(Ganden Holdings), a private Israeli corporation, which owns through intermediary private companies all the outstanding shares of Ganden Investments I.D.B. Ltd. (Ganden), a private Israeli corporation which in turn owns since May 19, 2003 approximately 31.02% of the outstanding shares of IDB Holding. Avraham Livnat s son, Zvi Livnat, is a director of IDB Holding, IDB Development and DIC.

Ganden, Manor and Livnat entered into a Shareholders Agreement dated May 23, 2002 (the IDB Shareholders Agreement) with respect to their ownership of shares of IDB Holding, constituting in the aggregate approximately 51.7% of the outstanding shares of IDB Holding, for the purpose of maintaining and exercising control of IDB Holding as one single group of shareholders. The IDB Shareholders Agreement provides, among other things, that Ganden will be the manager of the group as long as Ganden and its permitted transferees will be the largest shareholder of IDB Holding among the parties to the IDB Shareholders Agreement; that the parties to the IDB Shareholders Agreement will vote together at shareholders meetings of IDB Holding as shall be determined according to a certain mechanism set forth therein; and that they will exercise their voting power in IDB Holding for electing their designees as directors of IDB Holding and its direct and indirect subsidiaries and other investee companies. Other provisions of the IDB Shareholders Agreement relate, among other things, to proposed transactions in shares of IDB Holding by any party thereto, including (i) a limitation whereby no party may sell its shares of IDB

Holding for a period of two years from May 19, 2003 other than to certain permitted transferees of such party, (ii) a right of first opportunity whereby any party wishing to sell any of its shares of IDB Holding, other than to certain permitted transferees of such party, must first offer such shares to the other parties, (iii) a tag along right whereby in case of sale of any shares of IDB Holding owned by the manager of the group, other than to certain permitted transferees thereof, the other parties may join such sale, (iv) a drag along right whereby in case of sale of all of the shares of IDB Holding owned by the manager of the group, it may obligate the other parties to sell all their shares of IDB Holding together with such sale by the manager of the group to the same purchaser, at the same time and on terms as set forth in the IDB Shareholders Agreement, (v) an obligation of any party to offer its shares of IDB Holding to the other parties upon certain changes in the control of such party, and (vi) a right of participation in future acquisitions of shares of IDB Holding whereby any party acquiring additional shares of IDB Holding from third parties must offer the other parties the opportunity to participate in such acquisition on a pro rata basis. No party may sell shares of IDB Holding to any purchaser (including permitted transferees of such party) unless such purchaser joins the IDB Shareholders Agreement and assumes the rights and obligations of the selling party thereunder with respect to the shares sold by it. The term of the IDB Shareholders Agreement is twenty years from May 19, 2003 which may be extended by agreement of all parties thereto, and may be terminated as to any party in certain circumstances as set forth therein.

Ganden, Manor and Livnat pledged their shares of IDB Holding to certain financial institutions as collateral for the repayment of certain loans in an aggregate principal amount of $219 million borrowed by Ganden, Manor and Livnat to finance part of the price which they paid for the shares of IDB Holding purchased by them. The scheduled repayment dates of these loans are spread over a period of 12 years ending in May 2015. The pledges will be in effect until the loans are fully repaid, and include, among other things, certain restrictions relating to the disposition of, and the exercise of the voting rights attached to, the pledged shares. The lenders may realize the pledges and also may accelerate the repayment dates of the loans, in several different events (some of which will not be considered for such purpose to have occurred if rectified as provided for in the agreements relating to the loans) including, among others, default by the borrowers in performing their obligations under the agreements relating to these loans; the occurrence of events that entitle a third party to accelerate the repayment of other debts of the borrowers, or certain debts of IDB Holding or any of several specified companies held by it; if the borrowers or IDB Holding or certain of its major subsidiaries enter into certain extraordinary transactions such as a merger or reorganization, or sale or acquisition of major assets, or resolve to be voluntarily wound up, without the lenders' consent; if any of such entities becomes subject to insolvency, receivership or certain other similar proceedings; if certain financial ratios with respect to IDB Holding, or a certain minimum ratio between the value of the collateral and the outstanding balance of the loans, are not met; if the shares of IDB Holding or certain of its major subsidiaries are delisted from trading on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange; if the IDB Shareholders Agreement is amended without the lenders' consent, or the control of the borrowers is changed; and the occurrence of a material adverse change in the financial condition of IDB Holding, which in the lenders' opinion may jeopardize the repayment of the loans, or an adverse change in the financial condition of certain entities and persons controlling the borrowers, which in the lenders' opinion may jeopardize the payment of certain contingent financial liabilities of such entities and persons in connection with the loans.

