Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

1. The Company

Alpha Pro Tech, Ltd. (Alpha Pro Tech or the Company) is in the business of protecting people, products and environments. The Company accomplishes this by developing, manufacturing and marketing a line of disposable protective apparel for the cleanroom, industrial and pharmaceutical markets, a line of building supply products for the new home and re-roofing markets and a line of infection control products for the medical and dental markets.

The disposable protective apparel consists of a complete line of shoecovers, bouffant caps, coveralls, gowns, frocks and lab coats. The line of building supply products (formerly known as Engineered Products) consists of construction weatherization products such as house wrap and synthetic roof underlayment. The infection control line of products includes a line of face masks, eye shields and medical bed pads, as well as a line of pet beds. Previously, the line of medical bed pads and pet beds were reported as a separate segment under the name Extended Care. Because management is now looking at the Extended Care segment in conjunction with the Infection Control segment, and since the majority of the Extended Care segment revenue is now generated from the medical bed pads, it is now appropriate for these segments to be consolidated in the Infection Control segment. All numbers have been updated to reflect the updated segmentation.

The Company's products are sold both under the Alpha Pro Tech brand name, as well as under private label, and are predominantly sold in the United States of America.

2. Basis of Presentation

The interim financial information included herein is unaudited; however, the information reflects all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for the fair presentation of the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods. These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and, therefore, omit certain information and footnote disclosure necessary to present the statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's current year filings on Form 10-Q and Form 8-K filed with the SEC, as well as the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008, which are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (the 2008 10-K), which was filed with the SEC on March 11, 2009. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2008 was extracted from the audited consolidated financial statements contained in the 2008 10-K and does not include all disclosures required by GAAP for annual consolidated financial statements.

Also, management has reviewed and evaluated material subsequent events from the balance sheet date of September 30, 2009 through the financial statements issue date of October 28, 2009. All appropriate subsequent event disclosures, if any, have been made in the notes to the unaudited consolidated financial statements.

3. Stock Based Compensation

The Company maintains a stock option plan under which the Company may grant incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options to employees and non-employee directors. Stock options have been granted with exercise prices at or above the fair market value of the underlying shares of common stock on the date of grant. Options vest and expire according to terms established at the grant date.

Table of ContentsNotes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

The Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (the FASB ASC , the ASC or the Codification) Topic 718, Stock Compensation, effective January 1, 2006, using the modified prospective application method. Topic 718 requires companies to record compensation expense for the value of all outstanding and unvested share-based payments, including employee stock options and similar awards. During the first nine months of 2009, there were no stock options granted under the stock option plan; 550,000 stock options were granted under the stock option plan during the first nine months of 2008. The Company recognized $56,000 and $55,000 in share-based compensation expense in its consolidated financial statements for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively, related to previously issued options. The Company recognized $175,000 and $153,000 in share-based compensation expense in its consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively, related to previously issued options.

Stock options to purchase 1,630,000 and 1,870,000 shares of common stock were outstanding at September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively. As of September 30, 2009, 753,253 incremental shares were included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the exercise prices of all of the stock options were less than the average share price of the Company's common stock for the 2009 third quarter, and, therefore the effect was dilutive. As of September 30, 2008, none of the 1,870,000 outstanding stock options were included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the exercise prices of these options were greater than the average share price of the Company's common stock for the 2008 third quarter, and, therefore, there was no dilutive effect.

The Company used the Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model to value the options. Prior to 2008, the Company used the simplified method as discussed in Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107, Share-Based Payment, for estimating the expected life of the options. For options granted during a quarter, or fiscal period, the Company would use historical data to estimate the expected life of the options. The risk-free interest rate for periods within the contractual life of the award is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. The expected volatility is based on historical volatility of the expected life in years. The Company uses an estimated dividend payout ratio of zero, as the Company has not paid dividends in the past and does not expect to in the future.

The following table summarizes stock option activity during the nine months ended September 30, 2009:

	Options	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Term (in years)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Options outstanding at December 31, 2008	1,870,000	$ 1.56	4.22
Exercised	(65,000)	$ 1.47
Granted
Forfeited or expired	(175,000)	$ 1.62
Options outstanding at September 30, 2009	1,630,000	$ 1.56	3.46	$ 6,584,000
Options exercisable at September 30, 2009	1,159,000	$ 1.67	3.38	$ 4,557,000

As of September 30, 2009, $207,000 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to stock options is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 1.68 years.

