BANCO DE CHILE AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Free translation of interim financial statements originally issued in Spanish)

1. Company information:

Banco de Chile is authorized to operate as a commercial bank since September 17, 1996, being, in conformity with the stipulations of article 25 of Law No. 19,396, the legal continuation of Banco de Chile resulting from the merger of the Banco Nacional de Chile, Banco Agrícola and Banco de Valparaiso, which was constituted by public deed dated October 28, 1893, granted before the Notary Public of Santiago, Mr. Eduardo Reyes Lavalle, authorized by Supreme Decree of November 28, 1893.

Banco de Chile (or the Bank) is a Corporation organized under the laws of the Republic of Chile, regulated by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions (SBIF or Superintendency). Since 2001, it is subject to the supervision of the Securities and Exchange Commission of the United States of America (SEC), in consideration of the fact that the Bank is registered on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), through a program of American Depositary Receipt (ADR).

Banco de Chile offers a broad range of banking services to its customers, ranging from individuals to large corporations. The services are managed in the areas of corporations and large companies, medium and small companies and personal and consumer banking. Additionally, the Bank offers international as well as treasury banking services, in addition to those offered by subsidiaries that include securities brokerage, mutual fund and investment management, insurance brokerage, financial advisory services and securitization.

Banco de Chile's legal address is Paseo Ahumada 251, Santiago, Chile and its website is www.bancochile.cl.

The Interim Consolidated Financial Statements of Banco de Chile, for the period ended March 31, 2018 were approved by the Directors on April 26, 2018.

2. Legal regulations, basis of preparation and other information:(a) Legal regulations:

The General Banking Law in its Article No. 15 empowers the Chilean Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions (SBIF) to issue accounting standards of general application for entities it supervises. The Corporations Law, in turn, requires following the generally accepted accounting principles.

Based on the aforementioned laws, banks should use the criteria provided by the Superintendency in accordance with the Compendium of Accounting Standards (Compendium), and any matter not addressed therein, as long as it does not contradict its instructions, should adhere to generally accepted accounting principles in technical standards issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants, that coincide with international accounting standards and international financial reporting standards agreed upon by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). Should there be discrepancies between these generally accepted accounting principles and the accounting criteria issued by the SBIF, the latter shall prevail.

(b) Basis of preparation:

(b.1) These Interim Consolidated Financial Statements are presented according to Chapter C-2 of the Compendium of Accounting Standards, issued by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions (SBIF).

(b.2) The following table details the entities in which the Bank has control and are part of this consolidated financial statements:

2. Legal regulations, basis of preparation and other information, continued:

(c) Use of estimates and judgments:

Preparing the Interim Consolidated Financial Statements requires the Bank's Management to make judgments, estimations and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the valuation of assets, liabilities, income and expenses presented. Actual results could differ from these estimated amounts. These estimates refer to:

1. Useful life of intangible and property and equipment (Notes No.15 and No.16);
2. Income taxes and deferred taxes (Note No. 17);
3. Provisions (Note No. 24);
4. Contingencies and Commitments (Note No. 26);
5. Provision for loan losses (Notes No. 11. No. 12 and No. 32);
6. Fair value of financial assets and liabilities (Note No. 39).

Estimates and relevant assumptions are regularly reviewed by the management of the Bank, according to quantify certain assets, liabilities, gains, loss and commitments. Estimates reviewed are registered in income in the period that the estimate is reviewed.

During the period ended March 31, 2018 there have been no significant changes in the estimates made.

(d) Seasonality or Cyclical Character of the Transactions of the Intermediate Period:

Given the activities to which the Bank and its subsidiaries are engaged, the transactions of the Bank do not have a cyclical or seasonal nature. For this reason, specific breakdowns in these notes to the Interim Consolidated Financial Statements for the three-month period ended March 31, 2018 are not included.

(e) Relative Importance:

In determining the information to be disclosed on the different items of the financial statements or other matters, the relative importance in relation to the financial statements of the period has been taken into account.

(f) Reclassifications:

There have not been significant reclassifications at the end of this period 2018.

3. New Accounting Pronouncements:

3.1 Standards approved and/or modified by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions (SBIF):

3.1.1 Standards and interpretations that have been adopted in these Consolidated Financial Statements.

As of the date of issuance of these Consolidated Financial Statements, the new accounting pronouncements issued by both the International Accounting Standards Board and the Superintendency of Bank and Financial Institutions, which have been adopted by the Bank, are detailed below:

1. Accounting standards issued by IASB.

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments.

