PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On October 14, 2004, the registrant announced that it had dismissed Ernst & Young LLP and retained Grant Thornton LLP as its independent registered public accounting firm, effective immediately. Shortly thereafter, Grant Thornton commenced work on the fiscal year 2004 audit. Grant Thornton has not completed the audits for fiscal year 2004 or 2005 because the registrant has not yet completed the preparation of its financial statements for 2004 and 2005. Once the registrant has finalized its 2004 and 2005 financial statements, Grant Thornton can complete its 2004 audit and conduct an audit of the 2005 fiscal year. The registrant cannot predict the date by which the Form 10-K and the remaining outstanding financial statements for 2005 will be filed. The registrant intends to provide investors with additional information as it becomes available.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including the registrant's expectations as to the timing of the filing of its audited financial statements, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, Grant Thornton's providing an audit opinion, the ability of the registrant to file its periodic reports, and the risks detailed from time to time in the registrant's periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act, including its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and Form 8-K filed on September 2, 2004. The registrant disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.

If answer is no, identify report(s).    Yes     No

Annual Reports on Form 10-K for fiscal years ended February 28, 2004, and February 26, 2005.

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended May 29, 2004, August 28, 2004 and November 27, 2004.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?    Yes    No

On March 25, 2005, the registrant furnished a press release providing information regarding shipments during the fourth fiscal quarter ended February 26, 2005 and its cash, defined as cash equivalents and marketable securities, at February 26, 2005 on a Current Report on Form 8-K. The financial information was based on preliminary information which is subject to change upon completion of prior period filings, including the audit in connection with the year ended February 28, 2004 and the audit in connection with the year ended February 26, 2005. Because the registrant has not completed the preparation of the financial statements for 2004 and 2005, it is presently unable to compare the results of operations for these two fiscal years.
