On April 27, 2007, Royal Bank of Scotland, Fortis and Santander issued the following press release

27 April 2007 - Fortis, RBS and Santander Announcement

Fortis, RBS and Santander (collectively, the "Banks") announce that they have notified the S AMRO yesterday evening of their intention to make a public offer ("the Offer") for 100% of the of ABN AMRO on a fully diluted basis. This notification has been occasioned by the terms of Bank of America regarding LaSalle Bank.

Under Dutch regulations, the Banks are not permitted to provide details of the price indica within the 7 days period referred to in section 9d(2) of the Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer
ABN AMRO are invited to refer to the press release issued by the Banks on 25 April.

The Banks continue to believe that their proposals offer materially higher value for ABN customers and employees compared with the recommended offer from Barclays. The Banks have Boards of ABN AMRO to discuss the Banks' proposals further as soon as possible.

This is an announcement in accordance with section 9b(2)(b) and section 9d(2) of the Decree.
