company Board of Directors may submit this Agreement to its shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended) and to the extent so requested by the Company to disclose (i) a Company Adverse Recommendation Change and (ii) a statement of the reason of the Company Board of Directors for making such Company Adverse Recommendation Change, the Company and Parent shall cooperate regarding, and shall promptly file with the SEC, any necessary amendment of, or supplement, to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4, and to the extent required by Law, shall cooperate in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to shareholders of the Company.

Section 5.8 Takeover Statutes. The Parties shall use their respective reasonable best efforts (a) to take all action necessary so that no "moratorium," "control share acquisition," "fair price," "supermajority," "affiliate transactions" or "business combination statute or regulation" or other similar state anti-takeover Laws becomes applicable to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (b) if any such Law may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the Merger, or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to grant such approvals and take such actions as are reasonably necessary so that the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise eliminate or minimize the effects of such Law on the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5.9 Public Announcements. Without limiting Section 5.4 or Section 5.7 or the Confidentiality Agreement, the Parties shall consult with one another prior to issuing, and provide each other with the opportunity to review and comment upon, and consider in good faith the comments of the other Parties on, any public announcement, statement or other disclosure with respect to this Agreement or the Merger and shall not issue any such public announcement or statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by Law or by the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq or the NYSE, as applicable; provided that each of the Company and Parent may make any public statements in response to questions by the press, analysts, investors or analyst or investor calls, so long as such statements are not inconsistent with previous statements made jointly by the Company and Parent (or made by one party after having consulted with the other party). Without limiting Section 5.4, the Company shall not be required to provide any review or comment to Parent regarding any statement, release or disclosure in response to or in connection with the receipt and existence of a Company Takeover Proposal, its consideration of making or its making of Company Adverse Recommendation Change or any matters related thereto. The Company and Parent agree to issue the previously agreed upon form of joint press release announcing the execution and delivery of this Agreement promptly following the execution of this Agreement.

Section 5.10 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) All rights to indemnification and exculpation from Liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time and related advancement of expenses now existing in favor of any present and former director, officer, employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and each person who served as a director, officer, member, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise at the request or for the benefit of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, together with their respective heirs, executors and administrators, the "Company Indemnified Parties") as provided in the Company Organizational Documents (or Company Subsidiary Organizational Documents) or any indemnification agreements in existence as of the date hereof and set forth on Section 5.10(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, and shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of such Company Indemnified Parties, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to perform its obligations thereunder. The foregoing notwithstanding, if any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before, at or after the Effective Time) is made against any Company Indemnified Party with respect to matters subject to indemnification hereunder on or prior to the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, the rights to indemnification and exculpation from Liabilities and advancement of expenses referenced in the preceding sentence shall continue in effect until the final disposition of such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, indemnify and hold harmless each Company Indemnified Party against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or Liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or other fiduciary in any entity, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise at the request or for the benefit of the Company and pertaining to matters existing or occurring or actions or omissions taken prior to or at the Effective Time, including with respect to this Agreement and the Merger, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, and the Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, also advance expenses to the Company Indemnified Parties as incurred to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law; provided that the Company Indemnified Party to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined by a final and nonappealable judicial determination that such Company Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification under this Section 5.10 or otherwise.

(c) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events, or actions or omissions, which occurred or are alleged to have occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 300% of the annual premium paid for the year ending December 31, 2017 by the Company for such insurance (the "Premium Cap"), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the Premium Cap, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the Premium Cap. In lieu of the foregoing, Parent or the Company (following prior consultation with Parent) may obtain at or prior to the Effective Time a six (6)-year prepaid "tail" policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence; provided that if the total cost for such prepaid "tail" policy exceeds the Premium Cap, then the Surviving Corporation may obtain a prepaid "tail" policy with the maximum coverage available for a total cost of the Premium Cap. If such prepaid policies have been obtained prior to the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, maintain such policies in full force and effect for such six-year period, and continue to honor the obligations thereunder.

(d) In the event that Parent or the Surviving Corporation (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then proper provision shall be made so that such continuing or surviving corporation or entity or transferee of such assets, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.10.

(e) The rights of each Company Indemnified Party pursuant to this Section 5.10 shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, any other rights such Company Indemnified Party may have under the Company Organizational Documents (or Company Subsidiary Organizational Documents) or under applicable Law. The provisions of this Section 5.10 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Company Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives. In the event of any breach by the Surviving Corporation or Parent of this Section 5.10, Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall pay all reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, that may be incurred by the Company Indemnified Parties in enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided in this Section 5.10 as such fees are incurred upon the written request of such Company Indemnified Party.

(f) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to perform all of its respective obligations under this Section 5.10.

Section 5.11 Control of Operations. Without in any way limiting any Party's rights or obligations under this Agreement, the Parties understand and agree that (a) nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent or the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the other Party's operations prior to the Effective Time and (b) prior to the Effective Time, each of the Company and Parent shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its operations.

Section 5.12 Section 16 Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions of Company Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Company Common Stock) or acquisitions of shares of Parent Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Parent Common Stock) resulting from the Merger by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company or will become subject to such reporting requirements with respect to Parent, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, to the extent permitted by applicable Law.

Section 5.13 Financing and Financing Cooperation.

