FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANDINA ACQUISITION CORPORATION PROVIDES 2014 PROJECTIONS FOR TECNOGLASS

Expects Revenue of $260.9 Million, Adjusted EBITDA of $42.7 Million, and

Net Income of $16.9 Million

New York, NY and Barranquilla, Colombia – December 9, 2013 – Andina Acquisition Corporation (NASDAQ: ANDA; ANDAW) (“Andina”) and privately-held Tecnoglass S.A. and C.I. Energia Solar S.A. E.S. Windows (collectively, “Tecnoglass”), today jointly announced that Tecnoglass has provided revenue, Adjusted EBITDA, and net income forecasts for the year ending December 31, 2014 of $260.9 million, Adjusted EBITDA of $42.7 million, and net income of $16.9 million, respectively.

Tecnoglass’ projections for 2014 reflect better than forecasted growth in key markets, particularly the United States. The United States is Colombia’s largest trading partner, and the two countries entered into the U.S.-Colombia Trade Promotion Agreement, a free trade agreement, in May 2012. The U.S.-Colombia Trade Promotion Agreement aims to improve the investment environment, eliminate tariffs and other barriers to U.S. exports, expand trade, and promote economic growth in both countries.

Andina and Tecnoglass have entered into a Merger Agreement that will allow Tecnoglass to go public, with the current owners of Tecnoglass retaining majority ownership and control. As announced on December 4, 2013, all shareholders of record as of November 22, 2013 are entitled to vote at Andina’s Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (the “Meeting”) in person or by proxy to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination between Andina and Tecnoglass. The Meeting will be held on Friday, December 20, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. ET at the offices of Graubard Miller, 405 Lexington Avenue, New York City.

Additional information regarding the Meeting and the proposed merger is available in Andina’s Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 4, 2013, a copy of which may be accessed, free of charge, at www.sec.gov.

Financial Presentation

Certain of the financial information contained herein is unaudited and does not conform to SEC Regulation S-X. Furthermore, it includes Adjusted EBITDA which is a non-GAAP financial measure as defined by Regulation G promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Accordingly, the combined company's financial information may be materially different when presented in Andina's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Andina and Tecnoglass believe that the presentation of this non-GAAP financial measure provides information that is useful to investors as it indicates more clearly the ability of Tecnoglass to meet capital expenditures and working capital requirements and otherwise meet its obligations as they become due. Adjusted EBITDA was derived by taking earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization as adjusted for certain one-time non-recurring items and exclusions, and banking expenses.

Below is a table that reconciles Adjusted EBIT and Adjusted EBITDA for 2014 to net income (in thousands of dollars; converted at 9/30/13 spot rate of COP 1,910.00 / US$.)