4. New Accounting Standards

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted the FASB ASC. The ASC is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), other than guidance issued by the SEC. The adoption of the ASC did not have any impact on the consolidated financial statements included herein. For further discussion of the Codification, see the Critical Accounting Policies in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations elsewhere in this report.

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (ASC 820 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 157), establishes a framework for measuring fair value in GAAP, clarifies the definition of fair value within that framework, and expands disclosures about the use of fair value measurements. ASC 820 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. ASC 820-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, deferred the effective date of ASC 820, for non-financial assets and liabilities that are not on a recurring basis recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements, to fiscal years, and interim periods, beginning after November 15, 2008. The Company has adopted the guidance within ASC 820 for non-financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis at January 1, 2009 and will continue to apply its provisions prospectively from January 1, 2009. The application of ASC 820 for non-financial assets and liabilities did not have a significant impact on the consolidated earnings nor the consolidated financial position for the periods presented.

FASB ASC 805, Business Combinations, (ASC 805 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 141(R)), requires the acquisition method to be applied to all transactions and other events in which an entity obtains control over one or more other businesses, requires the acquirer to recognize the fair value of all assets and liabilities acquired, even if less than one hundred percent ownership is acquired, and establishes the acquisition date fair value as measurement date for all assets and liabilities assumed. The guidance within ASC 805 is effective prospectively for any acquisitions made after fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008.

FASB ASC 810, Consolidation, (ASC 810), ASC 810-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, (ASC 810-10-65 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 160), establishes accounting and reporting standards for the non-controlling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. It clarifies that a non-controlling interest in a subsidiary is an ownership interest in the consolidated financial statements. ASC 810-10-65 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The application of ASC 810-10-65 did not have a significant impact on consolidated earnings nor the consolidated financial position as the Company does not consolidate its partially owned affiliate.

FASB ASC 825, Financial Instruments, (ASC 825), ASC 825-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, (ASC 825-10-65 and formerly referred to as FSP FAS No. 107-1 and APB Opinion No. 28-1), requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments for interim reporting periods as well as in annual financial statements. This guidance also requires those disclosures in summarized financial information at interim reporting periods. ASC 825-10-65 is effective prospectively for interim reporting periods ending after June 15, 2009. The application of ASC 825-10-65 expanded the Company's disclosures regarding the use of fair value in interim periods.

FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, (ASC 855 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 165), modified the subsequent event guidance. The three modifications to the subsequent events guidance are: 1) To name the two types of subsequent events either as recognized or non-recognized subsequent events, 2) To modify the definition of subsequent events to refer to events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but before the financial statement are issued or available to be issued and 3) To require entities to disclose the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date, i.e. whether that date represents the date the financial statements were issued or were available to be issued. This guidance is effective for interim or annual financial periods ending after June 15, 2009, and should be applied prospectively.

Table of Contents

FASB ASC 810, Consolidation, (ASC 810 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 167), eliminates a required quantitative approach to determine whether a variable interest gives an entity a controlling financial interest in a variable interest entity in favor of a qualitatively focused analysis. This guidance is effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of fiscal year 2010. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of ASC 810 will have on its consolidated financial statements.

FASB ASC 105, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, (ASC 105 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 168), establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP. Rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. ASC 105 is effective for financial statements issued for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009.

In August 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2009-05 (ASC Update 2009-05), an update to FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. This update provides amendments to reduce potential ambiguity in financial reporting when measuring the fair value of liabilities. Among other provisions, this update provides clarification that in circumstances, in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of the valuation techniques described in ASC Update 2009-05. ASC Update 2009-05 will become effective for the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009. The Company has not determined the impact that this update may have on its consolidated financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2009-13, Topic 605, Revenue Recognition: Multiple Deliverable Revenue Arrangements - A Consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. This update provides application guidance on whether multiple deliverables exist, how the deliverables should be separated and how the consideration should be allocated to one or more units of accounting. This update establishes a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on vendor-specific objective evidence, if available, third-party evidence if vendor-specific objective evidence is not available, or estimated selling price if neither vendor-specific or third-party evidence is available. The Company will be required to apply this guidance prospectively for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified after January 1, 2011; however, earlier application is permitted. The Company has not determined the impact that this update may have on its consolidated financial statements.

