NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

Note 1– Basis of Presentation

In the opinion of management, the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments, which include normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the consolidated unaudited financial position at June 30, 2007, and results of operations and cash flows for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006.

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements included in the Ingersoll-Rand Company Limited (the Company or IR-Limited) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

As a result of the divestiture of the Road Development business unit and the pending sale of Bobcat, Utility Equipment and Attachments business units, the Company realigned its operating and reporting segments to better reflect its market focus. The Company's Bobcat, Utility Equipment, Attachments and Road Development business units are now being reported as discontinued operations. The Company's Club Car business unit is now included in the Industrial Technologies segment. Prior year results have been reclassified to conform to this change.

Sale of Compact Equipment Business

On July 29, 2007, the Company agreed to sell its Bobcat, Utility Equipment and Attachments businesses (collectively, Compact Equipment) to Doosan Infracore for cash proceeds of approximately $4.9 billion. The Compact Equipment business manufactures and sells compact equipment, including skid-steer loaders, compact track loaders, mini-excavators and telescopic tool handlers; portable air compressors, generators, and light towers; general-purpose light construction equipment; and attachments. For full-year 2006 these businesses collectively generated approximately $2.6 billion in revenues. The sale includes manufacturing facilities in Gwinner and Bismarck, North Dakota; Carrollton, Georgia; Litchfield, Minnesota; Petersburg, Virginia; Wujiang, China; Dobris, Czech Republic; Lyon and Pontchateau, France; Slane, Ireland; and Tredegar, Wales. The Compact Equipment business employs approximately 5,700 people worldwide.

Note 5 – Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions

The Company sponsors several postretirement plans that cover certain eligible employees. These plans provide for health care benefits and, in some instances, life insurance benefits. Postretirement health plans generally are contributory and contributions are adjusted annually. Life insurance plans for retirees are primarily noncontributory. The Company funds the postretirement benefit costs principally on a pay-as-you-go basis. The components of net periodic postretirement benefits cost for the three and six months ended June 30, were as follows:

In millions	Three months ended		Six months ended
	June 30,		June 30

Total	$ (2.8)	$ 19.9	$ 18.3	$ 39.8

The curtailment and settlement gains in 2007 are associated with the sale of the Road Development business unit on April 30, 2007. In addition, the Company's U.S. postretirement plan was remeasured as of the sale date and the discount rate used was increased from 5.5% to 5.75%.

Note 6 – Pension Plans

The Company sponsors several noncontributory pension plans that cover substantially all U.S. employees. In addition, certain non-U.S. employees in other countries are covered by pension plans. The Company's pension plans for U.S. non-collectively bargained employees provide benefits on a modest final average pay formula. The Company's U.S. collectively bargained pension plans principally provide benefits based on a flat benefit formula. Non-U.S. plans provide benefits based on earnings and years of service. The Company maintains additional other supplemental benefit plans for officers and other key employees. The components of the Company's pension-related costs for the three and six months ended June 30, were as follows:

In millions	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006

Amounts recorded in continuing operations	$ 6.7	$ 10.2	$ 15.0	$ 20.1
Amounts recorded in discontinued operations	21.1	(1.0)	18.2	(1.8)
Total	$ 27.8	$ 9.2	$ 33.2	$ 18.3

The Company made employer contributions of $13.0 million and $13.4 million to its pension plans during the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The curtailment and settlement losses in 2007 are associated with the sale of the Road Development business unit on April 30, 2007. In addition, certain of the Company's pension plans, primarily in the U.S., were remeasured as of the sale date and the discount rate used was increased from 5.5% to 5.75%.

Note 7 – Share-Based Compensation

On June 6, 2007, the shareholders of the Company approved the Incentive Stock Plan of 2007, which authorizes the Company to issue stock options and other share-based incentives. The total number of shares authorized by the shareholders is 14.0 million, of which 13.9 million remains available for future incentive awards.

Stock Options

The average fair value of the stock options granted under the Incentive Stock Plan of 1998 for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 was estimated to be $11.06 per share and $10.42 per share, respectively, using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The following assumptions were used:

	2007	2006
Dividend yield	1.75%	1.49%
Volatility	26.10%	27.70%
Risk-free rate of return	4.71%	4.47%
Expected life	4.70 years	4.42 years

Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility from traded options on the Company's stock. The risk-free rate of interest for periods within the contractual life of the stock option award is based on the yield curve of a zero-coupon U.S. Treasury bond on the date the award is granted with a maturity equal to the expected life of the award. The Company uses historical data to estimate forfeitures within its valuation model. The Company's expected life of the stock option awards is derived from historical experience and represents the period of time that awards are expected to be outstanding.

