effected pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 22, 2005, by and among Monsanto, Merger Sub, and Seminis (the "Merger Agreement"). Seminis continues as the surviving corporation of the Merger and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Monsanto.

Prior to the consummation of the Merger, Seminis was a privately held corporation based in Oxnard, California. Seminis is a producer of commercial fruit and vegetable seeds.

The aggregate consideration paid by Monsanto in connection with the Merger consisted of approximately $1.4 billion in cash and assumed debt, subject to Marinet Investments, LLC's ("Marinet") contingent value right described below.

Prior to closing, on March 11, 2005, Marinet, a holder of co-investment rights in Seminis which were terminated upon the consummation of the Merger, elected pursuant to the Merger Agreement to reduce the merger consideration it would otherwise have been entitled to receive by $50 million in exchange for a performance based contingent value right to receive up to $125 million based on the achievement of certain net sales targets over the thirty-six month period ending September 30, 2007.

Upon the consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Seminis ("Seminis Common Stock") was converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $10.52. Such shares of Seminis Common Stock were held by affiliates of Fox Paine & Company, LLC, which collectively held 74.6% of the outstanding shares of Seminis Common Stock, various employees of Seminis and other stockholders.

The foregoing description of the Merger does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which was previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Monsanto as Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K on January 27, 2005 and is incorporated in this Item 2.01 by reference.

On March 23, 2005, Monsanto issued a press release announcing the completion of the Merger. The press release is attached herewith as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated in this Item 2.01 by reference.