6. Investment in and Advances to Unconsolidated Affiliates

On June 14, 2005, Alpha ProTech Engineered Products, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, entered into a joint venture with a manufacturer in India for the production of building products. Under terms of the joint venture agreement, a private company, Harmony Plastics Private Limited (Harmony), was created with 41.66% ownership, by Alpha ProTech Engineered Products, Inc. and 58.34% ownership, by Maple Industries and Associates. Alpha ProTech Engineered Products, Inc. contributed $508,000 for share capital, and Maple Industries and Associates contributed $708,000.

This joint venture positions Alpha ProTech Engineered Products, Inc. to respond to current and expected increased product demand for house wrap and synthetic roofing underlayment and provides future capacity for sales of specialty roofing component products and custom products for industrial applications requiring high quality extrusion coated fabrics.

The capital from the initial funding, along with a bank loan to Harmony, which is guaranteed exclusively by Maple Industries and Associates and secured by the assets of Harmony, was utilized to purchase an existing 33,000 square-foot manufacturing facility in India. The manufacturing facility includes manufacturing equipment necessary to produce synthetic roof underlayment. Harmony has also built in India a 60,000 square-foot facility for the manufacturing of house wrap and other building products.

The Company is subject to the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 810, Consolidation, which defines the criteria by which the Company determines the proper accounting for its investments in related entities. Specifically, Topic 810 requires the Company to assess whether or not related entities are variable interest entities (VIEs), as defined. For those related entities that qualify as VIEs, Topic 810 requires the Company to determine whether or not the Company is the primary beneficiary of the VIE, and, if so, to consolidate the VIE.

Edgar Filing: ALPHA PRO TECH LTD - Form 10-Q

The Company has determined that Harmony is not a VIE and is, therefore, considered to be an unconsolidated affiliate.

The Company records its investment in Harmony as Equity investments in and advances to unconsolidated affiliates on the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets (Unaudited). whether the decline is other-than-temporary, the Company considers the nature of the industry in which Harmony operates, its historical performance, its performance in relation to its peers and the current economic environment. The Company has concluded that no impairment was required.

Alpha ProTech Engineered Products, Inc. initially invested $1,450,000 in the joint venture; $508,000 for share capital and $942,000 as a long term advance for materials. Fifty percent of the $942,000 long term advance was to be repaid over a six-year term commencing in July 2006, and the balance is to be paid in the seventh year. During 2006, Harmony repaid $39,000 in scheduled payments and $461,000 in additional payments, for a total of $500,000, leaving a balance of $442,000. Harmony has not made any further payments to date and, except for annual interest payments, is not required to make and further payments until 2013, when the balance the advance is due in full. Interest of 3.5% is to be paid annually on this advance, and the Company has an interest receivable of $12,000 as of September 30, 2009 related to this agreement. The interest payment for 2009 is due in the first quarter of 2010.

For the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, the Company purchased $1,866,000 and $198,000, respectively, from Harmony. As of September 30, 2009, the Company's investment in Harmony is $1,610,000, which comprises its original $1,450,000 investment and cumulative equity in income of unconsolidated affiliates of $660,000, of which the Company has received $0 in dividends, less $500,000 in repayments of the advance.

9. Activity of Business Segments

The Company operates through three product segments:

Disposable Protective Apparel: consisting of a complete line of disposable protective clothing such as shoecovers (including the Aqua Trak® and spunbond shoecovers), bouffant caps, coveralls, frocks, lab coats and hoods for the pharmaceutical, cleanroom, industrial and medical markets.

Building Supply (formerly known as Engineered Products): consisting of a line of construction weatherization products, such as house wrap and synthetic roof underlayment, for the building and re-roofing markets. The Company's equity in income of unconsolidated affiliates (Harmony) is included in the total segment income for Building Supply in the table below.

Infection Control: consisting of a line of face masks and eye shields principally for the medical, dental and industrial markets. It also consists of a line of medical bed pads as well as a line of pet beds. Previously, the line of medical bed pads and pet beds were reported as a separate segment under the name of Extended Care. Because management is now looking at the Extended Care segment in conjunction with the Infection Control segment, and since the majority of the Extended Care revenue is now generated from the sale of medical bed pads, it is now

The accounting policies of the segments exclude charges allocated to corporate office expenses, professional fees, public company expenses, executive and management bonuses and income taxes. The Company evaluates the performance of its segments and allocates resources to them based primarily on net sales.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") recognized the complexity of its standard-setting process and embarked on a revised process in 2004 that culminated in the release on July 1, 2009 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™ (the "FASB ASC"), which is also sometimes referred to as the Codification or the ASC. The Codification does not change how the Company accounts for its transactions or the nature of related disclosures made. To the Company, this means instead of following the rules in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R ("SFAS No. 123R"), Share-Based Payment, we will follow the guidance in Topic 718, Stock Compensation. References to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) issued by the FASB, within Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited) included elsewhere in this report are to the Codification. The FASB finalized the Codification effective for periods ending on or after September 15, 2009. Prior FASB standards like SFAS No. 123R, are no longer being issued by the FASB.

