Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On September 6, 2017, Builders FirstSource, Inc. (the Company) issued the news release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 announcing the commencement of a public offering of 13,482,177 shares of its common stock to be sold by JLL Building Holdings, LLC (JLL). After completion of the offering JLL will distribute 862,407 shares to its general partner and certain of its limited partners.

The sale of the Company s common stock in this offering is expected to cause the Company to undergo an ownership change under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (a Section 382 Ownership Change), which will impose an annual limitation on the Company s use of certain of its tax attributes, including net operating loss (NOL) and capital loss carryforwards. In its 2017 cash flow from operations and investing activity guidance, the Company assumed that it would not have any U.S. federal income tax liability for its 2017 taxable year as a result of its NOL carryforwards. The Section 382 Ownership Change triggered by this offering is expected to increase the Company s projected federal cash tax payments, and thus lower expected cash flows for the full year 2017 by approximately $15 million. The Company does not expect the tax benefit provided by the Company s NOL and capital loss carryforwards be forfeited, but instead the Company s use of its remaining NOL carryforward of approximately $100 million is expected to be fully utilized by 2020, thus deferring the potential cash flow benefit over three years.