By reason of the control of IDB Holding by Nochi Dankner, Shelly Dankner-Bergman, Ruth Manor and Avraham Livnat, and the relations among them, as set forth above, Nochi Dankner, Shelly Dankner-Bergman, Ruth Manor and Avraham Livnat may each be deemed beneficial owner of, and to share the power to vote and dispose of, the Ordinary Shares owned directly by Elron and may be deemed beneficial owner of, and to share the power to vote, the 12,100,000 shares owned by the Federmann Group as a result of the shareholders agreement between Elron and certain members of the Federmann Group, as described in greater detail in Items 3 and 6 below.

The name, citizenship, residence or business address and present principal occupation of the directors and executive officers of (i) Elron, (ii) DIC, (iii) IDB Development and (iv) IDB Holding are set forth in Schedules A, B, C and D attached hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

(d) None of the Reporting Persons, or, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any director or executive officer named in Schedules A, B, C and D to this Statement, has, during the last five years, been convicted in any criminal proceeding, excluding traffic violations and similar misdemeanors, except as provided below.

In February 2002, following a criminal trial in the Tel Aviv Magistrate's Court, DIC, several past executive officers of DIC and one of its other officers were convicted of criminal offenses under the Israeli Securities Act, 1968, regarding the inclusion of a misleading detail in DIC's annual and quarterly financial statements in order to mislead a reasonable investor by not attaching the financial statements of certain companies to DIC's financial statements in respect of the financial reporting periods from 1990 through the first quarter of 1995 filed with the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange and the Israeli Registrar of Companies. In May 2002, DIC was fined NIS800,000 (then approximately $160,000). DIC and all the convicted persons filed an appeal in the Tel Aviv District Court against their conviction. The appeal has not yet been heard. None of the activities underlying the conviction, which activities ended in May 1995, relate to or involve the Issuer or its business in any way.

(e) None of the Reporting Persons, or, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any director or executive officer named in Schedules A, B, C and D to this Statement, has, during the last five years, been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction which as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, Federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) The Reporting Persons referred to in (5), (6), (7) and (8) above are citizens of Israel.

Item 3.

Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Elron acquired 8,575,448 Ordinary Shares in November 1996 as a result of a Plan of Arrangement (the "Plan"), under Sections 233 and 237 of the Israeli Companies Ordinance, undertaken by Elbit Ltd. ("Elbit") pursuant to which Elbit was divided into three separate companies, one of which was the Issuer.

On December 19, 1999, the Issuer, Federmann Enterprises Ltd. ("FEL"), Heris Finanz Aktiengesellschaft ("HF") and together with FEL, the Federmann Shareholders ("Federmann Shareholders"), Rehovot Instruments Ltd. and Elop Electro-Optics Industries Ltd. ("Elop") entered into a Merger Agreement (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Elop would be merged into and become a subsidiary of the Issuer in exchange for the issuance by the Issuer of an aggregate of 12,100,000 Ordinary Shares to the Federmann Shareholders, then shareholders of Elop, subject to adjustment as provided in the Merger Agreement. The merger transaction contemplated under the Merger Agreement (the Merger) was completed on July 5, 2000. Elron and the other Reporting Persons may be deemed to have acquired beneficial ownership of the 12,100,000 Ordinary Shares owned by the Federmann Group when Elron entered into a shareholders agreement with the Federmann Shareholders more fully described in Item 6 below (the Shareholders Agreement) effective concurrently with the closing of the Merger.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Reporting Persons acquired the Ordinary Shares directly owned by them for investment purposes. Except as set forth in Item 5, none of the Reporting Persons, nor, to the best of their knowledge, any of their directors or executive officers, has any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

If the Reporting Persons believe it to be in their interest, the Reporting Persons may sell all or any portion of the Ordinary Shares held by them.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a)-(c)

As of May 19, 2003:

Elron owned directly 7,815,448 Ordinary Shares, or approximately 19.95%, of the outstanding Ordinary Shares. By virtue of the Shareholders Agreement, Elron shares the power to vote these Ordinary Shares with the Federmann Group, and shares voting power of, and may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of, the Federmann Group's 12,100,000 Ordinary Shares, representing approximately an additional 30.88% of the outstanding Ordinary Shares of the Issuer.