Changes in the options outstanding under the plans for the six months ended June 30, 2007 was as follows:

	Shares subject to option	Weighted- average exercise price	Aggregate intrinsic value (millions)	Weighted- average remaining life
December 31, 2006	19,164,942	$ 31.53

Exercisable June 30, 2007	11,532,138	$ 29.99	$ 286.4	5.4

The following table summarizes the information for currently outstanding SARs for the six months ended June 30, 2007:

* As of the end of 2006, the Company no longer expects to grant SARs

Performance Shares

The Company has a Performance Share Program (PSP) for key employees. The program provides annual awards for the achievement of pre-established long-term strategic initiatives and annual financial performance of the Company. The annual target award level is expressed as a number of the Company's Class A common shares and for performance year 2006 the award was paid in cash. On April 17, 2007, and effective for the performance year 2007, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company approved a revision to the PSP program such that all PSP awards will be paid in Class A common shares rather than in cash and, except for retirement-eligible employees, all of those shares will vest one year after the date of grant. As a result of these changes, a larger portion of the Company's executive compensation program will be directly linked to the performance of the Company's Class A common shares, thus further aligning the interests of executives with those of our shareholders.

Deferred Compensation

The Company allows key employees and non-employee directors to defer a portion of their eligible compensation into a number of investment choices, including Class A common share equivalents. Effective August 2, 2006, the Company eliminated the provision in the deferred compensation plans making plan participants eligible to receive a 20% supplemental amount on deferrals in the Company's Class A common share equivalents. In addition, effective August 2, 2006, the Company vested the previously awarded, but unvested, portions of the 20% supplemental amount awarded under the deferred compensation plans.

As of June 30, 2007, the portion deferred into Class A common share equivalents was subject to market fluctuations based on the Company's share price. Effective August 1, 2007, the deferred compensation plans were amended to provide that any amounts invested in the Class A common share equivalents will be settled in Class A common shares at the time of distribution, rather than cash.

Other Plans

The Company maintains a shareholder-approved Management Incentive Unit Award Plan. Under the plan, participating key employees were awarded incentive units. When dividends are paid on Class A common shares, dividends are awarded to unit holders, one-half of which is paid in cash and the remaining half of which is credited to the participants' account in the form of Class A common share equivalents. The value of the actual incentive units is never paid to participants, and only the fair value of accumulated Class A common share equivalents is paid in cash upon the participants' retirement.

Stock grants were issued prior to February 2000 as an incentive plan for certain key employees, with varying vesting periods. Effective August 2, 2006, all remaining stock grants will be settled with the Company's Class A common shares rather than cash.

Compensation Expense

Share-based compensation expense is included in selling and administrative expenses. The following table summarizes the expenses recognized for the three and six months ended June 30:

In millions	Three months ended		Six months ended
	2007	June 30, 2006	2007	June 30, 2006

In August 2006, the Company entered into two total return swaps (the Swaps) which are derivative instruments used to hedge the Company's exposure to changes in its share-based compensation expense. The aggregate notional amount of the Swaps was approximately $52.6 million. On June 11, 2007, the Company terminated a portion of the Swaps for net cash proceeds of $3.8 million. As a result of this termination the Swaps aggregate notional value was approximately $41.3 million. As of June 30, 2007 the aggregate fair value of the Swaps was $18.9 million. The Company settled the remaining portion of the Swaps in the third quarter of 2007. For the six months ended June 30, 2007, the Company recorded income of $16.8 million within selling and administrative expenses, associated with the change in fair value of the swaps during the period.

Note 8 – Income Taxes

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted FASB Interpretation No. 48, “Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement 109” (FIN 48), which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for recording in the financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Additionally, FIN 48 provides guidance on the recognition, classification, accounting in interim periods and disclosure requirements for uncertain tax positions. As a result of adopting FIN 48, the company recorded additional liabilities, to its previously established reserves, and a corresponding decrease in retained earnings of $145.6 million.

The Company has total unrecognized tax benefits of $457.0 million as of January 1, 2007. The amount of unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would affect the effective tax rate are $394.9 million as of January 1, 2007.

The Company records interest and penalties associated with the uncertain tax positions within its provision for income taxes on its income statement. As of January 1, 2007, the Company had reserves totaling $88.0 million associated with interest and penalties, net of tax. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2007, the Company recognized $4.9 million and $7.8 million, respectively, in interest and penalties net of tax related to these uncertain tax positions.

The provision for income taxes involves a significant amount of management judgment regarding interpretation of relevant facts and laws in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates. Future changes in applicable laws, projected levels of taxable income and tax planning could change the effective tax rate and tax balances recorded by the Company. In addition, U.S. and non-U.S. tax authorities periodically review income tax returns filed by the Company and can raise issues regarding its filing positions, timing and amount of income or deductions, and the allocation of income among the jurisdictions in which the Company operates. A significant period of time may elapse between the filing of an income tax return and the ultimate resolution of an issue raised by a revenue authority with respect to that return. In the normal course of business the Company is subject to examination by taxing authorities throughout the world, including such major jurisdictions as Germany, Italy, the Netherlands and the United States. In general, the examination of the Company’s material tax returns is completed for the years prior to 2000.

The IRS has completed the examination of the Company’s federal income tax returns through the 2000 tax year and has issued a notice proposing adjustments. The principle proposed adjustment relates to the disallowance of certain capital losses. The Company disputes the IRS position and protests have been filed with the IRS Appeals Division. In order to reduce the potential interest expense, the Company expects to make a payment in the third quarter 2007 of approximately $200 million with respect to this matter, which will reduce the Company’s total unrecognized tax position by $140 million.