The preparation of our financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of net sales and expenses during the reported periods.

We base estimates on past experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The application of these accounting policies on a consistent basis enables us to provide timely and reliable financial information. Our critical accounting policies include the following:

Inventories: Inventories include freight-in, materials, labor and overhead costs and are stated at the lower of cost (computed on a standard cost basis, which approximates average cost) or market. Provision is made for slow-moving, obsolete or unusable inventory. We assess our inventory for estimated obsolescence or unmarketable inventory and, if necessary, write down the difference between the cost of inventory and the estimated market value, less cost to sell, based upon assumptions about future sales and supply on-hand. If actual market conditions are less favorable than those projected by management, additional inventory write-downs may be required.

Revenue Recognition: For sales transactions, we comply with the provisions of the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition, which states that revenue should be recognized when the following revenue recognition criteria are met: (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; (2) the product has been shipped and the customer takes ownership and assumes the risk of loss; (3) the selling price is fixed or determinable; and (4) collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. These criteria are satisfied upon shipment of product and revenues are recognized accordingly.

Sales are reduced for any anticipated sales returns, rebates and allowances based on historical experience. Since our return policy is only 90 days and our products are not generally susceptible to external factors, such as technological obsolescence or significant changes in demand, we are able to make a reasonable estimate for returns. We offer end-user product specific and sales volume rebates to select distributors. Our rebates are based on actual sales and are accrued monthly.

Stock Based Compensation: The Company adopted FASB ASC Topic 718, Stock Compensation, effective January 1, 2006, using the modified prospective application method. Topic 718 requires companies to record compensation expense for the value of all outstanding and unvested share-based payments, including employee stock options and similar awards.

The fair values of stock option grants are determined using the Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model and the following assumptions: expected stock price volatility based on historical volatility and management's expectations of future volatility, risk-free interest rates from published sources, years to maturity based on historical data and no dividend yield, as management currently does not intend to pay dividends in the near future. The Black-Scholes-Merton option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options that have no vesting restrictions and that are fully transferable. In addition, the option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions, including expected stock price volatility. Our stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options and changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect their fair value.

Alpha Pro Tech is in the business of protecting people, products and environments. We accomplish this by developing, manufacturing and marketing a line of high-value, disposable protective apparel and infection control products for the cleanroom, industrial, pharmaceutical, medical and dental markets. We also manufacture a line of building supply construction weatherization products. Our products are sold both under the Alpha Pro Tech brand name, as well as under private label.

Previously, the line of medical bed pads and pet beds were reported as a separate segment under the name of Extended Care. Because management is now looking at the Extended Care segment in conjunction with the Infection Control segment, and since the majority of the Extended Care revenue is now generated from the medical bed pads, as of the first quarter of 2009, these products are consolidated in the Infection Control segment. All numbers have been updated to reflect the updated segmentation.

Our target markets are pharmaceutical manufacturing, bio-pharmaceutical manufacturing and medical device manufacturing, lab animal research, high technology electronics manufacturing (which includes the semi-conductor market), medical and dental distributors, pet distributors and construction, building supply and roofing distributors.

Our products are used primarily in cleanrooms, industrial safety manufacturing environments, health care facilities, such as hospitals, laboratories and dental offices, as well as building and re-roofing sites. Our products are distributed principally in the United States through a network consisting of purchasing groups, national distributors, local distributors, independent sales representatives and our own sales and marketing force.

Edgar Filing: ALPHA PRO TECH LTD - Form 10-Q

Three and Nine Months ended September 30, 2009, compared to Three and Nine Months ended September 30, 2008

Sales: Consolidated sales for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased to $16,889,000 from $10,217,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2008, representing an increase of $6,672,000, or 65.3%. This increase consisted of increased sales in the Infection Control segment of $4,709,000 and increased Building Supply segment sales of $2,137,000, partially offset by decreased Disposable Protective Apparel segment sales of $174,000.

