PROXY STATEMENT

Proxies in the form enclosed are solicited by the Board of Directors for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 2, 2006, and any duly reconvened meeting after adjournment thereof (the Meeting). Any shareholder who executes a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time by written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by executing a proxy dated as of a later date or by voting in person at the Meeting. It is expected that this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card will be mailed on or about March 31, 2006, to all shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting.

Shareholders and participants in plans holding shares of the Company's Common Stock are urged to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy or voting instruction and return it as promptly as possible in the postage-paid envelope enclosed for that purpose. Registered shareholders can also deliver proxies by calling a toll-free telephone number or by using the internet. The telephone and internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate shareholders' identities, to allow shareholders to give their voting instructions and to confirm that such instructions have been recorded properly. Instructions for voting by telephone or over the internet are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name with your bank or broker, please vote in the manner provided by the voting instruction enclosed with this proxy statement.

The Company will pay all of the costs associated with this proxy solicitation. In addition, certain officers and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, without additional compensation, may use their personal efforts, by telephone or otherwise, to obtain proxies. The Company will also reimburse banks, brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners of the shares. It is contemplated that additional solicitation of proxies will be made by Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc., at an anticipated cost to the Company of approximately $7,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

On the record date of March 15, 2006, the date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting, there were 36,153,108 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be acted upon at the Meeting. A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. Shares held in street name (Broker Shares) that are not voted on any matter at the Meeting will not be included in determining the number of shares present or represented at the Meeting.

The management and directors are not aware of any matters to be presented for action at the Meeting other than the matters stated in the notice of the Meeting. If any such matter requiring a vote of the shareholders should properly come before the Meeting, unless otherwise instructed, it is the intention of the persons named in the proxy card to vote such proxy in accordance with their best judgment.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business and affairs of the Company are managed under the direction of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Virginia Stock Corporation Act and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. Members of the Board are kept informed of the Company's business through discussions with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and other officers, by reviewing materials provided to them and by participating in meetings of the Board and its committees. The corporate governance practices followed by the Company are summarized below.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines that set forth the practices of the Board with respect to director qualifications, director responsibilities, director access to management and independent advisors, director compensation, director orientation and continuing education, management evaluation and succession, and evaluation of the Board's performance. The Guidelines are available on the Company's Investor Relations web page at www.hrh.com. A printed copy is available to any shareholder upon written request to the Corporate Secretary, 4951 Lake Brook Drive, Suite 500, Glen Allen, Virginia 23060.

The Board of Directors in its business judgment has determined that the following 8 of its 10 members are independent as defined by New York Stock Exchange listing standards: Theodore L. Chandler, Jr., Norwood H. Davis, Jr., Robert W. Fiondella, Robert H. Hilb, Anthony F. Markel, Thomas H. O'Brien, Warren M. Thompson and Robert S. Ukrop. In reaching this conclusion, the Board considered that the Company and its subsidiary agencies provide services to, and otherwise conduct business with, companies of which certain members of the Board or members of their immediate families are or were directors or officers.

Consistent with the New York Stock Exchange listing standards, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines establish categorical standards under which the Board views the following as impairing a director's independence:

a director who is an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of the Company;

a director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service;

a director who is affiliated with or employed by, or whose immediate family member is affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by, a present or former internal or external auditor of the Company;

a director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's present executives serve on that company's compensation committee; and a director who is an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of a company that makes payments to, or receives payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.

Except for Julious P. Smith, Jr., none of the Company's non-employee directors, their immediate family members, or employers, are engaged in such relationships with the Company. Mr. Smith's firm, Williams Mullen, received over 2% of its 2005 revenue from the Company.

Codes of Ethics

The Company has adopted codes of ethics that apply to all its directors, officers (including its Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer and any person performing similar functions) and employees. The codes of ethics contain provisions relating to honest and ethical conduct (including the handling of conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships), the preparation of full, fair, accurate and timely disclosure in reports and documents filed with the Commission and in other public communications made by the Company, compliance with governmental laws, rules and regulations and other matters. These codes of ethics are available on the Company's Investor Relations web page at www.hrh.com. Any amendment to or waiver from a provision of the code of ethics relating to directors and executive officers will be promptly disclosed on the Company's website at www.hrh.com.

Board and Committee Meeting Attendance

In 2005, there were seventeen meetings of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate total number of meetings of the Board and the committees on which he served.

The Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the independent auditor engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attestation services for the Company. The Corporate Governance Committee develops qualifications for director candidates, recommends to the Board of Directors persons to serve as directors of the Company and monitors developments in, and makes recommendations to the Board concerning, corporate governance practices. The Committee acts as the Company's nominating committee. The Committee operates under a written charter originally approved by the Board in November 2003. The current Charter of the Corporate Governance Committee is available on the Company's Investor Relations web page at www.hrh.com. A printed copy is available to any shareholder upon written request to the Corporate Secretary, 4951 Lake Brook Drive, Suite 500, Glen Allen, Virginia 23060.

To be timely for the 2007 annual meeting, the notice must be received within the time frame set forth in Proposals for 2007 Annual Meeting on page 20 of this proxy statement. To be in proper form, the notice must include each nominee's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve, if elected, and information about the shareholder making the nomination and the person nominated for election. These requirements are more fully described in Article II, Section 4, of the Company's Bylaws, a copy of which will be provided, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Corporate Secretary of the Company, whose address is Hilb Rogal & Hobbs Company, 4951 Lake Brook Drive, Suite 500, Glen Allen, Virginia 23060.

The Corporate Governance Committee considers, at a minimum, the following factors in recommending to the Board potential new directors, or the continued service of existing directors:

The characteristics described in the Corporate Governance Guidelines (i.e., knowledge of business and financial affairs, personal qualities of integrity and judgment, educational background and business or professional experience);

Whether the member/potential member assists in achieving a mix of Board members that represent a diversity of background and experience;

Whether the member/potential member is subject to a disqualifying factor as described in the Corporate Governance Guidelines (e.g., relationships with competitors or recent previous employment with the Company);

Whether an existing member has reached retirement age;

The member s/potential member s independence;

Whether the member/potential member would be considered an audit committee financial expert or financially literate under Commission regulations and New York Stock Exchange listing standards;

The extent of the member s/potential member s business experience, technical expertise, or specialized skills or experience;

Whether the member/potential member, by virtue of particular experience relevant to the Company s current or future business, will add specific value as a Board member; and

Any factors related to the ability and willingness of a new member to serve, or an existing member to continue his or her service. Under the process used by the Company for selecting new Board candidates, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the Corporate Governance Committee or other Board members identify the need to add a new Board member with specific qualifications or to fill a vacancy on the Board. The Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee initiates a search, working with staff support and seeking input from Board members and senior management, hiring a search firm, if necessary, and considering any candidates recommended by shareholders. An initial slate of candidates that will satisfy criteria and otherwise qualify for membership on the Board is presented to the Corporate Governance Committee. A determination is made as to whether Corporate Governance Committee members or Board members have relationships with preferred candidates and can initiate contacts. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and at least one member of the Corporate Governance Committee interviews prospective candidates. The Corporate Governance Committee meets to conduct further interviews of prospective candidates, if necessary or appropriate, and to consider and recommend final candidates for approval by the full Board of Directors.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee advises the Board of Directors with respect to financing needs, capital structure and other financial matters. The members of the Finance Committee are Messrs. Chandler, Hilb, Markel, who is the chairman, O'Brien and Smith, all of whom, other than Mr. Smith, the Board in its business judgment has determined are independent as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Finance Committee met seven times in 2005.

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee establishes the compensation of all executive officers of the Company and administers the Company's stock incentive plans, the Outside Directors Deferral Plan, the Executive Voluntary Deferral Plan and the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee also reviews and approves management incentive programs and other benefits for executive officers and recommends to the Board of Directors such other forms of remuneration as the Committee deems appropriate. All decisions by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers are reported to the full Board of Directors. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee operates under a written charter originally approved by the Board in February 2004. The current Charter of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee is available on the Company's Investor Relations web page at www.hrh.com. A printed copy is available to any shareholder upon written request to the Corporate Secretary, 4951 Lake Brook Drive, Suite 500, Glen Allen, Virginia 23060.

The members of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee are Messrs. Davis, Fiondella, O'Brien, who is the chairman, and Ukrop all of whom the Board in its business judgment has determined are independent as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee met five times in 2005. Annual Meeting Attendance

The Company encourages members of the Board of Directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. All of the directors except Warren M. Thompson attended the 2005 annual meeting.

