QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What is this proxy statement-prospectus and why am I receiving it?

A: This proxy statement-prospectus describes in detail the proposed merger between PCB and The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. Because you are a stockholder of PCB, you are being asked to vote on the merger agreement at a special stockholders meeting to be held on _____, 2004. This proxy statement-prospectus should answer any questions you may have about the merger.

Q: What will happen if the stockholders of PCB approve the merger agreement?

A: If the PCB stockholders approve the merger agreement, then shortly following the special meeting, subject to certain regulatory approvals and satisfaction of conditions, PCB will merge with Colonial BancGroup. The combined company will operate under the name of Colonial BancGroup. For each share of PCB common stock that you own, you will be entitled to receive 5.9433 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $31.6975 in cash. Cash will be paid for any fractional share of Colonial BancGroup stock to which you might be entitled as a result of the merger.

Q: What should I do now?

A: Send in your proxy card. After reviewing this document and its appendixes, indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, and sign, date, and mail it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

If you sign, date, and send in your proxy and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. If you do not sign and send in your proxy, and if you do not attend and cast your vote in person at the special meeting, it will have the effect of voting against the merger.

Q: If my shares are held in _____ street name _____ by my broker, bank or other nominee, will it vote my shares for me?

A: Yes, if you give your nominee instructions on how to vote. Your broker, bank or other nominee holder will vote your shares of PCB common stock only if you provide it with instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your nominee how to vote your shares by following the directions it provides. If you do not provide instructions to your nominee, your shares will not be voted and this will have the effect of voting against the merger agreement and the merger.

Q: Can I change my mind and revoke my proxy?

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy up to the time of the special meeting by taking any of the actions explained under "The Special Meeting Solicitation, Voting and Revocation of Proxies" on page 10 of this proxy statement-prospectus, including by giving a written notice of revocation, by signing and delivering a new later-dated proxy, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Q: Can I vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. You may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person even if you sign and mail your proxy card.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, Colonial BancGroup or its transfer agent will send you written instructions explaining how you exchange your PCB common stock certificates for the cash payment and certificates representing shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We expect the merger to be completed in the second quarter of 2004. However, the timing of the completion of the merger is dependent on the merger agreement being approved by our stockholders as well as the approval of certain bank regulatory agencies and the satisfaction of other conditions described in this proxy statement-prospectus. Some of these conditions are beyond our control.

Q: Whom can I call with questions?

A: If you want additional copies of this document, or if you want to ask any questions about the merger agreement or the merger, you should contact: Paul V. Mellini, President and CEO of P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc., Telephone: (727) 669-2979.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement-prospectus. It does not contain all of the information that will be important to you as you consider your vote. You should carefully read the entire document and the other documents to which we refer. These will give you a more detailed description of the transaction that we are proposing. For more information about Colonial BancGroup, see Where You Can Find More Information (page 53). Each item in this summary refers to the pages where that subject is discussed in greater detail elsewhere in the proxy statement-prospectus. In this section, the terms we and us refer to PCB.

Colonial BancGroup is a financial holding company whose wholly-owned subsidiary, Colonial Bank, N.A., provides corporate and retail banking services and products in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, Texas and Nevada. As of December 31, 2003, Colonial BancGroup's total assets were about $16.3 billion, deposits were about $9.8 billion and stockholders' equity was about $1.2 billion. Colonial Bank, N.A., does business as and is generally referred to in this document as Colonial Bank.

5830 142nd Avenue North

Clearwater, Florida 33760

(727) 669-2979

PCB is a bank holding company whose wholly-owned subsidiaries, Premier Community Bank, Premier Community Bank of Florida, Premier Community Bank of Southwest Florida and Premier Community Bank of South Florida, provide corporate and retail banking services principally in Pinellas, Sarasota, Charlotte, Lee, Dade and Broward Counties, Florida and surrounding areas. As of December 31, 2003, PCB's total assets were about $662 million, deposits were about $523 million and stockholders' equity was about $47 million.

The merger agreement is the document that controls the anticipated merger between PCB and Colonial BancGroup. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A.

The merger agreement provides for the following:

PCB will merge into Colonial BancGroup. When the merger becomes effective, PCB will cease to exist as a separate entity and you, for each share of PCB common stock that you own, will be entitled to receive 5.9433 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and a cash payment of $31.6975.

Colonial BancGroup will not issue fractional shares in the merger. If the number of shares you are to receive is not a whole number, you will receive cash instead of the fractional share based on the market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock. The market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock is determined by an average of closing prices for Colonial BancGroup stock during a fixed period before the merger.

Colonial BancGroup's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. On December 22, 2003, the last trading day before we announced the signing of the merger agreement, the closing price of Colonial BancGroup's common stock was $17.26.

There is no organized trading market for PCB's common stock. Therefore, the value of the stock can only be determined from prices paid in privately negotiated transactions made known to management of PCB. These transactions are not reported on an exchange or other organized trading system. For these reasons, PCB lacks reliable data regarding recent trading activity in PCB common stock. The price paid in the last known transaction before December 23, 2003, the date we signed the merger agreement, was $79.00 per share, on December 19, 2003.

The following table summarizes the comparative values of the two stocks just before the merger agreement was signed and the Colonial BancGroup equivalent price per share of PCB common stock.

Colonial BancGroup(1)	PCB(2)	Equivalent price per PCB share(3)
$17.26	$79.00	$134.2789

(1) Closing price on December 22, 2003.

(2) Price obtained for shares sold on December 19, 2003.

(3) If the merger had closed on December 22, 2003, you would have received 5.9433 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and a cash payment of $31.6975 for each share of PCB common stock you owned on that date.

Our Reasons for the Merger (page 12)

We believe that the merger is in your best interest. We considered a number of factors in deciding to approve and recommend the terms of the merger agreement to you. These factors included the following:

The overall terms of the proposed transaction, including consideration consisting of approximately 75% Colonial BancGroup stock and 25% cash. The board considered the present favorable tax treatment on capital gains and the fact that, for most stockholders, the receipt of Colonial BancGroup stock should be considered a nontaxable exchange under federal tax law.

Colonial BancGroup has paid dividends to its stockholders for the past 15 years and its stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

All PCB stockholders would receive an immediate $.50 per share dividend, and if the merger was delayed and not closed by July 31, 2004, there would be another dividend payment of $1.10 per share.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

A merger with Colonial BancGroup would meld similar community bank customer philosophies with a regional bank's products and services, including trust and brokerage. With the exception of Lee County and two branches in Pinellas County, there is minimum market overlap in branches and customers.

Future growth as a small, independent banking organization would require significant investments, which would impact profitability in 2004 and beyond, specifically in the following areas, among others:

Both bank and non-bank competitors are pursuing key customers in PCB's association services business, promising lower fees and state of the art technology. Similarly, customers increasingly are interested in internet banking. Colonial BancGroup expressed a major interest in PCB's association services business and committed to significant investments in much needed technology.

PCB was contemplating significant investments in expansion, with plans to open three branches, one each in Pinellas, Sarasota and Lee counties, in 2004.

Table of Contents

As is the case with all community banks, PCB has been subject to increased regulatory burdens and subject to increased expenses for risk management, training and compliance. With economies of scale, larger banking organizations, such as Colonial BancGroup, have the necessary software and centrally imbedded systems to be compliant with increasing banking regulation in a more economical manner than PCB.

The opinion by Hovde Financial LLC that the terms of the transaction were fair to the PCB stockholders from a financial point of view.

Colonial BancGroup has completed approximately 50 mergers and has significant experience in making the transaction seamless for customers and stockholders.

There is a strong likelihood that PCB and Colonial BancGroup will receive requisite regulatory approvals to consummate the merger.

Although the merger agreement provides for a $5,000,000 break-up fee if the merger is not consummated and PCB is acquired by another company, the board reserved the right to consider and negotiate any superior offer.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the PCB board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the offer price, the PCB board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given differing weight to different factors.

We will hold a special meeting of the stockholders of PCB at _____ local time, on _____, _____, 2004 at our corporate headquarters located at 5830 142nd Avenue North, Clearwater, Florida 33760. At the meeting, we will ask the stockholders to approve the merger agreement and to act on any other matters that may be put to a vote at the meeting.

Our Recommendation to our Stockholders (page 18)

Your Board of Directors believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests, and unanimously recommends that you vote For the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date; Voting Power (page 9)

You may vote at the special meeting if you owned PCB shares as of the close of business on _____, 2004. You will have one vote for each share of stock you owned on that date.

Vote Required (page 9)

If a quorum is present at the special meeting, then the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares will be sufficient to approve the merger agreement. A quorum consists of two-thirds of the shares outstanding on the record date. On the record date, 1,007,840 shares of PCB common stock were outstanding. On the record date, the directors of PCB owned an aggregate of 386,799 shares of PCB common stock representing approximately 38.4% of the outstanding shares. Certain of these individuals, owning in the aggregate 341,224 shares or 33.9% of the outstanding shares, have agreed with Colonial BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement. Accordingly, if these individuals vote as they have agreed with Colonial BancGroup, then the merger agreement will be approved if holders of 162,697 of the remaining outstanding shares, representing 16.1% of the total outstanding, also vote to approve the merger agreement.

Exchange of Certificates (page 21)

Shortly after we complete the merger, Colonial BancGroup or its transfer agent will send you detailed instructions on how to exchange your shares. PLEASE DO NOT SEND US OR BANGROUP ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES UNTIL YOU RECEIVE THOSE INSTRUCTIONS.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 24)

The completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

the stockholders of PCB must approve the merger agreement;

all required regulatory approvals must be received, and any waiting periods must have passed;

there must be no governmental order blocking completion of the merger, and no proceedings by a government body trying to block the merger;

the completion of the merger before September 30, 2004; and the receipt of certain professional opinions.

Unless prohibited by law, either PCB or Colonial BancGroup could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger anyway. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that we will complete the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 24)

Colonial BancGroup and PCB can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if the stockholders of PCB have already voted to approve it.

Either company can also terminate the merger agreement:

if the other party has materially breached the merger agreement and has not cured the breach;

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

if the merger has not been completed by September 30, 2004 (provided that the failure to complete has not been caused by the breach of the company electing to terminate); or if PCB enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In that event, Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $5,000,000 from PCB or its acquirer.

We expect that neither of the two companies nor the PCB stockholders will recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger, except in connection with the $31.6975 per share cash payment that PCB stockholders will receive, and the cash payment for any fractional share. Colonial BancGroup has received an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP that this will be the case. The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which could take a different view. We expect that stockholders will generate capital gain or loss for federal income tax purposes with respect to the $31.6975 per share cash payment and the payment, if any, for any fractional share of Colonial BancGroup common stock they might be entitled to as a result of the merger, provided that they hold their PCB stock as a capital asset on the date of the merger.

Any PCB stockholder who chooses to exercise appraisal rights as provided under Florida law and receives cash instead of Colonial BancGroup stock for such stockholder's PCB stock will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger with respect to the entire cash payment received by them. We expect that such stockholders will be entitled to capital gain treatment for federal income tax purposes with respect to such cash payment, provided that they hold their PCB stock as a capital asset on the date of the merger. The procedures for exercising dissenters' appraisal rights are discussed at page 28.

Table of Contents

Determining the actual tax consequences to you as an individual taxpayer can be complicated. For example, the opinion referred to above does not address any tax issues arising under state law. The overall tax treatment applicable to you will depend on your specific situation and many variables not within our control. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences to you.

Accounting Treatment (page 32)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase by Colonial BancGroup. The purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. Goodwill will be capitalized unless and until it is deemed to be impaired, in which case the impairment will be measured and any such amount will be charged against current earnings.

Interests of Persons Involved in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 18)

Certain directors, executive officers and employees of PCB have interests in the merger that are different from your interests. These differing interests include the following:

Employees of PCB currently hold options to acquire 93,250 shares of PCB common stock. In the merger, an option to purchase one share of PCB common stock will become an option to purchase 7.9244 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. Alternatively, a holder of PCB stock options will be allowed to exchange his or her PCB stock options for the right to receive a cash payment equal to the market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock multiplied by the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that would have been issuable in connection with the exercise of the PCB stock options less the aggregate exercise price for the PCB stock options.

PCB currently indemnifies its directors and officers against loss from claims arising out of their position with PCB. Colonial BancGroup will, subject to some limitations, continue to indemnify those persons against claims made within six years after the completion of the merger that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, PCB employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits. For employees of PCB other than those listed below, who will be subject to separate severance or employment agreements with Colonial BancGroup, if their employment is terminated within six months of completion of the merger, they will generally be entitled to the severance benefits payable under PCB's severance policy in effect before the merger, if such benefits would be greater than those of Colonial BancGroup at such time, subject to a maximum aggregate amount of benefits payable to such employees equal to $175,000. Former PCB employees who are terminated after such maximum is reached or more than six months after the completion of the merger will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Paul V. Mellini has entered into a non-compete agreement with Colonial Bank, a subsidiary of Colonial BancGroup, that will become effective when and if the merger is completed.

Valerie Kendall has entered into a severance agreement with Colonial Bank that will become effective when and if the merger is completed.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

Rick Kuci, Jim Kuhlman, Lee Martino and Brad McMurtrey have entered into employment agreements with Colonial Bank that will become effective when and if the merger is completed.

All but one of PCB's non-employee directors have entered into affiliate agreements with Colonial BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the merger. These agreements provide that the director will, among other things:

vote his or her shares in favor of the approval of the merger;

not distribute Colonial BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the merger except in accordance with the rules of the SEC; and with respect to the directors who are not also employees of PCB, generally not compete with Colonial Bank for a period of two years after the effective date of the merger.

In deciding to approve the merger, your Board of Directors considered the opinion of its financial advisor, Hovde Financial LLC, that, based upon and subject to the assumptions made and matters set forth in the written opinion, as of December 19, 2003, the consideration to be received by the stockholders of PCB in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. We have attached as Appendix C the written opinion of Hovde Financial LLC dated as of December 19, 2003. You should read it carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Hovde Financial LLC in providing its opinion.

Dissenters Rights (page 28)

PCB stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting are entitled to exercise dissenters rights of appraisal under Florida law. These rights entitle a stockholder to dissent from the transaction and, by strictly following the requirements fixed by law, receive fair value for their stock. The fair value may ultimately be determined in a judicial proceeding, the result of which cannot be predicted with certainty. Dissenting stockholders who receive cash for their stock will likely be subject to federal income tax treatment that differs from that available to stockholders who receive Colonial BancGroup stock. The text of the applicable Florida statutes is set forth in Appendix B.