On July 20, 2007, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) containing proposed adjustments to the Company's tax filings in connection with an audit of the 2001 and 2002 tax years. The IRS did not contest the validity of the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda. The most significant adjustments proposed by the IRS involve treating the intercompany debt incurred in connection with the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda as equity. As a result of this recharacterization, the IRS has disallowed the deduction of interest paid on the debt and imposed dividend withholding taxes on the payments denominated as interest. These adjustments proposed by the IRS, if upheld in their entirety, would result in additional taxes with respect to 2002 of approximately $190 million plus interest, and would require the Company to record additional charges associated with this matter. At this time, the IRS has not yet begun their examination of the Company's tax filings for years subsequent to 2002. However, if these adjustments or a portion of these adjustments proposed by the IRS are ultimately sustained, it is likely to also affect subsequent tax years.

The Company strongly disagrees with the view of the IRS and intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments. The Company, in consultation with its outside advisors, carefully considered many factors in determining the terms of the intercompany debt including the obligor's ability to service the debt and the availability of equivalent financing from unrelated parties, two factors prominently cited by the IRS in denying debt treatment. The Company believes that its characterization of that obligation as debt for tax purposes was supported by the relevant facts and legal authorities at the time of its creation. The subsequent financial results of the relevant companies, including the actual cash flow generated by operations and the production of significant additional cash flow from dispositions have confirmed the ability to service this debt. Although the outcome of this matter cannot be predicted with certainty, based upon an analysis of the strength of its position, the Company believes that it is adequately reserved for this matter. As the Company moves forward to resolve this matter with the IRS, it is reasonably possible that the reserves established may be adjusted within the next 12 months. However, the Company does not expect that the ultimate resolution will have a material adverse impact on its future results of operations or financial position.

The Company believes that it has adequately provided for any reasonably foreseeable resolution of any tax disputes, but will adjust its reserves if events so dictate in accordance with FIN 48. To the extent that the ultimate results differ from the original or adjusted estimates of the Company, the effect will be recorded in the provision for income taxes.

Note 9 – Comprehensive Income

The components of comprehensive income for the three and six months ended June 30, were as follows:

Note 10—Weighted-Average Common Shares

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted-average number of Class A common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted-average number of Class A common shares outstanding as well as potentially dilutive common shares, which in the Company's case, includes shares issuable under share-based compensation plans. The following table details the weighted-average number of Class A common shares outstanding for basic and diluted earnings per share calculations:

In millions	Three months ended		Six months ended
	June 30,		June 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Weighted-average number of basic shares	299.9	327.1	303.1	327.9

Anti-dilutive shares	2.6	2.3	2.0	-

Note 11—Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in various litigations, claims and administrative proceedings, including environmental and product liability matters. Amounts recorded for identified contingent liabilities are estimates, which are reviewed periodically and adjusted to reflect additional information when it becomes available. Subject to the uncertainties inherent in estimating future costs for contingent liabilities, management believes that the liability which may result from these legal matters would not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, liquidity or cash flows of the Company.

Environmental remediation costs are determined on a site-by-site basis and accruals are made when it is probable a liability exists and the cost can be reasonably estimated. The Company estimates the amount of recurring and non-recurring costs at each site using internal and external experts. In arriving at cost estimates the following factors are considered: the type of contaminant, the stage of the clean up, applicable law and existing technology. These estimates, and the resultant accruals, are reviewed and updated quarterly to reflect changes in facts and law. The Company does not discount its liability or assume any insurance recoveries when environmental liabilities are recorded.

Certain wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company are named as defendants in asbestos-related lawsuits in state and federal courts. In virtually all of the suits, a large number of other companies have also been named as defendants. The vast majority of those claims has been filed against Ingersoll-Rand Company (IR-New Jersey), and generally allege injury caused by exposure to asbestos contained in certain of IR-New Jersey's products. Although IR-New Jersey was neither a producer nor a manufacturer of asbestos, some of its formerly manufactured products utilized asbestos-containing components, such as gaskets purchased from third-party suppliers.

All asbestos-related claims resolved to date have been dismissed or settled. For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2007, total costs for settlement and defense of asbestos claims after insurance recoveries and net of tax were approximately $8 million and $20 million, respectively. With the assistance of independent advisors, the Company performs a thorough analysis, updated periodically, of its actual and anticipated future asbestos liabilities projected seven years in the future. Based upon such analysis, the Company believes that its reserves and insurance are adequate to cover its asbestos liabilities.

In connection with the disposition of certain businesses and facilities the Company has indemnified the purchasers for the expected cost of remediation of environmental contamination, if any, existing on the date of disposition. Such expected costs are accrued when environmental assessments are made or remedial efforts are probable and the costs can be reasonably estimated.

