PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

Proxy Solicitation

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held at The Warwick New York Hotel, 65 West 54th Street, New York, New York 10019 on Wednesday, June 14, 2006 at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournment and postponement thereof. Our Board of Directors is requesting that you allow your shares to be represented and voted at the Annual Meeting by the proxies named on the enclosed card. This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card were first sent to stockholders on or about April 26, 2006. Our Board of Directors is requesting that you allow your shares to be represented and voted at the Annual Meeting by the proxies named on the enclosed card.

The mailing address of our principal executive offices is 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019. We maintain an internet website at www.nymtrust.com. Information at or connected to our website is not and should not be considered part of this proxy statement.

The Company will bear the costs of this solicitation including the costs of preparing, assembling and mailing proxy materials and the handling and tabulation of proxies received. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited by our directors, officers and employees, at no additional compensation, by telephone, personal interviews or otherwise. Banks, brokers or other nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward the proxy materials to beneficial owners and to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. We will, upon request, reimburse such parties for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.

No person is authorized to give any information or to make any representation not contained in this proxy statement and, if given or made, you should not rely on that information or representation as having been authorized by us. The delivery of this proxy statement shall not, under any circumstances, imply that there has been no change in the information set forth since the date of this proxy statement.

Purposes of the Annual Meeting

The principal purposes of the Annual Meeting are to: (1) elect eight members to the Board of Directors; (2) ratify and approve the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006; and (3) transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. Our Board of Directors knows of no other matters other than those stated above to be brought before the Annual Meeting.

VOTING

How to Vote Your Shares

You may vote your shares at our Annual Meeting in person. If you cannot attend our Annual Meeting in person, or you wish to have your shares voted by proxy even if you do attend our Annual Meeting, you may vote by duly authorized proxy. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may instruct the proxies to vote your shares by completing, signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided. Properly signed and returned proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If the proxy card is signed, dated and returned, but voting directions are not made, the proxy will be voted for each of the director nominees, for ratification and approval of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006 and in such manner as the proxy holders named on the enclosed proxy card, in their discretion, determine upon such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. To vote in person, you must attend our Annual Meeting and obtain and submit a ballot, which will be provided at the meeting.

How to Revoke Your Proxy

If you have already returned your proxy to us, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised at our Annual Meeting by any of the following actions:

by notifying our Secretary in writing that you would like to revoke your proxy;

by completing a proxy card with a later date and by returning it to us at or before our Annual Meeting; or by attending our Annual Meeting and voting in person. (Note, however, that your attendance at our Annual Meeting, by itself, will not revoke a proxy you have already returned to us; you must also vote your shares in person at our Annual Meeting to revoke an earlier proxy.)

If your shares of common stock are held on your behalf by a broker, bank or other nominee, you must contact them to receive instructions as to how you may revoke your proxy instructions.

Record Date for Our Annual Meeting; Who Can Vote at Our Annual Meeting; Voting Procedures and Vote Required

Our Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on April 21, 2006 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and all adjournments or postponements thereof. As of the close of business on April 21, 2006, the Company had outstanding 18,191,996 shares of common stock. On all matters to come before the Annual Meeting, each holder of common stock will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and will be entitled to one vote for each share owned.

The representation in person or by proxy of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matters to be considered at the meeting is necessary to provide a quorum for voting at the Annual Meeting. If you have returned valid proxy instructions or if you hold your common stock in your own name as a holder of record and attend the Annual Meeting in person, your shares will be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum. If a quorum is not present, the Annual Meeting may be adjourned by the vote of a majority of the shares represented at the Annual Meeting until a quorum has been obtained.

The vote of a plurality of all the votes cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present is necessary for the election of a director. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present is necessary for ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

For purposes of the election of directors and ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm, abstentions will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Under applicable New York Stock Exchange rules (the exchange on which our common stock is traded), brokers, banks or other nominees (collectively referred to as "brokers") holding shares of our common stock for beneficial owners in nominee or street name must vote those shares according to the specific instructions they receive from the beneficial owners. However, brokers or nominees holding shares for a beneficial owner may not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner and under the NYSE's rules may not have discretionary voting power on non-routine matters. In these cases, if no specific voting instructions are provided by the beneficial owner, the broker may not vote on non-routine proposals. This results in what is known as a broker non-vote. Since the election of directors and the proposal to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm are routine matters for which specific instructions from beneficial owners are not required under the NYSE's rules, no broker non-votes will arise in the context of voting for the eight director nominees or the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2006.

