PRESS RELEASE

ARCADIS ACQUIRES COST MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Arnhem, the Netherlands January 17, 2007 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF, EURONEXT: ARCAD), the international consultancy and engineering company has announced today that it has reached an agreement on the acquisition of the Dutch cost management company BFB Bouw- en bouwkostenadviseurs (BFB). BFB, with its headquarters in Zwolle, employs 65 people and has gross revenue of 6 million. The company will be combined with the cost management activities of PRC, a 100% subsidiary of ARCADIS. With this step, PRC will be market leader in the field of high-quality cost management and consultancy in the Netherlands. Other financial details were not disclosed.

BFB is an independent cost management consultant in the fields of housing and construction, new housing development and reconstruction, renovation, restoration and redevelopment. BFB has offices in Zwolle, Nijmegen, Delft en Utrecht.

Michiel Jaski, member of the Executive Board of ARCADIS, comments on this acquisition: With BFB, our PRC subsidiary takes a leading role in the areas of cost management, project management and real estate management, and strengthens its geographical presence. In addition, BFB has extensive experience in working with private clients, also strengthening PRC's position in that field.

Hans Huiskamp of BFB says: Taking this step enables us to take advantage of the knowledge and experience of PRC, as well as the strong name PRC has in the market. In this way we strengthen and broaden our joint position.

ARCADIS is an international company providing consultancy, engineering and management services in infrastructure, environment and facilities, to enhance mobility, sustainability and quality of life. ARCADIS develops, designs, implements, maintains and operates projects for companies and governments. With more than 11,000 employees and $1.5 billion in gross revenue, the company has an extensive international network that is supported by strong local market positions.
