Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) On October 8, 2014, Bankrate, Inc. (the Company) terminated Edward J. DiMaria's employment with the Company for cause, effective immediately, as a result of his notifying the Company and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) of his decision not to cooperate in the previously announced investigation by the SEC of certain financial reporting matters (the SEC Investigation).

Item 8.01 Other Events

The United States Department of Justice (the DOJ) has informed the Company that it is investigating the matters that are the subject of the previously announced SEC Investigation. The Company is cooperating with the DOJ in its investigation. It is not possible to predict when the DOJ investigation will be completed, the final outcome of the investigation, and what if any actions may be taken by the DOJ.

In September 2014, a putative class action lawsuit, captioned Tong v. Evans, et al., No. 14-cv-8113, was brought in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida against the Company and certain current and former officers and directors of the Company, alleging violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and SEC Rule 10b-5. On the basis of the press release and Form 8-K issued by the Company on September 15, 2014 regarding the SEC Investigation and the review being conducted by the Company's Audit Committee, the complaint alleges, among other things, that the defendants made false and misleading statements about, and failed to disclose, alleged errors in the Company's financial statements relating to the improper recognition of revenues and expenses, and allegedly inadequate internal controls over financial reporting; and that, as a result, the Company's financial statements were materially false and misleading. The complaint seeks to recover damages on behalf of a proposed class consisting of all persons, other than the defendants, who purchased the Company's securities between March 1, 2013 and September 15, 2014, inclusive.