As previously reported, on November 10, 2004, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued an Order directing that a number of public companies, including the Company, provide information relating to their participation in transactions under the United Nations' Oil for Food Program. Upon receipt of the Order, the Company undertook a thorough review of its participation in the Program, provided the SEC with information responsive to the Order and provided additional information requested by the SEC. During a March 27, 2007 meeting with the SEC, at which a representative of the Department of Justice (DOJ) was also present, the Company began discussions concerning the resolution of this matter with both the SEC and DOJ. These discussions are ongoing and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the SEC and DOJ in this matter. In addition, on July 10, 2007, representatives of the Italian Guardia di Finanza (Financial Police) requested documents from Ingersoll-Rand Italiana S.p.A pertaining to certain Oil For Food transactions undertaken by that subsidiary of the Company. Such transactions have previously been reported to the SEC and DOJ, and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the Italian authorities in this matter.

The Company sells products on a continuous basis under various arrangements through institutions that provide leasing and product financing alternatives to retail and wholesale customers. Under these arrangements, the Company is contingently liable for loan guarantees and residual values of equipment of approximately $25.5 million, including consideration of ultimate net loss provisions. The risk of loss to the Company is minimal, and historically, only immaterial losses have been incurred related to these arrangements since the fair value of the underlying equipment that serves as collateral is generally in excess of the contingent liability. Management believes these guarantees will not adversely affect the condensed consolidated financial statements.

The Company remains contingently liable for approximately $13.8 million relating to performance bonds associated with prior sale of products of Ingersoll-Dresser Pump Company (IDP), which the Company divested in 2000. The acquirer of IDP is the primary obligor under these performance bonds. However, should the acquirer default under these arrangements, the Company would be required to satisfy these financial obligations. The obligation extends through 2008.

The following table represents the changes in the product warranty liability for the six months ended June 30, respectively:

Item 2 – Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

INGERSOLL-RAND COMPANY LIMITED
MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause a difference include, but are not limited to, those discussed under Part II Item 1A Risk Factors in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and under Part I Item 1A Risk Factors in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. The following section is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information, including our financial statements and the notes thereto, which appears elsewhere in this Quarterly Report.

Overview

Organizational

Ingersoll-Rand Company Limited (we, our or the Company) is a leading innovation and solutions provider with strong brands and leading positions within its markets. Our business segments consist of Climate Control Technologies, Industrial Technologies and Security Technologies. The Company generates revenue and cash primarily through the design, manufacture, sale and service of a diverse portfolio of industrial and commercial products that include well-recognized, premium brand names such as Club Car®, Hussmann®, Ingersoll Rand®, Schlage® and Thermo King®.

We seek to drive shareholder value by achieving:

- Dramatic Growth, by developing innovative products and solutions that improve our customers’ operations, expanding highly profitable recurring revenues and executing low-risk, high-return bolt-on acquisitions;
- Operational Excellence, by fostering a lean culture of continuous improvement and cost control; and
- Dual Citizenship, by encouraging our employees’ active collaboration with colleagues across business units and geographic regions to achieve superior business results.

To achieve these goals and to become a more diversified company with strong growth prospects, we continue to transform our product portfolio by divesting cyclical, low-growth, and asset-intensive businesses. We continue to focus on increasing our recurring revenue stream, which includes revenues from parts, service, used equipment and rentals. We also intend to continuously improve the efficiencies, capabilities, and products and services of our high-potential businesses. We expect to use our strong operating cash flow for bolt-on acquisitions, share buybacks, capital expenditures and dividend enhancements.

Trends and Economic Events

We are a global corporation with worldwide operations. As a global business, our operations are affected by worldwide, regional and industry-specific economic factors, as well as political factors, wherever we operate or do business. However, due to our geographic and industry diversity, as well as the diversity of our product sales and services, the impact of any one industry or the economy of any single country on the consolidated operating results is limited. Given the broad range of products manufactured and geographic markets served, management uses a variety of factors to predict the outlook for the Company. The Company monitors key competitors and customers to gauge relative performance and the outlook for the future. In addition, our order rates are indicative of future revenue and thus a key measure of anticipated performance. In those industry segments where we are a capital equipment provider, revenues depend on the capital expenditure budgets and spending patterns of our customers, who may delay or accelerate purchases in reaction to changes in their businesses and in the economy.

Our revenues for the first six months of 2007 have increased approximately 9% compared with the same period of 2006. Improved markets, new product introductions, product volume, pricing improvements and a favorable currency impact drove this growth. We have been able to increase prices and add surcharges to help mitigate the impact of cost inflation during the quarter. We expect to see continued high material and energy costs during the next year, which we plan to offset by increased productivity and pricing actions. We have generated positive cash flows from operating activities during the first half of 2007 and expect to continue to produce positive operating cash flows for the foreseeable future.

Our major end markets in Europe, Asia Pacific and Latin America experienced significant growth during the second quarter of 2007. This growth helped to offset the on-going weakness in the North American end markets.

Recent Developments

· On July 29, 2007, the Company agreed to sell its Bobcat, Utility Equipment and Attachments businesses (collectively, Compact Equipment) to Doosan Infracore for cash proceeds of approximately $4.9 billion. The sale is subject to customary closing conditions and is targeted to close early in the 2007 fourth quarter.