When considering those forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risks, uncertainties and other cautionary statements made in this proxy statement-prospectus. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement, which speaks only as of the date made. In addition to the risks identified below, you should refer to Colonial BancGroup's public documents for specific risks which could cause actual results to be significantly different from those expressed or implied by those forward-looking statements. increases in competitive pressure in the banking industry; changes in the interest rate environment which reduce margins;

general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, that are less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality;

changes which may occur in the regulatory environment;

a significant rate of inflation or deflation; acts of terrorism, such as the events of September 11, 2001, and war; and changes in the securities markets.

Many of these factors are beyond our control and beyond the control of Colonial BancGroup. For a discussion of factors that could cause Colonial BancGroup's actual results to differ, please see the discussions in the sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

General

This proxy statement-prospectus is being furnished to the stockholders of P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc. (PCB) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of PCB for use at the special meeting of the stockholders of PCB to be held on _____, 2004, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The purpose of the special meeting is to consider and vote upon the merger agreement which provides for the proposed merger of PCB with and into Colonial BancGroup. Colonial BancGroup will be the surviving corporation in the merger.

The Board of Directors of PCB believes that the merger is in the best interests of the PCB stockholders and unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the merger agreement (item 1 on the proxy card).

This proxy statement-prospectus is also furnished by Colonial BancGroup in connection with the offer of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued in the merger. No vote of Colonial BancGroup stockholders is required to approve the merger.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Vote Required for the Merger

The Board of Directors of PCB has fixed the close of business on _____, 2004, as the date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting. There were _____ record holders of PCB common stock and 1,007,840 shares of PCB common stock outstanding, each entitled to one vote per share, as of the record date. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, PCB was obligated to issue up to an additional 93,250 shares of PCB common stock upon the exercise of outstanding PCB options.

The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of PCB common stock on the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. In the absence of a quorum, the special meeting may be postponed from time to time until PCB stockholders holding the requisite number of shares of PCB common stock are represented in person or by proxy. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of PCB common stock, present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, is required to approve the merger agreement. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as votes FOR or AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement, and, as a result, such non-votes will have the same effect as votes cast AGAINST the merger agreement. Each holder of record of shares of PCB common stock is entitled to cast, for each share registered in his or her name, one vote on the merger agreement as well as on each other matter presented to a vote of stockholders at the special meeting.

As of the record date, directors of PCB owned 386,799 shares of PCB common stock representing approximately 38.4% of the outstanding shares. Certain of these individuals, owing in the aggregate 341,224 shares or 33.9% of the outstanding shares, have entered into agreements with Colonial BancGroup to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement. Accordingly, if the individuals vote as they have agreed with Colonial BancGroup, then the merger agreement will be approved if holders of 162,697 of the remaining shares (16.1% of the total outstanding) also vote to approve it.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

If the merger agreement is approved at the special meeting, PCB is expected to merge with and into Colonial BancGroup promptly after the other conditions to the merger agreement are satisfied. See The Merger Conditions to Consummation of the Merger.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PCB URGES THE STOCKHOLDERS OF PCB TO EXECUTE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY BE VOTED IN FAVOR OF THE AGREEMENT.

Solicitation, Voting and Revocation of Proxies

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers and other employees of PCB, without receiving special compensation therefore, may solicit proxies from the stockholders of PCB by telephone, by e-mail or other electronic means, by facsimile or in person. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, if any, to forward solicitation materials to any beneficial owners of shares of PCB common stock.

Colonial BancGroup will bear the cost of assembling and mailing this proxy statement-prospectus and other materials furnished to PCB stockholders. Colonial BancGroup also will pay all other expenses of solicitation, including the expenses of brokers, custodians, nominees, and other fiduciaries who, at the request of PCB, mail material to, or otherwise communicate with, beneficial owners of the shares held by them. Colonial BancGroup will pay all expenses incident to the registration of the Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued in connection with the merger.

Shares of PCB common stock represented by a proxy properly signed and received at or prior to the special meeting, unless properly revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy. If a proxy is signed and returned without any voting instructions, shares of PCB common stock represented by the proxy will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and in accordance with the determination of the majority of the Board of Directors of PCB as to any other matter which may properly come before the special meeting, including any adjournment or postponement thereof. A stockholder may revoke any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation by: (i) delivering to the corporate secretary of PCB, prior to or at the special meeting, a written notice revoking the proxy; (ii) delivering to the corporate secretary of PCB, at or prior to the special meeting, a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or (iii) voting in person at the special meeting. Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of a proxy should be addressed to:

P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc.

5830 142nd Avenue North

Clearwater, Florida 33760

Attention: James T. Ayers, Corporate Secretary

facsimile: (727) 373-1931

Proxies marked as abstentions and shares held in street name which have been designated by brokers, banks or other nominee holders on proxy cards as not voted will not be counted as votes cast. Such proxies will, however, be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting.

The Board of Directors of PCB is not aware of any business to be acted upon at the special meeting other than consideration of the merger agreement described herein. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof, the persons appointed as proxies will have the discretion to vote or act on such matters according to their best judgment.

Effect of Merger on Outstanding Colonial BancGroup Common Stock

Assuming that no dissenters' rights of appraisal are exercised in connection with the merger and that 1,007,840 shares of PCB common stock are outstanding on the effective date of the merger, then Colonial BancGroup will issue approximately 5,989,895 shares in connection with the merger. This issuance of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock would represent approximately 4.5% of the total number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock outstanding following the merger, not counting any additional shares Colonial BancGroup may issue for reasons unconnected to the merger.

THE MERGER

The following sets forth a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A, and certain provisions of Florida law relating to the rights of dissenting stockholders, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B. All PCB stockholders are urged to read the merger agreement and the Appendices in their entirety.

General

The merger agreement provides that, subject to approval by the stockholders of PCB, receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of certain other conditions described below at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, PCB will merge with and into Colonial BancGroup. Upon completion of the merger, the corporate existence of PCB will cease, and Colonial BancGroup will succeed to the business formerly conducted by PCB.

Background of the Merger

The board of directors of PCB has considered, from time to time, the possibility of a strategic combination with other financial institutions as part of a broader assessment of the means by which to maximize the value of PCB stock to its stockholders. Additionally, senior management and the members of the board, as part of ongoing operations, periodically assessed the financial services industry in Florida, including the regulatory and competitive environments for banking services.

During the second and third quarters of 2003, as part of their normal business discussions and meetings, the members of the boards of directors of PCB and all of its subsidiary banks were apprised of certain trends that were impacting and would continue to put pressure on PCB's earnings and impact its profitability. These included the current interest rate environment, the need to invest in a state-of-the-art internet banking program, a sizeable investment in technology for the association services business to remain competitive, and increasing expenses for risk management, training and compliance as a result of increased regulation. Also during this time, Paul Mellini, the chief executive officer of PCB, was contacted by investment bankers as well as a publicly-held bank that had a small presence on the west coast of Florida about the possibility of a merger or sale of PCB.

In early September 2003, Mr. Mellini referred the investment banking firm of Hovde Financial LLC to Harrison Steans, a PCB director. Mr. Steans met with representatives of Hovde and subsequently consulted with Mr. Mellini and PCB board members Joe Ernsteen, Jennifer Steans and George Bauer about exploring the possibility of a sale of PCB. Mr. Steans and Mr. Mellini agreed that Mr. Mellini should solicit the opinions of the senior managers of each of the subsidiary banks, two of whom, James Kuhlman and Brenda O Neil, also were PCB directors, about pursuing a merger. Mr. Kuhlman and Ms. O Neil concurred in the desirability of pursuing the possibility of a merger or sale of PCB.

On September 22, 2003, PCB board members Ernsteen, Mellini, Steans and Steans, along with PCB chief financial officer Valerie Kendall, met with Hovde representatives to discuss and explore PCB's strategic options, including potential merger partners.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

On October 3, 2003, PCB engaged Hovde to act as financial adviser for a strategic acquisition of PCB. Pursuant to this engagement, indications of interest were received from four out of nine institutions contacted. The proposals were reviewed and analyzed by board representatives, management and legal and financial advisers of PCB. They were also reviewed with Harrison Steans and Jennifer Steans who, in turn, discussed them with George Bauer and Tom Hunter, also a PCB director.

In early November 2003, Mr. Mellini met with representatives of two of the potential suitors. On November 20, 2003, Mr. Mellini met with representatives of Colonial BancGroup in Alabama. A subsequent meeting was held with members of the executive board and management and they authorized Hovde to invite Colonial BancGroup to conduct due diligence. Due diligence began on December 9, 2003. At the same time, representatives of PCB conducted due diligence on Colonial BancGroup, reviewing analyst reports, financial statements and other publicly available information. Colonial BancGroup's philosophy and corporate culture also were evaluated. During the following two weeks, management, legal and financial advisers of both companies negotiated the terms of the definitive merger agreement.

On December 17, 2003, the board of directors of PCB met to consider the proposed merger with Colonial BancGroup. The financial terms and other aspects of the transaction were discussed, along with Hovde's opinion that the terms of the proposed merger were fair to PCB stockholders from a financial point of view. Following a full discussion, the board unanimously approved the proposed merger agreement and the proposed transaction and authorized Mr. Steans and Mr. Mellini to negotiate the final terms of the transaction and finalize the merger agreement. Following the completion of negotiations between Colonial BancGroup and several members of PCB's senior management relating to their employment contracts with Colonial BancGroup, the definitive merger agreement was executed and announced on December 23, 2003.

PCB's Reasons for the Merger

On December 17, 2003, the board of directors of PCB unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement. The board of directors of PCB believes that the merger and the terms and provisions of the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interests of the PCB stockholders. The board of directors of PCB unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the merger.

In reaching its decision to adopt and recommend approval of the merger agreement, the board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

The overall terms of the proposed transaction, including consideration consisting of approximately 75% Colonial BancGroup stock and 25% cash. The board considered the present favorable tax treatment on capital gains and the fact that, for most stockholders, the receipt of Colonial BancGroup stock should be considered a nontaxable exchange under federal tax law.

Colonial BancGroup has paid dividends to its stockholders for the past 15 years and its stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

All PCB stockholders would receive an immediate $.50 per share dividend, and if the merger was delayed and not closed by July 31, 2004, there would be another dividend payment of $1.10 per share.

A merger with Colonial BancGroup would meld similar community bank customer philosophies with a regional bank's products and services, including trust and brokerage. With the exception of Lee County and two branches in Pinellas County, there is minimum market overlap in branches and customers.

Future growth as a small, independent banking organization would require significant investments, which would impact profitability in 2004 and beyond, specifically in the following areas, among others:

Both bank and non-bank competitors are pursuing key customers in PCB's association services business, promising lower fees and state of the art technology. Similarly, customers increasingly are interested in internet banking. Colonial BancGroup expressed a major interest in PCB's association services business and committed to significant investments in much needed technology.

PCB was contemplating significant investments in expansion, with plans to open three branches, one each in Pinellas, Sarasota and Lee counties, in 2004.

As is the case with all community banks, PCB has been subject to increased regulatory burdens and subject to increased expenses for risk management, training and compliance. With economies of scale, larger banking organizations, such as Colonial BancGroup, have the necessary software and centrally imbedded systems to be compliant with increasing banking regulation in a more economical manner than PCB.

Table of Contents

The opinion by Hovde Financial LLC that the terms of the transaction were fair to the PCB stockholders from a financial point of view.

Colonial BancGroup has completed approximately 50 mergers and has significant experience in making the transaction seamless for customers and stockholders.

There is a strong likelihood that PCB and Colonial BancGroup will receive requisite regulatory approvals to consummate the merger.

Although the merger agreement provides for a $5,000,000 break-up fee if the merger is not consummated and PCB is acquired by another company, the board reserved the right to consider and negotiate any superior offer.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the PCB board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the offer price, the PCB board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given differing weight to different factors.

Fairness Opinion of Hovde Financial LLC

Hovde has delivered to the PCB board its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated December 19, 2003, the total transaction consideration is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of PCB common stock as of such date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by PCB upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde, dated December 19, 2003, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix C. PCB shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. PCB's board of directors selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

Hovde will receive a fee contingent upon the completion of the merger for services rendered in connection with advising PCB regarding the merger, including the fairness opinion and financial advisory services provided to PCB. As of December 19, 2003, such fee would have been approximately 1% of the total transaction consideration, and Hovde will receive substantially all of such fee upon the close of the transaction.

Hovde's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio, and does not constitute a recommendation to any PCB shareholders as to how the shareholder should vote at the PCB meeting. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGGROUP INC - Form S-4

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in writing to the PCB board by Hovde on December 17, 2003. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the written presentation delivered by Hovde to the PCB board, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Hovde may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the PCB board and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of PCB and Colonial BancGroup. The analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde's analysis of the fairness of the exchange ratio, from a financial point of view, to the PCB shareholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which PCB might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde's opinion to the PCB board was one of many factors taken into consideration by the PCB board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of PCB and Colonial BancGroup and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the merger agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning PCB and Colonial BancGroup;

the nature and terms of recent merger transactions; and financial and other information provided to Hovde by the management of PCB and Colonial BancGroup. Hovde conducted meetings and had discussions with members of senior management of PCB for purposes of reviewing the future prospects PCB. Hovde also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the merger agreement. Hovde also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde by PCB were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of PCB as to the future financial performance of PCB. Hovde has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of PCB. Hovde assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the publicly available and other financial and other information provided to it, relied upon the representations and warranties of PCB and Colonial BancGroup made pursuant to the merger agreement, and did not independently attempt to verify any of such information.

