Midland, Texas 79701

Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on May 30, 2007
Some Questions You May Have Regarding this Proxy Statement

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Amen Properties, Inc. We are providing these proxy materials to you in connection with our Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to be held at 303 West Wall Street, Suite 2300, Midland, TX 79701, on May 30, 2007 at 8:30 a.m., Central Daylight Time. As a Company shareholder, you are invited to attend the Annual Meeting and are entitled and requested to vote on the proposals described in this proxy statement.

Q: Who may vote at the meeting?

A: You may vote all of the shares of our common stock that you owned at the close of business on April 16, 2007, the record date. On the record date, Amen Properties, Inc. had 2,290,589 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the meeting. In addition, 333,333 shares of Common Stock are deemed outstanding for voting purposes with respect to the 80,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock ("Series A"), 233,317 shares of Common Stock are deemed outstanding for voting purposes with respect to the 80,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock ("Series B"), and 470,000 shares of Common Stock are deemed outstanding for voting purposes with respect to the 125,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock ("Series C"). Therefore, there are a total of 3,327,239 voting shares as of the Record Date. You may cast one vote for each share of common stock held by you (or deemed to be held by you due to your ownership of preferred stock) on all matters presented at the meeting.

Q: What proposals will be voted on at the meeting?

A: There are two Company proposals to be considered and voted on at the meeting, which are:

1. To elect six directors to the Board of Directors of Amen Properties, Inc. (the "Company") to serve one-year terms expiring at the later of the annual meeting shareholders in 2008 or upon a successor being elected and qualified.

2. To approve and ratify an amendment to the employment agreement of Padraig Ennis which will enable him to receive restricted Company stock in lieu of a portion of his salary.

3. To approve and ratify an amendment to the employment agreement of John Bick which will enable him to receive restricted Company stock in lieu of a portion of his salary.

4. To approve and ratify an amendment to the employment agreement of Kevin Yung which increases the scope of the businesses included in his bonus calculation to include all current and future energy related businesses.

Q: How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote?

A: Please see the information included in the proxy statement relating to the proposals to be voted on. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote:

1. "FOR" each of the nominees to the Board of Directors
2. "FOR" approval and ratification of the amendment to the employment agreement of Padraig Ennis
3. "FOR" approval and ratification of the amendment to the employment agreement of John Bick
4. "FOR" approval and ratification of the amendment to the employment agreement of Kevin Yung

Q: What happens if additional matters are presented at the annual meeting?

A: Other than the items of business described in this proxy statement, we are not aware of any other business to be acted upon at the annual meeting. If you grant a proxy, the persons named as proxyholders, Eric L. Oliver and Jon Morgan, will have the discretion to vote your shares on any additional matters properly presented for a vote at the meeting.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If your shares are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer, you are considered a shareholder of record with respect to those shares and the proxy materials and proxy card are being sent directly to you. Please carefully consider the information contained in this proxy statement and, whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, complete, date, sign and return the accompanying proxy card promptly so that we can be assured of having a quorum present at the meeting and so that your shares may be voted in accordance with your wishes even if you later decide not to attend the annual meeting. To vote at the meeting, please bring the enclosed proxy card, or vote using the ballot provided at the meeting.

If like most shareholders of the Company, you hold your shares in street name through a stockbroker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in your own name, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares, and the proxy materials are being forwarded to you together with a voting instruction card. Please carefully consider the information contained in this proxy statement and, whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, complete, date, sign and return the accompanying proxy card promptly as instructed by your broker or nominee so that we can be assured of having a quorum present at the meeting and so that your shares may be voted in accordance with your wishes.

Q: What constitutes a quorum and why is a quorum required?

A: A quorum is required for the Company shareholders to conduct business at the meeting. The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the record date will constitute a quorum, permitting us to conduct the business of the meeting. Proxies received but marked as abstentions, if any, will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting for quorum purposes.

Q: What if I don't vote or abstain? How are broker non-votes counted?

A: Abstentions are included in the determination of shares present for quorum purposes. Because abstentions represent shares entitled to vote, the effect of an abstention will be the same as a vote against a proposal. However, abstentions will have no effect on the election of directors.

