7. Important Tax Information: Substitute Form W-9. Each surrendering shareholder is required to provide Registrar and Transfer Company with such holder's correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) on the above Substitute Form W-9 and to certify whether the shareholder is subject to backup withholding. If such holder is an individual, the TIN is his or her Social Security number. A holder must cross out item (2) in Part 2 of Substitute Form W-9 if such holder is subject to backup withholding.

Certain holders, (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are exempt from these backup withholding and reporting requirements. Exempt holders should indicate their exempt status by checking the box in the Substitute Form W-9 above. ELECTION INFORMATION BOOKLET

The Election Information Booklet provides answers to frequently asked questions regarding how to make your election in connection with the proposed merger of River City Bank with and into Village Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. This booklet does not contain all of the information that is important to you and we urge you to read carefully the instructions in the Election Form and the Letter of Transmittal (the Election Form). After reviewing these materials, please complete the Election Form and send it in the enclosed envelope, along with your River City Bank stock certificate(s) or a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, to Registrar and Transfer Company (the Exchange Agent). If you have additional questions after reading this material, you should contact Registrar and Transfer Company at 800-368-5948.

The deadline for receipt of your Election Form and stock certificates (or Notice of Guaranteed Delivery) is 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 25, 2008. We anticipate that the effective date of the merger will occur in the fourth quarter of 2008 pending the successful completion of a number of conditions, including the approval of the River City Bank and Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. shareholders.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Why have I been sent an Election Form?

On March 9, 2008, River City Bank, Village Bank and Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. entered into a Merger Agreement whereby River City Bank will merge with and into Village Bank. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, you, as a River City Bank shareholder, have the opportunity to elect how you will exchange your shares of River City Bank stock. You may elect to receive one share of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock, $11.00 in cash, or a combination of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock and cash, for the shares of River City Bank common stock that you own. You also have the option to elect no preference as to whether you receive cash, shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock or a combination thereof.

2. What is the Election Form?

The enclosed Election Form does two things. First, it lets us know your preferred form of payment for your shares of River City Bank common stock (i.e., cash, shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock or a combination of both). Second, it allows you to surrender your River City Bank stock certificate(s) in order to receive payment for the shares of River City Bank common stock you own upon completion of the merger.

3. How do I use the Election Form?

You should refer to the back page of the Election Form for a complete set of instructions. A summary of the instructions follows:

When completed, sign and date the Election Form, indicating how you want to receive payment for your shares of River City Bank common stock, and mail it to Registrar and Transfer Company in the enclosed envelope, along with your River City Bank stock certificates (or a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery as described in the answer to Question 9). Do not sign the back of your stock certificates. By signing the Election Form, you agree to surrender for exchange your stock certificate(s), you confirm that your tax identification number is correctly stated on the Election Form, and you confirm that you have complied with all the requirements as stated in the instructions. Please note that if your shares are held in a joint account, signatures of both owners are required on the Election Form.

If you are mailing stock certificates, we recommend that you make copies of your stock certificates and completed Election Form. We also recommend sending them by registered mail, return receipt requested, and insured for at least 1.5% of the market value. This is the amount that it commonly costs to replace a lost certificate. Please do not return any documents directly to River City Bank or Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp.

4. What happens if I do not send in the Election Form or if I miss the election deadline?

If you do not respond, or if Registrar and Transfer Company does not receive your Election Form prior to the election deadline, or if your Election Form is not completed properly, you will be deemed to have made a no preference election as to the form of consideration to be received in exchange for your shares of River City Bank common stock. As a result, as provided in the Merger Agreement, you will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock in exchange for 80% of your shares of River City Bank common stock and cash in exchange for 20% of your shares of River City Bank common stock.

5. Am I guaranteed to receive what I ask for on the Election Form?

No. Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. cannot ensure that all River City Bank shareholders will receive their election choices.

The Merger Agreement contains allocation and proration provisions that are designed to ensure that 80% of the outstanding shares of common stock of River City Bank will be exchanged for shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock and the remaining 20% of the outstanding shares of River City Bank common stock will be exchanged for cash. After the election deadline, Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. and the Exchange Agent will calculate the amount of cash and/or shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock to be distributed to each River City Bank shareholder based on all valid elections received and in accordance with the allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement (which was attached as Annex A to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated as of August 12, 2008, and mailed to you under separate cover).

If River City Bank shareholders elect to receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock for more than 80% of the outstanding shares of River City Bank common stock, the amount of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock that shareholders electing to receive all stock would receive from Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. will be reduced on a pro rata basis. As a result, these River City Bank shareholders will receive cash consideration for any River City Bank shares for which they do not receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock and all River City Bank shareholders who have elected to receive cash will receive cash for their River City Bank shares.

