FLIR Systems, Inc. (the "Company") will not be able to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company is completing the preparation of its financial statements, and its independent registered public accounting firm is in the process of auditing the financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to file its Form 10-K within the 15 day extension period afforded by SEC Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act, as amended. As previously announced, the Company has undertaken a voluntary investigation of its historical stock option practices and, as a result of that review, the Company's management and the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors have determined that the Company will need to restate its historical financial statements to record additional non-cash compensation expenses and related tax expenses or adjustments. The Company requires additional time to complete its review and determine the appropriate adjustments to its historical financial statements.