On July 24, 2014, the IASB concluded its improvement project on the accounting for financial instruments with the publication of IFRS 9 Financial Instruments.

This standard includes new requirements based on principles for the classification and measurement, introduces a prospective model of expected credit losses on impairment accounting and changes in hedge accounting.

The designation of the classification, determining how financial assets and liabilities are accounted for in the financial statements and, in particular, how they are measured. IFRS 9 introduces a new approach to the classification of financial assets, based on the entity's business model for the management of financial assets and the characteristics of contractual flows.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

In terms of impairment, the standard establishes a single model that will be applied to all financial instruments, thus eliminating a source of complexity associated with previous accounting requirements, which will require a timely recognition of expected credit losses.

IFRS 9 introduces flexibility to the regulatory requirements for hedge accounting, and also new alternatives of strategies to be used; the new amendments represent a substantial overhaul of hedge accounting, which will allow aligning the accounting treatment with the risk management activities, enabling entities to better reflect these activities in their financial statements.

In addition, as a result of these changes, users of the financial statements will be provided with better information on risk management and the effect of hedge accounting in the financial statements.

This standard also establishes that the change in fair value that corresponds to own credit risk will be recorded in Other Comprehensive Income, thus reducing any eventual volatility that could arise from entity's income as a result of its recognition. Earlier application of this improvement is permitted, prior to any other requirement of IFRS 9.

The mandatory date of application is from January 1, 2018. However, for the purposes of these financial statements, this regulation has not yet been approved by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions, an event that is required for its local application.

Banco de Chile as securities issuer of Equity Securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), and in order to comply with the new standards required for the preparation and presentation of the Annual Report 20F to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), during the year 2017 the Bank and its subsidiaries initiated technological developments and other solutions to address the needs generated by the application of the new accounting pronouncement IFRS 9, such as the implementation of models and procedures related to the Expected Credit Loss Model (ECL), the SPPI Test (Only Payment of Principal and Interest) and the evaluation of the Business Model.

As of December 31, 2017 the Bank and subsidiaries have been able to estimate the transitioning impact on ECL for certain portfolios of financial assets and contingent commitments affected by the standard. These portfolios are comprised of wholesale and retail financial assets which represent 71.5% of the whole portfolio of financial assets to be impacted by the ECL model as of December 31, 2017.

With relation to the portfolios mentioned above, the partial estimate of the impact of the transition from IAS 39 to IFRS 9 regarding ECL as of January 1, 2018, is disclosed in Note No. 43 of the Financial Statement included in the Report 20-F of the year 2017.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

In May 2014 was issued IFRS 15, which it has like purpose established the principles that will apply an entity to present useful information to users of financial statements about the nature, amount, opportunity and uncertainty of the income for ordinary activities and cash flows that it is related to a contract with a client.

This new standard replace the following current standard and interpretations: IAS 18 Revenue, IAS 11 Construction contracts, IFRIC 13 Customer Loyalty Programs, IFRIC 15 Agreements for the Construction of Real State, IFRIC 18 Transfers of Assets from Customers and SIC 31 Revenue: Barter Transactions involving.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

The new model will apply to all contracts with customers, except those that are inside to the scope of the others IFRS, such as leases, insurance contracts and financial instruments.

On April 12, 2016, IASB issued amendments to IFRS 15, clarifying requirements and providing a temporary relief to companies that are implementing the new standard. In short the amendments clarify how to:

- Identify a performance obligation (the promise to transfer a good or service to a customer) in a contract;

- Determining whether a company is the principal (the provider of a good or service) or an agent (the organization responsible for the good or service provided); and

- Determine whether the product of a license must be recognized at a point in time or over time.

The date of application of this standard is from January 1, 2018, which did not generate equity effects in the Bank and its subsidiaries.

IAS 28 Investments in associates and joint ventures.

In December 2016, the IASB issued the Annual Improvements to IFRS Cycle 2014-2016, which included the amendment to IAS 28. This amended to clarify that a venture capital organization or a mutual fund, investment trust and similar entities may choose to account for their investments in joint ventures and associates at fair value or using the equity method. The amendment also makes it clear that the method chosen for each investment should be made at the initial time.