(a) Parent and Merger Sub shall use their reasonable best efforts to obtain the Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter (or in the event any portion or all of such Financing becomes unavailable or otherwise undesirable, alternative financing (in an amount sufficient, together with the remaining Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter, if any, and any other sources available to Parent and Merger Sub, to fund the payment of the Merger Amounts) from the same or other sources) as and to the extent (but only to the extent) required to fund the Merger Amounts. Parent shall keep the Company informed on a reasonably current basis and in reasonable detail of the status of its efforts to arrange the Financing (or replacement thereof). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent shall give the Company prompt notice (i) upon becoming aware of any material breach or default by any party to the Commitment Letter (or any replacement thereof) or definitive agreements related to the Financing and (ii) of the receipt of any notice or other communication from any Person party to any definitive document relating to the Financing (or any replacement thereof) or the Commitment Letter (or any replacement thereof) with respect to any material breach of Parent or any of its Affiliates of its obligations under any such document or letter or default, termination or repudiation by any party to any such document or letter. Unless the Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter (or any replacement thereof) becomes unavailable in whole or in part, Parent shall not, without the prior written consent of the Company agree to amend, modify, supplement, restate, substitute or replace the Commitment Letter (or any replacement thereof) if such amendment, modification, supplement, restatement, substitution or replacement (a) materially expands the conditions precedent to the funding on the Closing Date of the Financing as set forth in the Commitment Letter as in effect as of the date hereof (or in such replacement, as applicable) or (b) taking into account the expected timing of the Marketing Period, would reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) The Company shall and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective Representatives to provide all cooperation that is necessary, customary or advisable and requested by Parent to assist Parent and Merger Sub in arranging, obtaining and syndicating any of the Financing including, without limitation, by (i) making senior management and advisors of the Company and its Subsidiaries available to participate at reasonable times in a reasonable number of meetings, presentations, road shows and due diligence sessions that are requested a reasonable time period in advance with proposed lenders, underwriters, initial purchasers or placement agents, and in sessions with rating agencies, (ii) providing reasonable and timely assistance to Parent and the Financing Entities in their preparation of (1) materials for lender presentations, confidential information memoranda (public and non-public), offering memoranda, prospectuses and similar documents customary or required in connection with the Financing and (2) customary pro forma financial statements reflecting the Merger and the Financing (it being understood that nothing in this Section 5.13(b) shall require the Company to prepare any pro forma financial statements), (iii) as promptly as practicable on an ongoing basis, furnishing Parent and the Financing Entities with (I) the Required Financial Information; (II) the Closing Financial Information and (III) such other financial and other information relating to the Company and its Subsidiaries as is customary or reasonably necessary for the arrangement, syndication and completion of the Financing, (iv) if requested in writing by Parent at least eight (8) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, furnish to Parent and the Financing Parties all information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries that is requested by Parent and required in connection with the Financing by regulatory authorities under applicable "beneficial ownership," "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the Patriot Act, at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, (v) providing customary authorization letters authorizing the distribution of information to prospective lenders and containing a customary representation to the Financing Parties for the Financing that such information does not contain a material misstatement or omission and containing a representation to the Financing Parties that the public side versions of such documents, if any, do not include material non-public information about the Company and its Subsidiaries or its or their securities, (vi) executing and delivering definitive financing documents, including any pledge and security documents, any loan agreements, guarantees, currency or interest hedging agreements, certificates, and other definitive financing documents, and in each case assisting in the preparation of applicable schedules and other information necessary in connection therewith, and (vii) using reasonable best efforts to facilitate the pledging of collateral (including delivery of stock and other equity certificates of Company and its Subsidiaries at the Effective Time). To the extent practicable, the Company shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any information regarding the Company contained in any materials, documents or memoranda to be presented at any meetings conducted in connection with the Financing at which the senior management or advisors of the Company and its Subsidiaries are requested by Parent or Merger Sub to be present.

(c) The provisions of Section 5.13(b) notwithstanding, nothing in the foregoing Section 5.13(b) will require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives to (i) agree to pay any fees or reimburse any expenses prior to the Effective Time for which it has not received prior reimbursement or is not otherwise indemnified by or on behalf of Parent, (ii) take any action or provide any assistance that would unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (iii) take any action or provide any information that will conflict with or violate its organizational documents or any applicable material Laws or (in the case of the disclosure of information) would result in the waiver of any legal privilege (provided, however, that the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide an alternative means of disclosing or providing such information to the maximum extent permitted by Law or to the maximum extent that does not result in a loss of such legal privilege, as applicable, and in the event that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries does not provide access or information in reliance on this clause, the Company shall provide notice to Parent that information is being withheld), (iv) give indemnities that are effective prior to the Effective Time for which it is not simultaneously indemnified by Parent, (v) pass resolutions or consents to approve or authorize the execution of the Financing or any definitive agreements with respect thereto prior to the Effective Time, provided that the Company and its Subsidiaries and Representatives shall cooperate with Parent to replace any officers and directors of the Company and its Subsidiaries who will not be employed thereby immediately after Closing with Persons designated by Parent and to add any officers and directors designated by Parent, such replacements and additions to become effective immediately at Closing, (vi) cause the execution of any certificates or other documents (other than customary authorization and representation letters) by any employee whose employment by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries will terminate prior to or upon Closing, or (vii) take any action pursuant to this Section 5.13 or any other provision of this Agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in personal liability to a director, officer or other personnel. In addition, no action, liability or obligation of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives pursuant to any certificate, agreement, arrangement, document or instrument (other than customary authorization and representation letters) relating to the Financing will be required to be effective until the Effective Time.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Confidentiality Agreement to the contrary, all non-public or other confidential information provided by the Company or any of its Representatives to Parent pursuant to this Agreement will be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement, except that Parent will be permitted to disclose such information to any Financing Parties or prospective Financing Parties (and, in each case, to their respective counsel and auditors) so long as such information is furnished by Parent subject to customary confidentiality undertakings in connection with the Financing.

(e) Parent shall promptly, upon request by the Company, reimburse the Company for all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, but excluding the costs of the Company's preparation of its annual and quarterly financial statements) incurred by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective Representatives in connection with the Financing and the cooperation of the Company and its Subsidiaries and Representatives contemplated by Section 5.13(a), and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company, its Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with the arrangement of the Financing, any cooperation pursuant to Section 5.13(a) and any information used in connection therewith, except with respect to (i) any information provided in writing by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for use in connection with the Financing or (ii) any fraud, intentional misrepresentation, gross negligence or willful misconduct by any such persons or material breach by any such persons of their obligations hereunder.

(f) The Company shall and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to deliver all notices and take other actions required to facilitate the termination of commitments under the Company Credit Agreement, repayment in full of all obligations under the Company Credit Agreement and release of any Liens and guarantees in connection therewith on the Closing Date. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts to furnish to Parent, no later than one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date, a customary payoff letter with respect to the Company Credit Agreement (the "Payoff Letter") in substantially final form and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent from all financial institutions and other Persons to which Indebtedness under the Company Credit Agreement or "Credit Agreement Obligations" (as defined in the Company Credit Agreement) are owed, or the applicable agent, trustee or other representative on behalf of all such Persons, which Payoff Letter shall (x) indicate the total amount required to be paid to fully satisfy all principal, interest, prepayment premiums, penalties, breakage costs or other outstanding and unpaid obligations related to such Indebtedness and other obligations as of the Closing Date (the "Payoff Amount") and (y) state that all obligations (including guarantees) in respect thereof and Liens in connection therewith on the assets of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company shall be, substantially concurrently with the receipt of the Payoff Amount on the Closing Date by the Persons holding such Indebtedness or other obligations, be released and terminated, or arrangements satisfactory to Parent for such release shall have been made by such time, subject, as applicable, to the replacement (or cash collateralization or backstopping) of any then outstanding letters of credit or similar Indebtedness.

