Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 29, 2010, Fiserv, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement), among the Company and the financial institutions parties thereto. The Credit Agreement replaced the Company's existing $900 million revolving credit facility. The Company intends to use the new revolving credit facility for general corporate purposes.

The Credit Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility that matures on September 29, 2014. The initial maximum aggregate amount of availability under the revolving credit facility is $1 billion, of which no amounts were drawn as of September 29, 2010. Availability under the revolving credit facility is reduced by outstanding letters of credit, which were approximately $30 million as of September 29, 2010. The Company may increase the maximum aggregate amount of availability under the revolving credit facility to up to $1.35 billion if certain conditions are satisfied, including the absence of any default or event of default under the Credit Agreement at the time of the increase and the Company obtaining the consent of the lenders participating in the increase.

The Company may borrow, repay and re-borrow amounts under the Credit Agreement from time to time until the maturity of the revolving credit facility. Voluntary prepayments and commitment reductions under the Credit Agreement are permitted at any time without fee (other than the reimbursement of customary breakage costs relating to LIBOR-based borrowings) upon proper notice.

The facility fee, the participation fee with respect to participations in letters of credit and the interest rate margin for outstanding amounts fluctuate based upon the Company's long-term debt rating in effect from time to time, and the Company believes they reflect market rates.

The Credit Agreement contains various restrictions and covenants applicable to the Company and, with certain exceptions, its subsidiaries. Among other requirements, the Company must (1) limit its consolidated indebtedness as of the end of each fiscal quarter to no more than three and one-half times the Company's consolidated net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, non-cash charges and certain other adjustments (EBITDA) during the period of four fiscal quarters then ended, and (2) maintain EBITDA of at least three times its consolidated interest expense as of the end of each fiscal quarter for the period of four fiscal quarters then ended. In each case, the Credit Agreement provides for the calculation of EBITDA giving pro forma effect to acquisitions and dispositions during the period to which such calculation relates.

All borrowings under the Credit Agreement are unsecured. However, certain material domestic subsidiaries of the Company will unconditionally guarantee the obligations from time to time arising under the Credit Agreement, and the Company will unconditionally guarantee the obligations of its foreign subsidiaries that from time to time become borrowers under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default. If an event of default under the Credit Agreement occurs and is continuing, then the administrative agent may declare any outstanding obligations under the Credit Agreement to be immediately due and payable. In addition, if the Company or any of its material subsidiaries becomes the subject of voluntary or involuntary proceedings under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, then any outstanding obligations under the Credit Agreement will automatically become immediately due and payable.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 4 and incorporated herein by reference.