This modification had no impact on the Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

IAS 40 Investment Property.

IAS 40 requires that an asset be transferred to (or from), investment property only when there is a change in its use.

The amendment, issued in December 2016, clarifies that a change in management's intentions for the use of a property does not provide, in isolation, evidence of a change in its use. An entity must, therefore, have taken observable actions to support such a change.

This modification had no impact on the Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

IFRIC 22 Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration.

In December 2016, the IASB issued Interpretation IFRIC 22 Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration .

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

This interpretation applies to a foreign currency transaction when an entity recognizes a non-financial asset or non-financial liability arising from the payment or collection of an early consideration before the entity recognizes the related asset, expense or income.

The IFRIC specifies that at the date of the transaction for the purpose of determining the exchange rate to be used in the initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income, it is the date on which the entity initially recognizes the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability that Arising from the payment or collection of the anticipated consideration. That is, the related income, expenses or assets should not be re-evaluated with changes in the exchange rates between the date of the initial recognition of the early consideration and the date of recognition of the transaction to which said consideration relates.

This interpretation had no impact on the Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

3.1.2 New standards and interpretations that have been issued but its date of application have not yet come into force:

The following is a summary of new standards, interpretations and improvements to the International Financial Reporting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board and Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions that are not yet effective as of March 31, 2018, are detailed below:

1. Accounting standards issued by International Accounting Standards Board.

IFRS 16 Leases.

On January 2016 was issued IFRS 16, which has as purpose to establish principles to recognize, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases contracts, for both lessee and lessor.

This new rule does not differ significantly from IAS 17 Leases that precedes it, related to the accounting treatment for the lessor. However, related to the lessee, the new rule requires the recognition of assets and liabilities for most lease contracts.

The date of application of this new standard is from January 1, 2019. Early adoption permitted but only if IFRS 15 - Revenue from contracts with customers is also applied.

This standard will not have a material impact on the Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Join Venture and IFRS 10 - Consolidated Financial Statements.

In September 2014, the IASB issued this amendment, which clarifies the scope of recognized gains and losses in a transaction involving an associate or joint venture, and this depends on whether the asset sold or contribution is a business. Therefore, IASB concluded that all of the profit or loss should be recognized against loss of control of a business. Likewise, gains or losses resulting from the sale or contribution of a subsidiary that is not a business (definition of IFRS 3) to an associate or joint venture should be recognized only to the extent of unrelated interests in the associate or joint venture.

During December 2015 the IASB agreed that the amendments should apply in the future, allowing its immediate application.

This amendment will not impact on the consolidated financial statements of Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

IFRIC 23 Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments.

In June 2017, the IASB published IFRIC 23, which clarifies the application of the recognition and measurement criteria required by IAS 12 Income Taxes when there is uncertainty about tax treatments.

The date of application of this interpretation is from January 1, 2019.

The Bank and its subsidiaries are evaluating the impact of this amendment.

IAS 28 Investments in associates and joint ventures and IFRS 9 Financial instruments.

In October 2017, the IASB published the amendments to IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and IAS 28 Investments in Associated Entities and Joint Ventures.

The amendments to IFRS 9 allow entities to measure financial assets, prepaid with negative compensation at amortized cost or fair value, through other comprehensive income if a specific condition is met, instead of at fair value with effect on results.

Regarding IAS 28, the amendments clarify that entities must account for long-term results in an associate or joint venture, to which the equity method is not applied, using IFRS 9.

The IASB also released an example that illustrates how companies should apply the requirements of IFRS 9 and IAS 28 to long-term interests in an associated entity or joint venture.

The date of application of these amendments is January 1, 2019.

This modification has no impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements of Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

Annual improvements IFRS

In December 2017, the IASB issued the Annual Improvements to IFRS Cycle 2015-2017, which includes amendments to the following regulations:

- IFRS 3 Business Combinations. Interests previously held in a joint operation.

The amendment provides additional guidance for applying the procurement method to particular types of business combinations.

The amendment states that when a party to a joint arrangement obtains control of a business, which is a joint arrangement and had rights over the assets and liabilities for the liabilities related to this joint arrangement, immediately before the acquisition date, the transaction it is a business combination achieved in stages.