The Building Supply segment (formerly known as the Engineered Products segment) sales for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased by $2,137,000, or 67.7%, to a quarterly record of $5,292,000, compared to $3,155,000 for the same period of 2008. This quarterly record follows on the heels of a previous quarterly record of $3,758,000 in the second quarter of 2009. The segment increase was primarily due to a 72.6% increase in sales of REX Synfelt synthetic roof underlayment and a 52.0% increase in sales of REX Wrap house wrap. The sales mix within the Building Supply segment for the third quarter of 2009 and 2008 was 75% and 72%, respectively, for synthetic roof underlayment and 25% and 28%, respectively, for house wrap.

Table of Contents

Our REX Synfelt synthetic roof underlayment is perceived as a superior product in the industry and as the market evolves from felt paper to synthetic roof underlayment, which is a significant opportunity for us; we believe that we are in a very good position to pick up market share. Additionally, we believe that our high-quality, multi-color printed house wrap gives us a distinct competitive advantage in the marketplace and that our market share is growing even during this weak building market and economic downturn.

Our Building Supply segment distribution channel strategy continues to strengthen each and every quarter and should continue to broaden our ability to take advantage of market opportunities throughout this year and into the future.

Sales for the Disposable Protective Apparel segment for the three months ended September 30, 2009 decreased by $174,000, or 3.2%, to $5,265,000, compared to $5,439,000 for the same period of 2008, which were the highest quarterly sales of 2008. Sales in the third quarter of this year were adversely affected by a supply chain issue in which goods from Asia were delayed due to the high demand for products relating to the global H1N1 Influenza A pandemic.

Infection Control segment sales for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased by $4,709,000, or 290.1%, to a quarterly record of $6,332,000, compared to $1,623,000 for the same period of 2008. This quarterly record follows on the heels of a previous quarterly record of $4,712,000 in the second quarter of 2009. Mask sales were up by 378.9%, or $4,193,000, shield sales were up by 156.5%, or $547,000, and medical bed pad and pet beds were down by 18.3%, or $31,000, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008.

N-95 respirator mask sales were up significantly in the third quarter of 2009, compared to the same quarter last year and compared to the second quarter of 2009. Our N-95 respirator mask sales are expected to continue to grow significantly in the fourth quarter from current levels and are expected to be substantially stronger than normal for the foreseeable future amidst concerns relating to the global H1N1 Influenza A pandemic. Shield sales also improved in the third quarter of 2009, primarily due to the H1N1 outbreak.

Consolidated sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 increased to $40,763,000 from $26,654,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008, representing an increase of $14,109,000, or 52.9%. This increase consisted of increased sales in the Infection Control segment of $8,291,000, increased Building Supply segment sales of $4,868,000 and increased Disposable Protective Apparel segment sales of $950,000.

Building Supply segment sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 increased by $4,868,000, or 75.6%, to $11,307,000, compared to $6,439,000 for the same period of 2008. The segment increase was primarily due to a 100.2% increase in sales of REX Synfelt synthetic roof underlayment and a 32.7% increase in sales of REX Wrap house wrap. The sales mix within the Building Supply segment for the first nine months of 2009 and 2008 was 71% and 62%, respectively, for synthetic roof underlayment and 29% and 38%, respectively, for house wrap.

Sales for the Disposable Protective Apparel segment for the nine months ended September 30 2009 increased by $950,000, or 6.2%, to $16,176,000, compared to $15,226,000 for the same period of 2008. The year-to-date increase was related primarily to increased sales to our largest distributor, as well as increased sales to a broad base of our distribution network.

Edgar Filing: ALPHA PRO TECH LTD - Form 10-Q

Infection Control segment sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 increased by $8,291,000, or 166.2%, to $13,280,000, compared to $4,989,000 for the same period of 2008. Mask sales were up by 201.1%, or $6,632,000, shield sales were up by 173.8%, or $1,885,000, and medical bed pad and pet beds were down 37.3%, or $226,000, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

Table of Contents

The overall increase in mask sales for the first nine months of 2009 was primarily attributable to the surge in N-95 respirator mask sales in the second and third quarters of 2009 due to concerns relating to the H1N1 Influenza A pandemic. Shield sales were up primarily due to approximately $1.3 million in shields being shipped in 2009 from a $1.7 million non-recurring shield order received in the fourth quarter of 2008 and due to the H1N1 Influenza A pandemic.

