Item 11.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

On January 19, 2007, we consummated the acquisition of TSS/Vortech. Our Compensation Committee has developed a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy with respect to our executive officers. The Compensation Committee has not selected or hired a compensation consulting firm to assist in the development of a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy, but may consider doing so in the future.

The Compensation Committee of our Board makes all decisions regarding the compensation of our executive officers, which decisions are subject to ratification by our Board. On March 7, 2007, we established a Compensation Committee consisting of Donald Nickles and Asa Hutchinson, and on April 24, 2007, John Morton, III was appointed to the Committee. Our Board has determined that each of these directors is an "independent director" within the meaning of the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility to:

- review, modify and approve our overall compensation strategy;
- recommend to the Board the compensation and terms of employment of our executive officers, including Thomas P. Rosato, our Chief Executive Officer, Gerard J. Gallagher, our President and Chief Operating Officer, and Timothy C. Dec, our Chief Financial Officer, and to evaluate their respective performance in light of relevant goals and objectives;
- review and recommend to our board the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to the members of our Board;
- recommend to our Board the adoption, amendment and termination of any bonus, equity and other deferred compensation plans, including the 2006 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan (“2006 Stock Plan”);
- determine appropriate insurance coverage for our executive officers and directors; and
- review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually.

General Compensation Philosophy

We recognize the importance of maintaining sound principles for the development and administration of our compensation and benefits programs. The overall compensation philosophy of our company is primarily driven by our business environment and our desire to align the interest of the employees with the interests of our company. It is also based on the principles of competitive and fair compensation, as well as our goal to attract, retain and motivate qualified employees.

The compensation and benefit plans are designed to enable us to meet our corporate goals and performance. The objectives of our compensation structure are to:

- enable the company to attract, engage and retain key executives and employees critical to future success;
- motivate and inspire employee behavior which fosters a high performance culture; and
- support the overall business objectives and ensure that a significant component of the compensation opportunity will be related to factors that both directly and indirectly influence shareholder value.

We measure the success of our compensation plans on overall business performance and our ability to attract and retain key talent which, in turn, will minimize risk and optimize return for our shareholders.

To this end, the Compensation Committee affirms that the total compensation plan should consist of:

- Annual salary. Designed to reward the core competence in the executive role relative to the skills, experience and contribution to our company.
- Annual cash incentive/bonus awards. Designed to reward the executive for specific contributions to our company aligned to both corporate and individual objectives.
- Long-term equity compensation. Designed to align the executives' interests with those of the shareholders.
- Certain other benefits, including retirement and welfare plans.

The use of the above components of our overall compensation plan enables us to reinforce our pay for performance philosophy and strengthen our ability to attract and retain high caliber and experienced executives. We believe that our combination of programs provides an appropriate mix of fixed and variable pay, balances short-term operational performance with longer-term shareholder value and facilitates effective executive recruitment and retention.

We will seek to target both short and long-term compensation levels competitively among a peer group of similar companies based on available survey data. The companies that will comprise our peer group to benchmark executive compensation levels against companies that have executive positions with responsibilities similar in breadth and scope to ours and have businesses which compete with us for executive talent.

Compensation Components

Base Salary

The salaries of our executive officers are the only non-variable element of our compensation and are reviewed on an annual basis. The salaries reflect each executive's responsibilities, the importance and impact of the executive's role, and the contribution each executive delivers to us. Salary revisions are based on an evaluation of the individual's performance, as part of our Annual Performance Review process and related salary revision matrix, in addition to level of pay compared to homeland security industry peer group company levels. Within this comparison group, we seek to make comparisons to executives who are comparable in terms of (a) level of responsibility and (b) expected level of contribution to our performance. Performance-related increases generally take effect as of January 1 of each year.

Bonuses

Our Compensation Committee will be responsible for establishing and implementing pre-established quantitative and qualitative performance standards for executive bonuses as well as guidelines and requirements for the distribution of such bonuses. To the extent that our employment agreements contain qualitative standards for discretionary bonuses, our Board intends to take the following steps to ensure direct correlation between executive compensation and performance:

- initiate a practice of periodically reviewing the performance of all senior executives at Board meetings; and
- establish annual reviews of compensation reports for the named executive officers.

