On October 28, 2005, ProQuest Company's (the Company) subsidiary, ProQuest Information and Learning Company ( PQIL ) sold certain assets related to PQIL's periodical microfilm and coursepack operations to National Archive Publishing Company ( NAPC ). NAPC is controlled by former employees of PQIL. The Company ran a selected process and received numerous indications of interest from both financial and strategic buyers. The assets sold consist primarily of receivables, customer lists, product processes, manufacturing facility located at 300 Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI, intellectual property, and certain publisher agreements. The total compensation received by the Company was $30 million subject to a working capital adjustment. Included in the purchase price is a $2 million Promissory Note bearing a 9% annual interest rate. The Promissory Note will be paid over four years.

The proceeds from the sale will be used primarily to pay down debt and other general corporate purposes of the Company.

The Purchase Agreement will be attached as an Exhibit to the Company's Form 10-Q for the period ending October 1, 2005.

PQIL and NAPC also entered into a manufacturing agreement whereby NAPC will perform certain microfilm and electronic manufacturing services to PQIL and its affiliates. The initial term of this manufacturing agreement commences on the closing of the transaction and expires on December 31, 2010, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the terms of the manufacturing agreement. PQIL has agreed to certain levels of volume to be delivered to NAPC for the initial term of the Manufacturing Agreement. These amounts equal approximately $6 million of services in 2006, $5.5 million in 2007 and an amount equal to $5 million in each of 2008, 2009 and 2010.

A copy of the Manufacturing Agreement will be attached as an Exhibit to the Company's Form 10-Q for the period ending October 1, 2005.