If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker for our common stock held in nominee or street name, your brokerage firm may either (1) vote your shares on routine matters, including this year's election of directors and the proposal to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm or (2) leave your shares unvoted. As discussed above, if you do not provide specific voting instructions to your broker and your broker returns the signed proxy card, but leaves your shares unvoted, the named proxy holders will vote your shares in their discretion. To be certain that your shares are voted at our Annual Meeting, we encourage you to provide instructions to your brokerage firm or return your proxy.

The eight persons named below are nominated to serve on the Board of Directors until the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until such time as their respective successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that the persons named below as nominees for directors will be unable, or will decline to serve, if elected.

INFORMATION ON OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

Independence of Our Board of Directors

Our Bylaws and Corporate Governance Guidelines and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange require that a majority of our directors be independent. Our Board of Directors has adopted the categorical standards prescribed by the NYSE to assist the Board in evaluating the independence of each of the directors. The categorical standards describe various types of relationships that could potentially exist between a board member and our company and sets thresholds at which such relationships would be deemed to be material. Provided that no relationship or transaction exists that would disqualify a director under the categorical standards and the Board determines, taking into account all facts and circumstances, that no other material relationship between our company and the director exists of a type not specifically mentioned in the categorical standards, including certain business relationships for which disclosure is required in this proxy statement, the Board of Directors will deem such person to be independent. A director shall not be independent if he or she satisfies any one or more of the following criteria:

- director who is, or who has been within the last three years, an employee of our company, or whose immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, an executive officer, of the Company;

- director who has received or who has an immediate family member, serving as an executive officer, who has received, during any twelve-month period within the last three years, more than $100,000 in direct compensation from our company (excluding director and committee fees and pension/other forms of deferred compensation for prior service that is not contingent in any way on continued service);

- (i) a director who is or whose immediate family member is a current partner of a firm that is our company's internal or external auditor; (ii) a director who is a current employee of such a firm; (iii) a director who has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and who participates in the firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (but not tax planning) practice; or (iv) a director who was or whose immediate family member was within the last three years (but is no longer) a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on our company's audit within that time;

- director who is or has been within the last three years, or whose immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of our company's present executives at the same time serves or served on that company's compensation committee; or

- director who is a current employee, or whose immediate family member is a current executive officer, of a company that has made payments to, or received payments from, our company for property or services in an amount which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues (as reported for the last completed fiscal year).

Under these criteria, our Board of Directors has determined that the following members of our Board are independent: David R. Bock, Alan L. Hainey, Steven G. Norcutt, Mary Dwyer Pembroke, Jerome F. Sherman and Thomas W. White. We presently have eight directors, including these six independent directors.

Our Board of Directors has established standing committees to assist it in the discharge of its responsibilities. The principal responsibilities of each committee are described below. Actions taken by any committee of our Board of Directors are reported to the Board of Directors, usually at the meeting following such action.

Executive Sessions of Our Non-Management Directors

The non-management directors of our Board of Directors will occasionally meet in executive sessions that exclude members of the management team. There were twelve (12) executive sessions held during the year ended December 31, 2005. Our Board of Directors has determined that a Discussion Leader should chair all meetings of non-management directors. During these meetings, the Discussion Leader has the power to lead the meeting, set the agenda and determine the information to be provided. The Discussion Leader position rotates among the chairs of each of the independent Board Committees in the following order: Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee, Compensation Committee and Audit Committee. Stockholders and other interested persons may contact the Discussion Leader in writing by mail c/o New York Mortgage Trust, Inc., 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Michael I. Wirth, Secretary. All such letters will be forwarded to the Discussion Leader for the next meeting of our non-executive management directors.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of Messrs. Sherman (Chairman), Bock and Norcutt. Our Board of Directors has determined that each of the Audit Committee members is independent, as that term is defined under the enhanced independence requirements for Audit Committee members set forth in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the listing standards of the NYSE and our Bylaws and Corporate Governance Guidelines, and that each of the members of the Audit Committee is financially literate, as that term is interpreted by our Board of Directors. In addition, our Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Bock and Sherman is an audit committee financial expert as that term is defined in the SEC rules. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors. The primary duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee include, among other things:

- serving as an independent and objective body to monitor and assess our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, our financial reporting process and related internal control systems and the performance generally of our internal audit function;
- overseeing the audit and other services of our independent registered public accounting firm and being directly responsible for the appointment, independence, qualifications, compensation and oversight of our independent registered public accounting firm, who will report directly to the audit committee;
- providing an open means of communication among our independent registered public accounting firm, accountants, financial and senior management, our internal audit and our corporate compliance areas and our Board of Directors;
- resolving any disagreements between our management and our independent registered public accounting firm regarding our financial reporting;
- meeting at least quarterly with our senior executives, internal audit staff and independent registered public accounting firm; and
- preparing the audit committee report for inclusion in our annual proxy statements for our annual stockholder meeting.

