RYANAIR ANNOUNCES 8 NEW EUROPEAN ROUTES
UK - FRANCE - FINLAND - GERMANY - HOLLAND - ITALY - LATVIA - SPAIN

Ryanair, Europe's No. 1 low-fares airline today (Tuesday, 27th July 2004) announced 8 new low fares routes linking 8 European countries. The new routes, which will commence on dates between 20th September and 1st December, will give even greater choice to consumers of new destinations served with Ryanair's low fares. The addition brings the Ryanair network to 161 routes across 17 European countries.

Commenting on the announcements today, Ryanair's CEO, Michael O'Leary said:

"This year Ryanair will carry more than 27 million passengers who will save EUR2.7 billion over the high fares of other airlines.

"With the addition of 8 new routes and three new great destinations we can bring even more choice to European consumers. It is notable that for the first time Ryanair's low fares will now be available in northern Spain, and in Latvia.

"Seats for these flights at prices from only EUR3.99 are available for sale right now at Europe's biggest travel website - www.ryanair.com. - With lots of new exciting destinations there has never been a better or cheaper time to grab a bargain - so we would urge the passengers to book quickly as seats at these prices will be in huge demand".

Ends. Tuesday, 27th July 2004
