PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT INFORMATION

NOMINEES

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of nine members. Nine directors are to be elected at the annual meeting to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Directors has nominated all nine of the current directors for re-election at the 2007 annual meeting, based on the recommendation of the Company's independent directors.

The accompanying proxy will be voted in favor of the following persons to serve as directors unless the shareholder indicates to the contrary on the proxy. The election of the Company's directors requires a plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the meeting. Management expects that each of the nominees will be available for election, but if any of them is unable to serve at the time the election occurs, the proxy will be voted for the election of another nominee to be designated by the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise indicated, the directors listed below have had no change in principal occupation or employment during the past five years.

Albert J. Finch, 69, has served as the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since its incorporation in March 2004, and of OptimumBank, the wholly owned bank subsidiary of the Company, since it opened for business in October 2000.

Executive Officers Who Are Not Directors

The following information is provided for the one executive officer who is not a director of the Company:

Thomas A. Procelli, 52, joined OptimumBank as its Executive Vice President in October 2000.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD AND ITS COMMITTEES

Directors Independence

The Board has affirmatively determined that the following six members of the Board are independent as defined in The NASDAQ Stock Market listing standards: Michael Bedzow, Sam Borek, Irving P. Cohen, Gordon Deckelbaum, H. David Krinsky and Larry Willis. Albert J. Finch and Richard L. Browdy, who are employees of the Company, and Wendy Mitchler, who serves as general counsel for the Company, are not considered independent.

The Board of Directors Meetings and Committees

OptimumBank Holding's Board of Directors met 11 times during 2006. The Board of OptimumBank, which during 2006 included all the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, met a total of 11 times. The independent directors met in separate session without management twice during 2006. Each of the current members of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and committees on which he or she served. The Company's Board of Directors has established several standing committees, including the Audit and Compensation Committees.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee consists of Sam Borek, Chairman, Larry Willis, and Gordon Deckelbaum all of whom are independent under the NASDAQ Market listing standards. The Compensation Committee met one time during 2006. The Compensation Committee annually reviews and recommends to the Board of Directors the compensation arrangements for executive management, other employees, and non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee has no charter. Messrs. Browdy and Finch recommend to the committee the proposed compensation for all employees other than themselves, including Thomas Procelli, an executive officer. The Compensation Committee does not delegate its authority to any other persons, and no executive officer has a role in determining or recommending the amount or form of his own or outside director compensation. The Compensation Committee does not use compensation consultants to determine or recommend the amount or form of compensation arrangements, but does utilize the Florida Bankers Association annual survey and Company performance as a basis for its determinations and recommendations.

Nominating Committee. The Company has no formal nominating committee or nominating committee charter but rather all the members of the Board and, specifically, a majority of the six, independent members of the full Board, perform the functions of a nominating committee. The independent directors are responsible for recommending for the Board's selection the slate of director nominees for election. The Board, including the independent directors, evaluates new candidates and current directors, and recommends candidates to fill vacancies occurring between annual shareholder meetings. All of the director nominees of the Company set forth in the Proposal entitled "Election of Directors and Management Information" were recommended to the Board by a majority of the independent directors of the Company. The Board in its capacity as the nominating committee held one meeting during 2006. The Board of Directors believes it is appropriate for the Company to nominate its director nominees through a majority of the independent directors of the full Board and not through a separate nominating committee due to its belief that all directors should participate fully in the nomination process.

The Board initially looks to nominating its existing directors for re-election to the Board as appropriate or to other Director nominees proposed, as appropriate, by individual directors, and in doing so considers each director's independence, if required, share ownership, skills, performance and attendance at a minimum of 75% of the Board and respective committee meetings. In evaluating any candidates for potential director nomination, the Board of Directors, and specifically a majority of the independent, non-employee directors will consider candidates that are independent, if required, who have a significant equity investment in the Company, who possess personal and professional integrity, have good business judgment, relevant experience and skills, including financial, real estate and/or legal expertise, who would be effective as a Director in conjunction with the full Board and whose interests are aligned with the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders.

The Board, including its independent directors, will also consider director candidates recommended by shareholders, provided the recommendation is in writing and delivered to the President of the Company at the principal executive offices of the Company not later than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date on which the Company first mailed its proxy materials to shareholders for the preceding year's annual meeting of shareholders. The nomination and notification must contain the nominee's name, address, principal occupation, total number of shares owned, consent to serve as a director, and all information relating to the nominee and the nominating shareholder as would be required to be disclosed in solicitation of proxies for the election of such nominee as a director pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) proxy rules. Stockholders should be aware that it is the general policy of the Company to re-nominate qualified incumbent directors, and that, absent special circumstances, the Board will not consider other candidates when a qualified incumbent consents to stand for re-election.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for the oversight of the Company's financial and accounting reporting processes and the audits of the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee is currently composed of three non-employee directors and operates under a written charter adopted and approved by the Board of Directors. Irving P. Cohen, Chairman, Gordon Deckelbaum, and Sam Borek make up the Board's Audit Committee.

The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and independent in accordance with NASDAQ Market listing standards and that Irving P. Cohen is an audit committee financial expert as defined by SEC rules. The Audit Committee met 7 times during 2006. A Report from the Audit Committee is included on page 5.

Directors Compensation

Messrs. Finch and Browdy, as salaried employees, receive no compensation for serving as directors, except that they, like all directors, are eligible to receive reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in attending Board and committee meetings. During fiscal year 2006, each director, other than Messrs. Finch and Browdy, received compensation for serving on the Board of Directors and committees of the Board as follows:

A fee of $200 for each Company and Bank Board meeting attended payable in common stock issued under the Non-Employee Directors Fee Compensation and Stock Purchase Plan. Since the Boards of the Company and the Bank meet on the same day, only one meeting fee was paid for attendance at both meetings.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial and accounting reporting processes and the audits of the Company's financial statements. The Committee's function is more fully described in its charter. The Board annually reviews the NASDAQ listing standards' definition of independence for audit committee members and has determined that each member of the Committee meets that standard.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls, and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws, and regulations. The Company's independent auditor, Hacker, Johnson & Smith, PA, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 with the Company's management and has discussed with Hacker, Johnson & Smith, PA, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards Board Standard No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees, and SEC Regulation S-X, Rule 2-07. In addition, Hacker, Johnson & Smith, PA, has provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures and the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Audit Committee has discussed with Hacker, Johnson & Smith, PA, their independence.

Based on these reviews and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and selected Hacker, Johnson & Smith, PA, as the Company's independent auditor for 2007.

Loans to individual directors and executive officers must also comply with the Company's lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of such loan application.