The Compact Equipment business manufactures and sells compact equipment, including skid-steer loaders, compact track loaders, mini-excavators and telescopic tool handlers; portable air compressors, generators, and light towers; general-purpose light construction equipment; and attachments. For full-year 2006 these businesses collectively generated approximately $2.6 billion in revenues. The sale includes manufacturing facilities in Gwinner and Bismarck, North Dakota; Carrollton, Georgia; Litchfield, Minnesota; Petersburg, Virginia; Wujiang, China; Dobris, Czech Republic; Lyon and Pontchateau, France; Slane, Ireland; and Tredegar, Wales. The Compact Equipment business employs approximately 5,700 people worldwide.

· On April 30, 2007, the Company completed its sale of its Road Development business unit to AB Volvo (publ) in all countries except for India, which closed on May 4, 2007, for cash proceeds of approximately $1.3 billion. The Company recorded a gain on sale of $675.7 million (net of tax of $128.6 million).

· During the six months ended June 30, 2007, the Company repurchased 17.6 million Class A common shares at a cost of $846.5 million. Subsequently, the Company repurchased an additional 7.0 million Class A common shares as of August 3, 2007, at a total cost of $377.3 million. Also on May 14, 2007, the Company's board of directors expanded the share-repurchase program from $2 billion to $4 billion.

· Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement 109" (FIN 48), which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for recording in the financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. As a result of adopting FIN 48 as of January 1, 2007, the Company recorded additional liabilities to its previously established reserves, and a corresponding decrease in retained earnings of $145.6 million. See Note 8 to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements for further description of FIN 48 and the related impacts of adoption.

· On July 20, 2007, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) containing proposed adjustments to the Company's tax filings in connection with an audit of the 2001 and 2002 tax years. The IRS did not contest the validity of the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda. The most significant adjustments proposed by the IRS involve treating the intercompany debt incurred in connection with the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda as equity. As a result of this recharacterization, the IRS has disallowed the deduction of interest paid on the debt and imposed dividend withholding taxes on the payments denominated as interest. These adjustments proposed by the IRS, if upheld in their entirety, would result in additional taxes with respect to 2002 of approximately $190 million plus interest, and would require the Company to record additional charges associated with this matter. At this time, the IRS has not yet begun their examination of the Company's tax filings for years subsequent to 2002. However, if these adjustments or a portion of these adjustments proposed by the IRS are ultimately sustained, it is likely to also affect subsequent tax years.

The Company strongly disagrees with the view of the IRS and intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments. The Company, in consultation with its outside advisors, carefully considered many factors in determining the terms of the intercompany debt including the obligor's ability to service the debt and the availability of equivalent financing from unrelated parties, two factors prominently cited by the IRS in denying debt treatment. The Company believes that its characterization of that obligation as debt for tax purposes was supported by the relevant facts and legal authorities at the time of its creation. The subsequent financial results of the relevant companies, including the actual cash flow generated by operations and the production of significant additional cash flow from dispositions have confirmed the ability to service this debt. Although the outcome of this matter cannot be predicted with certainty, based upon an analysis of the strength of its position, the Company believes that it is adequately reserved for this matter. As the Company moves forward to resolve this matter with the IRS, it is reasonably possible that the reserves established may be adjusted within the next 12 months. However, the Company does not expect that the ultimate resolution will have a material adverse impact on its future results of operations or financial position.

Net Revenues

Net revenues for the second quarter of 2007 increased by 8.6%, or $176.6 million, compared with the same period of 2006, primarily due to higher volumes (4%), improved pricing (2%), a favorable currency impact (2%) and acquisitions. Strong international markets, especially in Europe, Asia Pacific and Latin America, offset continued weakness in the North American markets. The Company also continues to make progress in increasing recurring revenues, which improved by 11% over the second quarter of 2006 and accounted for 19% of net revenues.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold as a percentage of revenue remained consistent in the second quarter of 2007 compared with 2006, as increased sales were offset by higher material costs, due to commodity price increases.

Selling and Administrative Expenses

Selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue remained consistent in the second quarter of 2007 compared with the same period of 2006. The increase in sales was offset by additional costs related to acquisitions and investments in new product development of approximately $7 million and increased regulatory and compliance costs of approximately $11 million.

Operating Income

Other Income (Expense), Net

Other income (expense), net includes currency gains and losses, equity in earnings of partially owned affiliates, minority interests, and other miscellaneous income and expense items. The rate for the second quarter of 2006 reflects an expected annual rate of 9.2% before discrete items. The increase in the expected annual effective tax rate was mainly due to higher interest costs resulting from our adoption of FIN 48, as well as increased tax costs primarily associated with intercompany cash movements to fund our share repurchase program.

Review of Business Segments

As a result of the divestiture of the Road Development business unit and the pending sale of Bobcat, Utility Equipment and Attachments business units (see Note 1), the Company realigned its operating and reporting segments to better reflect its market focus. The Company's Bobcat, Utility Equipment, Attachments and Road Development business units are now being reported as discontinued operations. The Company's Club Car business unit is now included in the Industrial Technologies segment. Prior year results have been reclassified to conform to this change.

Net revenues grew in the Europe and Asia Pacific regions during the second quarter of 2007, benefiting from strong truck and trailer sales and year-over-year gains in bus and aftermarket parts. These gains were partially offset by reduced sales of sea-going containers and lower activity levels in the North American trailer markets. Worldwide revenues for display cases and contracting increased with revenue growth in all regions.