The Audit Committee met seven (7) times during the year ended December 31, 2005, and each of the members attended 75% or more of the meetings.

For more information, please see Audit Committee Report beginning on page 23.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of Messrs. White (Chairman), Bock, Hainey, Norcutt and Sherman and Ms. Pembroke. Our Board of Directors has determined that each of the Compensation Committee members is independent in accordance with the Company's independence criteria discussed above under Independence of Our Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors. In addition, the Compensation Committee administers our incentive compensation plans and equity-based compensation plans and programs, including our 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2005 Plan"). The Committee's basic responsibility is to assure that our Co-Chief Executive Officers, other officers and key management are compensated fairly and effectively in a manner consistent with our company's stated compensation strategy, competitive practice, applicable regulatory requirements and performance results.

The Compensation Committee met four (4) times during the year ended December 31, 2005, and each of the members attended all meetings.

For more information, please see Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation beginning on page 19.

Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of Ms. Pembroke (Chairwoman) and Messrs. Hainey, Norcutt, Sherman and White. Our Board of Directors has determined that each of the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee members is independent in accordance with the Company's independence criteria discussed above under Independence of Our Board of Directors. The Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors. Among other duties, this committee:

identifies, selects, evaluates and recommends to our Board of Directors candidates for service on our Board; and oversees the evaluation of our Board of Directors and management.

The Nominating & Governance Committee met four (4) times during the year ended December 31, 2005, and each of the members attended all meetings.

Other Committees

From time to time, our Board of Directors may establish other committees as circumstances warrant. Those committees will have the authority and responsibility as delegated to them by our Board of Directors.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to our executive officers, including our principal executive officers and principal financial officer, and to our other employees. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Acquisition of Membership Interests in The New York Mortgage Company, LLC

In connection with our initial public offering, or IPO, we entered into a contribution agreement, dated as of December 22, 2003, with Steven B. Schnall, our Chairman, President and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and Joseph V. Fierro, the Chief Operating Officer of NYMC, as amended and restated on March 25, 2004, as further amended and restated on April 29, 2004 (the Contribution Agreement), pursuant to which we acquired from Messrs. Schnall and Fierro and their affiliates all of the outstanding membership interests in NYMC in exchange for a total of 2,750,000 shares of our common stock.

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, 70,000 of the shares of common stock issued to Mr. Schnall and his affiliate and 30,000 of the shares of common stock issued to Mr. Fierro and his affiliate as consideration for their interests in NYMC were placed in escrow through December 31, 2004 (the Escrow Shares) for the purpose of satisfying any indemnification claims we may have against the contributors of the NYMC membership interests under the Contribution Agreement during the escrow period for losses we incurred as a result of defaults on residential mortgage loans originated by NYMC and closed prior to completion of our IPO. On December 31, 2004, Messrs. Schnall and Fierro forfeited 33,376 and 14,304 of the Escrow Shares, respectively, to satisfy certain indemnification claims known as of December 31, 2004 and agreed to extend the escrow period for the balance of the Escrow Shares to December 31, 2005. On December 31, 2005, Messrs. Schnall and Fierro again agreed to extend the escrow period for the balance of the Escrow Shares to December 31, 2006 or the date upon which all indemnification claims have been satisfied, whichever occurs first.

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, we agreed to indemnify each of Messrs. Schnall and Fierro and their affiliates against all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, claims, obligations and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that either or both of them may suffer or incur by reason of (i) any breach of our representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Contribution Agreement, (ii) any act or cause of action occurring or accruing on or after the closing date of our IPO (the closing date) and arising from our ownership or operation of NYMC on or after the closing date and (iii) any personal guarantee of NYMC's obligations by either or both of Messrs. Schnall or Fierro in existence prior to or as of the closing date of our acquisition of NYMC or relating to any liability or obligation of NYMC. As of April 15, 2006, no claims under this indemnification provision have arisen.

