THOMSON AND REUTERS PROVIDE EC REGULATORY UPDATE
STAMFORD, Conn., LONDON, October 30, 2007 The Thomson Corporation (NYSE: TOC; TSX: TOC) and Reuters (LSE RTR, NASDAQ: RTRSY) today confirmed that they have requested a 10 working day extension to the European Commission s ongoing regulatory Phase II review of Thomson s proposed acquisition of Reuters. This extension was volunteered by both companies to allow the Commission more time to assimilate all of the information provided by Thomson and Reuters, as well as third parties, in the interests of securing a clearance decision within an expedited timeframe.
Additional updates to the Commission s timetable could occur throughout the course of the review process, though Thomson and Reuters continue to anticipate completion of the Commission s Phase II review in the first quarter of 2008.

DEALING DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Under the provisions of Rule 8.3 of the Takeover Code (the Code), if any person is, or becomes, interested (directly or indirectly) in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of Thomson or of Reuters, all dealings in any relevant securities of that company (including by means of an option in respect of, or a derivative referenced to, any such relevant securities) must be publicly disclosed by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the London business day following the date of the relevant transaction. This requirement will continue until the date on which the Transaction becomes, or is declared, unconditional, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn or on which the offer period otherwise ends. If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire an interest in relevant securities of Thomson or Reuters, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Under the provisions of Rule 8.1 of the Code, all dealings in relevant securities of Thomson or Reuters by Thomson or Reuters, or by any of their respective associates, must be disclosed by no later than 12.00 noon (London time) on the London business day following the date of the relevant transaction.

A disclosure table, giving details of the companies in whose relevant securities dealings should be disclosed, and the number of such securities in issue, can be found on the Takeover Panel s website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk.

Interests in securities arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the price of securities. In particular, a person will be treated as having an interest by virtue of the ownership or control of securities, or by virtue of any option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

Terms in quotation marks are defined in the Code, which can also be found on the Panel s website. If you are in any doubt as to whether or not you are required to disclose a dealing under Rule 8, you should consult the Panel.

CAUTIONARY NOTE CONCERNING FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

This news release includes forward-looking statements, such as Thomson s and Reuters beliefs and expectations regarding the European Commission regulatory review process for their proposed transaction. These statements are based on certain assumptions and reflect Thomson s and Reuters current expectations. There can be no assurance that the European Commission regulatory review process will be completed during the time period specified in this news release, or that the proposed transaction will be consummated. The closing of the proposed transaction is subject to various regulatory approvals and the fulfillment of certain conditions, and there can be no assurance that any such approvals will be obtained and/or such conditions will be met. All forward-looking statements in this news release are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations. These risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, the effect of regulatory conditions, if any, imposed by regulatory authorities and the reaction of Thomson s and Reuters customers, suppliers, competitors and others to the proposed transaction. Additional factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations are discussed in Thomson s and Reuters respective materials filed with the securities regulatory authorities in Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States (as the case may be) from time to time including The Thomson Corporation s 2006 Annual Report on Form 40-F and Reuters Group PLC s 2006 Annual Report on Form 20-F, each of which has been filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Thomson or Reuters speak only as of the date they are made. Thomson and Reuters each disclaim any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, other than as required by law.

This document does not constitute an offer for sale of any securities or an offer or an invitation to purchase any such securities. Following satisfaction or waiver of the pre-conditions to the proposed transaction, documents relating to the proposed transaction will be furnished to or filed with the SEC. Shareholders are urged to read such documents regarding the proposed transaction if and when they become available, because they will contain important information. Shareholders will be able to obtain free copies of these documents, as well as other filings containing information about the companies, without charge, at the SEC s website at www.sec.gov, at the Canadian securities regulatory authorities website at www.sedar.com (in the case of Thomson) and from Thomson and Reuters. These documents will also be available for inspection and copying at the public reference room maintained by the SEC at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549, United States. For further information about the public reference room, call the SEC at 1-800-732-0330.