Hovde calculated the medians and averages for the following relevant transaction ratios in the Southeast Merger Group and the Nationwide Merger Group: the percentage of the offer value to the acquired company's total assets, the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's earnings per share for the twelve months preceding the announcement date of the transaction; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value per share; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits, each as of the date of the announcement of the relevant transaction. Hovde compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at $144.2 million, as of December 18, 2003 ($103.8 million in consideration in the form of Colonial BancGroup stock, $31.9 million in consideration in the form of cash, $8.0 million in consideration representing the in-the-money value of PCB's stock options, and $0.5 million in consideration in the form of a special dividend to PCB common stock holders). In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde used PCB's earnings per share for the 12 months ended September 30, 2003, and PCB's tangible book value per share, total assets, and total deposits as of September 30, 2003. The results of this analysis are as follows:

Indications of such financial performance and stock market valuation included profitability (return on average assets and return on average equity) for the twelve month period ended September 30, 2003, the ratio of equity to assets, operating expenses to the sum of net interest income and noninterest income (efficiency ratio), non-performing assets (NPAs) to total assets, and loan loss reserves to non-performing assets, all at September 30, 2003 and market prices as of December 18, 2003.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Hovde estimated the present value of the PCB common stock by estimating the value of PCB's estimated future earnings stream beginning in 2004. Reflecting PCB's internal projections, Hovde assumed net income in 2004, 2005, and 2006 of $7.2 million, $8.4 million, and $10.1 million, respectively. Subsequently, from 2007 through 2008, Hovde assumed an annually compounded rate of earnings growth resulting in net income estimates for 2007 and 2008 of $12.0 million and $14.2 million, respectively. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 11.0%, 12.0%, and 13.0%. In order to derive the terminal value of PCB's earnings stream beyond 2008, Hovde assumed a terminal value based on a multiple of 12.0x applied to free cash flow in 2008. The present value of this terminal amount was then calculated based on the range of discount rates mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of PCB common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a range of value for the Company of approximately $130.0 million (at an 11.0% discount rate) to $118.9 million (at a 13% discount rate), compared to total Merger Consideration of $144.2 million.

Contribution Analysis. Hovde prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of assets, net loans, deposits and common equity at September 30, 2003 for PCB and for Colonial BancGroup and estimated fiscal year 2003 net income and estimated fiscal year 2004 net income that would be contributed to the combined company on a pro-forma basis by PCB and Colonial BancGroup. In addition, this analysis showed that holders of PCB common stock would own approximately 4.59% of the pro forma common shares outstanding of Colonial BancGroup, assuming an exchange ratio of 5.9433, which is reflective of Colonial BancGroup common stock representing only approximately 76% of the total transaction consideration.

	PCB Contribution To Colonial BancGroup
Total assets	4.04%
Total net loans	3.84%

Financial Implications to PCB Shareholders. Hovde prepared an analysis of the financial implications of the Colonial BancGroup offer to a holder of PCB common stock. This analysis indicated that on a pro forma equivalent basis, assuming the exchange ratio of 5.9433 and excluding any potential revenue enhancement opportunities, a stockholder of PCB would achieve approximately 5.5% accretion in GAAP earnings per share, approximately 6.3% accretion in cash earnings per share, an increase in tangible book value per share of approximately 7.8%, and an increase in total book value per share of approximately 21.1% as a result of the consummation of the merger. The table below summarizes the results discussed above:

	Per Share:
	2004E GAAP Earnings	2004E Cash Earnings	Book Value	Tangible Book Value
PCB standalone	$ 7.14	$ 7.32	$ 44.50	$ 34.69
PCB Pro Forma*	$ 7.53	$ 7.78	$ 53.93	$ 37.39
% Accretion Dilution	5.5%	6.3%	21.2%	7.8%

* Based on exchange ratio of 5.9433

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the exchange ratio was fair from a financial point of view to the PCB shareholders.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of PCB

The Board of Directors of PCB has determined that the merger agreement is in the best interest of PCB stockholders. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS OF PCB VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT.

Colonial BancGroup s Reasons for the Merger

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement, and Colonial BancGroup s Board of Directors has ratified such approval. The merger will allow Colonial BancGroup to expand its banking operations in the PCB market areas. Colonial BancGroup currently operates a commercial bank with 105 branches in Florida. The Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup believes that the combination with PCB is consistent with its current expansion strategy.

In approving the merger and the merger agreement, the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup took into account: (i) the financial performance and condition of PCB and its subsidiary banks, including their capital and asset quality; (ii) similarities in the philosophies of Colonial BancGroup and PCB, including the commitment of PCB to delivering high quality personalized financial services to its customers; and (iii) the extensive knowledge of, and experience in, the Broward, Sarasota, Charlotte, Lee, Pinellas and Miami-Dade, Florida market areas that has been demonstrated by the management of PCB.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of the management and Boards of Directors of PCB and its subsidiary banks may be deemed to have certain interests in the merger in addition to their interest as stockholders of PCB generally. The Board of Directors of PCB was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in unanimously approving the merger agreement.

Assumption or Cancellation of Options. Employees of PCB currently hold options to acquire 93,250 shares of PCB common stock. In the merger, an option to purchase one share of PCB common stock will become an option to purchase 7.9244 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. Alternatively, a holder of PCB stock options will be allowed to cancel his or her PCB stock options in exchange for the right to receive a cash payment equal to the market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock multiplied by the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that would have been issuable in connection with the exercise of the PCB stock options less the aggregate exercise price for the PCB stock options. See The Merger Treatment of PCB Options.

Employees. Upon completion of the merger, PCB employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits. For employees of PCB other than those listed below, who will be subject to separate severance or employment agreements with Colonial BancGroup, if their employment is terminated within six months of completion of the merger, they will generally be entitled to the severance benefits payable under PCB's severance policy in effect before the merger, if such benefits would be greater than those of Colonial BancGroup at such time, subject to a maximum aggregate amount of benefits payable to such employees equal to $175,000. Former PCB employees who are terminated after such maximum is reached or more than six months after the completion of the merger will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Colonial Bank has entered into a non-compete agreement with Paul V. Mellini that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The non-compete agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Mr. Mellini from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for three years following the completion of the merger. The agreement also provides that Mr. Mellini will receive payments of $250,000 per year for three years. During this period, Mr. Mellini also will receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, including participation in retirement and profit-sharing plans.

Colonial Bank has entered into a severance agreement with Valerie Kendall that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides that Ms. Kendall will receive severance payments in the aggregate amount of $108,163 to be paid during the first year following the completion of the merger. During this period, Ms. Kendall will receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank.

Colonial Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Rick Kuci that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of employment of two years and a base annual salary of not less than $166,400. Mr. Kuci will be eligible to receive discretionary bonuses, with a guaranteed minimum annual salary and bonus amount of $177,100. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Kuci will be entitled to receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, and that Colonial Bank's management will recommend to the compensation committee of Colonial BancGroup an award to Mr. Kuci of options to purchase 10,000 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the market value on the date of grant. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Kuci will receive a retention bonus of $75,000 from PCB within 10 days prior to the completion of the merger. The employment agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Mr. Kuci from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for a period ending at the earlier of one year following the termination of his employment or two years following the completion of the merger.

Colonial Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Jim Kuhlman that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of employment of two years and a base annual salary of not less than $130,000. Mr. Kuhlman will be eligible to receive discretionary bonuses, with a guaranteed minimum annual salary and bonus amount of $178,600. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Kuhlman will be entitled to receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, and that Colonial Bank's management will recommend to the compensation committee of Colonial BancGroup an award to Mr. Kuhlman of options to purchase 10,000 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the market value on the date of grant. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Kuhlman will receive a retention bonus of $75,000 from PCB within 10 days prior to the completion of the merger. The employment agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Mr. Kuhlman from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for a period ending at the earlier of one year following the termination of his employment or two years following the completion of the merger.

Colonial Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Lee Martino that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of employment of three years at a base annual salary of not less than $144,400. Mr. Martino will be eligible to receive discretionary bonuses, with a guaranteed minimum annual salary and bonus amount of $148,600. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Martino will be entitled to receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, and that Colonial Bank's management will recommend to the compensation committee of Colonial BancGroup an award to Mr. Martino of options to purchase 10,000 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the market value on the date of grant. The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Martino will receive a retention bonus of $100,000 from PCB within 10 days prior to the completion of the merger. The employment agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Mr. Martino from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for a period ending at the earlier of one year following the termination of his employment or two years following the completion of the merger.

Colonial Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Brad McMurtrey that will become effective when and if the merger is completed. The agreement provides for a term of employment of two years at a base annual salary of not less than $121,600. Mr. McMurtrey will be eligible to receive discretionary bonuses, with a guaranteed minimum annual salary and bonus amount of $201,600. The employment agreement also provides that Mr. McMurtrey will be entitled to receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, and that Colonial Bank's management will recommend to the compensation committee of Colonial BancGroup an award to Mr. McMurtrey of options to purchase 10,000 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the market value on the date of grant. The employment agreement provides that Mr. McMurtrey will receive a retention bonus of $75,000 from PCB within 10 days prior to the completion of the merger. The employment agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Mr. McMurtrey from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for a period ending at the earlier of one year following the termination of his employment or two years following the completion of the merger.

Indemnification. Under the merger agreement, Colonial BancGroup has agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of PCB against claims made within six years after the completion of the merger that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the merger, to the extent that PCB would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons.

Affiliate Agreements. All but one of PCB's non-employee directors have entered into affiliate agreements with Colonial BancGroup regarding various issues associated with the merger. These agreements provide that the director will, among other things:

vote his or her shares in favor of the approval of the merger;

not distribute Colonial BancGroup common stock issued in connection with the merger except in accordance with the rules of the SEC; and with respect to the directors who are not also employees of PCB, generally not compete with Colonial Bank for a period of two years after the effective date of the merger.

Conversion of PCB Common Stock

The merger agreement provides for the merger of PCB with and into Colonial BancGroup, with Colonial BancGroup to be the surviving corporation. At the completion of the merger, each share of PCB common stock outstanding and held by the PCB stockholders (except shares as to which dissenters' rights are perfected) will be converted by operation of law and without any action by any holder thereof into 5.9433 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and the right to receive a cash payment of $31.6975 (the Merger Consideration). The ratio that is used to calculate the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that each share of PCB common stock is converted into is referred to as the exchange ratio. Accordingly, based upon the 1,007,840 shares of PCB common stock outstanding as of the record date, and assuming the exercise of no PCB stock options, the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that may be issued in the merger would be approximately 5,989,895 million shares and the aggregate amount of cash that may be paid in the merger is approximately $31,946,008 (not including any cash paid for the cancellation of PCB stock options or the acquisition of fractional shares).

No fractional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Each stockholder of PCB otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of Colonial BancGroup common stock will receive instead a cash payment (without interest) equal to such fractional interest multiplied by the market value of the Colonial BancGroup common stock at the time of the merger. The market value of the Colonial BancGroup common stock at the time of the merger will be determined by taking the average of the closing prices of the Colonial BancGroup common stock as reported by the NYSE on each of the ten trading days ending on the trading day five trading days immediately preceding the date the merger is effective.

The merger agreement provides that if, prior to the date the merger is effective, Colonial BancGroup common stock is changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the Colonial BancGroup common stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made in the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock into which the PCB common stock will be converted in the merger.

Surrender of PCB Common Stock Certificates

On the date the merger is completed and subject to the conditions described at Conditions to Consummation of the Merger, PCB stockholders (except those stockholders who perfect dissenters' rights under applicable law) will automatically, and without further action by such stockholders or by Colonial BancGroup, become owners of Colonial BancGroup common stock, as described herein, and entitled to the payment of $31.6975 for each share of PCB stock owned by them immediately before the completion of the merger. Outstanding certificates representing shares of the PCB common stock will represent shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and the right to receive such cash payment. Thereafter, upon surrender of the certificates formerly representing shares of PCB common stock, the holders will be entitled to receive certificates for the Colonial BancGroup common stock and such cash payment. Dividends on the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock will accumulate without interest and will not be distributed to any former stockholder of PCB unless and until such stockholder surrenders for cancellation his certificate for PCB common stock. SunTrust Bank, transfer agent for Colonial BancGroup common stock, will act as the exchange agent with respect to the shares of PCB common stock surrendered in connection with the merger. The exchange agent will mail a detailed explanation of these arrangements to PCB stockholders promptly following the completion of the merger. Stock certificates should not be sent to the exchange agent until such notice is received.

Treatment of PCB Options

Assumption or Cancellation of Options. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, PCB had granted options to various officers and employees, which entitle the holders thereof to acquire up to 93,250 shares of PCB common stock. In the merger, an option to purchase one share of PCB common stock will become an option to purchase 7.9244 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. Alternatively, a holder of PCB stock options will be allowed to cancel his or her PCB stock options in exchange for the right to receive a cash payment equal to the Market Value of Colonial BancGroup common stock multiplied by the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that would have been issuable in connection with the exercise of the PCB stock options less the aggregate exercise price for the PCB stock options.

Table of Contents

The PCB stock options are issuable pursuant to the P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc. 1998 Stock Option Plan. The option plan is not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. PCB stock options are not transferable except by will or under the laws of descent and distribution.

The PCB stock options are incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon exercise of such an option, ordinary income would not normally result to the optionee even if the price of the options is lower than the fair market value of the stock subject to the option at the date of exercise provided certain timing requirements are met. However, income could be recognized for alternative minimum tax purposes upon a exercise. No income for regular federal income tax purposes would be realized until the holder actually sells the stock obtained through the exercise of incentive stock options as long as such stock is held long enough. The foregoing statements concerning federal income tax treatment are necessarily general and may not apply in a particular instance. Holders of PCB options should contact their own professional tax advisors for advice concerning their particular tax situation.

Other Matters. It is not anticipated that Colonial BancGroup will make any reports to option holders regarding the amount or status of PCB stock options held. Option holders may obtain such information from Colonial BancGroup at the address given above on page 6 of this proxy statement-prospectus.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The merger of PCB with and into Colonial BancGroup is intended to qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The obligation of each of PCB and Colonial BancGroup to consummate the merger is conditioned on the receipt of an opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Colonial BancGroup's independent public accountant, to the effect that the merger will constitute such a reorganization. Colonial BancGroup has received this opinion. In delivering its opinion, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP received and relied upon certain representations contained in certificates of officers of Colonial BancGroup and PCB and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials as it deemed necessary. The tax opinion is based upon customary assumptions contained therein, including the assumptions that: (i) the Colonial BancGroup common shares delivered in the merger represent a substantial portion of the overall consideration received by the PCB stockholders and (ii) the PCB stockholders will not sell or dispose of the Colonial BancGroup common stock received in the merger to Colonial BancGroup or a related party of Colonial BancGroup.

The total merger consideration (5,9433 shares of Colonial Bancgroup common stock and $31.6975 in cash per share of PCB common stock) is fixed pursuant to the merger agreement. The total value of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be exchanged for PCB common stock represented at least 50% of the value of the total merger consideration, based on the per share value of Colonial BancGroup common stock, at the time the merger agreement was executed. If the per share value of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the effective date of the merger is significantly less than the per share value of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the time the merger agreement was executed such that the Colonial BancGroup stock consideration received by the PCB stockholders constitutes less than 50% of the value of total merger consideration, then the transaction may not qualify as a reorganization.