Investment by Steven B. Schnall and Joseph V. Fierro in Centurion Abstract, LLC

Steven B. Schnall owns a 48% membership interest and Joseph V. Fierro owns a 12% membership interest in Centurion Abstract, LLC (Centurion), which provides title insurance brokerage services for certain title insurance providers. From time to time, NYMC refers its mortgage loan borrowers to Centurion for assistance in obtaining title insurance in connection with their mortgage loans, although the borrowers have no obligation to utilize Centurion's services. When NYMC's borrowers elect to utilize Centurion's services to obtain title insurance, Centurion collects various fees and a portion of the title insurance premium paid by the borrower for its title insurance. Centurion received $566,309 in fees and other amounts from NYMC borrowers for the year ended December 31, 2005. NYMC does not economically benefit from these referrals.

In the case of quarterly meetings, which are normally held over two days and include multiple committee meetings, our non-employee directors will receive a fee of $2,000 regardless of the number of board and committee meetings held on those days. When multiple board and/or committee meetings are held on days other than on the days of the regularly scheduled quarterly board meetings, our non-employee directors will receive a maximum fee of $1,000 per day regardless of the number of board and committee meetings held on that day. SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Precise due dates for these reports have been established, and we are required to report in this proxy statement any failure to timely file these reports by those due dates by our directors and executive officers during 2005.

Based on our review of the reports and amendments to those reports furnished to us or written representations from our directors and executive officers that these reports were not required from those persons, we believe that all of these filing requirements were satisfied by our directors and executive officers during 2005, except that Mr. Hainey failed to timely file a Form 4 with respect to a single purchase of common stock in September 2005. This transaction has since been reported and all transactions are reflected in this proxy statement.

We currently match 25% of the first 5% of eligible compensation for each of our employees for purposes of calculating our matching contribution.

These amounts in the aggregate represent distributions equal to Mr. Fierro's interest in NYMC's paid-in equity and retained earnings as of June 29, 2004, the closing date of our IPO.

Employment Agreements

We entered into employment agreements with each of the executive officers named in the executive compensation table above simultaneous with our IPO. The employment agreements provide that these executive officers are eligible to participate in our stock incentive plans. The employment agreements also provide that these executive officers are eligible to receive annual cash incentive bonuses under our approved bonus plans.

These employment agreements will expire on December 31, 2007, unless further extended or sooner terminated. Commencing on January 1, 2005, and on each January 1 thereafter, the term of each of these employment agreements is automatically extended for one additional calendar year, unless we or the executive provides the other with a notice of non-renewal by no later than the October 31 immediately preceding such January 1. These agreements provided the following annual base salaries for the fiscal year 2005: Steven B. Schnall, $409,500; David A. Akre, $409,500; Raymond A. Redlingshafer, Jr., $409,500; Michael I. Wirth, $336,000; Joseph V. Fierro, $315,000; and Steven R. Mumma, $300,000. Mr. Redlingshafer's employment with the Company ceased effective as of June 30, 2005. Pursuant to their employment agreements each of these base salaries, were increased by 3.4%, the percentage equal to the increase in the Consumer Price Index for 2005, on January 1, 2006. Effective each January 1 thereafter each of Messrs. Schnall, Akre, Wirth, Mumma and Fierro will receive a minimum percentage increase in his prior year's base salary equal to the increase in the Consumer Price Index for the preceding year. These agreements also provide that the executives are eligible to participate in our annual cash incentive bonus plan adopted by the Compensation Committee for each fiscal year during the term providing for cash bonuses of up to two times the executive's base salary.

These agreements provide that the executive officers agree to devote substantially all of their business time to our operations (except as we otherwise agree, including on behalf of any of our subsidiaries); provided however that the executives named above are not precluded from serving as a director or trustee in any other firm or from pursuing real estate investments and other personal investments, as long as those activities do not interfere with the performance of the executive's duties or violate the non-competition provisions in the agreements. These employment agreements permit us to terminate the executive's employment with appropriate notice for or without cause. Cause is generally defined to mean:

committing fraud or misappropriating, stealing or embezzling funds or property from us or our affiliates, or attempting to secure personally any profit in connection with any transaction entered into or on our behalf or on behalf of our affiliates; knowingly violating or breaching any material law or regulation to the material detriment of us or our affiliates; conviction of, or the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony which in the reasonable opinion of the board of directors brings the executive into disrepute or is likely to cause material harm to our business, customer or suppliers relations, financial condition or prospects;

- willful failure by the executive to perform his material duties under the employment agreement that continues for a period of 30 days after written notice to the executive; or

- the breach of any non-competition, non-disclosure or non-solicitation agreement between the executive and us that causes or is reasonably likely to cause material harm to us.

