RECOMMENDED OFFER FOR ALLIED DOMEQC PLC BY PERNOD RICARD S.A.

The Board of Allied Domecq PLC, ("Allied Domecq") announces that it has reached agreement on the terms of a recommended offer by Pernod Ricard S.A. ("Pernod Ricard") (through its wholly owned subsidiary Goal Acquisitions Limited) to acquire the entire share capital of Allied Domecq (the "Offer"). It is intended that the Offer be implemented by way of a scheme of arrangement under section 425 of the Companies Act (the "Scheme").

* Under the basic terms of the Offer, Allied Domecq shareholders will receive 545 pence in cash and 0.0158 of a New Pernod Ricard Share for every Allied Domecq Share. Based on a Pernod Ricard share price of EUR116, the Offer values each Allied Domecq Share at 670 pence and the existing issued share capital of Allied Domecq at approximately GBP7.4 billion.

- Approximately 80 per cent. of the consideration will be in the form of cash.
- The share element of the consideration would enable Allied Domecq shareholders to retain an equity interest in the combined entity, a global leader in the spirits and wines industry.
- Allied Domecq shareholders will also retain the interim dividend of 6.5 pence per share announced today

* The terms of the Offer represent a premium of approximately:

- 36.2 per cent. to the closing middle market price ("Closing Price") of 492 pence for each Allied Domecq Share on 3 February 2005 (being the last business day prior to the speculation surrounding a potential offer for Allied Domecq); and
- 24.8 per cent. to the Closing Price of 537 pence for each Allied Domecq Share on 4 April 2005 (being the last business day prior to the announcement by Allied Domecq that it was in preliminary discussions with Pernod Ricard regarding a possible offer for Allied Domecq).

* Conditional only upon the Scheme becoming effective, Pernod Ricard has agreed to sell certain Allied Domecq assets including the Canadian Club, Courvoisier, Maker's Mark and Sauza spirits brands, super-premium California wines, including the Clos du Bois brand, Allied Domecq distribution assets in the UK, Germany and Spain and for US wine, and Pernod Ricard's Larios brand to Fortune Brands, Inc. ("Fortune Brands") for approximately GBP2.8 billion in cash.

* Pernod Ricard will retain the rest of the Allied Domecq business, including many of the core spirits brands and premium wines such as Ballantine's, Beefeater, Kahlua, Malibu, Stolichnaya, Tia Maria, Montana, Mumm (and Mumm Cuvee Napa) and Perrier Jouet and Campo Viejo, together with Allied Domecq's other business interests.

* The Offer will include a mix and match facility, so that Allied Domecq Shareholders would be able to elect to vary the proportions of cash and shares they receive, subject to the elections made by other Allied Domecq Shareholders.

Edgar Filing: ALLIED DOMEQC PLC - Form 6-K

* In connection with the Offer, Allied Domecq and Pernod Ricard have entered into a scheme co-operation agreement which provides that both parties will, inter alia, use their reasonable endeavours to achieve satisfaction of the conditions to the Offer and to meet an agreed timetable for the implementation of the Scheme. As part of this agreement, Allied Domecq has agreed to pay a break fee to Pernod Ricard of approximately GBP37 million in the event that a competing offer is announced within six months of this announcement and such offer is successful. Pernod Ricard has agreed to pay a break fee to Allied Domecq of approximately GBP37 million in the event that the Offer is not approved by Pernod Ricard shareholders and, as a result, the Scheme does not become effective.

* The conditions to and the further terms of the Offer are set out in the announcement made earlier today by Pernod Ricard in connection with the Offer.

* The possibility of an offer for Allied Domecq has been in the public domain for some time. During this time the Board of Allied Domecq has considered a number of different options. The Board believes that, taking account of these factors, the Offer by Pernod Ricard represents an attractive proposal for delivering value to Allied Domecq shareholders.

* The Board of Allied Domecq, which has been so advised by Goldman Sachs International, believes the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing its advice, Goldman Sachs International has taken account of the commercial assessments of the directors of Allied Domecq. Accordingly, the Board of Allied Domecq unanimously recommends Allied Domecq Shareholders to vote in favour of the Scheme as they have undertaken to do in respect of their own beneficial shareholdings of 1,385,376 Allied Domecq Shares, representing approximately 0.13 per cent. of the existing issued share capital of the Company.

Philip Bowman, Chief Executive said:

"This is a very different business from the one I joined some six years ago. We have a substantially stronger portfolio with access to growth categories and markets, better margins, more efficient use of resources and of course significantly stronger cash flows.

"Our Interim Results announced today demonstrate our eleventh successive half-year of growth with constant currency earnings and interim dividend per share up by over ten percent. In the last five years, the market capitalisation has almost doubled, increasing by GBP3.6 billion.

"Competitive and economic conditions in the first half of 2005 have been tough but we delivered a robust performance driven by wine and Dunkin' Brands. Against this backdrop the need for further consolidation in the distilled spirits industry is increasingly apparent. The Offer for the business from Pernod Ricard provides Allied Domecq shareholders with the ability to crystallise value and an opportunity to continue to participate in the future success of many of our brands within the enlarged Pernod Ricard business. "