Therefore, the acquirer will apply the requirements for a business combination achieved in stages, including re-measuring its previously held interest in the joint operation. By doing so, the acquirer will re-measure its total value that it previously had in the joint operation.

The date of application of these amendments is January 1, 2019. Early adoption is permitted.

The Bank and its subsidiaries have no impact on the consolidated financial statement as a result from this amendment.

- IFRS 11 Joint Agreements.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

The amendments to IFRS 11 relate to the accounting for acquisitions of interests in Joint Agreements.

The amendment establishes that a party that participates, but does not have control, in a joint agreement, can obtain control of the joint agreement. Given the above, the activity of the joint agreement would constitute a Business Combination as defined in IFRS 3, in such cases, the interests previously held in the joint agreement are not remeasured.

The date of application of these amendments is January 1, 2019. Early adoption is permitted.

The Bank and its subsidiaries have no impact on the consolidated financial statement as a result from this amendment.

- IAS 23 Costs for loans. Costs for loans that can be capitalized.

The amendment to the standard is intended to clarify that, when an asset is available for use or sale, an entity will treat any outstanding loan taken specifically to obtain that asset, as part of the funds it has taken as current loans.

The date of application of these amendments is January 1, 2019. Early adoption is permitted.

This modification has no impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements of Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries.

- Conceptual Framework.

On March 29, 2018, the IASB issued a Reviewed Conceptual Framework. Changes to the Conceptual Framework may affect the application of IFRS when no rule applies to a particular transaction or event.

The Conceptual Framework introduces mainly the following improvements:

- It incorporates some new concepts of measurement, presentation and disclosure and derecognition of assets and liabilities in the Financial Statements.

- Provides updated definitions of assets, liabilities and includes criteria for the recognition of assets and liabilities in the financial statements.

- Clarifies some important concepts such as background on form, prudential criteria and measurement of uncertainty.

The Conceptual Framework enters into force for periods beginning on January 1, 2020.

The Bank and its subsidiaries are evaluating the impact of this amendment.

2. Accounting standards issued by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions

- Standards in consultation on Provisions for Credit Risk

On January 11, 2018, the SBIF published for consultation, amendments to the regulations contained in Chapter B-1 Provisions for Credit Risk of the Compendium of Accounting Standards. These modifications are related to the use of standard methods for calculating provisions of the commercial portfolio evaluated as of January 1, 2019. To date, the provisions for this type of portfolio are calculated using internal methods.

Without limiting the foregoing, banks must recognize minimum provisions in accordance with standard methodologies. The use of this minimum basis for provisions, in no case exempt financial institutions from their responsibility to have their own methodologies to determine provisions that are sufficient to protect the credit risk of each of their portfolios, and therefore must have both methods. The constitution of provisions will be made considering the higher value obtained between the respective standard method and the internal method.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Superintendency may allow the establishment of provisions of the commercial group analysis portfolio based on the results of the application of internal models, provided that these have been duly approved within the normal process of reviewing the SBIF.

3. New Accounting Pronouncements, continued:

- Circular No. 3,634

The SBIF through circular No. 3,634 dated March 9, 2018, introduces modifications to the weighted assets by risk, credit equivalent and credit limits applicable to derivative instruments cleared and settled by a Central Counterparty Entity (ECC).

The main modifications are:

- An intermediate category is introduced to classify the credit equivalent of the derivative instruments settled and liquidated in a CCP, when these types of entities are irrevocably constituted in creditors and debtors of the rights and obligations arising from such operations, being legally binding for the parties the obligations resulting from such acts. The risk weight for these assets will be equal to 2%.

- For purposes of determining the credit equivalent, which is defined in chapter 12-1 of the RAN of the SBIF, which corresponds to the fair value of the derivative instrument, plus an additional amount that is obtained by applying an additional factor to the additional conversion amount that depends on the underlying and the additional term of the derivative. The SBIF reclassified from the category Contracts on foreign currencies to the category interest rate contracts to derivative instruments whose underlying is the Development Unit.

- Modifications to Chapter 12-3 are introduced, given that the SBIF considers that operations on derivative instruments negotiated between banks incorporated in Chile, including branches of foreign banks, are subject to the interbank credit limit, even though such transactions are subsequently compensate and settle in a CCP.

The new dispositions must be implemented no later than June 30, 2018.

