PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant has experienced a delay in completing its audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004. This delay is due primarily to discrepancies related to cash disbursement reconciliations and federal income tax liabilities which, as a result of deficiencies in internal controls, were identified subsequent to the Registrant's earnings press release. Adjustments resulting from the resolution of these two issues are expected to be immaterial to the Registrant's financial statements and are being recorded in net income for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2004. The adjustments identified represent an increase to net income of approximately $2 million, or approximately 4 cents per share, compared to net income reported in the Registrant's earnings press release dated February 9, 2005 as filed on Form 8-K.

These adjustments do not affect the Registrant's previously disclosed estimate of full year 2005 net income before realized investment gains and losses of between $1.55 and $1.65 per share.

The Registrant expects the two internal control deficiencies that gave rise to the above adjustments to be reported in its Form 10-K as material weaknesses in its internal controls over financial reporting for purposes of Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404. Due to the additional time required to evaluate and resolve the above discrepancies, the Registrant is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 by the prescribed filing deadline without unreasonable effort and expense. The Registrant intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable, but no later than March 31, 2005.
