Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 22, 2015, Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (the Company), entered into change in control and severance agreements with the following four named executive officers (as such term is defined by Item 5.02 of Form 8-K): Christopher A. Ciavarra, Nicholas V. Flanagan, Edward A. Greene and Lawrence E. Hyatt. These agreements replace the change in control and severance agreements previously in place between the Company and these four named executive officers. Under these agreements, which have a three-year term, these four named executive officers will receive severance benefits of 12 months base salary plus one additional week of base salary for each year of service greater than 15 (all up to a maximum total payment of 18 months salary), as a result of termination of their employment by the Company other than for cause (as defined in the agreements). In addition, if (i) the Company undergoes a change in control (as defined in the agreements) and (ii) the named executive officer is terminated without cause or terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in the agreements) within two years after such an event, then the named executive officer will receive the following:

2.00 times the sum of (i) their average base salary during the three years prior to termination and (ii) their average bonus payments during the three years prior to termination;

18 months continuation of benefits under COBRA, reimbursed by the Company; and

Acceleration of all unvested equity awards (stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance shares, market stock units).

The receipt of the severance benefits under the agreements is conditioned upon the execution of an unconditional release from all charges, complaints and claims, including attorney fees, based on employment with the Company, or the termination of that employment, by such named executive officer at the time of the severance event. None of the applicable officers has a right under these change in control agreements or otherwise to receive any gross-up payment to reimburse such executive officer for any excise tax under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Additionally, these agreements obligate the Company's named executive officers (i) not to work as an employee or consultant for any multi-unit restaurant business that offers full service family or casual dining for a period of one year following the severance event and (ii) not to solicit the employees or customers of the Company for a period of 18 months following the severance event.