Section 5.14 Transaction Litigation.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall provide Parent with prompt notice of any shareholder litigation or claim against the Company and/or its directors or officers relating to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement ("Company Transaction Litigation") (including by providing copies of all pleadings with respect thereto). The Company shall control the defense, settlement (subject to the limitations in the following sentence) or prosecution of any Company Transaction Litigation and the Company shall allow Parent to participate in and shall consult with Parent with respect to the defense, settlement and prosecution of any Company Transaction Litigation and shall consider in good faith Parent's advice with respect to such Company Transaction Litigation. Parent may not compromise, settle or come to an arrangement regarding, or offer or agree to compromise, settle or come to an arrangement regarding, any Parent Transaction Litigation that would prevent or materially delay or impair the consummation of the Merger without the prior written consent of the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). If any litigation or claim meets the definition of both Company Transaction Litigation and Parent Transaction Litigation, it shall be treated as Parent Transaction Litigation, unless such litigation or claim against Parent and/or its directors or officers is only with respect to aiding and abetting or similar theories, in which case such litigation or claim shall be treated as Company Transaction Litigation.

Section 5.15 Stock Exchange Matters.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall cooperate in taking, or causing to be taken, all actions reasonably necessary to delist the Company Common Stock from the NYSE and terminate its registration under the Exchange Act, in each case, as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, provided that such delisting and termination shall not be effective until after the Effective Time.

Section 5.16 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement in accordance with its terms or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the Parties to the Merger, the officers of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to, in the name and on behalf of the Company, execute and deliver such deeds, bills of sale, assignment or assurances and take all such other action as may be necessary in connection therewith.

The representations and warranties of Parent set forth in (i) Article IV (other than in Section 4.2(a), Section 4.2(b), Section 4.3(a), Section 4.3(b), Section 4.10(b) and Section 4.15) shall be true and correct at and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date, other than for failures to be so true and correct (without regard to "materiality," Parent Material Adverse Effect and similar qualifiers contained in such representations and warranties) that, individually or in the aggregate, have not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect, (ii) Section 4.2(a) shall be true and correct at and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date, except for any de minimis inaccuracies, (iii) Section 4.2(b), Section 4.3(a), Section 4.3(b) and Section 4.15 shall be true and correct in all material respects at and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date and (iv) Section 4.10(b) shall be true and correct at and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date; provided, however, that representations and warranties that are made as of a particular date or period need be true and correct (in the manner set forth in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), as applicable) only as of such date or period.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all covenants required by the Agreement to be performed or complied with by them at or prior to the Closing.

(c) No Parent Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of this Agreement, there has not been any fact, change, circumstance, event, occurrence, condition or development that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(d) Closing Certificate. Parent shall have delivered to the Company a certificate, dated the Closing Date and signed by its Chief Executive Officer or another senior officer, certifying to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a), Section 6.3(b) and Section 6.3(c) have been satisfied.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION

Section 7.1 Termination or Abandonment. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time (except as otherwise provided below, whether before or after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval), as follows:

(a) by the mutual written consent of the Company and Parent;

(b) by either the Company or Parent, if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or prior to February 14, 2019 (the "End Date"); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any Party whose breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement was the principal cause of the Effective Time not occurring prior to the End Date, and provided, further, that if on the End Date all of the conditions to Closing, other than the condition set forth in Section 6.1(c) or Section 6.1(d) as it relates to an Antitrust Law, shall have been satisfied or waived (other than any such conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at or immediately prior to the Closing, which conditions shall be capable of being satisfied at such time), the End Date may be extended by either Party to May 14, 2019 by written notice to the other Party;

(c) by either the Company or Parent, if a Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have entered or issued a final and nonappealable Order that remains in effect, or shall have adopted or enacted a Law that remains in effect, in either case, that permanently restrains, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the Merger; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to a Party if such Order (or such Order becoming final and nonappealable) was due to the material breach by such Party of any covenant or other agreement of such Party set forth in this Agreement;

(d) by either the Company or Parent, if the Company Shareholder Approval shall not have been obtained upon a vote held at the Company Special Meeting as it may be adjourned or postponed in accordance with this Agreement;

(e) by the Company (provided that the Company is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement) if (i) Parent or Merger Sub has materially breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach would result in the conditions in Section 6.1 or Section 6.3 not being satisfied and (ii) which breach, failure to perform or inaccuracy is either not curable or is not cured by the earlier of (A) the End Date and (B) the date that is thirty (30) Business Days following written notice from the Company to Parent describing such breach or failure to perform in reasonable detail;

(f) by Parent (provided that Parent is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement), if the Company has materially breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach would result in the conditions in Section 6.1 or Section 6.2 not being satisfied and which breach or failure to perform is either not curable or is not cured by the earlier of (A) the End Date and (B) the date that is thirty (30) Business Days following written notice from Parent to the Company describing such breach or failure to perform in reasonable detail; or

(g) by Parent, prior to receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, (i) at any time following a Company Adverse Recommendation Change or (ii) in the event of a Willful Breach by the Company of any of the material covenants or agreements contained in Section 5.4 or Section 5.7, which breach is either not curable or is not cured by the earlier of (A) the End Date and (B) the date that is thirty (30) Business Days following written notice from Parent to the Company describing such breach in reasonable detail.

The party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other parties in accordance with Section 8.7, specifying the provision of this Agreement pursuant to which such termination is effected.

Section 7.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, this Agreement shall become null and void and of no effect without Liability on the part of any Party hereto, and all rights and obligations of any Party hereto shall cease, except (i) as provided in Section 7.3 or (ii) Liability arising out of or resulting from fraud or any Willful Breach of any provision of this Agreement occurring prior to termination (in which case the aggrieved Party shall be entitled to all rights and remedies available at law or in equity); provided that the Confidentiality Agreement and the provisions of this Section 7.2, Section 7.3 and Article VIII shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 7.3 Termination Fees.

