Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 3, 2015, NuVasive, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit overturned the damages award in the Company's ongoing patent lawsuit with Medtronic Sofamor Danek USA, Inc. and Warsaw Orthopedic, Inc. on March 2, 2015. A copy of this press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

NuVasive cautions you that statements included in this news release that are not a description of historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors which, if they do not materialize or prove correct, could cause NuVasive's results to differ materially from historical results or those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties which contribute to the uncertain nature of these statements include, among others, the risk that the outcome of a retrial in the District Court may not be favorable with regard to damages, including with respect to past or ongoing royalties, and risks associated with acceptance of the Company's minimally disruptive surgical products by spine surgeons, development and acceptance of new products or product enhancements, expansion of our network of sales representatives, risks associated with litigation actions which could cause the Company to incur significant legal expenses and/or prevent it from making, using or selling certain of the Company's products, and the other risks and uncertainties described in NuVasive's news releases and periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. NuVasive's public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission are available at www.sec.gov. NuVasive assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances arising after the date on which it was made.