Directors Compensation

Each director who is not an employee of the Company receives an annual retainer of $20,000, a fee of $2,000 for each Board meeting attended and a fee of $1,000 for each committee meeting attended. Additionally, the chair of every committee receives an annual retainer, as follows: Audit Committee, $10,000; Business Practices Committee, $2,000; Corporate Affairs Committee, $2,000; Corporate Governance Committee, $5,000; Finance Committee, $2,000; and Human Resources & Compensation Committee, $5,000. All retainers are paid in quarterly installments on the first day of each calendar quarter. Under the Non-Employee Directors Stock Incentive Plan, a director may elect to receive his retainers and fees in shares of Common Stock. If a director elects to receive 100% of his total compensation in Common Stock, he will be entitled to receive additional compensation in shares of Common Stock equal to 30% of his total compensation. Directors who are also employees of the Company receive no compensation for their services as directors.

The Company has an Amended and Restated Outside Directors Deferral Plan (the Amended and Restated Plan) which permits a non-employee director to defer all or a portion of his compensation. Under the Amended and Restated Plan, directors who are not employees of the Company may elect to defer all or part of their annual retainers and meeting fees in deferred stock units that represent a hypothetical share of the Company's Common Stock. Retainers are credited to a director's account on the first day of each calendar quarter at the closing price of the Common Stock on the last day of the prior quarter. Meeting fees are credited on the first day of the month following the month in which the meeting occurred at the closing price of the Common Stock on the last day of the prior month. A participant's deferred stock unit account is increased by phantom dividends equal to the dividends paid by the Company on the Common Stock on the first day of the month following the month in which the dividend was paid. Those directors who elect to defer 100% of their total compensation into deferred stock units for a given year are entitled to receive additional compensation in the form of deferred stock units equal to 30% of their total compensation. Any amounts deferred under the former Outside Directors Deferral Plan and held in a deferred cash account in the Amended and Restated Plan are credited with interest annually at the rate of return set forth in the Amended and Restated Plan, which is currently 7%, and are paid out in cash. Deferred stock units credited to a director's account under the Amended and Restated Plan are paid out in shares of Common Stock on the basis of one share of Common Stock for each deferred stock unit in the director's account. Payment of amounts accrued to a director are made either in installments or in a lump sum pursuant to the director's irrevocable election or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the Amended and Restated Plan.

Each non-employee director receives, under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, a grant of an option to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock on the first business day following each Annual Meeting of Shareholders. On May 3, 2005, each non-employee director received an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Common Stock of the Company. The exercise price of all options granted to each non-employee director is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. All of the options granted in 2005 became exercisable six months after the date of grant and expire seven years from the date of grant.

HUMAN RESOURCES & COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Under rules established by the Commission, the Company is required to provide certain information with respect to the compensation provided to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Martin L. Vaughan, III, and the other executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers. The following report of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors addresses the Company's compensation policies in effect during 2005.

Role of Human Resources & Compensation Committee

Decisions on compensation of certain executive officers of the Company are made by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee has authority from the Board of Directors to review and determine the salaries of all of the Company's executive officers with the title of Vice President and above. In addition to determining salaries, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee reviews and approves management incentive programs and other benefits for executive officers. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee also administers the Company stock incentive plans. Finally, the Committee recommends to the Board of Directors such other forms of remuneration as the Committee deems appropriate. All decisions by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers are reported to the full Board of Directors.

Executive Compensation Policies

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee's executive compensation policies are designed to provide competitive levels of compensation that integrate pay with the Company's annual and long-term performance goals, recognize individual initiative and achievement and assist the Company in attracting and retaining highly qualified executives. They provide for competitive base salaries which reflect individual performance and level of responsibility, annual bonuses payable in cash on the basis of Company financial success, individual merit and achievement in attaining annual performance goals and long-term stock-based incentive opportunities which strengthen the mutuality of interests between senior management and the Company's shareholders.

To further this mutuality of interests, the Insider Stock Ownership Plan was adopted in 1998 to align the interests of senior management with the shareholders by requiring senior management to attain certain stock ownership levels and therefore maintain a vested interest in the equity performance of the Company. Over a five year period, measured from the later of admittance into, or promotion within, the executive group, the executives covered by such plan are expected to reach a prescribed ownership level, which is expressed as a multiple of the executive's base salary and which ranges from five times base salary to one times base salary depending on the executive's position. All Named Executive Officers, except F. Michael Crowley, achieved their 2005 prorated goals.