(a) If (i) this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1(b), Section 7.1(d) or Section 7.1(f) (for a Willful Breach only), (ii) a Company Takeover Proposal shall have been publicly announced or publicly disclosed after the date of this Agreement and prior to such termination shall not have been publicly withdrawn and (iii) at any time on or prior to the twelve (12)-month anniversary of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, the Company Takeover Proposal referred to in clause (ii) above (a "Company Takeover Transaction"), the Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee, by wire transfer (to an account designated by Parent) in immediately available funds, upon the earlier of entering into such definitive agreement with respect to the Company Takeover Transaction or the consummation of the Company Takeover Transaction; provided that for the purposes of clause (iii) only, all references in the definition of Company Takeover Proposal to "twenty-five percent (25%)" shall instead be references to "fifty percent (50%)."

(b) If Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(g), the Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee, by wire transfer (to an account designated by Parent) in immediately available funds, within three (3) Business Days after such termination.

(c) "Termination Fee" shall be $38,765,000, in cash. Anything to the contrary in this Agreement notwithstanding, if the Termination Fee shall become due and payable in accordance with this Section 7.3, from and after such termination and payment of the Termination Fee in full pursuant to and in accordance with this Section 7.3, the Company and its Affiliates and Representatives (in the case of a payment of the Termination Fee by the Company) shall have no further Liability of any kind for any reason in connection with this Agreement or the termination contemplated hereby other than as provided under this Section 7.3, except in the case of fraud. Each of the Parties hereto acknowledges that the Termination Fee is not intended to be a penalty, but rather is liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate Parent in the circumstances in which such Termination Fee is due and payable and do not involve fraud, for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities foregone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the Merger, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision. In no event shall Parent be entitled to more than one payment of the Termination Fee in connection with a termination of this Agreement pursuant to which such Termination Fee is payable. For the avoidance of doubt, while Parent and Merger Sub may pursue both a grant of specific performance in accordance with Section 8.5 and the payment of the Company Termination Fee under this Section 7.3, under no circumstances shall Parent and Merger Sub be permitted or entitled to receive the Termination Fee (if entitled under this Section 7.3) if the Merger is consummated.

(d) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.3 are an integral part of the Merger, and that, without these agreements, Parent and Merger Sub would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay in a timely manner any amount due pursuant to this Section 7.3, then (i) the Company shall reimburse Parent for all costs and expenses (including disbursements and reasonable fees of counsel) incurred in the collection of such overdue amount, including in connection with any related claims, actions or proceedings commenced and (ii) the Company shall pay to Parent interest on such amount from and including the date payment of such amount was due to but excluding the date of actual payment at the prime rate set forth in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made plus two percent (2%).

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 No Survival. None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Merger, except for covenants and agreements which contemplate performance after the Effective Time or otherwise expressly by their terms survive the Effective Time.

Section 8.2 Expenses; Transfer Taxes.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 7.3, whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the Party incurring or required to incur such expenses; provided, however, that Parent and the Company shall each pay one-half of all filing fees required under the HSR Act and filing fees and printing and mailing costs for the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 2.2(d), all transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration and other such similar non-income Taxes imposed with respect to the transfer of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger shall be borne by Parent or Merger Sub and expressly shall not be a liability of holders of Company Common Stock.

Section 8.3 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties and delivered (by telecopy, electronic delivery or otherwise) to the other Parties. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in "portable document format" ("pdf") form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

Section 8.4 Governing Law. This Agreement, and all claims or causes of action (whether at Law, in contract or in tort or otherwise) that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance hereof, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware; provided that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Company Board of Directors shall be subject to the laws of the State of Texas.

Section 8.5 Jurisdiction: Specific Enforcement. The Parties' rights in this Section 8.5 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed, or were threatened to be not performed, in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that money damages would not be an adequate remedy, even if available. It is accordingly agreed that, in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it, including monetary damages, each of the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware) (in addition to any and all other rights and remedies at law or in equity, and all such rights and remedies shall be cumulative, except, in each case, as may be limited by Section 7.3), and each Party hereby waives any objection to the availability of such injunctive relief to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement. In the event any Party seeks any remedy referred to in this Section 8.5, such Party shall not be required to prove damages or obtain, furnish, provide or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 8.5 and each Party waives any objection to the imposition of such relief or any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, providing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument. In addition, each of the Parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other Party hereto or its successors or assigns, shall be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware). Each of the Parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or the Merger in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the Parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts, (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any claim that (A) the suit, action or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each of the Parties hereto hereby consents to the service of process in accordance with Section 8.7; provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the right of any Party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law.

Section 8.6 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER (INCLUDING ANY DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE FINANCING).

or to such other address as any Party shall specify by written notice so given. Any Party to this Agreement may notify any other Party of any changes to the address or any of the other details specified in this paragraph; provided, however, that such notification shall only be effective on the date specified in such notice or five (5) Business Days after the notice is given, whichever is later. Rejection or other refusal to accept or the inability to deliver because of changed address of which no notice was given shall be deemed to be receipt of the notice as of the date of such rejection, refusal or inability to deliver.

Section 8.8 Assignment; Binding Effect. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned or delegated by any of the Parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other Parties; provided, however, that each of Merger Sub and Parent may assign any of their rights hereunder to a wholly owned direct or indirect Subsidiary of Parent without the prior written consent of the Company, but no such assignment shall relieve Parent or Merger Sub of any of its obligations hereunder. Subject to the first sentence of this Section 8.8, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 8.8 shall be null and void.

Section 8.9 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Section 8.10 Entire Agreement. This Agreement together with the exhibits hereto, schedules hereto and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the Parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and this Agreement is not intended to grant standing to any person other than the Parties hereto.

Section 8.11 Amendments; Waivers. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of a waiver by the Party against whom enforcement is sought, and in the case of an amendment, by the Company, Parent, and Merger Sub, provided that after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, no amendment to this Agreement shall be made that by Law requires further approval by such stockholders without obtaining such further approval. At any time and from time to time prior to the Effective Time, either the Company, on the one hand, or Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, may, to the extent permissible by applicable Law and except as otherwise set forth herein, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Parent or Merger Sub, in the case of an extension by the Company, or of the Company, in the case of an extension by Parent and Merger Sub, as applicable, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such Party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of any such Party contained herein. The foregoing notwithstanding, no failure or delay by any Party hereto in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any other right hereunder.