Eric L. Oliver and Jon Morgan are officers of the Company and were named by our Board of Directors as proxy holders. They will vote all proxies, or record an abstention or withholding, in accordance with the directions on the proxy. If no contrary direction is given, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors. For beneficial shareholders, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to certain matters to be acted upon. If you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to those matters. Shares represented by such "broker non-votes," however, will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum present.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if the proposal is a matter on which your broker has discretion to vote (such as the election of directors), or if you provide instructions on how to vote by following the instructions provided to you by your broker.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before its exercise. You may also revoke your proxy by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. If you are a beneficial shareholder, you must contact your brokerage firm or bank to change your vote or obtain a proxy to vote your shares if you wish to cast your vote in person at the meeting.

Q: Who will count the votes?

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

- A: Stockholder votes by proxy will be tabulated by ADP Investor Communication Services.
- Q: Where can I find voting results of the meeting?
- A: We will announce preliminary voting results at the meeting and publish final results in our quarterly report on Form 10-QSB for the second quarter of fiscal year 2007 or in an earlier filed Form 8-K.
- Q: Who will bear the cost for soliciting votes for the meeting?
- A: We will bear all expenses in conjunction with the solicitation of the enclosed proxy, including the charges of brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees or fiduciaries for forwarding documents to security owners. We may hire a proxy solicitation firm at a standard industry compensation rate. In addition, proxies may be solicited by mail, in person, or by telephone or fax by certain of our officers, directors and regular employees.
- Q: Whom should I call with other questions?
- A: If you have additional questions about this proxy statement or the meeting or would like additional copies of this document or our 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-KSB, please contact: Amen Properties, Inc. 303 W. Wall Street Suite 1700, Midland, TX 79701, Attention: Investor Relations Dept., Telephone: (432) 684-3821.
- Q: What vote is required for approval of the proposals presented?
- A: Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast in the election of directors. The other proposals require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes present at the meeting and entitled to be cast.

Corporate Governance

Meeting Attendance

AMEN's business is managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board meets during our fiscal year to review significant developments and to act on matters requiring Board approval. The Board of Directors held five formal meetings and acted by unanimous written consent on other occasions during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. None of the Company's directors attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and their respective committee meetings held subsequent to their election to the Board in 2006.

Board Independence

Messrs. Edgington, Gjelde, Blake and Nicholson are independent directors under the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. All of the Board's standing committees (described below) are comprised entirely of independent directors.

Board Committees

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, and a Nominating Committee to devote attention to specific subjects and to assist the Board in the discharge of its responsibilities. The Board committees are currently comprised of independent directors in accordance with the NASDAQ rules. The functions of these committees and their members as of the date of the Annual Meeting are described below.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is comprised of Messrs. Edgington (Chair), Nicholson, and Blake, Jr. all of whom are independent directors. The Audit Committee held four meetings during 2006. The Audit Committee, among other things, oversees the accounting and financial reporting practices of the Company and reviews the annual audit with the Company's independent accountants. In addition, the Audit Committee has the sole authority and responsibility to select, evaluate, and where appropriate, replace the independent auditors. The general responsibilities of the Audit Committee are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter, a copy of which was attached to the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement as Appendix I and can also be seen on the Company's web site at <http://www.amenproperties.com>. The Board has determined that no member of the Committee meets all of the criteria needed to qualify as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by the Commission regulations. The Board believes that each of the current members of the Committee has sufficient knowledge and experience in financial matters to perform his duties on the Committee.

The Audit Committee oversees our financial reporting, internal controls and audit functions on behalf of the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee has reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB with management including discussions of accounting principles, reasonableness of judgments, and the clarity of financial disclosures. The Committee also reviewed with the independent auditors their assessment of financial statements and of management's judgments in deriving the financial statements. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required by SAS 61 and the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board and discussed with the independent accountant the independent accountant's independence. The Committee also met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss their examinations, evaluations of our internal controls and the overall quality of our financial reporting.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in AMEN's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for filing with the Commission.

Nominating Committee

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The Nominating Committee is comprised of Messrs. Blake, Jr., (chair), Edgington and Gjelde, all of whom are independent directors. The Nominating Committee did not meet during 2006. The Nominating Committee operates pursuant to a Nominating Committee Charter which was attached to Company's 2004 Proxy Statement as Appendix II and can also be seen on the Company's web site at <http://www.amenproperties.com>.