Air Solutions revenues increased 19% compared with the second quarter of 2006, mainly driven by favorable worldwide industrial markets for complete air compressors and increased recurring revenues. Productivity Solutions revenues remained consistent with the second quarter 2006, mainly due to growth in the industrial fluid and handling markets outside of North America. This growth was offset by declines in the domestic automotive and large retail markets. Club Car revenues increased 10% compared with the second quarter of 2006, mainly due to growth in recurring revenues, utility and 4x4 vehicles and ongoing market shares gains in a soft golf market.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company generates significant cash flow from operating activities. We believe that we will be able to meet our current and long term liquidity and capital requirements, through our cash flow from operating activities, existing cash and cash equivalents, available borrowings under existing credit facilities, and our ability to obtain future external financing.

Cash Flows

Dollar amounts in millions	June 30, 2007	June 30, 2006
Operating cash flow provided by (used in) continuing operations	$ 99.1	$ 227.0
Investing cash flow provided by (used in) continuing operations	1,242.7	50.8
Financing cash flow provided by (used in) continuing operations	(1,228.7)	(893.6)

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by continuing operating activities during the six months ended June 30, 2007, was $99.1 million, compared with $227.0 million during the comparable period in 2006. The change in operating activities is primarily related to larger growth in working capital during the six months ended 2007 than the growth experienced in 2006, partially offset by increased earnings in 2007.

Investing Activities

Net cash provided by investing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2007, was $1,242.7 million, compared with $50.8 million during the comparable period of 2006. The change in investing activities is primarily attributable to net proceeds from the sale of Road Development of $1,291.7 million during the six months ended June 30, 2007. During the six months ended June 30, 2006, proceeds from the sales and maturities of marketable securities of $155.9 million was partially offset by cash used for capital expenditures and acquisitions of $75.8 million and $28.5 million, respectively.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2007, was $1,228.7 million compared with $893.6 million during the comparable period in 2006. The increase in cash used in financing activities is primarily due to the repurchase of Class A common shares during the first half of 2007 of $846.5 million as compared to $383.7 million during the first half of 2006. In addition, repayment of net short-term borrowings was $383.2 million during the first half of 2007 compared to net short-term borrowings of $20.0 million during the first half of 2006.

Other Liquidity Measures

The following table contains several key measures to gauge the Company's financial condition and liquidity for the periods ended:

Dollar amounts in millions	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 460.2	$ 273.1
Working capital	2,086.1	1,409.3
Total debt	1,581.2	1,971.5
Total shareholders' equity	5,832.4	5,404.8
Debt-to-total capital ratio	21.1%	26.5%

The Company's working capital increased $676.8 million during the first half of 2007. The change was primarily due to an increase of $187.1 million in cash and cash equivalents, an increase of $86.2 million in inventory, an increase of $154.1 million in prepaid expenses and deferred income taxes and a decrease of $389.1 million in loans payable and current maturities of long-term debt. These changes were partially offset by a decrease of $459.3 million in assets held for sale.

The Company's debt levels at June 30, 2007, decreased by $390.3 million from the debt levels at December 31, 2006. This decrease was mainly due to the repayment of $383.2 million of short-term borrowings of which a majority relates to the Company's commercial paper program.

The Company's debt-to-total capital ratio decreased from December 31, 2006 to June 30, 2007, primarily due to lower debt levels. The Company traditionally maintains significant availability under our lines of credit and commercial paper program to meet our short-term liquidity requirements. As of June 30, 2007, amounts available under these facilities totaled $2.0 billion.

Days sales outstanding for the first half of 2007 was approximately 65 days, which is consistent with the same period in 2006.

For a further discussion of Liquidity and Capital Resources, refer to Part II, Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2006.

Contingencies, Environmental and Asbestos Matters

The Company is involved in various litigations, claims and administrative proceedings, including environmental and product liability matters. Amounts recorded for identified contingent liabilities are estimates, which are reviewed periodically and adjusted to reflect additional information when it becomes available. Subject to the uncertainties inherent in estimating future costs for contingent liabilities, management believes that the liability which may result from these legal matters would not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, liquidity or cash flows of the Company.

Environmental remediation costs are determined on a site-by-site basis and accruals are made when it is probable a liability exists and the cost can be reasonably estimated. The Company estimates the amount of recurring and non-recurring costs at each site using internal and external experts. In arriving at cost estimates the following factors are considered: the type of contaminant, the stage of the clean up, applicable law and existing technology. These estimates, and the resultant accruals, are reviewed and updated quarterly to reflect changes in facts and law. The Company does not discount its liability or assume any insurance recoveries when environmental liabilities are recorded.

Certain wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company are named as defendants in asbestos-related lawsuits in state and federal courts. In virtually all of the suits, a large number of other companies have also been named as defendants. The vast majority of those claims has been filed against IR-New Jersey, and generally allege injury caused by exposure to asbestos contained in certain of IR-New Jersey's products. Although IR-New Jersey was neither a producer nor a manufacturer of asbestos, some of its formerly manufactured products utilized asbestos-containing components, such as gaskets purchased from third-party suppliers.