Neither PCB nor Colonial BancGroup intends to seek a ruling from the IRS as to the federal income tax consequences of the merger. Stockholders of PCB should be aware that the opinion from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will not be binding on the IRS or the courts. Stockholders of PCB also should be aware that some of the tax consequences of the merger are governed by provisions of the Code as to which there are no final regulations and little or no judicial or administrative guidance. There can be no assurance that future legislation, administrative rulings, or court decisions will not adversely affect the accuracy of the statements contained herein.

Table of Contents

The tax opinion states that, provided the assumptions stated therein are satisfied, the merger will constitute a reorganization as defined in Section 368(a) of the Code, and the following federal income tax consequences will result to PCB stockholders who exchange their shares of PCB common stock for shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock:

(i) No gain or loss will be recognized by Colonial BancGroup or PCB as a result of the merger;

(ii) The PCB stockholders will not recognize any gain related to Colonial BancGroup common stock received in exchange for their shares of PCB common stock. The PCB stockholders will recognize gain or loss with respect to the cash payment received in the merger for their shares of PCB common stock. This gain or loss will be characterized as capital gain or loss, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the PCB stockholder on the date of the merger under Code Section 1223(1);

(iii) The tax basis of the Colonial BancGroup common stock received by each PCB stockholder will equal the tax basis of such stockholder's PCB shares held at the time of the merger, (a) decreased by (1) the amount of cash received by such PCB stockholder in the merger and (2) the amount of loss, if any, to the stockholder which was recognized on the exchange, and (b) increased by (1) the amount, if any, which was treated as a dividend and (2) the amount of gain to the stockholder which was recognized on such exchange (not including any portion of such gain which was treated as a dividend);

(iv) The holding period of the Colonial BancGroup common stock received by the PCB stockholders will include the holding period during which the PCB common stock held at the time of the merger was held, provided that such stock was held as a capital asset in the hands of the PCB stockholders on the date of the merger under Code Section 1223(1); and

(v) The cash received by a PCB stockholder in lieu of a fractional share interest of Colonial BancGroup common stock will be treated as having been received as a distribution in full payment in exchange for the fractional share interest of Colonial BancGroup stock which he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive and will qualify for capital gain or loss treatment, provided that such stock is held as a capital asset in the hands of the PCB stockholder on the date of the merger under Internal Revenue Code Section 1223(1).

Each PCB stockholder will be required to report on such stockholder's federal income tax return for the fiscal year of such stockholder in which the merger occurs that such stockholder has received Colonial BancGroup common stock and cash in a reorganization.

Other Possible Consequences

If the merger is consummated, the stockholders of PCB, a Florida corporation, will become stockholders of Colonial BancGroup, a Delaware business corporation. For a discussion of the differences, if any, in the rights, preferences, and privileges attaching to PCB common stock as compared with Colonial BancGroup common stock, see Comparative Rights of Stockholders.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

The parties' respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, to the extent permitted by law) of various conditions set forth in the merger agreement.

The obligations of PCB and Colonial BancGroup to consummate the merger are conditioned upon, among other things, (i) the approval of the merger agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of PCB common stock; (ii) the notification to, or approval of the merger by, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Florida Department of Financial Services (Florida Department); (iii) the absence of pending or threatened litigation with a view to restraining or prohibiting consummation of the merger or to obtain divestiture, rescission or damages in connection with the merger; (iv) the absence of any investigation by any governmental agency which might result in any such proceeding; (v) consummation of the merger no later than September 30, 2004; and (vi) receipt of opinions of counsel regarding certain matters. The merger agreement permits the parties to waive, in writing, conditions for the consummation of the merger other than those required by law.

The obligation of PCB to consummate the merger is further subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of Colonial BancGroup; (ii) the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued under the merger agreement being approved for listing on the NYSE; and (iii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of Colonial BancGroup contained in the merger agreement and the performance by Colonial BancGroup of all of its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement.

The obligation of Colonial BancGroup to consummate the merger is subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of PCB; (ii) the number of shares as to which holders of PCB common stock exercise dissenters' rights not exceeding 10% of the outstanding shares of PCB common stock; (iii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of PCB contained in the merger agreement; (iv) the performance by PCB of all of its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement, including certain restrictions on PCB's conduct of its business; (v) the receipt of the consent to the merger and assignment of leases of PCB's offices; and (vi) the absence of any material adverse finding made by the Florida Department or the FDIC in their examination of PCB and its subsidiary banks.

It is anticipated that the foregoing conditions, as well as certain other conditions contained in the merger agreement, such as the receipt of certificates of officers of each party as to compliance with the merger agreement and satisfaction of each party of all representations, warranties and covenants, will either be satisfied or waived by the parties. The merger agreement provides that each of PCB and Colonial BancGroup may waive all conditions to its respective obligation to consummate the merger, other than the receipt of the requisite approvals of regulatory authorities and approval of the merger agreement by the stockholders of PCB. In making any decision regarding a waiver of one or more conditions to consummation of the merger or an amendment of the merger agreement, the Boards of Directors of PCB and Colonial BancGroup would be subject to the fiduciary duty standards imposed upon such boards by relevant law that would require such boards to act in the best interests of their respective stockholders.

Amendment or Termination of the Merger Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the merger agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of the Boards of Directors of each of the parties. However, after approval of the merger agreement by the holders of PCB common stock, no amendment decreasing the consideration to be received by PCB stockholders may be made without the further approval of such stockholders. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to or on the date the merger is to be completed, whether before or after approval of the merger agreement by the stockholders of PCB, by the mutual consent of the respective Boards of Directors of PCB and Colonial BancGroup or by the Board of Directors of either Colonial BancGroup or PCB under certain circumstances including, but not limited to: (i) a material breach which cannot or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach being given by the non-breaching party; (ii) failure to consummate the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement by September 30, 2004, provided that such failure to consummate is not caused by any breach of the merger agreement by the party electing to terminate; and (iii) if PCB enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party, in which event Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $5,000,000 from PCB or its acquiror.

Commitment with Respect to Other Offers

Until the earlier of the date the merger is effective or, subject to certain limitations, the termination of the merger agreement, neither PCB nor any of its directors or officers (or any person representing any of the foregoing) may solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, furnish any information relating to or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning, any acquisition or purchase of all or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or of a substantial equity interest in, PCB or any business combination involving PCB (collectively, an Acquisition Proposal) other than as contemplated by the merger agreement. PCB is required to notify Colonial BancGroup immediately if any such inquiries or proposals are received by PCB, if any such information is requested from PCB, or if any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated with PCB. PCB is required to instruct its officers, directors, agents or affiliates or their subsidiaries to refrain from doing any of the above. PCB may communicate information about an Acquisition Proposal to its stockholders if and to the extent that PCB's legal counsel advises PCB that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations.

If PCB enters into a letter of intent or a definitive agreement to be acquired by any party other than Colonial BancGroup prior to the closing of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement, or, under certain circumstances, if PCB is acquired by a party other than Colonial BancGroup within 24 months after the termination of the merger agreement, then Colonial BancGroup will be entitled to receive a payment of $5,000,000. Such payment will compensate Colonial BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses associated with pursuing the merger and Colonial BancGroup's loss as a result of the failure to complete the merger. The termination fee may also have the effect of increasing the likelihood that the merger will be consummated by making it more difficult and expensive for any third party to acquire control of PCB while Colonial BancGroup is seeking to consummate the merger.

Regulatory Approvals

An application must be filed with the Federal Reserve pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHCA) and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for its prior approval of the merger. In addition, approval of the merger must be obtained from the Florida Department.

In order to obtain the necessary approvals, an application was filed with the Federal Reserve on February 10, 2004 and an application was filed with the Florida Department on February 13, 2004. The regulatory approval process is expected to take approximately eight weeks from this date.

Federal Reserve Approval. Pursuant to Section 3 of the BHCA, and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the approval of the Federal Reserve must be obtained prior to completion of the merger. The Federal Reserve must withhold approval of the merger if it finds that the transaction will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the Federal Reserve may not approve the merger if it finds that the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition in any section of the country, or tend to create a monopoly, or would in any other manner be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Federal Reserve will also take into consideration the financial condition and managerial resources of Colonial BancGroup, its subsidiaries, any banks related to Colonial BancGroup through common ownership or management, and the subsidiary banks of PCB. Finally, the Federal Reserve will consider the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the compliance records of Colonial Bank and the subsidiary banks of PCB under the Community Reinvestment Act.

The BHCA provides for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorizes the Federal Reserve to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the merger. Section 11 of the BHCA imposes a waiting period which prohibits the consummation of the merger, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the Federal Reserve's approval of the merger. During such period, the United States Department of Justice, should it object to the merger for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the merger.

Florida Department Approval. The Florida Department must approve the change of control of the subsidiary banks of PCB which would be effected by the merger. Under Section 658.28 of the Florida Banking Code, the Florida Department shall issue a Certificate of Approval for a change in control of a Florida state bank only after it has made an investigation and has determined that the proposed new owner of a controlling interest of such Florida state bank is qualified by reputation, character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the bank in a legal and proper manner and that the interest of the other stockholders, if any, and the depositors and creditors of the bank and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership, controlling interest or management.

The merger agreement provides that the obligation of each of Colonial BancGroup and PCB to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. There can be no assurance that the applications necessary for Colonial BancGroup to complete the merger will be approved, and, if such approvals are received, that such approvals will not be conditioned upon terms and conditions that would cause the parties to abandon the merger.

Any approval received from bank regulatory agencies reflects only their view that the merger does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law, and that the merger is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. THE APPROVAL OF THE BANK REGULATORY AGENCIES IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OR RECOMMENDATION OF THE MERGER.

Colonial BancGroup is not aware of any governmental approvals or actions that may be required for consummation of the merger except for the prior approval of the Federal Reserve and the Florida Department described above. Should any such approval or action be required, it is presently contemplated that such approval or action would be sought.

Supervision and Regulation

Colonial Bank converted to a national banking association on August 8, 2003. Prior to the conversion, Colonial Bank was subject to the supervision and regulation of the Federal Reserve and the Alabama State Banking Department. However, upon conversion, Colonial Bank became subject to the supervision and regulation of the OCC.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

The merger agreement contains certain restrictions on the conduct of the business of PCB pending completion of the merger. The merger agreement prohibits PCB from taking, without the prior written consent of Colonial BancGroup, any of the following actions, prior to the completion of the merger, subject to certain limited exceptions previously agreed to by Colonial BancGroup and PCB:

- (i) Issuing, delivering or agreeing to issue or deliver any stock, bonds or other corporate securities (whether authorized and unissued or held in the treasury), except shares of PCB common stock issued upon the exercise of PCB stock options;

- (ii) Borrowing or agreeing to borrow any funds or incurring or becoming subject to, any liability (absolute or contingent) except borrowings, obligations and liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;

- (iii) Paying any material obligation or liability (absolute or contingent) other than current liabilities reflected in or shown on the most recent balance sheet and current liabilities incurred since that date in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;

- (iv) Declaring or making or agreeing to declare or make, any payment of dividends or distributions of any assets of any kind whatsoever to stockholders, or purchasing or redeeming or agreeing to purchase or redeem, any of its outstanding securities, except that PCB may pay one cash dividend of no more than $0.50 per share (which was paid on January 2, 2004), and if the merger is not completed prior to July 31, 2004, then PCB may pay an additional cash dividend of no more than $1.10 per share to its stockholders;

- (v) Except in the ordinary course of business, selling or transferring or agreeing to sell or transfer, any of its assets, property or rights or canceling, or agreeing to cancel, any debts or claims;

- (vi) Except in the ordinary course of business, entering or agreeing to enter into any agreement or arrangement granting any preferential rights to purchase any of its assets, property or rights or requiring the consent of any party to the transfer and assignment of any of its assets, property or rights;

- (vii) Waiving any rights of value which in the aggregate are material considering the business as a whole;

- (viii) Except in the ordinary course of business, making or permitting any amendment or termination of any contract, agreement or license to which it is a party if such amendment or termination is material considering its business as a whole;

(x) Except in accordance with past practice, increasing the rate of compensation payable to or to become payable to any of its officers or employees or making any material increase in any profit-sharing, bonus, deferred compensation, savings, insurance, pension, retirement or other employee benefit plan, payment or arrangement made to, for or with any of its officers or employees;

(xi) Failing to operate its business in the ordinary course so as to preserve its business intact and to preserve the goodwill of its customers and others with whom it has business relations;

(xii) Entering into any other material transaction other than in the ordinary course of business; and (xiii) Agreeing in writing, or otherwise, to take any action described in clauses (i) through (xii) above.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement provides that prior to the completion of the merger, no director or officer of PCB or any of its subsidiaries shall, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, join, control, be employed by or participate in the ownership, proposed ownership, management, operation or control of or be connected in any manner with, any business, corporation or partnership which is competitive to the business of PCB or its subsidiaries.

The merger agreement also provides that (i) at the request of Colonial BancGroup, PCB will consult with Colonial BancGroup and advise Colonial BancGroup in advance of all loan requests outside the ordinary course of business or in excess of $500,000 that are not single-family residential loan requests; and (ii) PCB will consult with Colonial BancGroup respecting business issues that PCB believes should be brought to the attention of Colonial BancGroup.

Effective Time

Articles of Merger will be filed with the Secretary of State of Florida and a Certificate of Merger will be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State as soon as practicable after all conditions contained in the merger agreement have been satisfied or lawfully waived, including receipt of all regulatory approvals, and expiration of all statutory waiting periods, and the approval of the merger agreement by the stockholders of PCB. The effective time of the merger will be the later of the time the Articles of Merger are accepted for filing by the Secretary of State of Florida and the Certificate of Merger is accepted for filing the Secretary of State of Delaware (or such later time as the parties may agree).

Management and Operations After the Merger

As a result of the merger, P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc. will be merged into Colonial BancGroup, with Colonial BancGroup being the surviving entity. No changes in the members of the board of directors or executive officers of Colonial BancGroup will occur as a result of the merger. The subsidiaries of PCB will be wholly-owned subsidiaries of Colonial BancGroup following the merger, and the members of the boards of directors and the officers of such companies will continue to serve in such capacities at the discretion of Colonial BancGroup, other than those who have entered into employment agreements with Colonial BancGroup, who are expected to serve pursuant to the terms of their respective agreements.