Gross Profit: Gross profit increased by $3,854,000, or 88.5%, to $8,209,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from $4,355,000 for the same period of 2008. The gross profit margin was 48.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2009, compared to 42.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2008.

Gross profit increased by $7,476,000, or 63.8%, to $19,199,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from $11,723,000 for the same period of 2008. The gross profit margin was 47.1% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, compared to 44.0% for the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

Gross profit margin for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009 was positively affected by the change in product mix in which Infection Control sales, which have higher margins, increased as a percentage of total sales.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses: Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $581,000, or 18.9%, to $3,659,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from $3,078,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2008. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 21.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from 30.1% for the same period of 2008. The $581,000 increase in expenses was primarily due to increased employee compensation of $119,000, increased executive bonus of $356,000 (which is based on pre-tax income), increased sales commission of $96,000 and increased miscellaneous expenses of $10,000.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $886,000, or 9.4%, to $10,299,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from $9,413,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 25.3% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from 35.3% for the same period of 2008. The increase of $886,000 in expenses was primarily due to a $225,000 severance agreement for our previous Senior Vice President of Marketing, which was expensed during the first quarter of 2009, increased employee compensation of $159,000, increased executive bonus of $730,000 and increased commissions of $233,000. The increase was partially offset by decreased travel expenses of $160,000, decreased marketing expenses of $91,000, decreased professional fees and public company expenses of $109,000 and a decreased foreign exchange loss of $101,000.

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales were significantly lower for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, compared to the same periods of 2008. We believe that we can now effectively leverage the infrastructure that we have built to substantially grow the business while decreasing expenses as a percentage of sales from historical levels.

Edgar Filing: ALPHA PRO TECH LTD - Form 10-Q

The chief executive officer and president are each entitled to a bonus equal to 5% of the pre-tax profits of the Company. Bonuses of $492,000 were accrued for the three months ended September 30, 2009 as compared to $136,000 in the same period of 2008. Total bonuses of $959,000 were accrued for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, compared to $229,000 in the same period of 2008.

Depreciation and Amortization: Depreciation and amortization expense increased by $14,000, or 9.3%, to $165,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from $151,000 for the same period of 2008. Depreciation and amortization expense increased by $54,000, or 12.5%, to $487,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from $433,000 for the same period of 2008. The increase was primarily attributable to increased depreciation for the Building Supply segment.

Table of Contents

Income from Operations: Income from operations increased by $3,259,000, or 289.4%, to $4,385,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2009, compared to income from operations of $1,126,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2008. The increase in income from operations was due to an increase in gross profit of $3,854,000, partially offset by an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses of $581,000 and an increase in depreciation and amortization of $14,000.

Income from operations increased by $6,536,000, or 348.2%, to $8,413,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, compared to income from operations of $1,877,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. The increase in income from operations was due to an increase in gross profit of $7,476,000, partially offset by an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses of $886,000 and an increase in depreciation and amortization of $54,000.

Equity in Income of Unconsolidated Affiliates: For the three months ended September 30, 2009, we recorded equity in income of unconsolidated affiliates (Harmony) of $47,000, compared to $85,000 for the same period of 2008. New Accounting Standards

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (FASB ASC , ASC or Topic XXX-YY-ZZ-PP , where XXX is the Topic, YY is the Subtopic, ZZ is the Section, and PP is the Paragraph. In the case of SEC content, an S precedes the Section number). The ASC is the single official source of authoritative, nongovernmental generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), other than guidance issued by the

SEC. The adoption of the ASC did not have any impact on the consolidated financial statements included herein.

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (ASC 820 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 157), establishes a framework for measuring fair value in GAAP, clarifies the definition of fair value within that framework, and expands disclosures about the use of fair value measurements. ASC 820 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. ASC 820-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, deferred the effective date of ASC 820, for non-financial assets and liabilities that are not on a recurring basis recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements, to fiscal years, and interim periods, beginning after November 15, 2008. The Company has adopted the guidance within ASC 820 for non-financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis at January 1, 2009 and will continue to apply its provisions prospectively from January 1, 2009. The application of ASC 820 for non-financial assets and liabilities did not have a significant impact on the consolidated earnings nor the consolidated financial position for the periods presented.