Section 8.12 Headings. Headings of the Articles and Sections of this Agreement are for convenience of the Parties only and shall be given no substantive or interpretive effect whatsoever. The table of contents to this Agreement is for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

VOTING AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

This Voting and Support Agreement (this "Agreement") dated as of August 14, 2018, is by and between Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Parent") and Christopher T. Fraser ("Shareholder").

WHEREAS, Parent, KMG Chemicals, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company"), and Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a Texas corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (as it may be amended from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), which provides, among other things, for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company being the surviving corporation, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the respective meanings specified in the Merger Agreement);

WHEREAS, Shareholder owns shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") (together with any other shares of capital stock of the Company acquired (whether beneficially or of record) by such Shareholder after the date hereof, including any shares of Company Common Stock acquired by means of purchase, dividend or distribution, or as a result of the exercise or vesting of Company Equity Awards or the conversion of any convertible securities or otherwise, being collectively referred to herein as the "Shares"); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement and as an inducement and in consideration therefor, Shareholder is entering into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
VOTING

Section 1.1 Voting. From and after the date hereof until the earlier of (a) the consummation of the Merger, (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to and in compliance with the terms therein, and (c) the entry without the prior written consent of Shareholder into any amendment or modification of the Merger Agreement or any material waiver of any of the Company's rights under the Merger Agreement, in each case, which results in a decrease in, or change in the composition of, the Merger Consideration or imposes any material restrictions or additional constraints on the payment of the Merger Consideration (such earlier date, the "Expiration Date"), Shareholder hereby agrees that at any meeting (whether annual or special and each adjourned or postponed meeting) of the Company's shareholders, however called, or in connection with any written consent of the Company's shareholders, Shareholder will (i) appear at such meeting or otherwise cause all of the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum and (ii) vote or cause to be voted (including by proxy or written consent, if applicable) all of the Shares (A) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger; (B) in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting of the Company's shareholders to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement and such adjournment or postponement is undertaken in compliance with the Merger Agreement; (C) against any action, proposal, transaction, or agreement that relates to a Company Takeover Proposal; and (D) against any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would (i) result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement, or of Shareholder contained in this Agreement or (ii) prevent, impede or delay the Company's or Parent's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 1.1 shall not apply during any period in which the Company Board of Directors has qualified, withheld, withdrew or modified the

Company Recommendation in response to a Company Superior Proposal or a Company Intervening Event in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement; provided, that to the extent that the Company Board of Directors reinstates its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, this Section 1.1 shall apply.

Section 1.2 Restrictions on Transfers. Shareholder hereby agrees that, from the date hereof until the Expiration Date, it shall not, directly or indirectly, (a) sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) (a "Transfer") or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the Transfer of any Shares, other than any Transfer made solely for estate planning purposes or philanthropic purposes, but only if, in each case, prior to or upon the effectiveness of such Transfer, the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms hereof and notice of such Transfer is delivered to Parent pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof, (b) deposit any Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto that is inconsistent with this Agreement, or (c) agree (whether or not in writing) to take any of the actions referred to in the foregoing clause (a) or (b).

Section 1.3 Inconsistent Agreements. Shareholder hereby covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement it (a) shall not enter into at any time while this Agreement remains in effect, any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Shares and (b) shall not grant at any time while this Agreement remains in effect a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Shares.

CAPACITY

Section 2.1 Capacity. Shareholder is signing this Agreement solely in his, her or its capacity as a Shareholder of the Company and nothing contained herein shall in any way limit or affect any actions taken or not taken by any Shareholder or its Representative in his or her capacity as a director of the Company, and no action taken or not taken in any such capacity as a director shall be deemed to constitute a breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III
OF SHAREHOLDER

Section 3.1 Representations and Warranties. Shareholder represents and warrants to Parent as follows: (a) Shareholder has full legal right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform Shareholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (b) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shareholder and no other actions or proceedings on the part of Shareholder are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (c) assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent, this Agreement constitutes the valid and binding agreement of Shareholder, enforceable against Shareholder in accordance with its terms, except that (i) such enforcement may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar Laws, now or hereafter in effect, affecting creditors' rights generally and (ii) the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought, (d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the compliance with the provisions hereof will not, conflict with or violate any Laws or agreement binding upon Shareholder or the Shares, nor require any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Entity, in each case, except as would not prevent or delay the consummation of the Merger or Shareholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder, (e) Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, or controls 248,303 shares of Common Stock, and (f) Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, or controls all of the Shares free and clear of any proxy, voting restriction, adverse claim or other Lien (other than any restrictions created by this Agreement or under applicable Laws) and has sole voting power with respect to the Shares and sole power of disposition with respect to all of the Shares, with no restrictions on Shareholder's rights of voting or disposition pertaining thereto, and no person other than Shareholder has any right to direct or approve the voting or disposition of any of the Shares in each case, except as would not prevent or delay the consummation of the Merger or Shareholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder, except in case of (e) and (f) for any spousal rights under applicable law.

Section 3.2 Covenants. Shareholder hereby:

(a) irrevocably waives, and agrees not to exercise, any rights of appraisal or rights of dissent from the Merger that Shareholder may have with respect to the Shares;

(b) agrees to promptly notify Parent of the number of any new Shares acquired by Shareholder after the date hereof and prior to the Expiration Date (and any such Shares shall automatically be subject to the terms of this Agreement as though owned by Shareholder on the date hereof);

(c) agrees to permit the Company to publish and disclose in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, this Agreement and Shareholder's identity and ownership of the Shares and the nature of Shareholder's commitments under this Agreement;

(d) shall and does authorize Parent or its counsel to notify the Company's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares (and that this Agreement places limits on the voting and transfer of such Shares as described herein), provided that Parent shall, or shall cause its counsel to, promptly notify the Company's transfer agent to lift and vacate the stop transfer order with respect to the Shares promptly (and in no event more than one (1) Business Day) following the Expiration Date; and

(e) agrees to execute and deliver such additional instruments and documents and take such further action as may be reasonably necessary to effectuate and comply with his, her or its respective obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV
TERMINATION

This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect on the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, this Article IV and Article V shall survive any termination of this Agreement. Nothing in this Article IV shall relieve or otherwise limit any party of liability for willful breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 5.1 Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring or required to incur such expenses.