All asbestos-related claims resolved to date have been dismissed or settled. For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2007, total costs for settlement and defense of asbestos claims after insurance recoveries and net of tax were approximately $8 million and $20 million, respectively. With the assistance of independent advisors, the Company performs a thorough analysis, updated periodically, of its actual and anticipated future asbestos liabilities projected seven years in the future. Based upon such analysis, the Company believes that its reserves and insurance are adequate to cover its asbestos liabilities.

In connection with the disposition of certain businesses and facilities the Company has indemnified the purchasers for the expected cost of remediation of environmental contamination, if any, existing on the date of disposition. Such expected costs are accrued when environmental assessments are made or remedial efforts are probable and the costs can be reasonably estimated.

As previously reported, on November 10, 2004, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued an Order directing that a number of public companies, including the Company, provide information relating to their participation in transactions under the United Nations' Oil for Food Program. Upon receipt of the Order, the Company undertook a thorough review of its participation in the Program, provided the SEC with information responsive to the Order and provided additional information requested by the SEC. During a March 27, 2007 meeting with the SEC, at which a representative of the Department of Justice (DOJ) was also present, the Company began discussions concerning the resolution of this matter with both the SEC and DOJ. These discussions are ongoing and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the SEC and DOJ in this matter. In addition, on July 10, 2007, representatives of the Italian Guardia di Finanza (Financial Police) requested documents from Ingersoll-Rand Italiana S.p.A pertaining to certain Oil For Food transactions undertaken by that subsidiary of the Company. Such transactions have previously been reported to the SEC and DOJ, and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the Italian authorities in this matter.

Critical Accounting Policies

Management's discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based upon the Company's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, sales and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The Company bases these estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Management believes there have been no significant changes during the three months ended June 30, 2007, to the items that the Company disclosed as its critical accounting policies and estimates in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, except for the accounting for uncertain tax positions as described below.

Income Taxes

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement 109" (FIN 48), which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for recording in the financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Additionally, FIN 48 provides guidance on the recognition, classification, accounting in interim periods and disclosure requirements for uncertain tax positions. As a result of adopting FIN 48, the company recorded additional liabilities, to its previously established reserves, and a corresponding decrease in retained earnings of $145.6 million.

The IRS has completed the examination of the Company's federal income tax returns through the 2000 tax year and has issued a notice proposing adjustments. The principle proposed adjustment relates to the disallowance of certain capital losses. The Company disputes the IRS position and protests have been filed with the IRS Appeals Division. In order to reduce the potential interest expense, the Company expects to make a payment in the third quarter 2007 of approximately $200 million with respect to this matter, which will reduce the Company's total unrecognized tax position by $140 million.

On July 20, 2007, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) containing proposed adjustments to the Company's tax filings in connection with an audit of the 2001 and 2002 tax years. The IRS did not contest the validity of the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda. The most significant adjustments proposed by the IRS involve treating the intercompany debt incurred in connection with the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda as equity. As a result of this recharacterization, the IRS has disallowed the deduction of interest paid on the debt and imposed dividend withholding taxes on the payments denominated as interest. These adjustments proposed by the IRS, if upheld in their entirety, would result in additional taxes with respect to 2002 of approximately $190 million plus interest, and would require the Company to record additional charges associated with this matter. At this time, the IRS has not yet begun their examination of the Company's tax filings for years subsequent to 2002. However, if these adjustments or a portion of these adjustments proposed by the IRS are ultimately sustained, it is likely to also affect subsequent tax years.

The Company strongly disagrees with the view of the IRS and intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments. The Company, in consultation with its outside advisors, carefully considered many factors in determining the terms of the intercompany debt including the obligor's ability to service the debt and the availability of equivalent financing from unrelated parties, two factors prominently cited by the IRS in denying debt treatment. The Company believes that its characterization of that obligation as debt for tax purposes was supported by the relevant facts and legal authorities at the time of its creation. The subsequent financial results of the relevant companies, including the actual cash flow generated by operations and the production of significant additional cash flow from dispositions have confirmed the ability to service this debt. Although the outcome of this matter cannot be predicted with certainty, based upon an analysis of the strength of its position, the Company believes that it is adequately reserved for this matter. As the Company moves forward to resolve this matter with the IRS, it is reasonably possible that the reserves established may be adjusted within the next 12 months. However, the Company does not expect that the ultimate resolution will have a material adverse impact on its future results of operations or financial position.

The Company believes that it has adequately provided for any reasonably foreseeable resolution of any tax disputes, but will adjust its reserves if events so dictate in accordance with FIN 48. To the extent that the ultimate results differ from the original or adjusted estimates of the Company, the effect will be recorded in the provision for income taxes. See Note 8 to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements for a further description of FIN 48 and the related impacts.

New Accounting Standards

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" (SFAS 157). SFAS 157 establishes a framework for measuring fair value that is based on the assumptions market participants would use when pricing an asset or liability and establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the information to develop those assumptions. Additionally, the standard expands the disclosures about fair value measurements to include disclosing the fair value measurements of assets or liabilities within each level of the fair value hierarchy. SFAS 157 is effective for the Company starting on January 1, 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the impact on its financial statements of adopting SFAS 157.

