Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definite Agreement

On May 27, 2005, Public Company Management Corporation (the "Registrant") announced via press release that its subsidiary, GoPublicToday.com ("GPT"), reached an agreement to provide services to Systems Annex, LLC ("SAN") related to becoming a publicly traded company on the over-the-counter Bulletin Board ("OTCBB"). GPT will assist SAN with a proposed private placement and registration for resale of securities issued by SAN, and will consult with SAN on maintaining compliance with the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The press release announcing this event is filed herewith as exhibit 99.

The Registrant's subsidiary, GPT, signed the consulting contract with SAN on May 23, 2005. In exchange for securities registration services, GPT and will receive cash and securities issued by SAN as compensation.

SAN is a technology company with two divisions: Information Services and Automation Services. The Information Services Division provides organizations with technical services including technical writing, computer/software installations, consulting, training and quality assurance. Through its Information Services Division, SAN provides help desk support services to hotels and motel chains across the country, as well as regional computer services and technical support.

SAN's Automation Services Division offers products and services that give people the ability to automate, integrate and operate technological devices for homes and offices. SA designs and installs automated networks for homes and offices that include low-voltage wiring; home theater screens and projectors; central vacuum systems; distributed audio/video systems; home networking; and remote control systems for lighting, HVAC and draperies.

In addition to assisting SAN towards becoming a public company, GPT will also provide compliance services to help the company maintain its regulatory responsibilities as a public company. These services will be provided through Registrant's subsidiary, Public Company Management Services.