Section 5.2 Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing in one of the following formats and shall be deemed given (a) upon actual delivery if personally delivered to the party to be notified; (b) when sent if sent by email or facsimile to the party to be notified; provided, however, that notice given by email or facsimile shall not be effective unless (i) such notice specifically states that it is being delivered pursuant to this Section 5.3 Amendments; Waivers. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of a waiver by the party against whom enforcement is sought, and in the case of an amendment, by Parent and Shareholder. The foregoing notwithstanding, no failure or delay by any party hereto in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any other right hereunder.

Section 5.4 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned or delegated by any of party hereto without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that each of Merger Sub and Parent may assign any of their rights hereunder to a wholly owned direct or indirect Subsidiary of Parent without the prior written consent of Shareholder. Subject to the first sentence of this Section 5.4, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 5.4 shall be null and void.

Section 5.5 No Partnership, Agency, or Joint Venture. This Agreement is intended to create, and creates, a contractual relationship and is not intended to create, and does not create, any agency, partnership, joint venture or any like relationship between the parties hereto.

Section 5.6 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Section 5.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Merger Agreement constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and this Agreement is not intended to grant standing to any person other than the parties hereto.

Section 5.8 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each party agrees that (a) their respective representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein are solely for the benefit of the other party hereto, in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement, and (b) this Agreement is not intended to, and does not, confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein.

Section 5.9 Jurisdiction; Specific Enforcement; Waiver of Trial by Jury. The parties' rights in this Section 5.9 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed, or were threatened to be not performed, in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that money damages would not be an adequate remedy, even if available. It is accordingly agreed that, in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it, including monetary damages, each of the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware) (in addition to any and all other rights and remedies at law or in equity, and all such rights and remedies shall be cumulative). In the event any party seeks any remedy referred to in this Section 5.9, such party shall not be required to prove damages or obtain, furnish, provide or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 5.9 and each party waives any objection to the imposition of such relief or any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, providing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument. In addition, each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other party hereto or its successors or assigns, shall be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware). Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts, (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any claim that (A) the suit, action or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the service of process in accordance with Section 5.9; provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 5.10 Governing Law. This Agreement, and all claims or causes of action (whether at Law, in contract or in tort or otherwise) that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance hereof, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.11 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or Section, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires. The word "since" when used in this Agreement in reference to a date shall be deemed to be inclusive of such date. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant thereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References in this Agreement to specific laws or to specific provisions of laws shall include all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and any statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument referred to herein shall mean such statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including by succession of comparable successor statutes. References herein to a person are also to such person's successors and permitted assigns. All references in this Agreement to "$" or other monetary amounts refer to U.S. dollars. Each of the parties has participated in the drafting and negotiation of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement must be construed as if it is drafted by all the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 5.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered (by telecopy, electronic delivery or otherwise) to the other parties. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in ".pdf" form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

VOTING AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

This Voting and Support Agreement (this "Agreement") dated as of August 14, 2018, is by and between Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Parent") and Fred C. Leonard III ("Shareholder").

WHEREAS, Parent, KMG Chemicals, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company"), and Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a Texas corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (as it may be amended from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), which provides, among other things, for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company being the surviving corporation, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the respective meanings specified in the Merger Agreement);

WHEREAS, Shareholder owns shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") (together with any other shares of capital stock of the Company acquired (whether beneficially or of record) by such Shareholder after the date hereof, including any shares of Company Common Stock acquired by means of purchase, dividend or distribution, or as a result of the exercise or vesting of Company Equity Awards or the conversion of any convertible securities or otherwise, being collectively referred to herein as the "Shares"); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement and as an inducement and in consideration therefor, Shareholder is entering into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
VOTING

Section 1.1 Voting. From and after the date hereof until the earlier of (a) the consummation of the Merger, (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to and in compliance with the terms therein, and (c) the entry without the prior written consent of Shareholder into any amendment or modification of the Merger Agreement or any material waiver of any of the Company's rights under the Merger Agreement, in each case, which results in a decrease in, or change in the composition of, the Merger Consideration or imposes any material restrictions or additional constraints on the payment of the Merger Consideration (such earlier date, the "Expiration Date"), Shareholder hereby agrees that at any meeting (whether annual or special and each adjourned or postponed meeting) of the Company's shareholders, however called, or in connection with any written consent of the Company's shareholders, Shareholder will (i) appear at such meeting or otherwise cause all of the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum and (ii) vote or cause to be voted (including by proxy or written consent, if applicable) all of the Shares (A) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger; (B) in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting of the Company's shareholders to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement and such adjournment or postponement is undertaken in compliance with the Merger Agreement; (C) against any action, proposal, transaction, or agreement that relates to a Company Takeover Proposal; and (D) against any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would (i) result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement, or of Shareholder contained in this Agreement or (ii) prevent, impede or delay the Company's or Parent's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 1.1 shall not apply during any period in which the Company Board of Directors has qualified, withheld, withdrew or modified the Company Recommendation in response to a Company Superior Proposal or a Company Intervening Event in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement; provided, that to the extent that the Company Board of Directors reinstates its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, this Section 1.1 shall apply.

Section 1.2 Restrictions on Transfers. Shareholder hereby agrees that, from the date hereof until the Expiration Date, it shall not, directly or indirectly, (a) sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) (a "Transfer") or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the Transfer of any Shares, other than any Transfer made solely for estate planning purposes or philanthropic purposes, but only if, in each case, prior to or upon the effectiveness of such Transfer, the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms hereof and notice of such Transfer is delivered to Parent pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof, (b) deposit any Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto that is inconsistent with this Agreement, or (c) agree (whether or not in writing) to take any of the actions referred to in the foregoing clause (a) or (b).

Section 1.3 Inconsistent Agreements. Shareholder hereby covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement it (a) shall not enter into at any time while this Agreement remains in effect, any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Shares and (b) shall not grant at any time while this Agreement remains in effect a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Shares.

