Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As announced on December 1, 2004, Security Capital Corporation (the Company) received a notice from the American Stock Exchange (the AMEX) Listing Qualifications staff (the Staff) on November 24, 2004 advising that, because the Company failed to timely file its Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2004, as required pursuant to Sections 134 and 1101 of the AMEX Company Guide (the Company Guide), and because the Company's audit committee does not have the requisite three independent members as required pursuant to Section 121B(2) of the Company Guide, the Company is no longer in compliance with the continued listing standards of the AMEX. The Staff also noted that, pursuant to Section 1003(d) of the Company Guide, the Company's failure to timely file its Form 10-Q is a material violation of the Company's listing agreement with the AMEX. As a result of the foregoing, the Company's securities are subject to suspension and delisting from the AMEX. In order to maintain its AMEX listing, the Staff required the Company to submit by December 6, 2004 a plan advising the Staff of the actions the Company has taken or plans to take in order to bring itself into compliance with the continued listing standards of the AMEX by no later than January 6, 2005.

On December 6, 2004, the Company submitted its plan of compliance (the Plan) to the AMEX. On December 9, 2004, the AMEX notified the Company (the Plan Acceptance Notice) that it has accepted the Plan and granted the Company an extension of time to regain compliance with the AMEX's continued listing standards on or before January 6, 2005. The Company will be subject to periodic review by the Staff during the extension period. Failure to make progress consistent with the Plan or to regain compliance with the AMEX's continued listing standards by no later than January 6, 2005 will likely result in the Staff initiating delisting proceedings. In addition, the Company is required to immediately provide the Staff with written notice if the Company determines that it has not made significant progress regarding the filing of the Company's Form 10-Q.

The supplemental procedures being performed at the Company's CompManagement, Inc. subsidiary previously announced by the Company on November 23, 2004 are continuing, and the Company expects to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 on or before the January 6, 2005 deadline imposed by the Staff. The Company is also actively seeking to restore its audit committee to the required three independent members as soon as possible. The Company believes that such actions will result in the Company regaining compliance with the AMEX's continued listing standards. If the Company is unable to file its Form 10-Q or restore its audit committee to three independent members by no later than January 6, 2005 (or otherwise fails to make progress consistent with its Plan), there can be no assurance that the AMEX will not initiate delisting proceedings.

On December 15, 2004, the Company issued a press release announcing its receipt of the Plan Acceptance Notice from the Staff. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