Indemnification

Colonial BancGroup has agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of PCB against claims made within six years after the completion of the merger that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the merger, to the extent that PCB would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

Holders of PCB common stock as of the record date are entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal under the Florida Business Corporation Act (FBCA). Consummation of the merger is subject to, among other things, the holders of no more than 10% of the outstanding PCB common stock electing to exercise their dissenters' rights. Pursuant to Section 607.1302 of the FBCA, a PCB stockholder who does not wish to accept the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be received pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may dissent from the merger and elect to receive the fair value of his shares immediately prior to the completion of the merger. Such fair value is exclusive of any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger, unless exclusion would be inequitable to PCB and its remaining stockholders.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a dissenting stockholder of PCB must strictly comply with the statutory procedures of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA, which are summarized below. A copy of the full text of those Sections is attached hereto as Appendix B. Shareholders of PCB are urged to read Appendix

B in its entirety and to consult with their legal advisors. Each stockholder of PCB who desires to assert his or her appraisal rights is cautioned that failure on his or her part to adhere strictly to the requirements of Florida law in any regard will cause a forfeiture of any appraisal rights.

Procedures for Exercising Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal. The following summary of Florida law is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the provisions of the FBCA attached hereto as Appendix B.

1. A dissenting stockholder must file with PCB, prior to the taking of the vote on the merger, a written notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the merger is effectuated. A vote against the merger will not alone be deemed to be the written notice of intent to demand payment. A dissenting stockholder need not vote against the merger, but cannot vote, or allow any nominee who holds such shares for the dissenting stockholder to vote, any of his PCB shares for the merger. Such written notification should be delivered either in person or by mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, being the recommended form of transmittal) to:

P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc.

5830 142nd Avenue North

Clearwater, Florida 33760

Attention: Paul V. Mellini, President and CEO

All such notices must be signed in the same manner as the shares are registered on the books of PCB. If a stockholder has not provided written notice of intent to demand fair value before the vote is taken at the special meeting, the stockholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.

2. Within ten days after the completion of the merger, Colonial BancGroup must supply to each PCB stockholder who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for his shares a written appraisal notice and an appraisal election form that specifies, among other things, (i) the date of the completion of the merger, (ii) Colonial BancGroup's estimate of the fair value of the PCB shares, (iii) where to return the completed appraisal election form and the stockholder's stock certificates and the date by which they must be received by Colonial BancGroup or its agent, which date may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the date Colonial BancGroup sent the appraisal notice and appraisal election form to the stockholder, and (iv) the date by which a notice from the stockholder of his desire to withdraw his appraisal election must be received by Colonial BancGroup, which date must be within 20 days after the date set for receipt by Colonial BancGroup of the appraisal election form from the stockholder. The form must also contain Colonial BancGroup's offer to pay to the stockholder the amount that it has estimated as the fair value of the PCB shares, and request certain information from the stockholder, including (a) the stockholder's name and address, (b) the number of shares as to which the stockholder is asserting appraisal rights, (c) whether the stockholder voted for the merger, (d) whether the stockholder accepts the offer of Colonial BancGroup to pay its estimate of the fair value of the PCB shares to the stockholder, and (e) if the stockholder does not accept the offer of Colonial BancGroup, the stockholder's estimated fair value of the PCB shares and a demand for payment of the stockholder's estimated value plus interest. A dissenting stockholder must send the certificate(s) representing his shares with the appraisal election form. ANY DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER FAILING TO RETURN A PROPERLY COMPLETED APPRAISAL ELECTION FORM AND HIS STOCK CERTIFICATES WITHIN THE PERIOD STATED IN THE FORM WILL LOSE HIS APPRAISAL RIGHTS AND BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT.

3. Upon returning the appraisal election form, a dissenting stockholder shall thereafter be entitled only to payment pursuant to the procedure set forth in the applicable sections of FBCA and shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a stockholder, unless the dissenting stockholder withdraws his demand for appraisal within the time period specified in the appraisal election form.

4. A dissenting stockholder who has delivered the appraisal election form and his stock certificates may decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by giving written notice to Colonial BancGroup within the time period specified in the appraisal election form. Thereafter, a dissenting stockholder may not withdraw from the appraisal process without the written consent of Colonial

BancGroup. Upon such withdrawal, the right of the dissenting stockholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares will cease, and he or she will be reinstated as a stockholder.

5. If the dissenting stockholder accepts the offer of Colonial BancGroup in the appraisal election form to pay Colonial BancGroup's estimate of the fair value of the PCB shares, payment for the shares of the dissenting stockholder is to be made within 90 days after the receipt of the appraisal election form by Colonial BancGroup or its agent. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting stockholder will cease to have any interest in such shares.

6. A stockholder must demand appraisal rights with respect to all of the shares registered in his or her name, except that a record stockholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record stockholder's name but which are owned by a beneficial stockholder, if the record stockholder objects with respect to all shares owned by the beneficial stockholder. A record stockholder must notify PCB in writing of the name and address of each beneficial stockholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. A beneficial stockholder may assert appraisal rights as to any shares held on behalf of the stockholder only if the stockholder submits to PCB the record stockholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights before the date specified in the appraisal notice, and does so with respect to all shares that are beneficially owned by the beneficial stockholder.

Currently, the Florida statutes do not address what should occur if a dissenting stockholder fails to accept the offer of Colonial BancGroup to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Colonial BancGroup, and Colonial BancGroup fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting stockholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting stockholder, plus interest. The Florida appraisal rights statutes were significantly rewritten in 2003, but the legislature failed to adopt a replacement for paragraphs (7) and (8) of former section 617.1320, which dealt with such circumstances. It is likely, but not certain, that pending adoption of a new statute by the Florida legislature a Florida court would apply these provisions of the former statute, a copy of which is attached at the end of Appendix B, and which provide basically as follows:

1. If a dissenting stockholder refuses to accept the offer of Colonial BancGroup to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Colonial BancGroup, and Colonial BancGroup fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting stockholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting stockholder, plus interest, then within 30 days after receipt of a written demand from any dissenting stockholder given within 60 days after the date on which the merger was effected, BancGroup shall, or at its election at any time within such period of 60 days may, file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in Florida where the registered office of BancGroup, maintained pursuant to Florida law, is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be determined by the court.

2. If Colonial BancGroup fails to institute such a proceeding within the above-prescribed period, any dissenting stockholder may do so in the name of Colonial BancGroup. A copy of the initial pleading will be served on each dissenting stockholder. Colonial BancGroup is required to pay each dissenting stockholder the amount found to be due within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings, which amount may, in the discretion of the court, include a fair rate of interest, which will also be determined by the court. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting stockholder ceases to have any interest in such shares.

The current Florida statutes, Section 607.1331, provide that the costs of a court appraisal proceeding, including reasonable compensation for, and expenses of, appraisers appointed by the court, shall be determined by the court and assessed against Colonial BancGroup, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenting stockholders, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent that the court finds such stockholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to their appraisal rights. The court also may assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable, against (i) Colonial BancGroup and in favor of any or all dissenting stockholders if the court finds Colonial BancGroup did not substantially comply with the notification provisions set forth Section 607.1320 and 607.1322, or (ii) against either Colonial BancGroup or a dissenting stockholder, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights. If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any dissenting stockholder were of substantial benefit to other dissenting stockholders, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Colonial BancGroup, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenting stockholders who were benefited. To the extent that Colonial BancGroup fails to make a required payment when a dissenting stockholder accepts Colonial BancGroup's offer to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Colonial BancGroup, the dissenting stockholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from Colonial BancGroup all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

Any dissenting stockholder who perfects his or her right to be paid the value of his or her shares will recognize gain or loss, if any, for federal income tax purposes upon the receipt of cash for such shares. The amount of gain or loss and its character as ordinary or capital gain or loss will be determined in accordance with applicable provisions of the Code. See Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences.

BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE FLORIDA LAW RELATING TO DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS, STOCKHOLDERS WHO ARE CONSIDERING DISSENTING FROM THE MERGER ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN LEGAL ADVISERS.

Resale of Colonial BancGroup Common Stock Issued in the Merger

The issuance of the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock pursuant to the merger (including any shares to be issued pursuant to PCB stock options) has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act). As a result, stockholders of PCB who are not affiliates of PCB (as such term is defined under the Securities Act) may resell, without restriction, all shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock which they receive in connection with the merger. Under the Securities Act, only affiliates of PCB are subject to restrictions on the resale of the Colonial BancGroup common stock which they receive in the merger.

The Colonial BancGroup common stock received by affiliates of PCB (primarily officers, directors and principal stockholders) who do not also become affiliates of Colonial BancGroup after the consummation of the merger may not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering such shares or in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act or another applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Generally, Rule 145 permits Colonial BancGroup common stock held by such stockholders to be sold in accordance with certain provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. In general, these provisions of Rule 144 permit a person to sell on the open market in brokers or certain other transactions within any three-month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of 1% of the then outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or the average weekly trading volume in Colonial BancGroup common stock reported on the NYSE during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to the availability of current public information about Colonial BancGroup. The restrictions on sales will cease to apply under most circumstances once the former PCB affiliate has held the Colonial BancGroup common stock for at least one year. Colonial BancGroup common stock held by affiliates of PCB who become affiliates of Colonial BancGroup, if any, will be subject to additional restrictions on the ability of such persons to resell such shares.

Accounting Treatment

Colonial BancGroup will account for the merger as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Under this accounting treatment, and in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations, the purchase price will be assigned to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. The valuation of intangibles, if any, will be made as of the effective date of the merger. In accordance with Statement of qualifying intangibles, such as core deposit intangibles, will be amortized by charges to future earnings over their expected useful lives. The remaining goodwill will be capitalized and evaluated for impairment on an annual basis, or if circumstances arise in which it is more likely than not the fair value of the related reporting unit has been reduced. If such goodwill were to be deemed impaired, such impairment would be measured and any such amount would be charged against current earnings.

Subject to the rights of holders of preferred stock, if any, to receive certain dividends prior to the declaration of dividends on shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock, when and as dividends, payable in cash, stock or other property, are declared by the Colonial BancGroup Board of Directors, the holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock are entitled to share ratably in such dividends.

Voting Rights. Each holder of Colonial BancGroup common stock has one vote for each share held on matters presented for consideration by the stockholders.

Preemptive Rights. The holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of Colonial BancGroup.

Issuance of Stock. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate authorizes the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup to issue authorized shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock without stockholder approval. However, Colonial BancGroup's common stock is listed on the NYSE, which requires stockholder approval of the issuance of additional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock under certain circumstances.

Liquidation Rights. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Colonial BancGroup, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock will be entitled to share ratably in any of its assets or funds that are available for distribution to its stockholders after the satisfaction of its liabilities (or after adequate provision is made therefore) and after preferences of any outstanding preferred stock.

Preferred Stock

The preferred stock (which is denominated in the Colonial BancGroup Certificate of Incorporation as Preference Stock) may be issued from time to time as a class without series, or if so determined by the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup, either in whole or in part in one or more series. The voting rights, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, of any wholly unissued series of Preferred Stock (or of the entire class of Preference Stock if none of such shares has been issued), the number of shares constituting any such series and the terms and conditions of the issue thereof may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup. Preference Stock may have a preference over the Colonial BancGroup common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or winding-up of Colonial BancGroup and such other preferences as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup.

Colonial BancGroup Debt

In connection with the ASB Bancshares, Inc. acquisition, on February 5, 1998, Colonial BancGroup issued $7,725,000 of variable rate subordinated debentures due February 5, 2008. These variable rate subordinated debentures bear interest equal to the New York Prime Rate minus 1% (but in no event less than 7% per annum).

On March 15, 1999, Colonial Bank issued $100 million of subordinated notes, due March 15, 2009, that qualify as Tier II capital. The notes bear interest at 8.00% and are not subject to redemption prior to maturity. Colonial Bank executed two interest rate swaps whereby Colonial Bank will receive fixed rates and pay floating rates, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of these interest rate swaps created effective floating rates of 3-month LIBOR plus 4.01% on $50 million and 3-month LIBOR plus 4.015% on $50 million. As of December 31, 2003 the effective rates were 5.167% and 5.172%, respectively. The fair market value of the swaps at December 31, 2003 was $2.0 million.

On May 23, 2001, Colonial Bank issued $150 million in 9.375% subordinated notes due June 1, 2011. This debt qualifies as Tier II capital. In connection with this issuance, Colonial Bank executed an interest rate swap whereby Colonial Bank will receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of this interest rate swap created an effective floating rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 3.28%, which as of December 31, 2003 was 4.44%. The fair market value of the swap at December 31, 2003 was $18.7 million.

On January 29, 1997, Colonial BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $70 million of trust preferred securities, that currently qualify as Tier I capital. The securities bear interest at 8.92% and are subject to redemption by Colonial BancGroup, in whole or in part at any time after January 29, 2007 until maturity in January 2027. On May 14, 2002, Colonial BancGroup executed an interest rate swap whereby Colonial BancGroup will receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of this interest rate swap created an effective floating rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 2.23%, which as of December 31, 2003 was 3.39%. The fair market value of the swap at December 31, 2003 was $4.2 million.

On March 21, 2002, Colonial BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $100 million of trust preferred securities, that currently qualify as Tier I capital. The securities bear interest at 8.32% and are subject to redemption by Colonial BancGroup, in whole or in part at any time after April 1, 2007 until maturity in April 2032. In connection with this issuance, Colonial BancGroup executed an interest rate swap whereby Colonial BancGroup will receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of this interest rate swap created an effective floating rate of 3-month LIBOR plus 1.40%, which as of December 31, 2003 was 2.56%. The fair market value of the swap at December 31, 2003 was $9.3 million.

In March 2002, Colonial BancGroup added $8 million in trust preferred securities as part of the acquisition of Mercantile. The securities bear interest of 7.75% and mature in September 2032.

On September 16, 2003, Colonial BancGroup issued, through a special purpose trust, $100 million of trust preferred securities that currently qualify as Tier I capital. The securities bear interest at 7.875% and are subject to redemption by Colonial BancGroup, in whole or in part at any time after October 1, 2008 until maturity on October 1, 2033. In connection with this issuance, Colonial BancGroup executed three interest rate swaps whereby Colonial BancGroup will receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate, effectively converting the fixed rate notes to floating. The result of these interest rate swaps created effective floating rates of 3-month LIBOR plus 1.995% on $30 million, 3-month LIBOR plus 2.0875% on $35 million and 3-month LIBOR plus 1.9975% on $35 million. As of December 31, 2003 the effective rates were 3.152%, 3.245% and 3.155%, respectively. The fair market value of these swaps at December 31, 2003 was $(146) thousand.