DIC, IDB Development, IDB Holding and the Reporting Persons who are natural persons may each be deemed beneficial owner of, and to share the power to vote and dispose of, the 7,815,448 Ordinary Shares directly owned by Elron, and may be deemed beneficial owner of, and to share the power to vote, the 12,100,000 shares owned by the Federmann Group as a result of the Shareholders Agreement. In addition, Ruth Manor owned (jointly with Isaac Manor, her husband) 7,000 Ordinary Shares, or approximately 0.02% of the outstanding Ordinary Shares. Ruth Manor and Isaac Manor have sole power to vote and dispose of these 7,000 Ordinary Shares.

The Issuer advised the Reporting Persons that there were 39,175,069 outstanding Ordinary Shares as of July 1, 2003. The percentages of the outstanding Ordinary Shares set forth above are based on this number.

None of the Reporting Persons purchased or sold any Ordinary Shares from March 15, 2003 through May 19, 2003.

Information provided to the Reporting Persons indicates that the executive officers and directors of IDB Holding, IDB Development, DIC and Elron beneficially owned as of May 19, 2003 an aggregate of 11,087 Ordinary Shares including 4,000 Ordinary Shares that may be acquired pursuant to options to purchase such shares from the Issuer, exercisable within 60 days from July 1, 2003. According to the information provided to the Reporting Persons, none of such executive officers and directors purchased or sold any Ordinary Shares from March 15, 2003 through May 19, 2003.

Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Undertakings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer

(1) Shareholders Agreement.

The Shareholders Agreement provides, among other things, for the following:

Corporate Governance:

Elron and the Federmann Shareholders agreed that following the Merger, so long as each holds at least 15% of the Issuer's issued share capital, the following will apply.

(i) The parties agreed to vote in order to cause the Issuer's Board to have 11 members, consisting of four directors nominated by Elron, four directors nominated by the Federmann Shareholders, the two External Directors and the President of the Issuer. All Board committees will be comprised of an equal number of Board nominees of each of Elron and the Federmann Shareholders. Should the holdings of the Issuer's issued share capital of only one of the parties fall below 15%, but not below 5%, the number of directors that party will have the right to nominate to the Board will be reduced proportionally. The other party will have the right to nominate all other members of the Board and to designate the Chairman of the Board and the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer.

(ii) The Federmann Shareholders have the right to nominate a candidate to replace the first of the two External Directors (as such term is defined under the Israeli Companies Law, 1999) who vacates his appointment. Elron has the right to nominate a candidate to replace the second of the two External Directors who vacates his appointment. This arrangement will continue as long as the Issuer is required to have External Directors.

(iii) The Issuer's President and Chief Executive Officer will be elected as a director, provided that he may not vote on any Board resolution if his vote determines whether the resolution passes.

(iv) The Chairman of the Board is elected by the shareholders from among the Board members. The Federmann Shareholders nominate a candidate for the office of Chairman of the Board after they have consulted with Elron. Michael Federmann was elected as Chairman beginning on the Merger closing date and is currently the Chairman of the Issuer.

(v) Following termination of employment of the present President and Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer (Mr. Joseph Ackerman), Elron will nominate a candidate for the office of President and Chief Executive Officer, after consulting with the Federmann Shareholders. The President and Chief Executive Officer will be elected by the Board, and his appointment is subject to shareholder approval.

(vi) Elron and the Federmann Shareholders coordinate in advance on how they will vote their Ordinary Shares at any Issuer shareholders meeting. Except as provided above, the parties will vote their shares against any proposed resolution at any Issuer's shareholders meeting, unless they agree in writing in advance to vote in favor.

