Item 5.02
Principal Officers

Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of

On July 15, 2005, the Board of Directors of SI International, Inc. (the Company) approved a CEO succession plan, pursuant to which the Board appointed S. Bradford Antle, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, as the Company's next President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), succeeding Ray Oleson. Antle will also serve on SI International's Board of Directors as a Class III member until the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, until his earlier resignation or removal or until his successor is duly elected or appointed. He will assume these positions effective September 24, 2005. In addition to his new role as CEO and member of the Board, Antle will retain the position of company President. Ray Oleson will continue to serve as Executive Chairman of the Board after Antle becomes CEO.

Brad Antle has more than twenty years of experience as a leader in developing and delivering information technology solutions to the Federal government. Antle joined SI International in 1999 serving as Executive Vice President through 2001 and as President and Chief Operating Officer since 2001. Antle has played a leading role in successfully integrating six companies and directing all of the Company's business units. As President and Chief Operating Officer, Antle also has had overall responsibility for marketing and sales.