The Nominating Committee identifies nominees for directors of the Company by first evaluating the current members of the Board of Directors willing to continue in service. If any Board member does not wish to continue in service, if the Nominating Committee decides not to nominate a member for re-election or if the Board desires to increase the size of the Board by adding new director positions, then the Nominating Committee establishes a pool of potential director candidates from recommendation from the Board, senior management and stockholders, who are then evaluated through the review process outlined below. All of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement are current directors standing for re-election.

The Nominating Committee reviews the credentials of potential director candidates (including potential candidates recommended by stockholders), conducts interviews and makes formal nominations for the election of directors. In making its nominations, the Nominating Committee considers a variety of factors, including the following factors: integrity, high level of education, skills, background, independence, financial expertise, experience or knowledge with businesses relevant to the Company's current and future business plans, experience with business of similar size, all other relevant experience, understanding of the Company's business and industry diversity, compatibility with existing Board members, and such other factors as the Nominating Committee deems appropriate in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Proposed nominees are not evaluated differently depending upon who has made the proposal. The Company has not to date paid any third party fee to assist in this process.

The Company will consider proposed nominees whose names are submitted to the Nominating Committee, by stockholders. Proposals made by stockholders for nominees to be considered by the Nominating Committee with respect to an annual stockholders meeting must be in writing and received by the Company prior to the end of the fiscal year preceding such annual meeting.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is comprised of Messrs. Gjelde (Chair), Edgington and Nicholson, and met one time during 2006. The Compensation Committee was established to advise the Board and consult with management concerning the salaries, incentives and other forms of compensation for the officers and other employees of the Company. The committee also administers the Company's stock option plans. The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a Compensation Committee Charter which can be reviewed at the Company's website at <http://www.amenproperties.com>.

Shareholder Communication

Shareholders may send other communications to the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or an individual Director. Any such communication should be sent in writing addressed to the Board of Directors, the specific committee or individual Director in care of the Company's Secretary at the address on the front of this Proxy Statement. The Company's Secretary is responsible for determining, in consultation with other officers of the Company, counsel and other advisers, as appropriate, which stockholder-communications will be relayed to the Board, committee or individual Director. The Secretary may determine not to forward any letter to the Board, committee or individual Director that does not relate to the business of the Company.

Attendance of Directors at Annual Shareholders Meeting

The Corporation expects all Board members to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, but from time to time, other commitments may prevent all directors from attending each meeting. All directors attended the most recent annual meeting of shareholders, which was held on May 17, 2006.

Director Compensation

All directors receive reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in attending Board and Committee meetings but received no other compensation for the year 2006.

Board of Directors Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" EACH OF THE NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR SET FORTH IN THIS PROPOSAL.

Background

Effective April 1, 2006, the Company completed the acquisition of 100% of Priority Power Management ("Priority Power"). Priority Power is primarily involved in providing energy management services and the Company believes that Priority Power's business is complimentary to the retail electricity provider business conducted by the Company's subsidiary W Power. Effective June 1, 2006, the employment agreement of Mr. Ennis was amended to add the Company and other subsidiaries as beneficiaries of the agreement, and specify that the Company would make a portion of his quarterly salary payments by issuing restricted common stock in lieu of cash. The table below shows the restricted stock that will be issued to Mr. Ennis in lieu of the original cash payments:

Employee	Quarterly Salary	Portion of Quarterly Salary Paid In Stock	Quarterly Stock Issuance
Padraig Ennis	$4,473	45%	460 shares

Please see additional information on the effect of the amendment under "New Plan Benefits" on page 16.

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The stock issued in accordance with the amended employment agreement will be restricted stock under Rule 144 of the Exchange Act. The Company does not anticipate issuing stock pursuant to this amendment until the 2nd Quarter of 2007, assuming shareholder approval.

The amendment to the employment agreement will be substantially the form attached to Schedule 14A filed with the Commission as Appendix I, and the final form will be filed with the Commission after execution thereof.

Board of Directors Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL AND RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT OF PADRAIG ENNIS.

PROPOSAL THREE--APPROVAL AND RATIFICATION OF AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT OF JOHN BICK

Background

Effective April 1, 2006, the Company completed the acquisition of 100% of Priority Power Management ("Priority Power"). Priority Power is primarily involved in providing energy management services and the Company believes that Priority Power's business is complimentary to the retail electricity provider business conducted by the Company's subsidiary W Power. Two of Priority Power's key executives entered into employment agreements with Priority Power effective June 1, 2006 - Padraig Ennis and John Bick.