The subordinated debentures, notes and trust preferred securities described above are subordinate to substantially all remaining liabilities of Colonial BancGroup.

Colonial BancGroup had long-term FHLB Borrowings outstanding of approximately $1.1 billion at December 31, 2003. These borrowings bear interest rates of 1.16% to 7.53% and mature from 2004 to 2013. BancGroup had long term reverse repurchase agreements of $300 million outstanding at December 31, 2003, at an interest rate of 1.65% maturing in 2006.

Changes in Control

Certain provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate and the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws may have the effect of preventing, discouraging or delaying any change in control of Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Board of Directors has the authority to issue Colonial BancGroup preferred stock with such rights and privileges, including voting rights, as it may deem appropriate. This would allow the Board of Directors to prevent a change in control despite a shift in ownership of the Colonial BancGroup common stock. See Preferred Stock. In addition, the power of Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors to issue additional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock may help delay or deter a change in control by increasing the number of shares needed to gain control. See Colonial BancGroup Common Stock. The following provisions also may deter any change in control of Colonial BancGroup.

Classified Board. Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors is classified into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the members of each class elected to three-year terms. Thus, one-third of Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors is elected by stockholders each year. With this provision, two annual elections are required in order to change a majority of the Board of Directors. There are currently 18 directors of Colonial BancGroup. This provision of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate also stipulates that (i) directors can be removed only for cause upon a vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class, (ii) vacancies in the Board of Directors may only be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, (iii) the maximum number of directors shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors, and (iv) the provisions relating to the classified Board of Directors can only be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class.

Business Combinations. Certain Business Combinations of Colonial BancGroup with a Related Person may only be undertaken with the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of at least 67% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, not counting shares owned by the Related Person, unless the Continuing Directors of Colonial BancGroup approve such Business Combination. A Related Person is a person, or group, who owns or acquires 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock, provided that no person shall be a Related Person if such person would have been a Related Person on the date of approval of this provision by Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors, i.e., April 20, 1994. An effect of this provision may be to exclude Robert E. Lowder, the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Colonial BancGroup, and certain members of his family from the definition of Related Person. A Continuing Director is a director who was a member of the Board of Directors immediately prior to the time a person became a Related Person. This provision may not be amended without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of the outstanding shares of at least 67% of the outstanding Voting Stock, excluding shares held by a Related Person. This provision may have the effect of giving the incumbent Board of Directors a veto over a merger or other Business Combination that could be desired by a majority of Colonial BancGroup's stockholders. As of February 24, 2004, the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup owned approximately 7.4% of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Board Evaluation of Mergers. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate permits the Board of Directors to consider certain factors such as the character and financial stability of the other party, the projected social, legal, and economic effects of a proposed transaction upon the employees, suppliers, regulatory agencies and customers and communities of Colonial BancGroup, and other factors when considering whether Colonial BancGroup should undertake a merger, sale of assets, or other similar transaction with another party. This provision may not be amended except by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. This provision may give greater latitude to the Board of Directors in terms of the factors which the board may consider in recommending or rejecting a merger or other Business Combination of Colonial BancGroup.

Director Authority. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate prohibits stockholders from calling special stockholders' meetings and acting by written consent. It also provides that only Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors has the authority to undertake certain actions with respect to governing Colonial BancGroup such as appointing committees, electing officers, and establishing compensation of officers, and it allows the Board of Directors to act by majority vote.

Bylaw Provisions. The Colonial BancGroup Bylaws provide that stockholders wishing to propose nominees for the Board of Directors or other business to be taken up at an annual meeting of Colonial BancGroup stockholders must comply with certain advance written notice provisions. These bylaw provisions are intended to provide for the more orderly conduct of stockholders' meetings but could make it more difficult for stockholders to nominate directors or introduce business at stockholders' meetings.

Delaware Business Combination Statute. Subject to some exceptions, Delaware law prohibits Colonial BancGroup from entering into certain business combinations (as defined) involving persons beneficially owning 15% or more of the outstanding Colonial BancGroup common stock (or one who is an affiliate of Colonial BancGroup and has over the past three years beneficially owned 15% or more of such stock) (either, for the purpose of this paragraph, an Interested Stockholder), unless the Board of Directors has approved either (i) the business combination or (ii) prior to the stock acquisition by which such person's beneficial ownership interest reached 15% (a Stock Acquisition), the Stock Acquisition. The prohibition lasts for three years from the date of the Stock Acquisition. Notwithstanding the preceding, Delaware law allows Colonial BancGroup to enter into a business combination with an Interested Stockholder if (i) the business combination is approved by Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors and authorized by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock of Colonial BancGroup which is not owned by the Interested Stockholder or (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an Interested Stockholder, such stockholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding Colonial BancGroup common stock (excluding Colonial BancGroup common stock held by officers and directors of Colonial BancGroup or by certain Colonial BancGroup stock plans). These provisions of Delaware law apply simultaneously with the provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate relating to business combinations with a related person, described above at Business Combinations, but they are generally less restrictive than the Colonial BancGroup Certificate.

Control Acquisitions. As it relates to Colonial BancGroup, the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978 prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days' prior written notice of such proposed acquisition and within that time period the Federal Reserve has not issued a notice disapproving the proposed acquisition or extending for up to another 30 days the period during which such a disapproval may be issued. An acquisition may be made prior to the expiration of the disapproval period if the Federal Reserve issues written notice of its intent not to disapprove the action. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of more than 10% of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Colonial BancGroup, would, under the circumstances set forth in the presumption, constitute the acquisition of control. The receipt of revocable proxies, provided the proxies terminate within a reasonable time after the meeting to which they relate, is not included in determining percentages for change in control purposes.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

If the merger is consummated, stockholders of PCB (except those perfecting dissenters' rights) will become holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock. The rights of the holders of the PCB common stock who become holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock following the merger will be governed by the Colonial BancGroup Certificate and the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws, as well as the laws of Delaware, the state in which Colonial BancGroup is incorporated.

The following summary compares the rights of the holders of PCB common stock with the rights of the holders of the Colonial BancGroup common stock. For a more detailed description of the rights of the holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock, including certain features of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate and the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) that might limit the circumstances under which a change in control of Colonial BancGroup could occur, see Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt.

The following information is qualified in its entirety by the Colonial BancGroup Certificate and the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws, and the PCB Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the DGCL and the FBCA.

Director Elections

PCB. PCB's directors are elected to terms of three years with approximately one-third of the Board to be elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Colonial BancGroup. Colonial BancGroup's directors are elected to terms of three years with approximately one-third of the Board to be elected annually. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors. See Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control Classified Board.

Removal of Directors

Preemptive Rights

PCB. The holders of PCB common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of PCB common stock or any other shares of PCB capital stock.

Colonial BancGroup. The holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock have no preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or any other shares of Colonial BancGroup capital stock.

Directors Liability

PCB. Pursuant to the FBCA, a director of PCB will have no personal liability to PCB or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless: (a) the director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director; and (b) the director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) a circumstance under which the director would be liable for an unlawful distribution by PCB; (iv) in a proceeding by or in the right of PCB to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a stockholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of PCB, or willful misconduct; or (v) in a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than PCB or a stockholder, recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property. This statute would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest, and it does not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate provides that a director of Colonial BancGroup will have no personal liability to Colonial BancGroup or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for the payment of certain unlawful dividends and the making of certain stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This provision would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest or breaches of the traditional duty of loyalty to Colonial BancGroup and its stockholders, and it would not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Indemnification

PCB. The PCB Bylaws provide that PCB shall indemnify any director or officer who was or is a party to any proceeding against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, to the fullest extent permitted by law, and shall advance expenses incurred in connection with such a proceeding; provided, however, that no indemnification shall be made:

(i) if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that the person's actions or omissions were material to the cause of action adjudicated and such actions or omissions constitute:

(a) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;

(b) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit;

(c) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the director would be liable for an unlawful distribution by PCB; or

Table of Contents

(d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of PCB in a proceeding by or in the right of PCB to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a stockholder.

(ii) unless authorized in the specific case:

(a) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such proceeding;

(b) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) by independent legal counsel:

1. selected by the board of directors prescribed in paragraph (ii)(a) above or the committee prescribed in paragraph (ii)(b) above; or

2. if a quorum of the directors cannot be obtained for paragraph (ii)(a) above and the committee cannot be designated under paragraph (ii)(b) above, selected by majority vote of the full board of directors (in which directors who are parties may participate); or

(d) by the stockholders by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of stockholders who were not parties to such proceeding or, if no such quorum is obtainable, by a majority vote of stockholders who were not parties to such proceeding.

(iii) upon a determination that:

(a) in a proceeding other than an action by, or in the right of, PCB, the person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of PCB and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;

(b) in a proceeding by, or in the right of, PCB to procure a judgment in its favor, the person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of PCB; provided, further, that the parties described in paragraphs (ii)(a)-(d) above shall not authorize any indemnification in such a proceeding if the person has been adjudged to be liable therein. The foregoing proviso shall not preclude or limit indemnification under the mandatory indemnification provision described below or as directed by the court.

For purposes of making the determinations set forth in (iii)(a) and (iii)(b) above, the fact that a proceeding was terminated by a judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of PCB or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The Articles of Incorporation of PCB limit the ability of a court to order indemnification of a director, officer, employee or agent of PCB, other than (i) pursuant to an express agreement between the director, officer, employee or agent and PCB or as provided in the Bylaws, (ii) in situations where indemnification is mandatory under the FBCA, described below, or (iii) in a suit by or in the right of PCB where an officer or director has been adjudged liable and the Board of Directors has recommended indemnification, in which case the court may order indemnification for whatever expenses it determines proper if it finds the person to be fairly and reasonably entitled, under the circumstances of the case, to indemnification for such expenses, despite the adjudication of liability.

In all events, and notwithstanding the conditions and qualifications set forth above, PCB's Bylaws provide, and the FBCA requires, that it shall indemnify a director or officer who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

PCB maintains an officers and directors insurance policy for payment of certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses, that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by the FBCA.

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate provides that directors, officers, employees and agents of Colonial BancGroup shall be indemnified to the full extent permitted under the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL contains detailed and comprehensive provisions providing for indemnification of directors and officers of Delaware corporations against expenses, judgments, fines and settlements in connection with litigation. Under the DGCL, other than an action brought by or in the right of Colonial BancGroup, such indemnification is available if it is determined that the proposed indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Colonial BancGroup and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of Colonial BancGroup, such indemnification is limited to expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of such action if the indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Colonial BancGroup and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to Colonial BancGroup unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent that the proposed indemnity has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding (or any claim, issue or matter therein), he or she must be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Colonial BancGroup maintains an officers and directors insurance policy and a separate indemnification agreement pursuant to which officers and directors of Colonial BancGroup would be entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by Section 145 of the DGCL.

Special Meetings of Stockholders; Action Without a Meeting

PCB. Under the PCB Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, a special meeting of PCB's stockholders shall be held when directed by a majority of the PCB Board of Directors or when requested in writing by the holders of not less than two-thirds of all of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting; however, under the FBCA, a corporation may not set the maximum percentage of shares whose holders may call a special meeting higher than 50% of all of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting. Therefore, it is likely that this provision of the PCB Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws would be read to require a special meeting of PCB's stockholders when requested in writing by the holders of not less than 50% of all of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. Any action required or permitted by law or by the Articles of Incorporation of PCB to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the Colonial BancGroup Certificate, a special meeting of Colonial BancGroup's stockholders may only be called by a majority of the Colonial BancGroup Board of Directors or by the chairman of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup. Holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock may not call special meetings or act by written consent.

Quorum Requirements for Meetings Of Stockholders

PCB. PCB's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the holders of two-thirds of the votes entitled to vote and represented in person or by proxy constitute a quorum at a meeting of the stockholders.

Table of Contents

Colonial BancGroup. At a meeting of the stockholders of Colonial BancGroup, the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to vote and represented in person or by proxy constitute a quorum.

Mergers, Share Exchanges and Sales of Assets

PCB. The FBCA provides that mergers, share exchanges and sales of substantially all of the assets of Florida corporations outside of the ordinary course of business must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The FBCA also provides, however, that the stockholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction, unless such approval is required under its Articles of Incorporation, if: (i) the agreement of merger does not make any amendments to the articles of incorporation of such corporation that are required to be approved by the stockholders; and (ii) each stockholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the merger. The Articles of Incorporation of PCB do not require that the stockholders of PCB approve a merger if such conditions are met.

Colonial BancGroup. The DGCL provides that mergers and sales of substantially all of the assets of Delaware corporations must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The DGCL also provides, however, that the stockholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction if: (i) the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of such corporation; (ii) each share of stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the merger; and (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. See also Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control for a description of the statutory provisions and the provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate relating to changes of control of Colonial BancGroup.

Amendment of Articles or Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

PCB. Unless the FBCA, the Articles of Incorporation of PCB, or the board of directors in a particular case requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, to be adopted, an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of PCB must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights under the FBCA, and with respect to every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment, the amendment must receive more votes in favor of adoption than against adoption. As is permitted by the FBCA, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of PCB give the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal the PCB Bylaws by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors so long as the proposed action is not inconsistent with any Bylaws which may have been adopted at a stockholders' meeting. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the Bylaws of PCB also may be amended or repealed at any stockholders' meeting by a vote of stockholders holding two-thirds of the outstanding stock of PCB.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote as a class, unless the certificate requires the vote of a larger portion of the stock. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate requires super-majority stockholder approval to amend or repeal any provision of, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, certain provisions in the Colonial BancGroup Certificate governing (i) the election or removal of directors, (ii) business combinations between Colonial BancGroup and a Related Person, and (iii) board of directors evaluation of business combination procedures. See Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control.

As is permitted by the DGCL, the Colonial BancGroup Certificate gives the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws. The stockholders entitled to vote have concurrent power to adopt, amend or repeal the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

PCB. Under the FBCA, a stockholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value means the value of the corporation's shares determined immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the stockholder objects, using customary and current valuation concepts and techniques generally employed for similar businesses in the context of the transaction requiring appraisal, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable to the corporation and its remaining stockholders. Stockholders also are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a stockholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value may be determined by all generally accepted techniques of valuation used in the financial community, excluding any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the transaction, but including elements of future value that are known or susceptible of proof. Such fair value is determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, if a petition for appraisal is timely filed. Appraisal rights are not available, however, to stockholders of a corporation (i) if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange (as is Colonial BancGroup common stock) or quoted on the Nasdaq National Market System, or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders (as is Colonial BancGroup common stock), and (ii) stockholders are permitted by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept in exchange for their shares (a) shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation, (b) shares of stock of another corporation listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders, (c) cash in lieu of fractional shares of such stock, or (d) any combination thereof. Stockholders are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required.