4. Changes in Accounting policies and Disclosures:

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the interim consolidated financial statements are consistent with those used in the preparation of the Bank's consolidated annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, except for the adoption of new regulations in force at 1 January 2018. The Bank has not adopted in advance any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

The Bank adopted, for the first time, IFRS 15 Revenue from ordinary contracts with customers (See Note No. 3), there being no capital effects resulting from its application, therefore, the information disclosed as of December 31, 2017 it has not been restated in these financial statements.

During the period ended March 31, 2018, there have been no others accounting changes that may significantly affect these interim consolidated financial statements.

6. Business Segments:

For management purposes, the Bank is organized into four segments, which are defined based on the types of products and services offered, and the type of client in which focuses as described below:

Retail: This segment focuses on individuals and small and medium-sized companies (SMEs) with annual sales up to UF 70,000, where the product offering focuses primarily on consumer loans, commercial loans, checking accounts, credit cards, credit lines and mortgage loans.

Wholesale: This segment focused on corporate clients and large companies, whose annual revenue exceed UF 70,000, where the product offering focuses primarily on commercial loans, checking accounts and liquidity management services, debt instruments, foreign trade, derivative contracts and leases.

Treasury: This segment includes the associated revenues to the management of the investment portfolio and the business of financial transactions and currency trading.

Transactions with customers carried out by the Treasury are reflected in the respective aforementioned segments. These products are highly transaction-focused and include foreign exchange transactions, derivatives and financial instruments in general.

Subsidiaries: Corresponds to companies and corporations controlled by the Bank, though its management is related to the segments mentioned previously, the income is obtained individually by the respective subsidiary. The companies that comprise this segment are:

Entity

- Banchile Administradora General de Fondos S.A.
- Banchile Asesoría Financiera S.A.
- Banchile Corredores de Seguros Ltda.
- Banchile Corredores de Bolsa S.A.
- Banchile Securitizadora S.A.
- Socofin S.A.

6. Business Segments, continued:

The financial information used to measure the performance of the Bank's business segments is not comparable with similar information from other financial institutions because each institution relies on its own definitions. The accounting policies applied to the segments is the same as those described in the summary of accounting principles. The Bank obtains the majority of the results for: interest, indexation and commissions, provisions for loan losses and operating expenses. Management is mainly based on these concepts to evaluate the performance of the segments and make decisions about the goals and allocations of resources of each unit. Although the results of the segments reconcile with those of the Bank at the total level, this is not necessarily the case in terms of the different concepts, given that management is measured and controlled individually and not on a consolidated basis, applying the following criteria:

- The net interest margin of loans and deposits is obtained aggregating the net financial margins of each individual operation of credit and uptake made by the bank. For these purposes, the volume of each operation and its contribution margin are considered, which in turn corresponds to the difference between the effective rate of the customer and the internal transfer price established according to the term and currency of each operation.
- The capital and its financial impacts on outcome have been assigned to each segment based on the risk-weighted assets.
- Operational expenses are reflected at the level of the different functional areas of the Bank. The allocation of expenses from functional areas to business segments is done using different allocation criteria, at the level of the different concepts and expense items.

Taxes are managed at a corporate level and are not allocated to business segments.

For the periods ended March 31, 2018 and 2017, there was no income from transactions with a customer or counterparty that accounted for 10% or more of the Bank's total revenues.

10. Derivative Instruments and Accounting Hedges, continued:(b) Fair value Hedges:

The Bank uses cross-currency swaps and interest rate swaps to hedge its exposure to changes in the fair value of the hedged elements attributable to interest rates in financial instruments. The aforementioned hedge instruments change the effective cost of long-term issuances from a fixed interest rate to a floating rate, decreasing the duration and modifying the sensitivity to the shortest segments of the curve.

Below is a detail of the hedged elements and instruments under fair value hedges as of March 31 2018 and December 31, 2017:

	March 2018 MCh$	December 2017 MCh$

Corporate bonds	116,975	78,970
Hedge instrument
Cross currency swap	14,002	13,914
Interest rate swap	116,975	78,970

(c) Cash flow Hedges:

(c.1) The Bank uses cross currency swaps to hedge the risk from variability of cash flows attributable to changes in the interest rates and foreign exchange of foreign banks obligations and bonds issued abroad in US Dollars, Hong Kong dollars, Swiss Franc, Japanese Yens and Euros. The cash flows of the cross currency swaps equal the cash flows of the hedged items, which modify uncertain cash flows to known cash flows derived from a fixed interest rate.