CAPACITY

Section 2.1 Capacity. Shareholder is signing this Agreement solely in his, her or its capacity as a Shareholder of the Company and nothing contained herein shall in any way limit or affect any actions taken or not taken by any Shareholder or its Representative in his or her capacity as a director of the Company, and no action taken or not taken in any such capacity as a director shall be deemed to constitute a breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III
OF SHAREHOLDER

Section 3.1 Representations and Warranties. Shareholder represents and warrants to Parent as follows: (a) Shareholder has full legal right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform Shareholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (b) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shareholder and no other actions or proceedings on the part of Shareholder are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (c) assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent, this Agreement constitutes the valid and binding agreement of Shareholder, enforceable against Shareholder in accordance with its terms, except that (i) such enforcement may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar Laws, now or hereafter in effect, affecting creditors' rights generally and (ii) the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought, (d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the compliance with the provisions hereof will not, conflict with or violate any Laws or agreement binding upon Shareholder or the Shares, nor require any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Entity, in each case, except as would not prevent or delay the consummation of the Merger or Shareholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder, (e) Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, or controls 464,251 shares of Common Stock, and (f) Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, or controls all of the Shares free and clear of any proxy, voting restriction, adverse claim or other Lien (other than any restrictions created by this Agreement or under applicable Laws) and has sole voting power with respect to the Shares and sole power of disposition with respect to all of the Shares, with no restrictions on Shareholder's rights of voting or disposition pertaining thereto, and no person other than Shareholder has any right to direct or approve the voting or disposition of any of the Shares in each case, except as would not prevent or delay the consummation of the Merger or Shareholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder, except in case of (e) and (f) for any spousal rights under applicable law.

Section 3.2 Covenants. Shareholder hereby:

(a) irrevocably waives, and agrees not to exercise, any rights of appraisal or rights of dissent from the Merger that Shareholder may have with respect to the Shares;

(b) agrees to promptly notify Parent of the number of any new Shares acquired by Shareholder after the date hereof and prior to the Expiration Date (and any such Shares shall automatically be subject to the terms of this Agreement as though owned by Shareholder on the date hereof);

(c) agrees to permit the Company to publish and disclose in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, this Agreement and Shareholder's identity and ownership of the Shares and the nature of Shareholder's commitments under this Agreement;

(d) shall and does authorize Parent or its counsel to notify the Company's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares (and that this Agreement places limits on the voting and transfer of such Shares as described herein), provided that Parent shall, or shall cause its counsel to, promptly notify the Company's transfer agent to lift and vacate the stop transfer order with respect to the Shares promptly (and in no event more than one (1) Business Day) following the Expiration Date; and

(e) agrees to execute and deliver such additional instruments and documents and take such further action as may be reasonably necessary to effectuate and comply with his, her or its respective obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV
TERMINATION

This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect on the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, this Article IV and Article V shall survive any termination of this Agreement. Nothing in this Article IV shall relieve or otherwise limit any party of liability for willful breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 5.1 Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring or required to incur such expenses.

or to such other Persons or addresses as may be designated in writing by the party to receive such notice as provided above.

Section 5.3 Amendments; Waivers. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of a waiver by the party against whom enforcement is sought, and in the case of an amendment, by Parent and Shareholder. The foregoing notwithstanding, no failure or delay by any party hereto in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any other right hereunder.

Section 5.4 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned or delegated by any of party hereto without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that each of Merger Sub and Parent may assign any of their rights hereunder to a wholly owned direct or indirect Subsidiary of Parent without the prior written consent of Shareholder. Subject to the first sentence of this Section 5.4, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 5.4 shall be null and void.

Section 5.5 No Partnership, Agency, or Joint Venture. This Agreement is intended to create, and creates, a contractual relationship and is not intended to create, and does not create, any agency, partnership, joint venture or any like relationship between the parties hereto.

Section 5.6 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Section 5.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Merger Agreement constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and this Agreement is not intended to grant standing to any person other than the parties hereto.

Section 5.8 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each party agrees that (a) their respective representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein are solely for the benefit of the other party hereto, in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement, and (b) this Agreement is not intended to, and does not, confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein.

Section 5.9 Jurisdiction; Specific Enforcement; Waiver of Trial by Jury. The parties' rights in this Section 5.9 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed, or were threatened to be not performed, in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that money damages would not be an adequate remedy, even if available. It is accordingly agreed that, in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it, including monetary damages, each of the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware) (in addition to any and all other rights and remedies at law or in equity, and all such rights and remedies shall be cumulative). In the event any party seeks any remedy referred to in this Section 5.9, such party shall not be required to prove damages or obtain, furnish, provide or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 5.9 and each party waives any objection to the imposition of such relief or any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, providing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument. In addition, each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other party hereto or its successors or assigns, shall be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within the State of Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware). Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in any court other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts, (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise) and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any claim that (A) the suit, action or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each of the parties hereto hereby consents to the service of process in accordance with Section 5.9; provided, however, that nothing herein shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 5.10 Governing Law. This Agreement, and all claims or causes of action (whether at Law, in contract or in tort or otherwise) that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance hereof, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.11 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or Section, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires. The word "since" when used in this Agreement in reference to a date shall be deemed to be inclusive of such date. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant thereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References in this Agreement to specific laws or to specific provisions of laws shall include all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and any statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument referred to herein shall mean such statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including by succession of comparable successor statutes. References herein to a person are also to such person's successors and permitted assigns. All references in this Agreement to "$" or other monetary amounts refer to U.S. dollars. Each of the parties has participated in the drafting and negotiation of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement must be construed as if it is drafted by all the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 5.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered (by telecopy, electronic delivery or otherwise) to the other parties. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in ".pdf" form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

Annex C

August 14, 2018
Board of Directors
KMG Chemicals, Inc.
300 Throckmorton Street, Suite 1900
Fort Worth, TX 76102
Members of the Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share (the "Company Common Stock") of KMG Chemicals, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company") of the consideration to be paid to these holders pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of August 14, 2018 (the "Merger Agreement") to be entered into by and among the Company, Cabot Microelectronics Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Cobalt Merger Sub Corporation, a Texas corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub") (the "Transaction").