Preferred Stock

PCB. The PCB Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock by resolution of the Board of Directors of PCB. Currently, no shares of preferred stock are issued and outstanding. The preferred stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series, as determined by the Board of Directors of PCB. The voting rights, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, of any wholly unissued series of preferred stock (or of the entire class of preferred stock if none of such shares has been issued), the number of shares constituting any such series and the terms and conditions of the issue thereof may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors of PCB. Preferred stock may have a preference over the PCB common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or winding-up of PCB and such other preferences as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of PCB.

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate authorizes the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of Preference Stock from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup. Currently, no shares of Preference Stock are issued and outstanding. See

Control Share Acquisitions

PCB. PCB is subject to the Control Share Acquisition statute under the FBCA (Section 607.0902). Unless a control share acquisition has been made in accordance with certain specified requirements, the FBCA prohibits the voting of shares that are acquired in the control share acquisition unless the holders of a majority of the corporation's voting shares (exclusive of shares held by officers of the corporation, directors who are also employees of the corporation, and the acquiring party) approve the granting of voting rights as to the shares acquired in the control share acquisition. A control share acquisition is defined as an acquisition that immediately thereafter entitles the acquiring party to vote in the election of directors within each of the following ranges of voting power: (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of such voting power, (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of such voting power, and (iii) a majority or more of such voting power.

For information with respect to provisions under Colonial BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of preventing, discouraging or delaying any change in control of Colonial BancGroup, see Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control.

Transactions with Interested Persons

PCB. The FBCA contains an Affiliated Transaction statute that prohibits certain Florida corporations from engaging in a broad range of business combinations or other extraordinary corporate transactions with an interested stockholder unless certain conditions are met, or the transaction is approved by the holders of two-thirds of the corporation's voting shares other than those owned by the interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is defined as a person who together with affiliates and associates beneficially owns more than 10% of the corporation's outstanding voting shares. However, the Articles of Incorporation of PCB contain a provision opting out of the coverage of the statute.

Colonial BancGroup. Effect of the Merger on PCB Stockholders

As of the record date, PCB had _____ stockholders of record and 1,007,840 outstanding shares of common stock. As of December 31, 2003, there were 127,046,537 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock outstanding held by approximately 9,679 stockholders of record.

Assuming that no dissenters' rights of appraisal are exercised in the merger and that the PCB stock options are cashed out, an aggregate number of approximately 5,989,895 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and $31,946,008 in cash would be issued to the stockholders of PCB pursuant to the merger. These shares would represent approximately 4.5% of the total shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock outstanding after the merger, not counting any shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued for reasons unrelated to the merger.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

The issuance of the Colonial BancGroup common stock pursuant to the merger will reduce the percentage interest of the Colonial BancGroup common stock currently held by each principal stockholder and each director and officer of Colonial BancGroup. Based upon the foregoing assumptions as a group, the directors and executive officers of Colonial BancGroup who owned approximately 7.4% of Colonial BancGroup's outstanding shares as of February 24, 2004 would own approximately 7.1% after the merger. See Business of Colonial BancGroup Voting Securities and Principal Stockholders.

BUSINESS OF PCB

General

P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc., a Florida corporation, was organized in July 1988 and became a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act on May 1, 1989, for Pinellas Community Bank, a state chartered commercial bank in Pinellas County, Florida. Currently, PCB has four wholly-owned state chartered, commercial bank subsidiaries: Premier Community Bank of Florida (formerly Pinellas Community Bank), serving Pinellas County; Premier Community Bank, serving Sarasota and Charlotte Counties; Premier Community Bank of Southwest Florida, serving Lee County; and Premier Community Bank of South Florida, serving Dade and Broward Counties.

Pinellas Community Bank was founded in 1986 with offices in Pinellas County. It acquired St. Petersburg, Florida-based Anchor Savings Bank in 1997, and changed its name to Premier Community Bank of Florida. The bank now has seven branches in Pinellas County, including branches in St. Petersburg, Clearwater, Largo and Belleair Bluffs.

PCB formed Premier Community Bank in 1996, with an initial branch in Venice, Florida. Two additional branches were opened subsequently, in Englewood and Venice. The bank also has a loan production office in Sarasota.

PCB formed Premier Community Bank of Southwest Florida in 2000, with an initial branch in Lehigh Acres; a second branch was opened subsequently in Fort Myers.

PCB acquired Gateway American Bank, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, in 2002, changing its name to Premier Community Bank of South Florida. Gateway had, and the bank retained, three branches in Broward County (Cypress Creek, Sea Ranch Lakes and Pembroke Pines), and one branch in Dade County (Miami Lakes).

Through its ownership of its subsidiary banks, PCB is engaged in a general commercial banking business and its primary source of earnings is derived from income generated by its bank subsidiaries. As of December 31, 2003, PCB, on a consolidated basis, had total assets of approximately $660 million, net loans of approximately $468 million, total deposits of approximately $520 million, and shareholders' equity of approximately $48 million. Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein to PCB include PCB and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

The business of PCB's subsidiary banks consists of attracting deposits from the general public in their primary service areas and applying those deposits, together with funds derived from other sources, to the origination of a variety of commercial, consumer and real estate loans. Deposit flows and cost of funds are influenced by interest rates on competing investments and general market rates of interest. The revenues of PCB's subsidiary banks are derived primarily from interest on, and fees received in connection with, their lending activities and from interest and dividends from investment securities and short-term investments. The principal sources of funds for the banks' lending and investment activities are deposits and borrowings through FHLB and correspondent banks. The principal expenses of the banks are the interest paid on deposits and operating, general and administrative expenses.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

As commercial banks, the four banks offer a broad range of commercial, consumer, and real estate loans, and provide a variety of corporate and personal banking services to individuals, businesses, and other institutions located in their respective market areas. The banks are all full-service commercial banks, without trust powers. The banks offer a full range of interest bearing and non-interest bearing accounts, including commercial and retail checking accounts, money market accounts, NOW accounts, individual retirement accounts, regular interest-bearing statement savings accounts and certificates of deposit. In addition, the banks provide such consumer services as travelers checks, cashiers checks, safe deposit boxes, bank by mail services, direct deposit service, Visa and Mastercard accounts, automated teller services and wire transfer services. The transaction accounts and time certificates are tailored to the principal market areas at rates competitive to those in their respective areas. All deposit accounts are insured by the FDIC up to the maximum limits permitted by law.

Each of the banks is subject to examination and comprehensive regulation by the Florida Department of Banking and Finance and the FDIC. As is the case with banking institutions generally, the banks' operations are materially and significantly influenced by general economic conditions and by related monetary and fiscal policies of financial institution regulatory agencies, including the FDIC and the Federal Reserve Board.

Another subsidiary of PCB, Premier Service Corporation, provides administrative services to the banks and PCB. PCB formed Premier Service Corporation in 2002 for the purpose of providing financial, operating, technology, and human resources support for its subsidiary banks. Premier Service Corporation also maintains an Association Services Department, which specializes in providing lockbox services for homeowner/condominium associations including the printing of coupon books, direct deposit of maintenance fees, and electronic reporting of payments received, and currently provides complete banking services for several thousand homeowner and condominium associations spanning more than 23 counties throughout the state of Florida. With this service, the banks are able to develop relationships with association management companies, each of which may serve 20 or more homeowner/condominium associations. The Association Services Department handles the payments for the unit owners of the associations served by the management company. All of the association's funds are held in the bank's interest-bearing accounts, providing the banks with a significant source of low cost deposits. In addition to accepting association maintenance assessments through the traditional lockbox system, the Association Services Department also offers an automated clearing house service for maintenance fees. Through this service, each unit owner is provided with a form to be completed in order to initiate the service and, once the service is initiated, maintenance fees are automatically deducted from the unit owner's checking account. These payments are deposited in the respective association's account and are electronically reported to the association management company. This service offers a customer service benefit to both the unit owner, who saves postage and handling through the automatic payment, and the management company, which receive the maintenance fee payments in a more timely manner, with daily lockbox summary details being uploadable directly to the management company's software, eliminating the need for manual input of data. PCB and Premier Service Corporation share offices in Clearwater, Florida.

Market Areas

The primary service area for each branch encompasses the area within a three-mile radius of the branch. In addition, each branch services customers outside its primary service area, but generally within the surrounding communities. Management believes that the banks' principal markets have been established small businesses and professionals, and the expanding residential market, in the branches' primary service areas.

With respect to each of the banks, businesses and individuals are solicited through the personal efforts of the respective bank's directors and officers. Premier Service Corporation also employs a staff of business development officers who call on homeowner and condominium associations on behalf of the banks throughout the state of Florida.

Lending Activities

The primary source of income generated by the banks is the interest earned from both their loan and investment portfolios. To develop business, the banks rely to a great extent on the personalized approach of their respective directors and officers who have extensive business and personal contacts in their respective communities. Each bank attempts to maintain diversification when considering investments and the approval of loan requests. Emphasis has been placed on the borrower's ability to generate cash flow sufficient to support its debt obligations and other cash related expenses.

Each bank engages in a full complement of lending activities, including commercial, consumer/installment and real estate loans. Commercial lending is directed principally towards businesses whose demands for funds fall within the bank's legal lending limits and which are potential deposit customers of the bank. This category of loans includes loans made to individual, partnership or corporate borrowers, and obtained for a variety of business purposes. Particular emphasis is placed on loans to small- and medium-sized businesses. Real estate loans are made for owner-occupied and investment purpose commercial property and for owner-occupied residential property with floating interest rates. Real estate loans for owner occupied property are considered to be less risky than other types of real estate lending. Consumer loans are made for all legitimate purposes and consist primarily of installment loans to individuals for family and household purposes, including automobile loans to individuals and pre-approved lines of credit. Each bank makes most of its loans in its primary service area, although some loans are made in the contiguous areas. Each bank makes loans to borrowers with good credit, character and personal reputations and after verification of financial information supporting the borrowers' ability to repay the loans. Lending activities are affected by the demand for financing of real estate and other types of loans, which in turn are affected by the interest rates at which such financing may be offered and other factors affecting local demand and availability of funds.

At December 31, 2003, PCB's net loan portfolio was approximately $468 million, representing 70.7% of total assets. As of such date, PCB's net loan portfolio consisted of 80% commercial loans, 18% real-estate mortgage loans and 2% consumer or installment loans.

Competition

Each of the banks encounters strong competition both in attracting deposits and in the origination of loans. The deregulation of the banking industry and the widespread enactment of state laws which permit multi-bank holding companies as well as the availability of nationwide interstate banking has created a highly competitive environment for financial service providers in the bank's primary service area. In one or more aspects of their business, the banks compete with other commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, mutual funds, insurance companies, brokerage and investment banking companies, and other financial intermediaries operating in their market areas and elsewhere. Most of these competitors, some of which are affiliated with large bank holding companies, have substantially greater resources and lending limits, and may offer certain services that the banks do not provide. In addition, many of PCB's and the banks' non-bank competitors are not subject to the same extensive federal regulations that govern bank holding companies and state chartered and federally insured banks.

Competition among financial institutions is based upon interest rates offered on deposit accounts, interest rates charged on loans and other credit and service charges, the quality of the services rendered, the convenience of banking facilities, and, in the case of loans to commercial borrowers, relative lending limits.

Employees

At December 31, 2003, PCB employed 233 full-time and 48 part-time employees, including 88 officers.

2.3 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. On the Effective Date, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Resulting Corporation shall be the restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of BancGroup as they exist immediately before the Effective Date.

Upon approval by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Acquired Corporation as required by applicable Law, and the satisfaction of such other conditions as set forth herein, the Merger shall become effective as soon as practicable thereafter in the manner provided in section 2.7 hereof.

2.6 Further Acts. If, at any time after the Effective Date, the Resulting Corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any other acts are necessary or desirable (i) to vest, perfect, confirm or record, in the Resulting Corporation, title to and possession of any property or right of Acquired Corporation or BancGroup, acquired as a result of the Merger, or (ii) otherwise to carry out the purposes of the Merger and this Agreement, BancGroup and its officers and directors shall execute and deliver all such proper deeds, assignments and assurances in law and do all acts necessary or proper to vest, perfect or confirm title to, and possession of, such property or rights in the Resulting Corporation and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement; and the proper officers and directors of the Resulting Corporation are fully authorized in the name of Acquired Corporation or BancGroup, or otherwise, to take any and all such action.

2.7 Effective Date and Closing. ARTICLE 3

CONVERSION OF ACQUIRED CORPORATION STOCK

3.1 Conversion of Acquired Corporation Stock.

(a) On the Effective Date, each share of common stock, par value $0.10, of Acquired Corporation outstanding and held of record by Acquired Corporation's shareholders (the Acquired Corporation Stock), shall be converted by operation of law and without any action by any holder thereof into the right to receive $31.6975 in cash (the Cash Consideration) and 5.9433 shares of BancGroup Common Stock (the Stock Consideration). The receipt of the Stock Consideration is subject to section 3.3 hereof. The ratio that is used to calculate the Stock Consideration is referred to as the Exchange Ratio. The Cash Consideration combined with the Stock Consideration is referred to as the Merger Consideration.

(b) (i) On the Effective Date, BancGroup shall assume all Acquired Corporation Options outstanding, and each such option shall cease to represent a right to acquire Acquired Corporation common stock and shall, instead, represent the right to acquire BancGroup Common Stock on substantially the same terms applicable to the Acquired Corporation Options except as specified below in this section. The number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be issued pursuant to such options shall equal the number of shares of Acquired Corporation common stock subject to such Acquired Corporation Options multiplied by the Option Exchange Ratio (defined below), provided that no fractions of shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall be issued and the number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be issued upon the exercise of Acquired Corporation Options, if a fractional share exists, shall equal the number of whole shares obtained by rounding to the nearest whole number, giving account to such fraction, or by paying for such fraction in cash, based upon the Market Value. The exercise price for the acquisition of BancGroup Common Stock shall be the exercise price for each share of Acquired Corporation common stock subject to such options divided by the Option Exchange Ratio, adjusted appropriately for any rounding to whole shares that may be done. The Option Exchange Ratio shall be 7.9244 shares of BancGroup Common Stock for each share of Acquired Corporation Stock. It is intended that the assumption by BancGroup of the Acquired Corporation Options shall be undertaken in a manner that will not constitute a modification as defined in Section 424 of the Code as to any stock option which is an incentive stock option. Schedule 3.1(b) hereto sets forth the names of all persons holding Acquired Corporation Options, the number of shares of Acquired Corporation common stock subject to such options, the exercise price and the expiration date of such options.