Additionally, these cross currency swap contracts used to hedge the risk from variability of the Unidad de Fomento (CLF) in assets flows denominated in CLF until a nominal amount equal to the portion notional of the hedging instrument CLF, whose readjustment daily impact the item Interest Revenue of the Income Financial Statements.

Effective rate and income tax expense	16.53	28,233	16.88	28,409

(*) The tax expense related to the subordinated debt held by SAOS, will end in the year in which sufficient resources are generated to pay off the total debt.

The effective rate for income tax for 2018 is 16.53% (16.88% in March 2017).

On September 29, 2014, Law 20,780 was published in the Diario Oficial of Chile (equivalent to the Federal Register), amended the System of Income Taxation and introduces various adjustments in the tax system.

In the same line, on February 8, 2016 Law 20,899 was published, which establishes that open corporations must apply the tax regime of first category with partial deduction of the credit in the final taxes, a regime characterized by the fact that shareholders will only be entitled to allocate against personal taxes (Global Supplementary or Additional), 65% of the first category tax paid by the company.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

For this tax regime, the law establishes a gradual increase of first category tax rates according to the following periodicity:

Year	Rate
2014	21.0%
2015	22.5%
2016	24.0%
2017	25.5%
2018	27.0%

Additionally, according to No. 11 of Article 1 of Law 20,780, as from January 1, 2017, the rate of sole tax has been increased to rejected expenses of article 21 from 35% to 40%.

(e) Earnings per share:

(i) Basic earnings per share:

Basic earnings per share are determined by dividing the net income attributable to the Bank ordinary equity holders in a period between the weighted average number of shares outstanding during that period, excluding the average number of own shares held throughout the period.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share:

In order to calculate the diluted earnings per share, both the amount of income attributable to common shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding, net of own shares, must be adjusted for all the inherent dilutive effects to the potential common shares (stock options, warrants and convertible debt).

Accordingly, the basic and diluted earnings per share as of March 31, 2018 and 2017 were determined as follows:

	March 2018	March 2017
Basic earnings per share:
Net profits attributable to ordinary equity holders of the bank (in million Chilean pesos)	142,651	139,993
Weighted average number of ordinary shares (*)	99,444,132,192	99,444,132,192

38. Related Party Transactions:

Related parties are considered to be those natural or legal persons who are in positions to directly or indirectly have significant influence through their ownership or management of the Bank and its subsidiaries, as set out in the Compendium of Accounting Standards and Chapter 12-4 of the current Compilation of Standards issued by the Chilean Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions (SBIF).

According to the above, the Bank has considered as related parties those natural or legal persons who have a direct participation or through third parties on bank ownership, where such participation exceeds 5% of the shares, and also people who, regardless of ownership, have authority and responsibility for planning, management and control of the activities of the entity or its subsidiaries. There also are considered as related the companies in which the parties related by ownership or management of the bank have a share which reaches or exceeds 5%, or has the position of director, general manager or equivalent.

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities:

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries have defined a corporate framework for valuation and control related with the process to the fair value measurement.

Within the established framework includes the Product Control Unit, which is independent of the business areas and reports to the Financial Management and Control Division Manager. The Financial Risk Management Area is responsible for independent verification of the results of trading and investment operations and all fair value measurements.

To achieve the appropriate measurements and controls, the Bank and its subsidiaries, take into account at least the following aspects:

(i) Industry standard valuation.

To value financial instruments, Banco de Chile uses industry standard modeling; quota value, share price, discounted cash flows and valuation of options through Black-Scholes-Merton, in the case of options. The input parameters for the valuation correspond to rates, prices and levels of volatility for different terms and market factors that are traded in the national and international market.

(ii) Quoted prices in active markets.

The fair value for instruments with quoted prices in active markets is determined using daily quotes from electronic systems information (such as Bolsa de Comercio de Santiago, Bloomberg, LVA and Risk America, etc). This quote represents the price at which these instruments are regularly traded in the financial markets.

(iii) Valuation techniques.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

If no quotes are available for the instrument to be valued, valuation techniques will be used to determine the fair value.

