Announcement of Dissolution of Two Subsidiaries

At a meeting of the board of directors held today it was decided to dissolve Euro Makita Corporation B.V. (in the Netherlands) and Makita Fastenings Corporation (a domestic company), both of which are 100% wholly owned subsidiaries of Makita Corporation.

As a result, the Company has 41 overseas subsidiaries (of which 23 are in Europe) and two in Japan.

1. Reasons for dissolution

Euro Makita Corporation B.V. was established as a financing subsidiary for the procurement and management of funds in Europe and to provide loans to our European subsidiaries, but the steady improvement of business results at our European subsidiaries has reduced their demand for loans, and inasmuch as the opportunities to utilize this subsidiary had decreased, we have decided to dissolve the company.

Makita Fastenings Corporation was established as the successor to the nailer business that were acquired from the Kanematsu-NNK Corporation; however, changes in the transfer procedure essentially eliminated opportunities to utilize this subsidiary, and hence it was decided to dissolve the company.