In addition, each of the executives named above has the right under his employment agreement to resign for good reason in the event of (a) an assignment to the executive of any material duties inconsistent with the executive's position with us or a substantial adverse alteration in the nature or status of the executive's responsibilities without the consent of the executive; (b) a material reduction in employee benefits other than a reduction generally applicable to similarly situated executives of our company without the consent of the executive; (c) a failure on our part to comply with any material provision of the employment that is not cured within 30 days after written notice to us; (d) any failure on our part to pay the executive's base salary or any incentive bonus to which the executive is entitled under our bonus plan that, in either case, is not cured within ten days after written notice to us, or any failure of our compensation committee to approve a bonus plan for any fiscal year; and (e) the relocation of our principal place of business outside of a fifty mile radius of Midtown Manhattan without the consent of the executive. In addition, for Mr. Schnall only, for so long as he beneficially owns at least 1,000,000 shares of our common stock, good reason shall also include (i) a failure on the part of our board of directors to nominate Mr. Schnall for re-election to our board of directors, (ii) a failure on the part of our stockholders to re-elect Mr. Schnall as a member of our board of directors or (iii) any removal by our board of directors or stockholders of Mr. Schnall from our board of directors, other than a removal for cause.

Pursuant to their employment agreement, the executives named above receive four weeks of paid vacation annually and various other customary benefits. In addition, we have purchased a term life insurance policy for each of the executives named above, with a death benefit of $3.0 million (except for Mr. Mumma, whose death benefit is $1.5 million), and will also reimburse each of the named executives for the income tax they incur with respect to our payment of the premiums on these policies.

We have the right to obtain a key man life insurance policy for our benefit on the life of each of our executives.

The employment agreements referred to above also provide that the named executives are eligible to receive the same benefits, including medical insurance coverage and retirement plan benefits in a 401(k) plan to the same extent as other similarly situated employees, and such other benefits as are commensurate with their position. Participation in employee benefit plans will be subject to the terms of such benefit plans as in effect from time to time.

If the executives' employment is terminated for cause or the executive resigns other than for good reason, we will pay the executive his full base salary through to the date of termination and reimburse the executive for all reasonable and customary expenses associated with his employment by us through the date of termination. If however, we terminate the executive without cause (other than for death or disability) or the executive terminates his employment for good reason, we will be obligated to pay (a) any earned and accrued but unpaid installment of base salary through the date of termination and all other unpaid and pro rata amounts to which the executive is entitled as of the date of termination under any compensation plan or program of ours, including the annual bonus plan and all accrued but unused vacation time; (b) a lump sum payment of an amount equal to (i) the sum of the executive's base salary in effect as of the date of termination plus the executive's highest annual bonus earned in the last three fiscal years multiplied by (ii) the lesser of (A) three or (B) the number of whole months remaining under the employment agreement divided by 12; (c) the payment of premiums for group health coverage for 18 months following the date of termination; and (d) other benefits as provided for in such employment agreement.

In the event we deliver to the executive a notice of non-renewal of her employment agreement, the executive will have the right to resign at any time during the remainder of his employment term and we will be obligated to pay (a) any earned and accrued but unpaid installment of base salary through the date of termination and all other unpaid and pro rata amounts to which the executive is entitled as of the date of termination under any compensation plan or program of ours, including the annual bonus plan and all accrued but unused vacation time; (b) a lump sum payment of an amount equal to the sum of the executive's base salary in effect as of the date of termination plus the executive's highest annual bonus earned in the last three fiscal years; (c) the payment of premiums for group health coverage for 18 months following the date of termination; and (d) other benefits as provided for in such employment agreement.

In addition, in the event of a termination of an executive's employment by us for any reason other than for cause, or any resignation by an executive following receipt from us of a notice of non-renewal, all of the options, restricted stock awards and any other equity awards granted to such executive shall become fully vested, unrestricted and exercisable as of the date of termination.

Our obligation to make payments to an executive as described above is conditioned on the executive's delivery to us of a general release of all claims against us.

Upon a change in control of us, all of the options, restricted stock awards and any other equity awards granted to such executive shall become fully vested, unrestricted and exercisable as of the date of termination. In general terms, a change of control of us will be deemed to occur:

if a person or entity, acting alone or as part of a group within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, acquires more than 50% of our then outstanding voting securities;

if the holders of our outstanding voting securities approve the transfer of all or substantially all of our total assets on a consolidated basis;

if the holders of our outstanding voting securities approve a transaction pursuant to which we will undergo a merger, consolidation, or statutory share exchange (unless the holders of our voting shares immediately prior to the transaction have at least 50% of the combined voting power of the securities in the surviving entity resulting from the transaction or its parent);

if the holders of our outstanding voting securities approve a plan of complete liquidation or upon the liquidation, dissolution, sale or disposition of all or substantially all of our assets;

if a majority of the members of our board of directors votes in favor of a resolution stating that a change in control of us has occurred; or if our continuing directors cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the members of our board of directors.