Amendment to Employment Agreement

Effective June 1, 2006, the employment agreement of Mr. Bick was amended to add the Company and other subsidiaries as beneficiaries of the agreement, and specify that the Company would make a portion of his quarterly salary payments by issuing restricted common stock in lieu of cash. Employee	Quarterly Salary	Portion of Quarterly Salary Paid In Stock	Quarterly Stock Issuance
John Bick	$11,591	100%	2,644 shares

Please see additional information on the effect of the amendment under "New Plan Benefits" on page 16.

The stock issued in accordance with the amended employment agreement will be restricted stock under Rule 144 of the Exchange Act. The Company does not anticipate issuing stock pursuant to this amendment until the 2nd Quarter of 2007, assuming shareholder approval.

The amendment to the employment agreement will be substantially the form attached to Schedule 14A filed with the Commission as Appendix II, and the final form will be filed with the Commission after execution hereof.

Board of Directors Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL AND

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT OF JOHN BICK.

PROPOSAL FOUR--RATIFICATION OF AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT OF KEVIN YUNG

Background

On July 1, 2004, the Company entered into an Employment and Non-Competition Agreement with Kevin Yung, the President of W Power & Light, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. This agreement specified that Mr. Yung would receive annual compensation of $150,000 salary plus a bonus equal to 25% of the increase in shareholder equity directly attributable to the Company's Retail Electricity Provider (REP) business.

Since the execution of Mr. Yung's employment agreement in 2004, the Company has expanded its presence in the electricity and energy markets beyond its REP, W Power & Light. In particular, the 2006 purchase of Priority Power established the Company as a leader in the energy consulting and aggregation market. In recognition of the Company's expanded participation in the energy market and the key role that Mr. Yung will play in those businesses, the Company amended Mr. Yung's employment agreement effective December 5, 2006.

Amendment to Employment Agreement

As stated previously, Mr. Yung's employment agreement specified that he would receive an annual bonus equal to 25% of the increase in the Company's shareholder equity directly attributable to the REP business. The December 5, 2006 amendment specifies that Mr. Yung's bonus will be equal to 25% of the increase in the Company's shareholder equity that is directly attributable to the Company's existing or future new, acquired, or merged businesses associated with wholesale and retail electricity and natural gas marketing and consulting services, including but not limited to retail electricity providers (REPs), qualified scheduling entities, gas and power aggregation, gas and power brokering, energy services, and energy consulting. For acquired or merged energy businesses, the basis against which the shareholder equity increase is measured and Employee's Bonus is calculated shall be only on that portion exceeding the expected earnings as determined by the Company and thereby included in the purchase price of the acquired or merged business.

The Company accrued for Mr. Yung's 2006 bonus using the methodology described in the amendment to his employment agreement. As shown in the Executive Compensation section below, Mr. Yung's bonus for 2006 was $68,589.

The amendment to the employment agreement will be substantially the form attached to Schedule 14A filed with the Commission as Appendix III, and the final form will be filed with the Commission after execution hereof.

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

In October 2002, the Company purchased 64.9% of the limited partnership shares of TCTB Partners, Ltd. ("TCTB"), a real estate company with holdings in Midland and Lubbock. Eric Oliver, Chairman of Board, and Jon Morgan, Chief Executive Officer, either directly or beneficially owned interests in TCTB. Mr. Morgan is also President of TCTB Company, Inc., the general partner of TCTB that controls its daily operations. Mr. Oliver sold all his LP Interest in TCTB totaling 7.94% (which he owned beneficially through a limited partnership) to the Company, and Mr. Morgan sold all his LP Interest in TCTB totaling 10.54% to the Company. Both Mr. Oliver and Mr. Morgan retained their proportionate share of their interest in TCTB Company, Inc. Other preferred and common shareholders of the Company also sold their 21.14% total LP Interest in TCTB to the Company.

Disposition of Assets

On September 27, 2006, the Company entered into an agreement to distribute substantially all of the assets of TCTB among its partners (the "Properties"). The Properties were subject to a lien to secure a promissory note (the "Note") payable to Wells Fargo Bank Texas, N.A. The partners of TCTB agreed that it was in their best interest to distribute undivided interests in the Properties to the partners according to the sharing ratios of the Partnership. The Bank agreed to allow TCTB to distribute the Properties to the partners of TCTB in exchange for the payoff of the Note.