Due to, in general, the valuation models require a set of market parameters as inputs, the aim is to maximize information based on observable or price-related quotations for similar instruments in active markets. To the extent there is no information in active markets, data from external suppliers of market information, prices of similar transactions and historical information are used to validate the valuation parameters.

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities, continued:

(iv) Fair value adjustments.

Part of the fair value process considers two adjustments to the market value of each instrument calculated based on the market parameters; a liquidity adjustment and a Bid/Offer adjustment. The latter represents the impact on the valuation of an instrument depending on whether corresponds to a long or purchased position or if the position corresponds to a short or sold position. To calculate this adjustment is used the active market prices or indicative prices depending on the instrument, considering the Bid, Mid and Offer, respectively.

On the other hand, the liquidity adjustment calculation considers the size of the position in each factor, the particular liquidity of each factor, the relative size of Banco de Chile in relation to the market and the liquidity observed in recent operations in the market.

(v) Fair value control.

A process of independent verification of prices and rates is executed daily, in order to control that the market parameters used by Banco de Chile in the valuation of the financial instruments relating to the current state of the market and the best estimate of the fair value. The objective of this process is to control that the official market parameters provided by the respective business area, before being entered into the valuation, are within acceptable ranges of differences when compared to the same set of parameters prepared independently by the Financial Risk Control and Management Area. As a result, value differences are obtained at the level of currency, product and portfolio, which are compared against specific ranges for each grouping level.

In the event significant differences exist, these differences are scaled according to the amount of individual materiality of each market factor and aggregated at the portfolio level, according to the grouping levels within previously defined ranges. These ranges are approved by the Finance, International and Financial Risk Committee.

Complementary and in parallel, the Financial Risk Control and Management Area generates and reports on a daily basis Profit and Loss (P&L) and Exposure to Market Risks, which allow for proper control and consistency of the parameters used in the valuation.

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities, continued:

(vi) Judgmental analysis and information to Management.

In particular cases, where there are no market quotations for the instrument to be valued and there are no prices for similar transactions or indicative parameters, a specific control and a reasoned analysis must be carried out in order to estimate the fair value of the operation. Within the valuation framework described in the Reasonable Value Policy approved by the Board of Directors of Banco de Chile, a required level of approval is set in order to carry out transactions where market information is not available or it is not possible to infer prices or rates from it.

(a) Hierarchy of instrument valued at Fair value:

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries, classify all the financial instruments among the following levels:

Level 1: These are financial instruments whose fair value is realized at quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. For these instruments there are observable market prices (return internal rates, quote value, price), so that assumptions are not required to determine the value.

In this level, the following instruments are considered: currency futures, Chilean Central Bank and Treasury securities, mutual fund investments and equity shares.

For the instruments of the Central Bank of Chile and the General Treasury of the Republic, all those mnemonics belonging to a Benchmark, in other words corresponding to one of the following categories published by the Santiago Stock Exchange, will be considered as Level 1: Pesos-02, Pesos-03, Pesos-04, Pesos-05, Pesos-07, Pesos-10, UF-02, UF-04, UF-05, UF-07, UF-10, UF-20, UF-30. A Benchmark corresponds to a group of mnemonics that are similar in duration and are traded in an equivalent way, i.e., the price obtained is the same for all the instruments that make up a Benchmark. This feature defines a greater depth of market, with daily quotations that allow classifying these instruments as Level 1.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

In the case of debt issued by the Government, the internal rate of return of the market is used to discount all flows to present value. In the case of mutual funds and equity shares, the current market price multiplied by the number of instruments results in the fair value.

The preceding described valuation methodology is equivalent to the one used by the Bolsa de Comercio de Santiago (Santiago Stock Exchange) and correspond to the standard methodology used in the market.

(Free translation of interim financial statements originally issued in Spanish)

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities, continued:

Level 2: There are financial instruments whose fair value is obtained with variables other than the prices quoted in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices). These categories include:

- a) Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets.
- b) Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.
- c) Inputs data other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
- d) Inputs data corroborated by the market.

At this level there are mainly derivatives instruments, debt issued by banks, debt issues of Chilean and foreign companies, issued in Chile or abroad, mortgage claims, financial brokerage instruments and some issuances by the Central Bank of Chile and the General Treasury of the Republic.

