narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates that its net loss for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 will be approximately $1,194,000, compared to a net loss of $7,622,000 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. This decrease in loss is attributable to significant decreases in expenses during 2004. Specifically, the Registrant anticipates that selling, general and administrative expenses for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2004 will have decreased to approximately $948,000, compared to $2,339,000 for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2003. The Registrant further anticipates that interest expense for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2004 will have decreased to approximately $251,000, compared to $345,000 for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2003.

The decrease in expenses in the Registrant's Statements of Operations is primarily attributable to the fact that in 2003 the Company had extraordinarily high consulting and legal expenses, primarily attributable to NASDAQ compliance issues (ii) a major shift in the Company's core business, and (iii) numerous stock issuances to consultants, whereas in 2004 the Company operated as a shell corporation with operations consisting of seeking funding, maintaining the corporate entity, complying with the requirements of the SEC, and seeking merger and acquisition candidates or new business opportunities.