In furtherance of its responsibility to determine executive compensation, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee annually, or more frequently, reviews the Company's executive compensation program. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee evaluates the salaries and compensation structures of executive officers of peer companies in the industry and other financial services public companies in order to establish general parameters within which it may fix competitive compensation for its executive officers. The peer group used for compensation analysis for 2005 includes all of the peer group companies reflected in the performance graph in this proxy statement, except for Marsh & McLennan Cos., Inc. and Aon Corporation, which the Committee believed should be excluded because their size skewed the results. The Committee believes that the Company's compensation of its executive officers is more comparable to the other listed peer companies and provides proper incentives to the executive officer group.

Starting from the median peer compensation range for a selected officer, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee then determines the appropriate salary and management incentive opportunity for each executive officer using a number of factors, including the executive officer's individual duties and responsibilities in the Company, tenure, his or her relative importance to the overall success of the Company's short- and long-term goals and attainment of individual performance goals, if appropriate. It is the philosophy of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee that incentive compensation should be a very substantial component of total compensation in order to implement the Company's aggressive pay-for-performance policy.

On February 7, 2005, the Committee approved the 2005 Corporate Incentive Plan for certain key executives of the Company. The purpose of the program is to align closely the interests of the senior executives with the shareholders and further strengthen the Company's pay-for-performance policy by providing a bonus pool based on increased operating earnings per share. Under the Plan, those individuals responsible for overseeing and implementing the strategic initiatives of the Company and for the overall earnings per share of the Company are eligible to participate in the executive bonus pool. In 2005, the Company did not achieve the minimum required financial goals under the Plan to generate a pool for incentive bonuses. The Committee, however, in the exercise of its discretion permitted under the Plan, in view of management's efforts in a difficult business and regulatory environment, approved incentive payouts of up to $1,200,000 to the executive group as a whole.

In 2005, the Committee determined to make long-term stock-based incentive awards of stock options and restricted stock to executive officers under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. The primary purpose of these awards is to provide financial incentives to executives linked directly to the market performance of the Company's stock. The amount of the awards is based on the responsibilities and aggregate compensation levels of the executive officers. Stock options generally vest and become exercisable ratably over the four year period following the grant date. Restricted stock awards generally vest ratably in four annual increments commencing two years after the date of the award contingent upon the Company achieving a 10% annual growth in fully diluted earnings per share based on operating income in at least one of the two preceding calendar years preceding each vesting date. The Company did not meet the minimum required growth in fully diluted earnings per share to permit the vesting of restricted stock scheduled to occur in February 2006. In view of management's 2005 performance in a difficult business and regulatory environment, the Committee in February 2006 authorized the vesting of approximately 80% of the shares of restricted stock held by the executive group that would have been forfeited due to the Company's inability to meet the growth contingency.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Effective as of May 6, 2003, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Martin L. Vaughan, III to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Vaughan's annual base salary was fixed at $488,000, subject to an annual review by the Committee to consider appropriate increases. This annual base salary was set based on Mr. Vaughan's individual duties and responsibilities, his tenure and a review of salaries paid to the chief executive officers of the Company's peer group companies. In addition, Mr. Vaughan is entitled to receive an annual incentive bonus as established and modified from time to time by the Committee. Mr. Vaughan received an annual incentive bonus for 2005 of $243,400. Mr. Vaughan is also eligible to receive stock option awards and other long-term equity incentives, as determined by the Committee. In 2005, Mr. Vaughan was awarded 10,000 shares of Restricted Stock and Nonqualified Stock Options to acquire 50,000 shares of Common Stock.

Tax Considerations

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Company may not deduct certain forms of compensation in excess of $1.0 million paid to any of the Named Executive Officers that are employed by the Company at any year-end. The Committee believes that it is generally in the Company's best interests to comply with Section 162(m). Accordingly, the Committee has taken appropriate actions, to the extent it believes feasible, to preserve the deductibility of annual incentive and long-term performance awards. However, notwithstanding this general policy, the Committee also believes that there may be circumstances in which the Company's interests are best served by maintaining flexibility in the way compensation is provided, whether or not compensation is fully deductible under Section 162(m).

J. Thomas Stiles	14,500	1.65	33.06	02/07/2012	135,865

- (1) The options granted to the Named Executive Officers contain a provision whereby the right to exercise such options vests at a rate of 25% of the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock of the Company covered by such options on each of the first four successive anniversary dates of the date of grant.

