Convertible Promissory Note

On January 9, 2009, CrowdGather, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the “Registrant”), entered into a convertible promissory note with one of the Registrant’s shareholders in exchange for $90,000 (“Convertible Note”). The Convertible Note is due in 6 months, or upon default, whichever is earlier, and bears interest at the annual rate of 10%. The Convertible Note has an optional conversion feature by which the holder can convert the principal and accrued interest to shares of the Registrant’s common stock at a conversion price of the lower of (i) $1.25 per share (ii) the price per share of the Company’s next transaction or series of related transactions in which the Company sells equity securities and in which the gross proceeds to the Company equal or exceed $2,000,000. The Convertible Note was issued in a transaction which the Registrant believes satisfies the requirements of that exemption from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, which exemption is specified by the provisions of Section 5 of that act and Regulation S promulgated pursuant to that act by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A copy of the form of Convertible Note is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 This brief description of the Convertible Note is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Convertible Note is attached.