Long-Term Equity Compensation

We believe that long-term incentive compensation, primarily in the form of restricted stock awards, ensures that our executive officers have an ongoing stake in the long-term success of the company, as well as giving our employees the opportunity to share in any appreciation in the value of our common stock. Under the 2006 Stock Plan, stock options and stock appreciation rights may be granted; however, we currently have no plans or intentions of using these as a form of compensation.

The Compensation Committee supports the belief that equity participation aligns employees' interests with those of the shareholders. However, we have not yet instituted stock ownership or retention guidelines for our executive officers.

Other Benefits

We provide a number of benefits as part of our overall remuneration package to all eligible employees including the named executive officers.

We operate a defined contribution retirement plan — a qualified 401(k) Plan which allows each of our employees to contribute up to the limits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code (US), on a pre-tax basis. We provide for matching payments up to 50% of the first six percent of employee contributions.

We also provide other benefits such as medical, dental, life insurance and short and long-term disability coverage to each named executive officer, as well as to all of our full-time employees. In addition, we provide paid time off and other paid holidays to all employees, including our named executive officers, which we believe are in line with our peers in the industry.

Tax Considerations

The Compensation Committee's compensation strategy is to be cost and tax effective. Therefore, the Compensation Committee's policy is to preserve corporate tax deductions, while maintaining the flexibility to approve compensation arrangements that it deems to be in the best interests of our company and our stockholders, even if such arrangements do not always qualify for full tax deductibility.

Employment Agreements

Descriptions of the employment agreements with Messrs. Rosato, Gallagher, Dec and Weiss are set forth below. The terms and conditions of Messrs. Rosato's and Gallagher's employment agreements were negotiated with the sellers of TSS/Vortech as well as with such executives as part of the negotiation of the overall terms and conditions of the acquisition. We expect that the Compensation Committee will, in connection with the development of a comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy, recommend to our Board the compensation and terms of employment for our other executive officers whereupon we may enter into appropriate employment agreements with them.

Change in Control and Severance

As described below, the employment agreements of Messrs. Rosato, Gallagher, Dec and Weiss provide for severance benefits. We have not yet developed any comprehensive severance policies for our executive officers but expect to do so in connection with the development of our comprehensive executive compensation program and philosophy.

Role of Executive Officers in Executive Compensation

We expect that our Compensation Committee will approve and make recommendations to our Board with respect to the compensation for our executive officers, other than Mr. Rosato, with the advice of Mr. Rosato and/or one or more other executive officers designated by Mr. Rosato. We expect Mr. Rosato and any such other executive officers to play no role in the Compensation Committee's determination of their respective compensation. However, to the extent we enter into employment agreements with our executive officers, such agreements would be subject to negotiation between us and the applicable executive officer.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of our Board has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K, which appears elsewhere in this annual report, with our management. Based on this review and discussion, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this annual report.

Item 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock, as of March 31, 2008, by our directors, the named executive officers, the directors and executive officers as a group, and each person known by the company to beneficially own more than five percent of our outstanding shares of common stock. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. Percentage ownership is based on 12,089,221 share of common stock outstanding on March 31, 2008. Except as indicated in footnotes to this table, we believe that the stockholders named in this table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all share of common stock shown to be beneficially owned by them based on information provided to us by these stockholders. Unless otherwise indicated, the address for each director and current executive officer is c/o Fortress International Group, Inc., 9841 Broken Land Parkway, Columbia, Maryland 21046.

Rosato, our Chief Executive Officer and a member of our Board, to revise the repayment terms of the $5,000,000 Convertible Promissory Note, dated January 19, 2007, issued to Mr. Rosato us (the "Rosato Note"), as consideration in connection with our acquisition of TSS/Vortech. Pursuant to the Agreement, we paid down a portion of the Rosato Note in the amount of $2,000,000 as a prepayment of the Rosato Note and Mr. Rosato agreed that such prepayment retired $2,500,000 of the Rosato Note. All of the shares of our common stock outstanding prior to our initial public offering (“initial shares”) and held by the above stockholders (“initial stockholders”) were placed in escrow with Continental Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent, until the earliest of: July 13, 2008; our dissolution and liquidation; or the consummation of a liquidation, merger, stock exchange or other similar transaction which results in all of our stockholders having the right to exchange their shares of common stock for cash, securities or other property subsequent to our consummating a business combination with a target business.

