Explanation regarding proper use of business forecasts, and other significant matters

This report modifies the consolidated forecast for the year ending March 31, 2008. Regarding the assumptions for the revised forecast and other matters, refer to [Qualitative Information and Financial Statements] Section 3

Qualitative information on consolidated forecast for the year ending March 31, 2008 (on page 3).

The forecast given above is based on information as available at the present time, and includes potential risk and uncertainties. As a consequence of this and other factors, actual results may vary from the forecasts provided above.

Table of Contents*[Qualitative Information and Financial Statements]*1. Qualitative information on consolidated financial results

Net sales rose 30.1% over the same quarter of the previous year, to 80,615 million yen. This performance was due to strong sales in Europe and other regions, and included a contribution from sales made by Fuji Robin Industries Ltd., which became a consolidated subsidiary in May of this year. Reflecting the weaker yen, sales also rose when currency conversions were performed.

With regard to earnings, operating income amounted to 14,992 million yen (ratio of operating income to net sales; 18.6%), up 43.1% from the same quarter of the previous year, income before income taxes amounted to 15,417 million yen (ratio of income before income taxes to net sales; 19.1%), up 39.4% and net income for the quarter amounted to 11,243 million yen (ratio of net income to net sales; 13.9%), up 43.8%.

2. Qualitative information on consolidated financial position

Total cash and cash equivalents ( cash ) at the end of period amounted to 39,602 million yen, up 2,474 million yen from the end of the previous year.

(Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities)

Net cash provided by operating activities amounted to 3,337 million yen, reflecting factors including favorable business performance.

(Net Cash Provided by Investing Activities)

Net cash provided by investing activities amounted to 6,157 million yen. Although the Company made capital expenditures, principally for the rebuilding of Head office and Okazaki plant, these cash outflows were more than offset by proceeds from the sale of securities.

(Net Cash Used in Financing Activities)

Net cash used in financing activities amounted to 7,928 million yen, reflecting the payment of cash dividends and other factors.

3. Qualitative information on consolidated forecast for the year ending March 31, 2008

Consolidated performance during the fiscal 2008 is expected to exceed the earlier forecasts (as of May 8, 2007). In addition to strong sales in Eastern Europe and Russia for the quarter under review, weakness of the Japanese yen serves to increase both sales and earnings.

(FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS)

This document contains forward-looking statements based on information available and rational assumptions as of this time. Actual results could differ substantially from the content of these statements, due to one or more of a variety of factors. Important factors deemed to have potential to significantly influence actual results are those noted below.

Note that these are not the only factors that can influence actual performance.

- (1) Makita's sales are affected by the levels of construction activities and capital investments in its markets.
- (2) Currency exchange rate fluctuations may adversely affect Makita's financial results.
- (3) The global intensified competition may adversely affect Makita's sales results.
- (4) If Makita is not able to develop attractive products, Makita's sales activities may be adversely affected.
- (5) Geographic concentration of Makita's main facilities may have adverse effects on Makita's business activities.
- (6) Makita's overseas activities and entry into overseas markets entail risks, which may have a material adverse effect on Makita's business activities.
- (7) If Makita fails to maintain cooperative relationships with significant customers, Makita's sales may be seriously affected.
- (8) If any of Makita's suppliers fail to deliver materials or parts required for production as scheduled, Makita's production activities may be adversely affected.
- (9) When the procurement of raw materials used by Makita becomes difficult or prices of these raw materials rise sharply, this may have an adverse impact on performance.
- (10) Product liability litigation or recalls may harm Makita's financial statements and reputation.
- (11) Fluctuations in stock market prices may adversely affect Makita's financial statements.
- (12) Violation of intellectual property rights may have an adverse impact on performance.
- (13) Environmental or other government regulations may have a material adverse impact on Makita's business activities.
- (14) Investor confidence and the value of Makita's ADRs and ordinary shares may be adversely impacted if Makita's management concludes that Makita's internal controls over financial reporting are not effective as of March 31, 2008, or if Makita's independent registered public accounting firm is unable to attest to management's assessment, or to provide unqualified opinion on the effectiveness of Makita's internal controls over financial reporting, as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Regarding the assumptions for the revised forecast, refer to [Qualitative Information and Financial Statements] Section 3 Qualitative information on consolidated forecast for the year ending March 31, 2008 (on page 3).