Contemporaneous with the distribution of the Properties, the Company along with the General Partner and the other Limited Partners of TCTB (the "Selling Partners") collectively agreed to sell 75% of their collective undivided interest in the Properties to Hampshire Plaza Garage, LLC and S.E.S. Investments, Ltd., unaffiliated third party purchasers for a privately negotiated price of $9.0 million. A separate Purchase Agreement was executed between the Buyers and TCTB dated September 29, 2006. After this transaction, the Company owned 18.017% of the Properties and the other Selling Partners owned their proportional remaining interests in the Properties (collectively, the "Remaining Interests").

After the sale, TCTB, the Selling Partners and the Buyers, as all of the owners of the Properties, entered into a Management Agreement with TCTB Management Group, LLC ("Management") dated September 29, 2006 relating to the management of the Properties. The Management Agreement is effective until August 31, 2007 unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. The owners of Management are the Selling Partners (including the Company) and the Buyers in the same percentages as their proportionate ownership of the Properties. Mr. Jon Morgan, President and CEO of the Company, is the managing member of Management. Mr. Morgan and his affiliate were among the Selling Partners and the sale of their undivided interest in the Properties resulted in Mr. Morgan receiving a check in the amount of $79,317. Mr. Morgan is also an owner and officer of the General Partner of TCTB, and took actions in such capacity in connection with this transaction in addition to acting as an officer of the Company. As an owner of such General Partner, Mr. Morgan indirectly received an additional $5,300 from the sale of the General Partner's interest in the Properties.

OTHER INFORMATION

Security Ownership of Beneficial Owners and Management

Treatment of Preferred Stock. The Company's voting securities include both the Common Stock and the Preferred Stock. The holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to vote together with the holders of the Common Stock as a single class on the basis of a number of votes equal to a number of shares of Common Stock determined in accordance with the Certificates of Designation for each series of the Preferred Stock. Because the Preferred Stock and the Common Stock vote together as a single class and because the Preferred Stock is convertible into Common Stock, the beneficial ownership of the voting securities of the Company is set forth in the following tables reflecting beneficial ownership of Common Stock, and no separate Preferred Stock ownership tables are provided. Please note that that number of votes held by the holders of Series B is the same as the number of shares into which the Series B is convertible, and the number of votes held by the holders of the Series A is approximately one-half of the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Series A is convertible. Additionally, the number of votes held by the holders of Series C is approximately ninety four percent (94%) of the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Series C is convertible. Therefore, in the footnotes to the following ownership tables, the number of votes attributable to the ownership of Series A and Series C is set forth in parenthesis following the number of shares into which such Series A and Series C are convertible.

General. Unless otherwise noted, all persons named in the following ownership tables have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to all shares of voting stock beneficially owned by them, and no persons named in the table are acting as nominees for any persons or otherwise under the control of any person or group of persons. As used herein, the term "beneficial ownership" with respect to a security means the sole or shared voting power (including the power to vote and direct the vote) or sole or shared investment power (including the power to dispose or direct the disposition) with respect to the security, including a right to acquire any such power during a period of sixty (60) days from the Record Date. Percentage of beneficial ownership is based upon 2,290,589 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of the Record Date and for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of certain persons or groups, the shares of Common Stock that the person has the right to acquire within sixty (60) days of the Record Date (whether upon conversion of the Preferred Stock, exercise of vested stock options, exercise of warrants or otherwise), are deemed to be outstanding as of that date. Such shares deemed to be outstanding as to one person are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage ownership of any other person.

- C. Employer and Employee desire to amend certain provisions of the Original Agreement as provided in and subject to the terms and conditions of this First Amendment.

NOW, THEREFORE, FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the mutual promises, covenants and agreements set forth herein and in the Original Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

- 1. Addition of Amen. Amen is hereby added as a party to the Amended Agreement for the limited purposes of giving Amen the right and power to enforce the provisions of the Amended Agreement which are or may be for the benefit of or confer rights to Amen, and with respect to its limited obligations to issue shares of common stock of Amen (the "Common Stock") pursuant to the terms of the Amended Agreement.

Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

2. Amendment of Section 1 of the Original Agreement. Section 1 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end of said section:

As used herein, the term "Business" shall include the businesses of Employer, Amen or any such subsidiary to which Employee provides services."

3. Amendment of Section 4 of the Original Agreement. Subject to approval of the stockholders of Amen regarding the issuance of Common Stock as provided below, Section 4 of the Original Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Any acceptance by Employee of any payment by Employer of amounts other than as set forth herein shall constitute the agreement of the parties to change such salary. Such salary shall be payable in cash, except for the semi-monthly salary payable on the last day of the month at the end of each calendar quarter (a "Quarter-ending Salary Payment") beginning on June 30, 2007 and continuing each quarter thereafter until the earlier of the termination of Employee's employment under this Agreement or June 30, 2014. APPENDIX III
AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT OF KEVIN YUNG
ADDENDUM TO EMPLOYMENT AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

This Addendum (the "Addendum") references the original Employment and Non-Competition Agreement (the "Agreement") entered into as of the 1st day of July, 2004 (the "Effective Date"), between AMEN PROPERTIES, INC., a Delaware corporation (together with any subsidiary of such corporation employing Employee at any time during the term hereof, the "Company"), and KEVIN YUNG (the "Employee"). Both Company and Employee agree to the following changes to the Agreement, effective December 5, 2006:

A. Under section 4 of the original Agreement, entitled, "Compensation and Related Matters", subsection (b), "Bonus", the original calculation shall be changed to the following:

(b) Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Employee shall be eligible for an annual bonus for each completed fiscal year of the Company during the term hereof (the "Bonus"). The amount of each Bonus shall be equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of any increase for that fiscal year in the consolidated stockholder equity of Amen Properties, Inc. directly attributed to the financial results of the Company's existing or future new, acquired, or merged businesses associated with wholesale and retail electricity and natural gas marketing and consulting services, including but not limited to retail electricity providers, qualified scheduling entities, gas and power aggregation, gas and power brokering, energy services, and energy consulting. For acquired or merged energy businesses, the basis against which the consolidated stockholder equity increase is measured and Employee's Bonus is calculated shall be only on that portion exceeding the expected earnings as determined by the Company and thereby included in the purchase price of the acquired or merged business. All calculations of the Bonus shall be determined by the Company's independent accountants in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; provided, that if there is a decrease for any fiscal year in such consolidated stockholder equity, the amount of such decrease shall be subtracted from any increase in any subsequent fiscal year and the Bonus for such subsequent fiscal year(s) shall be calculated based upon the net increase, if any, after subtracting the amount of such decrease. Employee and Company may, upon written agreement by both parties and approved by the Amen Board of Directors, choose to include or exclude certain businesses from the Bonus calculation, or amend the Bonus calculation in other ways. Such Bonuses shall be paid within forty-five (45) days of the end of each fiscal year of the Company, and may be paid, at the Employee's option

upon written notice to the Company, either in cash or in shares of the 42

Company's Common Stock, $.01 par value, of Amen Properties, Inc. (the "Company Common Stock"), having a Market Value (as defined below) equal to the amount of the payment due, or a combination thereof; provided, that the Company shall have the option to pay the Bonus, or any portion thereof, in cash notwithstanding the Employee's election of payment in shares of Company Common Stock if the Company has a good faith belief that the issuance of such shares may cause the Company to risk the loss of any of its net operating loss carryforward under the Internal Revenue Code and applicable Treasury Regulations. As used herein, (i) "Market Value" shall be $3.20 per share for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and thereafter shall be calculated using a price per share equal to the average closing price for the Company Common Stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market (or other exchange or securities quotation service on which the Company Common Stock is Publicly Traded) for twenty (20) trading days prior to the date of issuance of the shares as payment required by this Section 4(b), and (ii) "Publicly Traded" means a security that is listed or admitted to unlisted trading privileges on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") or if sales or bid and offer quotations are reported for that class of stock in the automated quotation system operated by the NASD. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Company will not be required to register under applicable securities laws any shares of Company Common Stock issued to him under this Agreement, that, if unregistered, the transfer of such stock will be restricted under applicable securities laws, and that he understands and accepts all risks associated with owning shares of Company Common Stock, including without limitation those related to such restrictions on transfer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date and year first above written.
