INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 23, 2015, WSFS Financial Corporation, or WSFS, announced that it entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, or the Agreement, with Penn Liberty Financial Corp., or Penn Liberty, providing for, among other things, the merger of Penn Liberty with and into WSFS, or the Merger, and the merger of Penn Liberty Bank, a Pennsylvania-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Penn Liberty, with and into Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, a federal savings bank and wholly owned subsidiary of WSFS. Under the terms of the Agreement, the total transaction is valued at approximately $101 million. Each shareholder of Penn Liberty will be able to elect to receive, for each of their shares of Penn Liberty common stock, either 0.6601 shares of WSFS common stock or $21.75 in cash, subject to an overall allocation of 60% WSFS common stock and 40% cash. The Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and approval from Penn Liberty's shareholders.

On November 23, 2015, WSFS issued a press release announcing the signing of the Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Presentation materials concerning the Merger, which will be available on WSFS' website at www.wsfsbank.com, are attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statement Disclaimer

This communication contains estimates, predictions, opinions, projections and other forward-looking statements as that phrase is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, without limitation, references to WSFS' and Penn Liberty's predictions or expectations of future business or financial performance as well as their respective goals and objectives for future operations, financial and business trends, business prospects, and management's outlook or expectations for earnings, revenues, expenses, capital levels, liquidity levels, asset quality or other future financial or business performance, strategies or expectations.

Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, target, estimate, continue, positions, prospects or potential, by future conditional verbs such as will, would, should, may, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. Such forward-looking statements are based on various assumptions (some of which may be beyond the control of WSFS and Penn Liberty) and are subject to risks and uncertainties (which change over time) and other factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in WSFS' reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and those identified elsewhere in this document, the following factors among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the Merger, including approval by Penn Liberty shareholders on the expected terms and schedule; delay in closing the Merger; difficulties and delays in integrating Penn Liberty's business or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits of the Merger; business disruption following the Merger; changes in asset quality and credit risk; the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth; changes in interest rates and capital markets; inflation; customer acceptance of WSFS products and services; customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices; customer disintermediation; the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives; competitive conditions; the inability to realize cost savings or revenues or to implement integration plans and other consequences associated with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; economic conditions; and the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, and other actions of the Federal Reserve Board and legislative and regulatory actions and reforms.

Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purpose only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.