FASB ASC 805, Business Combinations, (ASC 805 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 141(R)), requires the acquisition method to be applied to all transactions and other events in which an entity obtains control over one or more other businesses, requires the acquirer to recognize the fair value of all assets and liabilities acquired, even if less than one hundred percent ownership is acquired, and establishes the acquisition date fair value as measurement date for all assets and liabilities assumed. The guidance within ASC 805 is effective prospectively for any acquisitions made after fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008.

FASB ASC 810, Consolidation, (ASC 810), ASC 810-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, (ASC 810-10-65 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 160), establishes accounting and reporting standards for the non-controlling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. It clarifies that a non-controlling interest in a subsidiary is an ownership interest in the consolidated financial statements. ASC 810-10-65 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The application of ASC 810-10-65 did not have a significant impact on consolidated earnings nor the consolidated financial position as the Company does not consolidate its partially owned affiliate.

FASB ASC 825, Financial Instruments, (ASC 825), ASC 825-10-65, Transition and Open Effective Date Information, (ASC 825-10-65 and formerly referred to as FSP FAS No. 107-1 and APB Opinion No. 28-1), requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments for interim reporting periods as well as in annual financial statements. This guidance also requires those disclosures in summarized financial information at interim reporting periods. ASC 825-10-65 is effective prospectively for interim reporting periods ending after June 15, 2009. The application of ASC 825-10-65 expanded the Company's disclosures regarding the use of fair value in interim periods.

FASB ASC 855, Subsequent Events, (ASC 855 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 165), modified the subsequent event guidance. The three modifications to the subsequent events guidance are: 1) To name the two types of subsequent events either as recognized or non-recognized subsequent events, 2) To modify the definition of subsequent events to refer to events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but before the financial statement are issued or available to be issued and 3) To require entities to disclose the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date, i.e. whether that date represents the date the financial statements were issued or were available to be issued. This guidance is effective for interim or annual financial periods ending after June 15, 2009, and should be applied prospectively.

FASB ASC 810, Consolidation, (ASC 810 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 167), eliminates a required quantitative approach to determine whether a variable interest gives an entity a controlling financial interest in a variable interest entity in favor of a qualitatively focused analysis. This guidance is effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of fiscal year 2010. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of ASC 810 will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Table of Contents

FASB ASC 105, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, (ASC 105 and formerly referred to as SFAS No. 168), establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP. Rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. ASC 105 is effective for financial statements issued for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009.

In August 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2009-05 (ASC Update 2009-05), an update to FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. This update provides amendments to reduce potential ambiguity in financial reporting when measuring the fair value of liabilities. Among other provisions, this update provides clarification that in circumstances, in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of the valuation techniques described in ASC Update 2009-05. ASC Update 2009-05 will become effective for the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009. The Company has not determined the impact that this update may have on its consolidated financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2009-13, Topic 605, Revenue Recognition: Multiple Deliverable Revenue Arrangements - A Consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force. This update provides application guidance on whether multiple deliverables exist, how the deliverables should be separated and how the consideration should be allocated to one or more units of accounting. This update establishes a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on vendor-specific objective evidence, if available, third-party evidence if vendor-specific objective evidence is not available, or estimated selling price if neither vendor-specific or third-party evidence is available. The Company will be required to apply this guidance prospectively for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified after January 1, 2011; however, earlier application is permitted. The Company has not determined the impact that this update may have on its consolidated financial statements.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Edgar Filing: ALPHA PRO TECH LTD - Form 10-Q

We subcontract the manufacture of certain products in China and Mexico and have a joint venture in India. Our results of operations could be negatively affected by factors such as changes in foreign currency exchange rates due to stronger economic conditions in those countries.

Changes in interest rates may result in changes in the fair market value of our cash and cash equivalents and interest income. Due to the short duration and conservative nature of the cash equivalent investment portfolio, we do not expect any material loss with respect to our cash equivalents. The book value for cash equivalents is considered to be representative of its fair value.

As of September 30, 2009, we had no debt outstanding.

We do not expect any significant effect on our results of operations from inflationary or interest and currency rate fluctuations. We do not hedge our interest rate or foreign exchange risks.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer (principal executive officer) and Chief Financial Officer (principal financial officer), we evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act)). Disclosure controls and procedures are the controls and other procedures that we designed to ensure that we record, process, summarize and report in a timely manner the information that we must disclose in reports that we file with or submit to the SEC under the Exchange Act.

In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, we recognize that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and we are required to apply our judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

Based on the evaluation, our principal executive and financial officers concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report.

Changes in Internal Controls.

During the quarter to which this report relates, there was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