During an executive's employment with us and for a 24 month period after termination of an executive's employment for any reason (other than a resignation following receipt by the executive of a notice of non-renewal, in which case the period shall be 12 months after termination), each executive under these employment agreements has agreed not to compete with us by working with or investing in (subject to certain limited exceptions) any enterprise engaged in our principal line of business, or a line of business that we plan on entering, in any state where we presently conduct or intend to conduct business. In addition, each executive under these employment agreements has agreed to not solicit, induce or attempt to induce any person who has been employed by us or our affiliates, suppliers, licensees or consultants within six months prior to the date of termination.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's Compensation Committee assumed responsibility for executive officer compensation matters upon completion of the Company's initial public offering (IPO) in June 2004, and the Company's executive compensation programs have been administered by the Compensation Committee since that time. The Compensation Committee is composed of the individuals listed below, each of whom is independent as determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Company's independence criteria. The Company's independence criteria is discussed above under the caption "Information on Our Board of Directors and Its Committees - Independence of Our Board of Directors." The Compensation Committee met four (4) times during 2005.

The Compensation Committee has primary responsibility for setting and approving the compensation of the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officers and reviewing and approving compensation for the Company's other executive officers in a manner that is effective and consistent with the Company's overall executive compensation strategy. As part of that responsibility, the Compensation Committee reviews on an individual basis the performance of each of the Company's executive officers, including the Co-Chief Executive Officers and each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table above. See "Executive Compensation - Summary Compensation Table." We refer to these executive officers in this report as the named executive officers. The Compensation Committee also reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors annually with respect to the compensation of all directors, officers and other key executives of the Company. In addition, the Compensation Committee administers the Company's incentive compensation plans and equity-based compensation plans and programs, including the Company's 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the 2005 Plan).

A more complete description of the Compensation Committee's functions is set forth in its written charter. You may access the Compensation Committee's written charter from the Company's Internet website at www.nymtrust.com. Information at, or connected to, the Company's website is not and should not be considered a part of the Company's proxy statement.

Overview of Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee's policy is to devise and implement compensation for officers and employees commensurate with their position and determined with reference to performance and compensation paid to similarly situated employees and officers of companies which the Compensation Committee deems to be comparable to the Company or with which the Company competes for qualified personnel.

The Compensation Committee reviews compensation levels for the executive officers of the Company near the beginning of each calendar year. In determining compensation for a specific executive, the Compensation Committee considers many factors, including the nature of the executive's job, the executive's job performance compared to goals and objectives established for the executive at the beginning of the year, the experience level of the executive in his or her current position, the compensation levels of competitive jobs, the financial performance of the Company and certain discretionary factors. For executive officers other than the Co-Chief Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee considers the recommendations made by the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officers.

The Compensation Committee has engaged an independent compensation consultant to evaluate the Company's existing executive compensation programs and assist the Compensation Committee in developing an incentive compensation program for 2006 and future years. The evaluation of the Company's existing executive compensation programs and development of incentive compensation programs for 2006 and future years are still in process.

Compensation Elements for Senior Executive Officers

The Compensation Committee's compensation methodology utilizes three elements of compensation: (1) annual base salary, (2) annual incentive compensation and (3) long-term incentive compensation. These components provide elements of fixed income and variable compensation that are linked to the achievement of individual and corporate goals and the enhancement of value to the Company's stockholders. In making its decisions with respect to each element of executive compensation, the Compensation Committee takes into consideration the impact on the total value of these elements for each executive and all executives as a group.

Base Salary. Base salary represents the fixed element of the Company's executive compensation system. Executive officers and key employees receive salaries that are within a range established by the Compensation Committee for their respective positions based on the compensation paid to similarly situated employees and officers of companies which the Compensation Committee deems to be comparable to the Company or with which the Company competes for qualified personnel. Where the salary of each executive officer and key employee falls within the salary range is based on a determination of the level of experience that the employee brings to the position and how successful the employee has been in achieving set goals. Salary adjustments are based on a similar evaluation, a comparison of adjustments made by companies which the Compensation Committee deems to be comparable to the Company and any necessary inflationary adjustments.