To value derivatives, depends on whether they are impacted by volatility as a relevant market factor in standard valuation methodologies; for options the Black-Scholes-Merton formula is used; for the rest of the derivatives, forwards and swaps, net present value through discounted cash flows is used.

For the remaining instruments at this level, as for debt issues of level 1, the valuation is done through cash flows model by using an internal rate of return that can be derived or estimated from similar securities as mentioned above.

Edgar Filing: BANK OF CHILE - Form 6-K

In the event that there is no observable price for an instrument in a specific term, the price will be inferred from the interpolation between periods that have observable quoted price in active markets. These models incorporate various market variables, including the credit quality of counterparties, exchange rates and interest rate curves.

Level 3: These are financial instruments whose fair value is determined using non-observable inputs data. An adjustment to an input that is significant to the entire measurement can result in a fair value measurement classified within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, if the adjustment uses significant non-observable data entry.

The instruments likely to be classified as level 3 are mainly Corporate Debt by Chilean and foreign companies, issued both in Chile and abroad.

Valuation Techniques and Inputs:

With the purpose to determine the sensitivity of the financial investments to changes in significant market factors, the Bank has made alternative calculations at fair value, changing those key parameters for the valuation and which are not directly observable in screens. In the case of the financial assets listed in the table above, which correspond to Bank Bonds and Corporate Bonds, it was considered that, since there are no current observables prices, the input prices will be based on brokers quotes. The prices are usually calculated as a base rate plus a spread. For Local Bonds it was determined to apply a 10% impact on the price, while for the Off Shore Bonds it was determined to apply a 10% impact only on the spread, since the base rate is covered by interest rate swaps instruments in the so-called accounting hedges. The 10% impact is considered a reasonable move taking into account the market performance of these instruments and comparing it against the bid / offer adjustment that is provisioned by these instruments.

(Free translation of interim financial statements originally issued in Spanish)

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities, continued:

(f) Levels of other assets and liabilities, continued:

The Bank determines the fair value of these assets and liabilities according to the following:

- Short-term assets and liabilities: For assets and liabilities with short-term maturity, it is assumed that the book values approximate to their fair value. This assumption is applied to the following assets and liabilities:

Assets	-	Liabilities	-
Cash and deposits in banks	-	Current accounts and other demand deposits
Transactions in the course of collection	-	Transactions in the course of payments
Repurchase agreements and security lending	-	Repurchase agreements and security lending
Loans and advance to banks	-	Other financial obligations

- Loans to Customers: Fair value is determined by using the discounted cash flow model and internally generated discount rates, based on internal transfer rates derived from our internal transfer price policy. Once the present value is determined, we deduct the related loan loss allowances in order to incorporate the credit risk associated with each contract or loan. As we use internally generated parameters for valuation purposes, we categorize these instruments in Level 3.

- Letters of Credit and Bonds: In order to determine the present value of contractual cash flows, we apply the discounted cash flow model by using market interest rates that are available in the market, either for the instruments under valuation or instruments with similar features that fit valuation needs in terms of currency, maturities and liquidity. The market interest rates are obtained from third party price providers widely used by the market. As a result of the valuation technique and the quality of inputs (observable) used for valuation, we categorize these financial liabilities in Level 2.

- Saving Accounts, Time Deposits, Borrowings from Financial Institutions and Subordinated Bonds: The discounted cash flow model is used to obtain the present value of committed cash flows by applying a bucket approach and average adjusted discount rates that derived from both market rates for instruments with similar features and our internal transfer price policy. As we use internally generated parameters and/or apply significant judgmental analysis for valuation purposes, we categorize these financial liabilities in Level 3.

39. Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities, continued:

(g) Offsetting of financial assets and liabilities:

The Bank trades financial derivatives with foreign counterparties using ISDA Master Agreement (International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.), under legal jurisdiction of the City of New York USA or London United Kingdom. Legal framework in these jurisdictions, along with documentation mentioned, it allows Banco de Chile the right to anticipate the maturity of the transaction and then, offset the net value of those transactions in case of default of counterparty. Additionally, the Bank has negotiated with these counterparties an additional annex (CSA Credit Support Annex), that includes other credit mitigating, such as entering margins on a certain amount of net value of transactions, early termination (optional or mandatory) of transactions at certain dates in the future, coupon adjustment of transaction in exchange for payment of the debtor counterpart over a certain threshold amount, etc.