If River City Bank shareholders elect to receive cash for more than 20% of the outstanding shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock, the amount of cash that shareholders electing to receive all cash would receive from Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. will be reduced on a pro rata basis. As a result, these River City Bank shareholders will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock for any River City Bank shares for which they do not receive cash and all River City Bank shareholders who have elected to receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock.

If you do not make an election, you will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock in exchange for 80% of your shares of River City Bank common stock and cash in exchange for 20% of your shares of River City Bank common stock.

Neither River City Bank nor Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. is making any recommendation as to whether River City Bank shareholders should elect to receive cash or Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock in the merger. Each River City Bank shareholder must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

6. When can I expect to receive my new stock certificates and/or cash?

Assuming that you have made a proper election by the election deadline, we expect that your check and/or Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. stock certificate(s) will be mailed to you within approximately 10 days after the effective date of the merger, which we expect to happen in the fourth quarter of 2008.

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated, Registrar and Transfer Company will promptly return any River City Bank common stock certificates previously submitted with the Election Form. In such event, certificates representing River City Bank common stock held directly by registered holders will be returned by registered mail. If a shareholder prefers an alternate form of return other than by registered mail, the alternate form of return will be made only at the written direction of the holder of River City Bank common stock. It will be made at their expense and risk, and will require a pre-paid, pre-addressed return courier envelope to be sent to the Exchange Agent.

7. What if I cannot locate my River City Bank stock certificate(s)?

If your River City Bank stock certificate(s) has (have) been lost, stolen or destroyed, you should contact the Registrar and Transfer Company at 800-368-5948 for further instructions before submitting your election form.

8. What if I hold any of my shares of River City Bank common stock with a broker, bank or other nominee?

You should promptly contact your broker, bank or other nominee and follow their instructions as to the procedures for exchanging your shares of River City Bank common stock.

9. What if my River City Bank stock certificates are not immediately available or time will not permit my River City Bank stock certificates to be delivered to the Exchange Agent prior to the election deadline?

You may make an election without your River City Bank stock certificates if you submit with your properly completed Election Form the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery included in this package and follow the instructions in that document.

10. If I elect to receive cash and the merger is completed, how much cash will I receive?

Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. will pay you $11.00 in cash for each share of River City Bank common stock you own, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the Merger Agreement (see Question 5).

11. If I elect to receive shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock and the merger is completed, how many shares will I receive?

You will receive one share of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock for each share of River City Bank common stock you own, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the Merger Agreement (see Question 5), plus cash in lieu of fractional shares you would otherwise receive, as described in the Merger Agreement.

12. If I elect to receive a combination of cash and shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock and the merger is completed, what will I receive?

You will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock in exchange for 80% of your shares of River City Bank common stock and cash in exchange for 20% of your shares of River City Bank common stock.

13. If I elect no preference, what will I receive?

You will receive Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock in exchange for 80% of your shares of River City Bank common stock and cash in exchange for 20% of your shares of River City Bank common stock.

14. Will I have to pay taxes on the proceeds if my shares are exchanged?

Generally, an exchange involving cash will be treated as a transaction in which gain (or possibly loss) will be recognized. You may refer to the discussion of Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated August 12, 2008, which previously was provided to you. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your tax advisor for a complete understanding of the tax effects of the merger to you, including the application and effect of foreign, state, local or other tax laws.

15. Are there any fees associated with the exchange of my River City Bank stock certificate(s)?

There are no fees associated with the exchange, unless you need to replace a missing River City Bank stock certificate.

16. May I continue to trade my shares after I surrender my stock certificate(s)?

No. Once you submit your River City Bank stock certificates with your Election Form, you may no longer trade your shares of River City Bank common stock unless you revoke your election before the election deadline.

17. Can I change or revoke my election?

Because we are the holder of record for your shares, only we can make an election for your shares in accordance with your instructions. Please instruct us on how to exchange your shares of River City Bank common stock for cash, shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock or a combination of cash and shares of Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. common stock. If you do not make an election, we will not make an election for you.

Please note the following:

The election period expires at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 25, 2008. Unless we have otherwise advised you, it is imperative that we receive your instructions prior to our processing deadline.

Similarly, if shareholders owning more than 20% of the outstanding shares of River City Bank common stock elect to receive cash for such shares, the amount of cash that each such River City Bank shareholder electing all cash would receive from Village Bank and Trust Financial Corp. will be reduced on a pro rata basis. GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION

NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,

A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,

An estate (other than a foreign estate), or

A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

Edgar Filing: Village Bank & Trust Financial Corp. - Form 425

The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and

The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a saving clause. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called backup withholding. Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

(Rev. October 2007)

Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service

Form W-9 (Rev. 10-2007)

Page 2

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules regarding partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN.