Restrictions on sales and purchases of the Issuer's Ordinary Shares:

Following the Merger, as long as one of the parties holds at least 15%, and the other party at least 5%, of the Issuer's issued share capital, no transfer of the Ordinary Shares by either party will be valid unless made in accordance with the following:

(i) During the period beginning on January 1, 2003 and ending on December 31, 2004, neither party will transfer Ordinary Shares of the Issuer if, as a result of the transfer, the transferring party's holdings fall below 15% of the Issuer's issued share capital, unless:

- shares constituting at least 15% of the Issuer's issued share capital are transferred; and
- all of the obligations and rights of the transferring party under the Shareholders Agreement have been assigned and transferred to the buyer, with the buyer's assumption of all such obligations, and written notice to this effect signed by both the transferor and the buyer has been given to the other party before the transfer.

(ii) After January 1, 2005, no party will transfer, as part of a single transaction, 15% or more of the Issuer's issued share capital unless all of the obligations and rights of the transferring party under the Shareholders Agreement have been assigned and transferred to the buyer, with the buyer's assumption of all such obligations, and written notice to this effect signed by both the transferor and the buyer has been given to the other party to the Shareholders Agreement before the transfer.

First Refusal and Tag Along Rights:

The Shareholders Agreement provides for rights of first refusal if a party wants to transfer its Ordinary Shares to a third party buyer. The party intending to sell its Ordinary Shares must first offer them to the other party on the same terms offered by the buyer. The Shareholders Agreement also provides for tag along rights if a party wants to transfer Ordinary Shares to a third party buyer. The party wishing to sell its Ordinary Shares must enable the other party to participate in the sale to a third party buyer, unless the selling party wishes to:

(i) sell more than 15% of the Issuer's issued share capital, and

(ii) the third party buyer assumes the obligations of the selling party under the Shareholders Agreement.

The above provisions do not apply to any transfer by a party to a person or entity that it controls or that controls such party or that is under common control with such party. The right of first refusal and tag along rights will also apply to any transfer of Ordinary Shares by FEL or HF, respectively, if the Ordinary Shares held by such entity at any time constitute in excess of 90% of the total assets of that entity.

Participation Rights:

The Shareholders Agreement also provides for purchase participation rights. If a party purchases Ordinary Shares, the other party may participate in this purchase on the same terms as the first party on a pro-rata basis, based on the number of the Ordinary Shares held by the parties. However, this participation right shall not apply to any purchases made by Elron until Elron's share holdings in the Issuer equal those of the Federmann Shareholders.

Permitted sales:

Despite the above restrictions on sales of the Issuer's shares, each party may sell Ordinary Shares on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange (TASE) in quantities not more, in any calendar quarter, than 1% of the Issuer's issued share capital.

Termination of the Shareholders Agreement:

The parties agreed that if the Merger Agreement becomes void, the Shareholders Agreement will also become void. After the Merger, the Shareholders Agreement will remain in effect until the earlier of:

- (i) December 18, 2014; or
 - (ii) the date any party's holdings fall below 5% of the Issuer's issued share capital, provided that all the rights and obligations of that party under the Shareholders Agreement have not been previously transferred or transferred concurrently with such reduction to a new party, in which case the Shareholders Agreement will not terminate but will bind the new party.
- (2) Registration Rights Agreement between the Issuer, Elron and the Federmann Shareholders effective as of July 5, 2000 (Registration Rights Agreement).

The Registration Rights Agreement provides, among other things, for the following:

- (a) Elron and the Federmann Shareholders each may twice require the Issuer to register their Ordinary Shares for sale in the United States. No shareholder may demand registration of Ordinary Shares less than 180 days following the effective date of any registration statement previously filed by the Issuer under a demand registration. The Issuer has the right to delay filing of a registration statement in specific circumstances.
- (b) At any time that the Issuer proposes to file a registration statement in connection with any public offering of any ordinary shares in the United States, whether for the account of the Issuer or any Issuer shareholder, Elron and the Federmann Shareholders each may require the Issuer to include its Ordinary Shares in that offering.
- (c) The respective registration rights of Elron and the Federmann Shareholders terminate if such shareholder and its affiliates collectively cease to own at least 5% of the then issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares of the Issuer or such shares of any successor corporation. In addition, the Federmann Shareholders agreed not to exercise their registration rights during the TASE restriction period applicable to the Ordinary Shares the Federmann Shareholders received as consideration in the Merger.
