Commentary by Shaun Wallis, Director and Chief Executive Officer, HSBC Malta:

- "HSBC Malta continues to experience strong growth across all of its customer group businesses.
- "Increases in loans and advances and customer deposits, together with improved margins, generated a 19.1 per cent increase in net interest income. Sales of products and services, including insurance and brokerage, and trading profits resulted in an 8.4 per cent increase in revenues arising from these activities.
- "Our overall cost base was again flat and consequently the cost efficiency ratio improved strongly from 45.5 per cent to 40.1 per cent.
- "Costs continue to be driven down by investment in new systems to improve automation, operational processes and in direct channels to increase customer sales and service. All of this is 'joining up' the company more effectively and improving its productivity and profitability.

"Malta will convert to the euro on 1 January and will implement and be prepared for SEPA, 'Chip and Pin' card functionality, MIFID, and Basel 2 by the end of 2007. All key projects related to these events are on track.

"Investment has also been made in a new 'retail look and feel' branch refurbishment with the dual objective of driving our aim to make HSBC the Best Place to Bank and the Best Place to Work. Customer and staff satisfaction survey levels continue to improve.

"HSBC also continues to maintain good liquidity and a strong capital position. HSBC has a conservative policy to keep sufficient capital to meet normal regulatory and prudential levels and to fund balance sheet and business growth. It is our policy to pay any surplus capital to shareholders.

"HSBC Malta will continue to follow its strong dividend payout policy in line with our objective of making HSBC Malta the Best Company for Shareholders."

The Board is declaring an interim gross dividend of 6.6 cents per share (4.3 cents net of tax) and a special gross dividend of 4.0 cents per share (2.6 cents net of tax), giving a total interim gross dividend of 10.6 cents. This will be paid on 22 August 2007 to shareholders who are on the bank's register of shareholders as at 8 August 2007.