In accordance with the terms of the employment agreements entered into by each of the named executive officers upon completion of the Company's IPO (each an Employment Agreement and collectively, the Employment Agreements), the annual base salary paid to each of the named executive officers during 2005 increased by 5.0% (with the exception of Steven R. Mumma) over annualized levels for 2004. Pursuant to Amendment No. 1 to Mr. Mumma's employment agreement, Mr. Mumma's salary was increased to $300,000 and will increase each January 1 thereafter by the percentage equal to the increase in the Consumer Price Index for the preceding year. The 2005 base salaries were paid as follows: Steven B. Schnall ($409,500); David A. Akre ($409,500); Raymond A. Redlingshafer, Jr. ($204,750 representing base salary paid from January 1, 2005 through June 30, 2005); Michael I. Wirth ($336,000); Joseph V. Fierro ($330,750) and Steven R. Mumma ($300,000). Mr. Redlingshafer's employment with the Company terminated on June 30, 2005. Effective January 1, 2006, the following are the base salaries for these executives for 2006: Steven B. Schnall ($423,423); David A. Akre ($423,423); Michael I. Wirth ($347,424); Joseph V. Fierro ($341,996) and Steven R. Mumma ($310,200). Base salaries for 2006 reflect a 3.4% increase over 2005 levels and were established in accordance with the terms of the Employment Agreements for these officers. See Executive Compensation Employment Agreements above.

Annual Incentives. Annual incentives exist in the form of bonuses available to each executive officer and key employee as a means of linking compensation both to the performance of the Company overall and to objective performance criteria that are within the control of the employee. The employment agreements for the Company's named executive officers provide that annual cash incentive bonuses between 0% and 200% of base salary will be paid to the executives, with the actual amount within that range to be determined by the Compensation Committee in its discretion, subject to any annual performance bonus plan approved by the Committee. The actual amount of annual incentive bonus for fiscal 2005 paid to each of the Company's executive officers, after taking into account the other elements of compensation paid to executive officers during 2004 and 2005, was determined by the Compensation Committee based on its evaluation of the Company's performance during fiscal 2005 as well as individual performances. These bonuses for 2005 were as follows: Mr. Schnall ($35,000); Mr. Akre ($35,000); Mr. Wirth ($105,000); Mr. Fierro ($20,000) and Mr. Mumma ($105,000). The Compensation Committee did not adopt a formal performance bonus plan for fiscal 2005. Annual incentive bonuses for 2006 and subsequent years will be determined by the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee has engaged an independent compensation consultant to assist it in developing an incentive compensation program for 2006 and future years. Subject to the terms of the Employment Agreements, annual incentive bonuses may be paid in cash, common stock, stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares and incentive shares under the 2005 Plan. To motivate executives to increase their ownership of common stock, the Compensation Committee may, subject to the terms of applicable Employment Agreements, approve that executive officers and key employees receive all or a portion of their bonuses in common stock, stock options, restricted stock, performance shares and incentive shares under the 2005 Plan.

Long-Term Incentives. The third element of executive compensation is targeted toward providing rewards for long-term performance. The Compensation Committee believes that long-term incentives are important to motivate and reward the Company's executive officers and key employees for maximizing stockholder value. Long-term incentives are provided primarily by grants of stock options, stock awards and stock appreciation rights under the Company's stock plans, which are administered by the Compensation Committee and, with respect to certain employees, by the Company's Chairman and Co-CEO pursuant to authority delegated by the Compensation Committee. In May 2005, stockholders approved the Company's 2005 Plan, which replaced the Company's 2004 Stock

Incentive Plan. The purpose of the 2005 plan is to assist the Company in attracting and retaining qualified personnel, by enabling such personnel to participate in the future success of the Company and to align their interests with those of the Company and its stockholders. The Company's named executive officers received no long-term incentive compensation for fiscal 2005.

401(k) Plan Contribution Matching. The Company matches 25% of the first 5% of eligible compensation for each of its employees for purposes of calculating the Company's matching contribution to the employees account under the Company's 401(k) plan. Under the limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, the maximum eligible compensation for 2004 and 2005 were $205,000 and $210,000, respectively, thereby resulting in maximum matching contributions by the Company of $2,562 and $2,625, respectively. Each of the named executive officers participates in the Company's 401(k) Plan.