You have advised us that under the terms of the Merger Agreement, all of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, other than such shares of Company Common Stock owned or held in treasury by the Company or owned by Parent or Merger Sub, all of which will be cancelled, or as to which dissenter's rights have been properly exercised, will be converted into the right to receive consideration per share equal to $55.65 in cash (the "Cash Consideration") and .2000 shares (the "Stock Consideration", and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Consideration") of Parent's common stock, par value $.001 per share (the "Parent Common Stock"). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

In connection with rendering this opinion, we have reviewed and analyzed, among other things, the following: (i) a draft of the Merger Agreement, dated August 13, 2018, which we understand to be in substantially final form; (ii) certain publicly available information concerning the Company, including the Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for each of the years in the three-year period ended July 31, 2017, and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company for the quarters ended April 30, 2018, January 31, 2018 and October 31, 2017, and Parent, including the Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2017, and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company for the quarters ended June 30, 2018, March 31, 2018 and December 31, 2017; (iii) the current and historical market prices of the Company Common Stock and Parent Common Stock; (iv) certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of the Company relating to the business of the Company as approved for our use by the Company; (v) certain forecasts prepared by management of Parent relating to the business of Parent, as well as estimated amount of synergies expected to result from the Transaction (the "Synergies"); (vi) certain publicly available information with respect to certain other publically traded companies that we believe to be comparable to the Company and the trading markets for certain of such other companies' securities; and (vii) certain publically available information concerning the nature and terms of certain other transactions that we consider relevant to our inquiry. We have also met with certain officers and employees of the Company to discuss the business, financial condition, operations and prospects of the Company, as well as other matters we believed relevant to our inquiry. We have also performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other data and information as we deemed appropriate.

In our review and analysis and in arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us or publicly available, and we have assumed that the representations and warranties of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement are and will be true and correct in all respects material to our analysis. We have not been engaged to, and have not independently attempted to, verify any of such information or its accuracy or completeness. We have also relied upon the management of the Company as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial analyses and forecasts (and the assumptions and bases therefor) provided to us and, with your consent, we have assumed that such financial analyses and forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases that reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company of the future financial performance of the Company, Parent and other matters covered thereby. With respect to the financial analyses and forecasts provided to and examined by us, we note that projecting future results of any company is inherently subject to uncertainty. We have not been engaged to assess the reasonableness or achievability of such financial analyses and forecasts (including the Synergies) or the assumptions on which they were based, and we express no view as to such analyses, forecasts, Synergies and assumptions. In addition, we have not conducted a physical inspection, valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company or Parent nor have we been furnished with any such inspection, valuation or appraisal. We are not legal, regulatory or tax experts and have relied on the assessments made by the advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company, Parent or the Transaction that would be meaningful to our analysis.

We have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the material terms of the Merger Agreement or the form of the Transaction. In addition, in preparing this opinion, we have not taken into account any tax consequences of the Transaction to any holder of Company Common Stock. In rendering our opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the final executed form of the Merger Agreement will not differ in any material respect from the draft that we have examined, and that the conditions to the Transaction as set forth in the Merger Agreement will be satisfied and that the Transaction will be consummated on a timely basis on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without waiver or modification of any term or condition that would be meaningful to our analysis.

It should be noted that this opinion is based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available to us as of, the date hereof and does not address any matters subsequent to such date. In addition, our opinion is, in any event, limited to the fairness, as of the date hereof, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement and does not address the Company's underlying business decision to engage in the Transaction or any other terms of the Transaction or the fairness of the Transaction, or any consideration paid in connection therewith, to creditors or other constituencies of the Company. In addition, we do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the Transaction or the amount or the nature of the compensation now paid or to be paid to any of the directors, officers or employees of the Company, or class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be paid to public shareholders of the Company. We do not express any opinion as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Company, Parent or its affiliates or the ability of the Company, Parent or its affiliates to pay their respective obligations when they come due. We do not express any opinion herein as to the price at which the Company Common Stock or Parent Common Stock will trade at any future time. It should be noted that although subsequent developments may affect this opinion, we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm our opinion. This opinion has been approved by a fairness committee of KBCM.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with, and have participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Transaction and will receive from the Company a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction (the "Transaction Fee"). In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse us for certain expenses and to indemnify us under certain circumstances for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement. We also will receive a fee in connection with the delivery of this opinion, which fee will be credited against any Transaction Fee earned.

We acted as financial advisor to Arsenal Capital Partners and Flowchem LLC in connection with the Company's acquisition of Flowchem LLC (the "Flowchem Acquisition"). In connection with the Flowchem Acquisition, we served as Joint Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner and our affiliate, KeyBank National Association, served as Agent, in connection with the Company's June 15, 2017 Credit Agreement. In the ordinary course of our businesses, we and our affiliates, employees of us and our affiliates, and funds or other entities that such persons manage or invest in or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of the Company, Parent, any of their respective affiliates and third parties or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the Transaction, in each case for our own account or for the accounts of customers. We may in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to the Company and its affiliates and to Parent and its affiliates for which we may receive compensation.

It is understood that this opinion was prepared for the use of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with and for the purpose of its evaluation of the proposed Transaction. This opinion letter is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in accordance with our prior written consent. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Transaction or any other matter.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

KEYBANC CAPITAL MARKETS INC.

Sec. 10.362. COMPUTATION AND DETERMINATION OF FAIR VALUE OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST.

(a) For purposes of this subchapter, the fair value of an ownership interest of a domestic entity subject to dissenters' rights is the value of the ownership interest on the date preceding the date of the action that is the subject of the appraisal. Any appreciation or depreciation in the value of the ownership interest occurring in anticipation of the proposed action or as a result of the action must be specifically excluded from the computation of the fair value of the ownership interest.

(b) In computing the fair value of an ownership interest under this subchapter, consideration must be given to the value of the domestic entity as a going concern without including in the computation of value any control premium, any minority ownership discount, or any discount for lack of marketability. If the domestic entity has different classes or series of ownership interests, the relative rights and preferences of and limitations placed on the class or series of ownership interests, other than relative voting rights, held by the dissenting owner must be taken into account in the computation of value.

(c) The determination of the fair value of an ownership interest made for purposes of this subchapter may not be used for purposes of making a determination of the fair value of that ownership interest for another purpose or of the fair value of another ownership interest, including for purposes of determining any minority or liquidity discount that might apply to a sale of an ownership interest.