Edgar Filing: HILB ROGAL & HOBBS CO - Form DEF 14A

- (2) The exercise price for the options listed in the table was the fair market value on the date of grant. The exercise price may be paid in cash, in shares of Common Stock of the Company valued at fair market value on the date of exercise or pursuant to a cashless exercise procedure under which the optionee provides irrevocable instructions to a brokerage firm to sell the purchased shares and to remit to the Company, out of the sale proceeds, an amount equal to the exercise price plus all required withholding and other deductions.
- (3) The options listed in the table expire seven years from the date of grant. An earlier expiration date may apply in the event of the optionee's termination of employment, retirement, death or disability.
- (4) The Black-Scholes option pricing model was used to determine the Grant Date Present Value of the options listed in the table. The model for the February 7, 2005 grants assumed a volatility measure of 0.294, a risk free interest rate of 3.67% and a dividend yield of 1.27%. The model also assumed an expected life of five years. No adjustments for non-transferability or risk of forfeiture were applied in determining the value of the reported options. The grant date present values set forth in the table are only theoretical values and may not accurately determine present value. The actual value, if any, an optionee will realize will depend on the excess of market value of a share of the Company's Common Stock over the exercise price on the date the option is exercised.

- (5) Mr. Lockhart resigned from the Company on May 25, 2005. In connection with his resignation and pursuant to the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, stock options previously granted Mr. Lockhart ceased to vest and he was given 90 days in which he could exercise his vested options. During the 90 day period, Mr. Lockhart exercised all of his in-the-money stock options and the remaining vested options were cancelled.

HRH RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN

The Company administers the HRH Retirement Savings Plan (the Retirement Savings Plan) in which the Named Executive Officers are permitted to participate on the same terms as other employees who meet the applicable eligibility criteria. The Retirement Savings Plan's main component is a salary reduction provision under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. As of January 1, 2002, the Retirement Savings Plan was amended to allow participants age 50 or over to make additional catch-up contributions to the Retirement Savings Plan over and above the normal annual dollar limit for salary reduction contributions. The maximum catch-up contribution for each eligible participant was $3,000 for 2004, $4,000 for 2005, and $5,000 for 2006. The Retirement Savings Plan also provides for a matching contribution equal to 100% of the first 3% of a participant's salary reduction. The Company matching contribution for 2005 for Named Executive Officers was $31,500, and for all executive officers as a group was $92,835, under the salary reduction provision of the Retirement Savings Plan. The profit sharing component of the Retirement Savings Plan is discretionary and is expected to be used only in exceptional circumstances.

SUPPLEMENTAL EXECUTIVE RETIREMENT PLAN

The Named Executive Officers participate in the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the SERP), which as of January 1, 1998, was amended and restated to convert the plan from a defined benefit arrangement to a cash balance arrangement and to provide a contribution to a participant equal to the Company's profit sharing and matching contribution applied to the participant's base salary in excess of the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) maximum allowable salary for qualified plans, which was $210,000 for 2005. The SERP was further amended to allow all current and future employees earning in excess of the IRS maximum allowable salary for qualified plans to become participants in the plan, to grandfather the current participants and provide these individuals with a contribution each year equal to the greater of a fixed 2% contribution of their base salary or the calculation for regular participants, to convert the vested benefit accrued for current participants to a cash balance as of December 31, 1997, and to add a provision wherein terminated or retired participants who are employed by a competing entity of the Company will forfeit their remaining account balance.

Contributions to the SERP for 2005 for each of the Named Executive Officers were as follows: Mr. Vaughan, $9,435; Mr. Crowley, $5,450; Mr. Lockhart, $0; Mr. Korman, $6,757; Mr. McGrath, $3,410; and Mr. Stiles, $3,985. For all executive officers as a group, the 2005 contribution to the SERP was $48,795. Additionally, interest accruals on their balances for 2005 were as follows: Mr. Vaughan, $3,414; Mr. Crowley, $0; Mr. Lockhart, $0; Mr. Korman, $20,180; Mr. McGrath, $2,990; and Mr. Stiles, $469. For all executive officers as a group, interest accruals on their balances for 2005 equaled $33,611.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Mr. Vaughan entered into an employment agreement with the Company, effective May 6, 2003, to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Mr. Vaughan's initial term of employment under the agreement terminated on May 31, 2005. Commencing on May 31, 2004 and on each annual anniversary of that date, the term of employment will be automatically extended to set the term for a two year period, unless notice that the term of employment will not be extended is given by either party to the other at least 60 days prior to May 31, 2004 or an anniversary date. The agreement provides for an annual review of his salary by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company to consider appropriate increases, but in no event shall his base annual salary of $488,000 be reduced. Effective March 1, 2006, Mr. Vaughan's annual salary was increased to $560,000. Mr. Vaughan is also eligible for an annual incentive bonus and stock options as may be determined by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee. The agreement may be terminated by the Company with or without proper cause or by Mr. Vaughan for good reason, in each case as defined in the agreement; however, should the agreement be terminated without proper cause or for good reason, Mr. Vaughan would be entitled to receive salary, annual incentive bonus and benefits until the expiration of the term of employment or for one year, whichever is greater, all stock options and awards of restricted stock would immediately vest in full and all benefits in the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan would immediately vest in full. The annual incentive bonus would be equal to the greater of the highest annual incentive bonus payment previously received by Mr. Vaughan for the last four fiscal years prior to the date of termination or 50% of his annual base salary.

Mr. Crowley entered into an employment agreement with the Company, effective as of October 15, 2005, to serve as President of the Company. Mr. Crowley's term of employment under the agreement terminates initially on October 15, 2007. Commencing on October 15, 2006 and on each annual anniversary of that date, the term of employment will be automatically extended to set the term for a two year period, unless notice that the term of employment will not be extended is given by either party to the other at least 60 days prior to October 15, 2006 or an anniversary date. The agreement provides for an annual review of his salary by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company to consider appropriate increases, but in no event shall his base annual salary of $440,000 be reduced. Mr. Crowley is also eligible for an annual incentive bonus and stock options as may be determined by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee. The agreement may be terminated by the Company with or without proper cause or by Mr. Crowley for good reason, in each case as defined in the agreement; however, should the agreement be terminated without proper cause or for good reason, Mr. Crowley would be entitled to receive salary, annual incentive bonus and benefits until the expiration of the term of employment. The annual incentive bonus would be equal to the greater of the highest annual incentive bonus payment previously received by Mr. Crowley for the last two (2) fiscal years prior to the date of termination or 50% of his annual base salary, and Mr. Crowley is also deemed to have received a bonus of $288,000 on October 15, 2005 for purposes of calculating the incentive payment portion for termination without proper cause or with good reason.

Mr. Lockhart entered into an employment agreement with the Company, effective December 1, 2003, to serve as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. Mr. Lockhart's initial term of employment under the agreement was to terminate on February 28, 2007, but Mr. Lockhart resigned May 25, 2005. Effective March 1, 2005, Mr. Lockhart's annual salary was increased to $385,000. The agreement could be terminated by the Company with or without proper cause or by Mr. Lockhart for good reason, in each case as defined in the agreement; however, should the agreement be terminated without proper cause or for good reason, Mr. Lockhart would be entitled to receive salary, annual incentive bonus and benefits until the expiration of the term of employment. The annual incentive bonus would be equal to the greater of the highest annual incentive bonus payment previously received by Mr. Lockhart for the last two fiscal years prior to the date of termination or 50% of his annual base salary. Certain provisions of the employment agreement obligate the Company to continue to pay Mr. Lockhart salary, bonus and other benefits provided by the agreement until any dispute regarding termination has been resolved by an arbitrator. As of March 1, 2006, the Company continues to provide compensation and benefits to Mr. Lockhart under the agreement, and such payments may continue through February 28, 2007.

Mr. Korman entered into an employment agreement with the Company, effective December 1, 2001, to serve as Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration of the Company. Mr. Korman's agreement had an initial term of two years terminating on November 30, 2003. Commencing on December 1, 2002 and on each annual anniversary of that date, the term of employment will be automatically extended to set the term for a two year period, unless notice that the term of employment will not be extended is given by either party to the other at least 60 days prior to December 1, 2004 or an anniversary date. The agreement provides for an annual review of his salary by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company to consider appropriate increases, but in no event shall his base annual salary of $286,000 be reduced. Effective March 1, 2006, Mr. Korman's annual salary was increased to $350,000. Mr. Korman is also eligible for an annual incentive bonus and stock options as may be determined by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee. The agreement may be terminated by the Company with or without proper cause or by Mr. Korman for good reason, in each case as defined in the agreement; however, should the agreement be terminated without proper cause or for good reason, Mr. Korman would be entitled to receive salary, annual incentive bonus and benefits until the expiration of the term of employment. The annual incentive bonus would be equal to the greater of the highest annual incentive bonus payment previously received by Mr. Korman for the last two fiscal years prior to the date of termination or 50% of his annual base salary.