2005 Chief Executive Officer Compensation

During 2004, the Board, as it was comprised prior to the completion of the Company's IPO, caused the Company to enter into employment agreements with Mr. Schnall, the Company's Chairman, President and Co-CEO, and Mr. Akre, the Company's Vice-Chairman and Co-CEO, which provided for annualized 2004 base salaries of $390,000, which amounts are, and have been, subject to annual increases as described under Executive Compensation Employment Agreements. The Compensation Committee concluded that these initial Co-CEO base salaries were appropriate after considering the compensation paid to the chief executive officers of public companies deemed by the Board of Directors to be comparable to the Company. Messrs. Schnall and Akre received 2005 base salaries of $409,500, a 5% increase over 2004 levels, in accordance with their Employment Agreements. The Compensation Committee approved discretionary 2005 annual incentive bonuses of $35,000 to each of Messrs. Schnall and Akre, which bonus amounts were equal to approximately 9% of their annual base salaries. The Compensation Committee based the 2005 annual incentive bonuses on an evaluation of the Company's performance during fiscal 2005.

Total Value of 2005 CEO Compensation. The following table presents the total value of the compensation provided to each of the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officers, Steven B. Schnall and David A. Akre, in 2005 based on amounts included in this proxy statement under the caption Executive Compensation Summary Compensation Table. The dollar value for the annual compensation shown in the table reflects amounts actually paid.

The Compensation Committee intends to apply the compensation methodology discussed above to Messrs. Schnall and Akre and the Company's other executive officers in 2006.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of Jerome F. Sherman (Chairman), David R. Bock and Steven G. Norcutt, and operates under a written charter.

The Audit Committee oversees New York Mortgage Trust, Inc.'s financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 in the annual report to stockholders.

The Audit Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards 61 (SAS 61), as modified or supplemented, including the overall scope and plan for their audit, the auditor's judgment as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the consistency of their application and the clarity and completeness of the audited financial statements.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1, as modified or supplemented, and has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm its independence from the Company.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board of Directors agreed) that the audited financial statements be included in the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also recommended that Deloitte & Touche LLP be retained as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the 2006 fiscal year.

Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for pre-approving audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditor. These procedures include reviewing a budget for audit and permitted non-audit services. The budget includes a description of, and a budgeted amount for, particular categories of non-audit services that are recurring in nature and therefore anticipated at the time the budget is submitted. Audit Committee approval is required to exceed the budget amount for a particular category of non-audit services and to engage the independent registered public accounting firm for any non-audit services not included in the budget. For both types of pre-approval, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The Audit Committee also considers whether the independent registered public accounting firm is best positioned to provide the most effective and efficient service, for reasons such as its familiarity with our business, employees, culture, accounting systems, risk profile, and whether the services enhance our ability to manage or control risks and improve audit quality. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee periodically monitors the services rendered and actual fees paid to the independent registered public accounting firm to ensure that such services are within the parameters approved by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of non-audit services performed by Deloitte & Touche during 2005 is compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche's independence from the Company as its independent registered public accounting firm. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Audit Committee pre-approved all services rendered by Deloitte & Touche LLP.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those specifically set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. If other proper matters, however, should come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof, the persons named in the enclosed proxy intend to vote the shares represented by them in accordance with their best judgment in respect to any such matters.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Company's 2005 Annual Report to Stockholders is being mailed to stockholders concurrently with this proxy statement and does not form part of the proxy solicitation material.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY STATEMENT AND ANNUAL REPORTS

The SEC rules allow for the delivery of a single copy of an annual report to stockholders and proxy statement to any household at which two or more stockholders reside, if it is believed the stockholders are members of the same family. This delivery method, known as householding, will save us printing and mailing costs. Duplicate account mailings will be eliminated by allowing stockholders to consent to such elimination, or through implied consent, if a stockholder does not request continuation of duplicate mailings. Brokers, dealers, banks or other nominees or fiduciaries that hold shares of our common stock in street name for beneficial owners of our common stock and that distribute proxy materials and annual reports they receive to beneficial owners may be householding. Depending upon the practices of your broker, bank or other nominee or fiduciary, you may need to contact them directly to discontinue duplicate mailings to your household. If you wish to revoke your consent to householding, you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee or fiduciary.

If you hold shares of common stock in your own name as a holder of record, householding will not apply to your shares. Also, if you own shares of common stock in more than one account, such as individually and also jointly with your spouse, you may receive more than one set of our proxy statements and annual reports to stockholders. To assist us in saving money and to provide you with better stockholder services, we encourage you to have all of your accounts registered in the same name and address. You may do this by contacting the Company's transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, by telephone at (800) 937-5449 or in writing at American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 59 Maiden Lane, New York, New York 10038.

If you wish to request extra copies free of charge of any annual report to stockholders or proxy statement, please send your request to New York Mortgage Trust, Inc., 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York, 10019, Attention: Secretary. You can also refer to our web site at www.nymtrust.com. Information at, or connected to, our website is not and should not be considered part of this proxy statement.