(ii) BancGroup shall file at its expense a registration statement with the SEC on Form S-8 or such other appropriate form (including the Form S-4 to be filed in connection with the Merger) with respect to the shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be issued pursuant to such options and shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as such options remain outstanding. Such shares shall also be registered or qualified for sale under the securities laws of any state in which registration or qualification is necessary.

(c) In lieu of the conversion specified in paragraph (b)(i) of Section 3.1 no later than five days prior to the Effective Date, each holder of outstanding Acquired Corporation Options may provide written notice to Acquired Corporation (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to BancGroup) that he or she wishes to exchange his or her Acquired Corporation Options, as of the Effective Date, and, to receive an amount of cash in exchange therefore. The amount of cash to be received shall be determined by calculating the difference between (i) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times an amount equal to the sum of (a) the Cash Consideration payable with respect to one share of Acquired Corporation Stock and (b) the Market Value of the Stock Consideration payable with respect to one share of Acquired Corporation Stock on the Effective Date less (ii) the number obtained by multiplying the number of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock issuable pursuant to his or her Acquired Corporation Options times the exercise price per share (as determined pursuant to the applicable stock option plan and stock option agreement of the Acquired Corporation). (As an example, pursuant to this formula, if the Market Value is $17.22, the total per share consideration would be $31.6975 plus the product of 5.9433 times

$17.22 (or a total of $134.04) less the exercise price for the share subject to the Acquired Corporation Option). In the event that the exercise prices of all Acquired Corporation Options are not the same, the above calculation shall be made for each series of options. Acquired Corporation shall inform all holders of Acquired Corporation Options as to their ability to exchange their options for cash as described in this Section 3.1(c).

3.2 Surrender of Acquired Corporation Stock. After the Effective Date, each holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates which prior thereto represented shares of Acquired Corporation Stock who is entitled to receive the Merger Consideration shall be entitled, upon surrender to BancGroup's independent transfer agent of their certificate or certificates representing shares of Acquired Corporation Stock (or an affidavit or affirmation by such holder of the loss, theft, or destruction of such certificate or certificates in such form as BancGroup may reasonably require and, if BancGroup reasonably requires, a bond of indemnity in form and amount, and issued by such sureties, as BancGroup may reasonably require), to receive in exchange therefore the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration, the Stock Consideration being in the form of a certificate or certificates representing the number of whole shares of BancGroup Common Stock into and for which the shares of Acquired Corporation Stock so surrendered shall have been converted, such certificates to be of such denominations and registered in such names as such holder may reasonably request. Until so surrendered and exchanged, each such outstanding certificate which, prior to the Effective Date, represented shares of Acquired Corporation Stock and which is to be converted into the Merger Consideration shall for all purposes evidence the right to receive the Cash Consideration and the ownership of the BancGroup Common Stock into and for which such shares shall have been so converted, except that no dividends or other distributions with respect to such BancGroup Common Stock shall be made until the certificates previously representing shares of Acquired Corporation Stock shall have been properly tendered.

3.3 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall be issued as part of the Stock Consideration, and each holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock having a fractional interest arising upon the conversion of such shares into shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall, at the time of surrender of the certificates previously representing Acquired Corporation Stock, be paid by BancGroup an amount in cash equal to the Market Value of such fractional share.

3.4 Adjustments. In the event that prior to the Effective Date BancGroup Common Stock shall be changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup Common Stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made in the number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock into which the Acquired Corporation Stock shall be converted as well as the maximum and minimum Market Value amounts set forth in this Agreement.

3.5 BancGroup Stock. The shares of Common Stock of BancGroup issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Date shall continue to be issued and outstanding shares of the Resulting Corporation.

3.6 Dissenting Rights. Any shareholder of Acquired Corporation who shall not have voted in favor of this Agreement and who has complied with the applicable procedures set forth in the FBCA, relating to rights of dissenting shareholders, shall be entitled to receive payment for the fair value of his Acquired Corporation Stock. If after the Effective Date a dissenting shareholder of Acquired Corporation fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses his right to appraisal and payment for his shares of Acquired Corporation Stock, BancGroup shall issue and deliver the consideration to which such holder of shares of Acquired Corporation Stock is entitled under Section 3.1 (without interest) upon surrender by such holder of the certificate or certificates representing shares of Acquired Corporation Stock held by him or her.

5.11 No Conflict with Other Instrument. Except as disclosed on Schedule 5.11, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in the breach of any term or provision of or constitute a Default under any material Contract, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other material agreement or instrument to which any Acquired Corporation Company is a party and will not conflict with any provision of the charter or bylaws of any Acquired Corporation Company.

Within the last three years, no Acquired Corporation Company has been refused any insurance coverage which it has sought or applied for, and nothing has come to its attention which would lead it to believe that existing insurance coverage cannot be renewed as and when the same shall expire, upon terms and conditions as favorable as those presently in effect, other than possible increases in premiums that do not result from any extraordinary loss experience. To the Knowledge of Acquired Corporation, all policies of insurance presently held or policies containing substantially equivalent coverage will be outstanding and in full force with respect to each Acquired Corporation Company at all times from the date hereof to the Effective Date.

5.16 Pension and Employee Benefit Plans.

No Acquired Corporation Company will engage in any material transaction outside the ordinary course of business or make any material change in its accounting policies or methods of operation, nor will Acquired Corporation permit the occurrence of any change or event which would render any of the representations and warranties in Article 5 hereof untrue in any material respect at and as of the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such Effective Date. Except as provided on Schedule 6.2(a), Acquired Corporation shall cause the Banks to postpone all branch relocation and/or expansion plans prior to the Effective Date or the date of termination pursuant to this Agreement. Except to the extent necessary to comply with the fiduciary duties of Acquired Corporation's Board of Directors as advised by counsel to such Board of Directors, no Acquired Corporation Company or any Representative thereof shall furnish any non-public information that it is not legally obligated to furnish, negotiate with respect to, or enter into any Contract with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal, and each Acquired Corporation Company shall direct and use its reasonable efforts to cause all of its Representatives not to engage in any of the foregoing, but Acquired Corporation may communicate information about such an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations as advised in writing by counsel to such Board of Directors. The Parties acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages resulting from the foregoing events and, therefore, the Parties have agreed upon the foregoing payment as liquidated damages which shall not be deemed to be in the nature of a penalty. Other than the payment provided for in this section 6.2(c)(ii) and any Liability for expenses as set forth in Section 15.10 hereof, there shall be no other Liability or obligation on the part of any Acquired Corporation Company or their respective directors or officers resulting from any of the events described in this section 6.2(c)(ii).

No Consent obtained which is necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby shall be conditioned or restricted in a manner which in the reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors of BancGroup would so materially adversely impact the economic or business benefits of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement so as to render inadvisable the consummation of the Merger.

If PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP informs BancGroup that it cannot provide such an opinion, then it will provide the reasons why it cannot in writing to BancGroup and to Acquired Corporation.

15.10 Attorneys Fees. If any Party hereto shall bring an action at law or in equity to enforce its rights under this Agreement (including an action based upon a misrepresentation or the breach of any warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation contained herein), the prevailing Party in such action shall be entitled to recover from the other Party its costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action (including fees, disbursements and expenses of attorneys and costs of investigation).

15.11 No Waiver. No failure, delay or omission of or by any Party in exercising any right, power or remedy upon any breach or Default of any other Party shall impair any such rights, powers or remedies of the Party not in breach or Default, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such right, power or remedy, or an acquiescence in any similar breach or Default; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or Default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. (2) The shareholder shall exercise the option under paragraph (1)(a) or paragraph (b) by written notice filed with the corporation within 30 days after the corporation has given written notice that the payment for shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this section. Board of Directors

P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc.

5830 142nd Avenue, North

Clearwater, FL 33760

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Colonial BancGroup, Inc. (Colonial), a Delaware corporation, and P.C.B. Bancorp, Inc. (P.C.B.), a Florida corporation, have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) dated December 19, 2003, pursuant to which the Board of Directors of both Colonial and P.C.B. have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective shareholders to merge their respective holding companies in a transaction pursuant to which P.C.B. will be merged with and into Colonial (the Merger). As set forth in paragraphs 3.1 (a) and 3.1 (b) of Article 3 of the Agreement, at the Effective Date of the Merger (as defined in the Agreement) each share of P.C.B. Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date shall be converted into and exchangeable for the right to receive both 5.9433 shares of Colonial Common Stock (Per Share Stock Consideration) and cash in the amount equal to $31.6975 (Per Share Cash Consideration). Additionally, each P.C.B. Stock Option outstanding shall be converted into an option to purchase shares of Colonial Common Stock pursuant to Article 3, paragraph 3.1 (c) of the Agreement. In connection therewith, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger to the shareholders of P.C.B.

Hovde Financial LLC (Hovde), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. We are familiar with P.C.B., having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in the negotiations leading to, the Agreement. We are also familiar with Colonial, through our continued Merger negotiations and due diligence.

We were retained by P.C.B. to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We will receive compensation from P.C.B. in connection with our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. P.C.B. has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

(i) reviewed the Agreement;

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning Colonial and P.C.B.;

- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Colonial and P.C.B.;

- (iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the managements of Colonial and P.C.B.;

- (v) conducted meetings with members of the senior management of Colonial and P.C.B. for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Colonial and P.C.B., including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings and revenue enhancements (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;

C-1

Table of Contents

(vi) evaluated the pro forma contribution of P.C.B.'s assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the pro forma company;

(vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and bank holding companies that we considered relevant;

(viii) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and

(ix) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by Colonial and P.C.B. and in the discussions with the Colonial and P.C.B. management teams. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the synergies and projections regarding under-performing and non-performing assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of Colonial and P.C.B. and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for Colonial and P.C.B. are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Colonial or P.C.B. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Colonial and P.C.B. and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase-of-interests under generally accepted accounting principles. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to Colonial and P.C.B. In rendering this opinion, we have been advised by Colonial and P.C.B. and we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on P.C.B. or the contemplated benefits of the Merger that would have a material adverse effect on Colonial or the surviving corporation. We have also assumed that there would not occur any change in applicable law or regulation that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Colonial or the surviving corporation after the Merger.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of P.C.B. and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any

Stock in connection with the Merger

The Indemnification Agreements are intended to provide additional indemnification to directors and officers of Colonial BancGroup beyond the specific provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, a company may indemnify its directors and officers in circumstances other than those under which indemnification and the advance of expenses are expressly permitted by applicable statutory provisions.

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation (i) must be indemnified by the corporation for all expenses incurred by him (including attorneys' fees) when he is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, (ii) may be indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement of any such proceeding (other than a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) even if he is not successful on the merits if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation (and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful), and (iii) may be indemnified by the corporation for expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by him in the defense or settlement of a proceeding brought by or in the right of the corporation, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; provided that no indemnification may be made under the circumstances described in clause (iii) if the director, officer, employee or agent is adjudged liable to the corporation, unless a court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for the expenses which the court shall deem proper. The indemnification described in clauses (ii) and (iii) above (unless ordered by a court) may be made only as authorized in a specific case upon determination by (i) a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors, (ii) independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) the stock holders, that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the applicable standard of conduct has been met. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending a proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by other employees and agents may be advanced by the corporation upon terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the board of directors.

The indemnification provided by the Delaware General Corporation Law has at least two limitations that are addressed by the Indemnification Agreements: (i) Colonial BancGroup is under no obligation to advance expenses to a director or officer, and (ii) except in the case of a proceeding in which a director or officer is successful on the merits or otherwise, indemnification of a director or officer is discretionary rather than mandatory.

The Indemnification Agreements, therefore, cover any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees and all other charges paid or payable in connection therewith) incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness or participating in (including an appeal), or preparing to defend, be a witness in or participate in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, or any inquiry or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or otherwise, related to the fact that such director or officer is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Colonial BancGroup or is or was serving at the request of Colonial BancGroup as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, committee member or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of anything done or not done by such director or officer in any such capacity.

The Indemnification Agreements also provide for the prompt advancement of all expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding and obligate the director or officer to reimburse Colonial BancGroup for all amounts so advanced if it is subsequently determined, as provided in the Indemnification Agreements, that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification.

The Indemnification Agreements further provide that the director or officer is entitled to indemnification for, and advancement of, all expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in any proceeding seeking to collect from Colonial BancGroup an indemnity claim or advancement of expenses under the Indemnification Agreements, Colonial BancGroup's Certificate of Incorporation, or the Delaware General Corporation Law, regardless of whether the director or officer is successful in such proceeding.

The Indemnification Agreements impose upon Colonial BancGroup the burden of proving that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification in any particular case, and the Indemnification Agreements negate certain presumptions which might otherwise be drawn against a director or officer in certain circumstances. Further, the Indemnification Agreements provide that if Colonial BancGroup pays a director or officer pursuant to an Indemnification Agreement, Colonial BancGroup will be subrogated to such director's or officer's rights to recover from third parties.

The Indemnification Agreements stipulate that a director's or officer's rights under such contracts are not exclusive of any other indemnity rights a director or officer may have; however, the Indemnification Agreements prevent double payment. The Indemnification Agreements require the maintenance of directors' and officers' liability insurance if such insurance can be maintained on terms, including rates, satisfactory to Colonial BancGroup.

The benefits of the Indemnification Agreements would not be available if (i) the action with respect to which indemnification is sought was initiated or brought voluntarily by the officer or director (other than an action to enforce the right to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreements); (ii) the officer or director is paid for such expense or liability under an insurance policy; (iii) the proceeding is for an accounting of profits pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; (iv) the conduct of the officer or director is adjudged as constituting an unlawful personal benefit, or active or deliberate dishonesty or willful fraud or illegality; or (v) a court determines that indemnification or advancement of expenses is unlawful under the circumstances.

The Indemnification Agreements would provide indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Colonial BancGroup has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned hereby undertakes as follows as required by Item 512 of Regulation S-K:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such

(2) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to such securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrant, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.

(d) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(e) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