During the escrow period, the initial stockholders will not be able to sell or transfer their securities except to their spouses and children or trusts established for their benefit or otherwise as provided in the stock escrow agreement, but will retain all other rights as our stockholders, including, without limitation, the right to vote their shares of common stock and the right to receive cash dividends, if declared. If dividends are declared and payable in shares of common stock, such dividends will also be placed in escrow.

Registration Rights. The holders of the majority of the initial shares are entitled to make up to two demands that we register the initial shares. The holders of the majority of the initial shares may elect to exercise these registration rights at any time after the date on which the initial shares are released from escrow, which, except in limited circumstances, is not before July 13, 2008. In addition, the initial stockholders have certain “piggyback” registration rights on registration statements filed subsequent to the date on which these shares of common stock are released from escrow. We will bear the expenses incurred in connection with the filing of any such registration statements.

In addition to base compensation and eligibility for a bonus, Washington Capital Advisors is entitled to a referral fee equal to 5% of the "Gross Profits" (as defined in the Consulting Agreement) attributable to any client or customer (other than the federal government, or any agency or subdivision thereof) identified by Washington Capital Advisors to us or any of our subsidiaries. Pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement, if we terminate the Consulting Agreement for reasons other than "Cause" or Washington Capital Advisors terminates the Consulting Agreement for "Good Reason" (as those terms are defined in the Consulting Agreement), Washington Capital Advisors is entitled to receive its base compensation as and when it would otherwise be payable if the Consulting Agreement had not been terminated (provided, however that if termination occurs during the last twelve months of the Consulting Agreement, then Washington Capital Advisors shall be entitled to receive amounts equal to base compensation (as and on the terms otherwise payable) for twelve months from the date of termination). During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, $200,000 was paid pursuant to this agreement.

Director Independence

The Board has adopted standards concerning director independence which meet the independence standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and, with respect to the Audit Committee, the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

We and our Board are involved in the process for determining the independence of acting directors and director nominees. We solicit relevant information from directors and director nominees via a questionnaire, which covers material relationships, compensatory arrangements, employment and any affiliation with us. In addition to reviewing information provided in the questionnaire, we ask our executive officers on an annual basis regarding their awareness of any existing or currently proposed transactions, arrangements or understandings involving our company in which any director or director nominee has or will have a direct or indirect material interest, including charitable contributions made by our company to nonprofit organizations with which any director is affiliated. We share our findings with the Board regarding the Nasdaq Stock Market and SEC independence requirements and any information regarding the director or director nominee that suggest that such individual is not independent. The Board discusses all relevant issues, including consideration of any transactions, relationships or arrangements which are not required to be disclosed under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, prior to making a determination with respect to the independence of each director.

Based on the review described above, the Board affirmatively determined that a majority of the directors are independent, and all members of the Audit and Compensation Committees are independent, under the Nasdaq standard and, in the case of the Audit Committee, the SEC standard. Our independent directors are: Donald L. Nickles, Asa Hutchinson, John Morton, III, David J. Mitchell and William L. Jews.

Other than as described above, in 2007, there were no transactions, relationships or arrangements not disclosed as related person transactions that were considered by the Board in determining that the applicable independence standards were met by each of the directors.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-audit Services of Independent Auditors

Consistent with policies of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility, pursuant to its written charter, for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the audit committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor. The Audit Committee's policy is to approve all audit and non-audit services provided by our independent registered public accounting firm prior to the commencement of the services using a combination of pre-approvals for certain engagements up to predetermined dollar thresholds in accordance with the pre-approval policy and specific approvals for certain engagements on a case-by-case basis.