In February 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities" (SFAS 159). SFAS 159 permits companies the option, at specified election dates, to measure financial assets and liabilities at their current fair value, with the corresponding changes in fair value from period to period recognized in the income statement. Additionally, SFAS 159 establishes presentation and disclosure requirements designed to facilitate comparisons between companies that choose different measurement attributes for similar assets and liabilities. SFAS 159 is effective for the Company starting on January 1, 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the impact on its financial statements of adopting SFAS 159.

Item 3 - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

There has been no significant change in our exposure to market risk during the second quarter of 2007. For a discussion of the Company’s exposure to market risk, refer to Part II, Item 7A, “Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk,” contained in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Item 4 - Controls and Procedures

The Company’s management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, have conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)), as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded as of June 30, 2007, that the disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that all material information required to be filed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q has been recorded, processed, summarized and reported when required and the information is accumulated and communicated, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There has been no change in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the second quarter of 2007 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1 – Legal Proceedings

In the normal course of business, the Company is involved in a variety of lawsuits, claims and legal proceedings, including commercial and contract disputes, employment matters, product liability claims, environmental liabilities and intellectual property disputes. In the opinion of the Company, pending legal matters are not expected to have a material adverse effect on the results of operations, financial condition, liquidity or cash flows.

As previously reported, on November 10, 2004, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued an Order directing that a number of public companies, including the Company, provide information relating to their participation in transactions under the United Nations' Oil for Food Program. Upon receipt of the Order, the Company undertook a thorough review of its participation in the Program, provided the SEC with information responsive to the Order and provided additional information requested by the SEC. During a March 27, 2007 meeting with the SEC, at which a representative of the Department of Justice (DOJ) was also present, the Company began discussions concerning the resolution of this matter with both the SEC and DOJ. These discussions are ongoing and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the SEC and DOJ in this matter. In addition, on July 10, 2007, representatives of the Italian Guardia di Finanza (Financial Police) requested documents from Ingersoll-Rand Italiana S.p.A pertaining to certain Oil For Food transactions undertaken by that subsidiary of the Company. Such transactions have previously been reported to the SEC and DOJ, and the Company will continue to cooperate fully with the Italian authorities in this matter.

See also the discussion under the section titled "Contingencies, Environmental and Asbestos Matters" of Part I, Item 2, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and also Part I, Item 1, Note 11 to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Item 1A – Risk Factors

There have been no material changes to our risk factors and uncertainties during the second quarter of 2007, except as noted below. For a discussion of the Risk Factors, refer to Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

On July 20, 2007, the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) containing proposed adjustments to the Company's tax filings in connection with an audit of the 2001 and 2002 tax years. The IRS did not contest the validity of the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda. The most significant adjustments proposed by the IRS involve treating the intercompany debt incurred in connection with the Company's reincorporation in Bermuda as equity. As a result of this recharacterization, the IRS has disallowed the deduction of interest paid on the debt and imposed dividend withholding taxes on the payments denominated as interest. These adjustments proposed by the IRS, if upheld in their entirety, would result in additional taxes with respect to 2002 of approximately $190 million plus interest, and would require the Company to record additional charges associated with this matter. At this time, the IRS has not yet begun their examination of the Company's tax filings for years subsequent to 2002. However, if these adjustments or a portion of these adjustments proposed by the IRS are ultimately sustained, it is likely to also affect subsequent tax years.

The Company strongly disagrees with the view of the IRS and intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments. The Company, in consultation with its outside advisors, carefully considered many factors in determining the terms of the intercompany debt including the obligor's ability to service the debt and the availability of equivalent financing from unrelated parties, two factors prominently cited by the IRS in denying debt treatment. The Company believes that its characterization of that obligation as debt for tax purposes was supported by the relevant facts and legal authorities at the time of its creation. The subsequent financial results of the relevant companies, including the actual cash flow generated by operations and the production of significant additional cash flow from dispositions have confirmed the ability to service this debt. Although the outcome of this matter cannot be predicted with certainty, based upon an analysis of the strength of its position, the Company believes that it is adequately reserved for this matter. As the Company moves forward to resolve this matter with the IRS, it is reasonably possible that the reserves established may be adjusted within the next 12 months. However, the Company does not expect that the ultimate resolution will have a material adverse impact on its future results of operations or financial position.

Item 2 – Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

In December 2006, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a new share repurchase program to repurchase up to $2 billion worth of Class A common shares. This program was expanded to $4 billion by the Company's board of directors on May 14, 2007. Based on market conditions, share repurchases will be made from time to time in the open market and in privately negotiated transactions at the discretion of management. Class A common shares owned by a subsidiary are treated as treasury shares and are recorded at cost.

Item 4 – Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

The items voted upon by the Company's shareholders included nominations to elect seven members of the Company's board of directors, adoption of the Incentive Plan of 2007, the appointment of independent auditors and a shareholder proposal requiring a shareholder vote on an advisory resolution with respect to executive compensation. The shareholders voted as follows on the following matters:
