Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

R&G Financial Corporation, a Puerto Rico corporation (RGF), is filing an amendment to its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on May 21, 2007 to provide information regarding the anticipated financial impact on RGF of the previously announced proposed sale of its indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, R-G Crown Bank, FSB, a federally chartered savings bank headquartered in Casselberry, Florida (Crown Bank), to Fifth Third Financial Corporation, an Ohio corporation (Fifth Third) pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated May 20, 2007. As previously reported, Fifth Third will acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Crown Bank for $288 million, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances, and assume $50 million of outstanding trust preferred obligations of R&G Acquisition Holdings Corporation, RGF 's Florida-chartered direct wholly-owned subsidiary which is the parent company of Crown Bank. Fifth Third will also acquire real estate on which certain Crown Bank branches are located from a company owned by RGF 's Chairman of the Board.

As a result of the proposed sale of Crown Bank, on May 20, 2007, the chief financial officer of RGF concluded that an impairment charge with respect to the carrying value of goodwill and intangibles assigned to Crown Bank is required under generally accepted accounting principles. The carrying value of goodwill and intangibles recorded in the Office of Thrift Supervision Thrift Report of Crown Bank as of March 31, 2007 was $163.5 million, which amount is subject to adjustment pending final resolution of RGF 's restatement of its consolidated financial statements. RGF expects to record a non-cash, pre-tax impairment charge in the range of $50 million to $55 million for the impairment of goodwill and intangibles recorded by Crown Bank. These amounts are preliminary estimates and are subject to change as RGF finalizes the accounting for the sale of Crown Bank and the restatement of its consolidated financial statements. This impairment charge is not expected to result in any future cash expenditures.