Mr. McGrath was subject to an employment agreement, which expired November 30, 2004, and subsequently executed a Regional Director's Employment Agreement effective December 1, 2004, to serve as the Regional Director for the Midwest Region. Employment is at will and may be terminated at any time by Employer or Employee.

Mr. Stiles entered into a Regional Director's Employment Agreement with the Company, effective July 1, 2004, to serve as the Regional Director for the Southeast Region. Employment is at will and may be terminated at any time by Employer or Employee.

All of the foregoing employment agreements contain restrictive covenants relating to the protection of confidential information and clients of the Company.

CHANGE OF CONTROL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

To ensure continuity and the continued dedication of key executives during any period of uncertainty caused by the threat or occurrence of a takeover, the Company has entered into change of control employment agreements with certain of its executive officers, including all of the currently employed Named Executive Officers named in the Summary Compensation Table Messrs. Vaughan, Crowley, Korman, McGrath and Stiles.

In the event there is a change of control of the Company, the agreements provide that the executive will be employed for a period of three years after the change of control. If the employment of the executive terminates at any time during the three year period following a change of control for any reason other than death, cause or the executive's election, the executive will receive an agreed upon amount of severance pay equal to two to three times such executive's highest applicable annual salary and bonus. Additionally, the executive would be eligible to receive benefits substantially equivalent to those which would have been received under the Company's qualified and non-qualified plans. The change of control employment agreements provide that any excise taxes shall be paid by the Company, as well as any legal expenses of the executive. If an executive elects to terminate his employment during the thirty day period following the first anniversary of the change of control, the executive shall be entitled to a lump sum severance payment equal to one-half to one times the executive's highest applicable annual salary and bonus.

Mr. Vaughan, Mr. Crowley and Mr. Korman each have a change of control employment agreement which provides for a multiplier of three for determining the amount of severance pay (except for death or cause) and a multiplier of one for determining the amount of severance pay in the event of a voluntary termination in the first year after the change of control. The same provisions in the change of control agreements for Mr. McGrath and Mr. Stiles use multipliers of two and one-half for determining the amount of severance pay. Mr. Crowley's change of control agreement also provides that if he terminates for good reason or is terminated without proper cause, then he shall be deemed to have been paid a bonus of $288,000 on October 15, 2005.

Gallagher & Co., Brown & Brown, Inc., Hub International Limited, Marsh & McLennan Cos., Inc., U.S.I. Holdings Corporation and Willis Group Holdings Limited, over the five year period ended December 31, 2005. PROPOSAL TWO

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY S 2006 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed, subject to shareholder ratification, the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as independent registered public accountants to audit the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. The firm of Ernst & Young LLP has audited the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004. Services provided to the Company by Ernst & Young for the 2005 and 2004 fiscal years are described under Audit Information below. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the Meeting, will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders and may make a statement if they so desire.

Although shareholder ratification is not required by the Company s Bylaws or otherwise, the Board is requesting that shareholders ratify the selection of Ernst & Young as the Company s independent registered public accountants to audit the financial statements of the Company for the 2006 fiscal year. If shareholders do not ratify the selection of Ernst & Young at the Meeting, the Audit Committee will consider the vote in making its selection of the Company s independent auditors for the 2007 fiscal year. However, because of the expense and difficulty in changing independent auditors after the beginning of a year, the Audit Committee does not expect to make a change in the appointment of auditors for the 2006 fiscal year unless the Audit Committee finds other reasons for making a change.

A majority of the votes cast by holders of Common Stock is required for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young as the Company s independent registered public accountants for the 2006 fiscal year.

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote FOR Proposal Two.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls, financial reporting process and compliance with laws and regulations and ethical business standards. The independent auditor is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (Communication with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the Company and its management. Moreover, the Audit Committee has considered whether the independent auditor's provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Commission. By recommending to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be so included, the Audit Committee is not opining on the accuracy, completeness or presentation of the information contained in the audited financial statements.
