Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 29, 2012, Altera Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) among the Company, the lenders party thereto and Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent, Swing Line Lender and L/C Issuer.

The Credit Agreement provides for a $250.0 million unsecured revolving line of credit and is scheduled to mature on June 29, 2017 (the Maturity Date). During the term of the Credit Agreement, the Company may request, subject to certain requirements, up to two one-year extensions of the Maturity Date. The Credit Agreement also contains an increase option permitting the Company, subject to certain requirements, to arrange with existing lenders and/or new lenders to provide up to an aggregate of $250.0 million in additional commitments. Proceeds of loans made under the Credit Agreement may be used for working capital, capital expenditures and other lawful corporate purposes, including without limitation the repurchase by the Company of its stock. The Company may prepay the loans under the Credit Agreement in whole or in part at any time without premium or penalty.

The loans bear interest, at the Company's option, at a base rate determined in accordance with the Credit Agreement, plus a spread of 0.0% to 0.35%, or a LIBOR rate plus a spread of 0.69% to 1.35%, in each case with such spread determined based on the debt rating of the Company's non-credit enhanced, senior unsecured long-term debt, or, if such rating is not available, then its corporate family rating. Principal, together with all accrued and unpaid interest, is due and payable on the Maturity Date.

The Company is also obligated to pay a quarterly commitment fee, payable in arrears, based on the available commitments at a rate of 0.06% to 0.15%, with such rate determined based on the Company's debt rating as described above.

The Credit Agreement contains customary affirmative and negative covenants. Affirmative covenants include, among other things, delivery of financial statements, compliance certificates and notices; maintenance of properties and insurance; preservation of existence; and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Negative covenants include, among other things, limitations on liens; limitations on subsidiary indebtedness; limitations on mergers, consolidations and sales of assets; changes in the nature of the business; and limitations on affiliate transactions. The Credit Agreement also requires the Company to maintain a consolidated debt to capitalization ratio of no more than 0.50 to 1.00, and liquidity of no less than $1.0 billion, in each case determined in accordance with the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default including, among other things, payment defaults, breaches of covenants or representations and warranties, cross-defaults with certain other indebtedness, bankruptcy and insolvency events and change in control of the Company, subject to grace periods in certain instances. Upon an event of default, the lenders may declare all or a portion of the outstanding obligations payable by the Company to be immediately due and payable and exercise other rights and remedies provided for under the Credit Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant
