Towers Watson Update: June 30, 2009

On Sunday, we announced that Towers Perrin and Watson Wyatt have agreed to combine in a merger of equals and form a new firm, which will be called Towers Watson.

This update is intended to provide additional information about some of the individuals who are expected to play key roles in Towers Watson. As you know from the press release, John Haley will serve as CEO of the new firm, and Mark Mactas will serve as President.

Towers Watson's three business segments and four geographic regions will report to the President, Mark Mactas.

The appointed leaders for these segments and geographies are as follows:

- Gene Wickes will lead the Benefits segment and is currently the Global Director for Benefits Consulting here at Watson Wyatt
- Tricia Guinn will lead the Risk & Financial Services segment and is currently leading a similar segment at Towers Perrin

Edgar Filing: Watson Wyatt Worldwide, Inc. - Form 425

- Julie Gebauer will lead the Talent & Rewards segment and is currently the head of TP-ISR (Towers Perrin International Survey Research)
- Jim Foreman will lead the North America Region. Jim is currently in charge of Towers Perrin's Human Capital Group, which at Tower Perrin includes Benefits consulting.
- Babloo Ramamurthy will lead Europe, Middle East, and Africa (EMEA). Babloo is currently the head of Europe for Watson Wyatt
- Bob Charles will lead the Asia Pacific Region. Bob is currently in that same role here at Watson Wyatt
- Luiz-Roberto Gouvea will head the Latin America Region, including South America. Luiz-Roberto is currently in that same role at Towers Perrin

The President (Mark Mactas), the corporate functions, and the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) will report to the CEO, John Haley.

The appointed leaders for the corporate functions are as follows:

- The General Counsel will be Wally Bardenwerper, currently our General Counsel at Watson Wyatt
 - The CFO will be Roger Millay, who serves in that capacity here at Watson Wyatt today

- The CIO will be Tony Candito, who is returning from retirement to lead this function. Prior to his retirement, Tony served as CIO and CAO for Towers Perrin
- The Corporate Development Unit will be led by Gordon Gould, who currently leads that function at Towers Perrin
- The HR function will be led by Steve Mele, currently in that same post here at Watson Wyatt
- The Marketing function will be led by Sharon Clark, who heads up that function today at Towers Perrin
- Anne Bodnar, currently the Managing Director, HR for Towers Perrin, will serve as the Towers Watson CAO, focused on overall integration of the corporate units, with HR, Marketing, and Office Services reporting to her

Each of these leaders will be working with the Integration Leadership Team, led by Bob Hogan of Towers Perrin and Kevin Meehan of Watson Wyatt, on the organization design and leadership selection process for their respective areas of responsibility over the next few months.

More information will be provided on these leaders and the overall integration team progress as soon as it becomes available, as always, subject to applicable legal limitations.
